REASONS FOR PARDONS GRANTED BY THE GOVERNOR FROM JUNE 27, 1932, TO DECEMBER 31, 1932

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, January 3, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to present herewith the reasons for pardons granted by me from June 27, 1932, to December 31, 1932.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Mariano Patelmo: No. 833 June Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Mariano Patelmo, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Chester County, on February 3, 1922, be commuted from fifteen years to ten years, five months, expiring on July 3, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. In 1921, the applicant, a boy twenty-two years of age, together with three other men, all from five to ten years older than he, held up and robbed a bank. The participants in the robbery were captured a few hours later and all the loot was recovered. This was the applicant's first arrest. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. He has been in prison more than eleven years.

2. The trial district attorney, the supervisor of paroles and the officials of the bank recommend clemency.

3. Employment has been assured for the applicant. He will be on parole until 1952.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John J. Heffernan: No. 856 June Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John J. Heffernan, convicted of felonious entry in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia and Montgomery County, on January 2, 1931 to February 6, 1931, be commuted from three years to one year, six months expiring on July 2, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. We believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) This was his first adventure in crime.

(b) The trustees of the penitentiary state, "He has maintained a good degree of prison usefulness, etc."

(c) By the time he can be released he will have served more than one-half of his minimum sentence.

(d) He will be on parole until 1937.

2. The trial district attorney and the supervisor of paroles feel that the sentence should be commuted.

3. The Globe Engineering Company of Philadelphia will employ applicant upon his release.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Robert Williamson: No. 881 June Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Robert Williamson, convicted of breaking and entering and larceny, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Tioga County, on February 24, 1930, be commuted from six years to two years, four months, expiring on June 24, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant, when only eighteen years of age, assisted in a series of burglaries. After a plea of guilty he was sentenced to serve from six to fifteen years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. His prison record has been very good. By the time he can be released he will have served more than two and one-half years of his sentence. He will be on parole until 1945. The trial judge tells us that "leniency would not be weakness if bestowed in the this case."

2. The applicant's representative states that he will not only give the applicant employment, but will take him into his home and sponsor him.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John C. Gardner: No. 852 June Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John C. Gardner, convicted of assault and battery, rape, in the Municipal Court of Philadelphia County, on May 28, 1931, be commuted from two years to one year, one month, expiring on June 28, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant pleaded nolle contendere to two charges of assault and battery. He was adjudged guilty. We believe that he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) Applicant's employment history was excellent prior to the crimes charged.

(b) He had no criminal record.

(c) He took excellent care of his family.

(d) His prison record is very good.

(e) He has served more than one year of his sentence.

(f) He will be on parole until 1935.

2. A firm for which applicant worked for eight years is willing to re-employ him. His wife and child are in need of his support.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Harrison Epps: No. 849 June Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Harrison Epps, convicted of felonious assault and battery to kill, robbery, being armed, highway robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Session of Chester County, on April 28, 1921, be commuted from thirteen and one-half years to eleven years, two months, expiring on June 28, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant, now fifty-three years of age, was convicted of holding up and robbing a man of a watch. He received a sentence of from twenty-two to twenty-seven years in the penitentiary. It was the first time that he was ever arrested. He has served more than twelve years of his sentence. His prison record has been above reproach. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

2. The trustees of the penitentiary and the supervisor of paroles recommed a commutation of sentence.

3. The applicant has been guaranteed employment. He will be on parole until 1948.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Emil J. Brody: No. 840 June Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Emil J. Brody, convicted of (1) entering with intent to steal, larceny and burglary, (2) jail break, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Session of Philadelphia County, on May 4, 1920 and January term 1926, be commuted from (1) twenty-five years and (2) seven and one-half years to (1) eleven years, and (2) one month, expiring on (1) June 11, 1932 and July 11, 1932, respectively.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. In 1920 the petitioner committed a series of burglaries. At no time was he armed. He pleaded guilty and received a sentence of fifteen to twenty-five years. In 1926 he escaped from the penitentiary. He was captured two years later. On the escape charge he was sentenced to serve from seven and one-half years to fifteen years. The new minimum sentence will not expire until 1955. As applicant has been incarcerated more than ten years, we believe that he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) Applicant's partners in the escapes have been released.

(b) Applicant has won the confidence of the penitentiary officials by his irreproachable conduct, and they are convinced that he has been rehabilitated.

2. The applicant is a native of Austria and has agreed to be deported to that country. He is fifty years old. We feel that it will be an act of mercy to permit him to return to his native land.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Albert Langer: No. 798 June Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentences of Albert Langer, convicted of (1) burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods, (2) breaking jail, (3) breaking penitentiary and attempting escape, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of (1 and 2) Lancaster, (3) Philadelphia County, on November 6, 1909, January 15, 1919, December 2, 1926, be commuted from thirty-three years, one year and eight years to twenty-two years, eight months, one month and one month expiring on May 23, June 23 and July 23, 1932 respectively.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. In 1909 the applicant was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for a term of from eight years, three months to thirty-three years. By reason of attempted escapes and the automatic operation of the escape penalty, he has been in prison almost twenty-three years. We believe that he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) The trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state, "he has seemed to successfully face about and receive the confidence of the prison family."

(b) The trial judge, the supervisor of paroles, and the penitentiary officials recommend a commutation.

2. Employment has been assured for the applicant. He will be on parole until 1968.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Louis Barish: No. 836 June Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Louis Barish, convicted of murder, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on November 30, 1928, be commuted from life to three years, seven months, expiring on June 30, 1932, to be on parole for ten years.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. We seriously question the guilt of the applicant. Our reasons follow:

(a) The applicant was convicted of murder in the first degree solely upon the evidence of one person. This person was and is abnormal mentally; his ability to tell the truth is questioned by all who know him.

(b) The trial court upon learning new facts ordered an investigation by the chief county detective. The detective's report concludes, "I am confident that Barish is innocent of this particular affair."

(c) The assistant district attorney who tried the case states in a report to this Board that information received since the trial "leads the assistant district attorney to believe that the conviction of Barish on the testimony of McKissick alone was perhaps an injustice, and should be rectified by action of the Board."

2. We recommend a commutation of sentence with parole supervision for ten years, rather than a pardon, because of the applicant's police record.

3. The applicant has been assured employment.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Walter S. Buchanan: No. 245 June Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Walter S. Buchanan, convicted of forgery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Dauphin County, on July 7, 1930, be commuted from three years to two year expiring on July 7, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant, a sixty-two year old Spanish American War veteran pleaded guilty to a charge of forgery. He was sentenced to serve from three to six years in the penitentiary, and more than two-third of his sentence has been served. His wife, sixty-eight years old, is partially paralyzed and needs his assistance. He has assigned to his wife $45.00 of his $60.00 per month pension.

2. This recommendation is conditioned upon the applicant's return to his home in Virginia. He will be on parole until 1936.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Grant Warren Miller: No. 866 June Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Grant Warren Miller, convicted of breaking and escaping penitentiary, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre county, on April 26, 1927, be commuted from three years to three months, expiring on June 25, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. In 1927 the applicant pleaded guilty to larceny. He was sentenced to serve from three to six years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. A few months later he was transferred to the Rockview Farm Prison. From this place he escaped. He was captured within a few miles of the institution. For this, he received a sentence of from three to six years. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) This was his first offense.

(b) He has been in prison more than six years.

(c) He will be on parole until 1938.

2. The district attorney who conducted the prosecution for the Commonwealth, the supervisor of paroles and the trustees of the penitentiary recommend a commutation.

3. Employment has been assured for the applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Arsenio Aliventi: No. 387 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Arsenio Aliventi, convicted of pandering, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County, on December 8, 1928, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In November, 1931, we recommended a commutation of sentence for the applicant. This recommendation was approved. Since his release he has lived with his wife and child in the state of New York. The New York parole authorities state that he has conducted himself in an exemplary manner.

The applicant is under order of deportation to Italy.

The trial judge states "His threatened deportation would seem an unnecessary hardship in view of the fact that applicant's dependent wife and child are lawful residents of the United States." We concur in this view.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Albion Anderson: No. 1037 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Albion Anderson, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Westmoreland County, on February 20, 1926, be commuted from eight to sixteen years to six years, eleven months, expiring on January 20, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant and three others were convicted of robbery and sentenced to the penitentiary. The applicant always has denied any complicity in the crime. Since the trial the accomplices have all admitted that the applicant was in no way involved in the commission of the act.

The applicant was a first offender. He will have served seven years of his sentence and will be on parole until 1942. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Francis Thomas Rees Belbin: No. 964 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Francis Thomas Rees Belbin, convicted of arson in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Lackawanna County, on November 5, 1927, be cummuted from ten to twenty years to five years, three months, expiring on February 5, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of arson in 1927. He was sentenced to a term of from ten to twenty years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. He has served over five years of his sentence.

The United States Government has lodged a deportation warrant against him at the Eastern State Penitentiary. Our recommendation is conditioned upon the applicant's deportation to Wales, his native country.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Leonard N. Brown: No. 1028 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Leonard N. Brown, convicted of assault, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on May 4, 1932, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was a policeman in Pittsburgh in December of 1931. He was placing under arrest the driver of an automobile who appeared to be intoxicated. The driver resisted arrest by attempting to drive away. In the scuffle the glass in the door was broken and the driver cut about the hards. Some time later the driver had the applicant arrested and convicted on the charge of assault and battery. The applicant was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and placed on probation for three years. As a consequence of the conviction he was suspended from the police force. He was the sole support of his wife and child. The home which he was purchasing will be lost unless he obtains employment promptly. The director of public safety of Pittsburgh states that a pardon will remove all obstacles affecting the applicant's eligibility for reinstatement on the police force.

The district attorney and supervisor of paroles recommend a pardon.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
GIFFORD PINCHOT.
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of F. L. Carson: No. 195 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of F. L. Carson, convicted of breaking and escaping penitentiary, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County, on September 29, 1929, be commuted from one and one-half years to one year, expiring on March 17, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1923, the applicant was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from two to three years on a charge of larceny of an automobile. The same year he escaped from the Rockview Farm Prison. In 1924 he was married. From that time until his arrest for escape he lived an exemplary life. There was evidence of a complete reformation.

On the escape charge he was sentenced to from one and one-half to three years. On his original sentence the back time to be served was two years, five months. The applicant will have served over three and one-half years of the total sentence by March, 1933.

The trial judge recommends clemency. The applicant has a wife and two children entirely dependent upon him for support. He will be on parole until 1935.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Peter Catone: No. 11 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Peter Catone, convicted of highway robbery, larceny, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Beaver County, on January 18, 1930, be commuted from five to three years, expiring on January 18, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was sentenced in 1930 to the Western State Penitentiary for from five to ten years, on the charges of robbery and larceny. At the time of sentence he was only twenty years of age. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons are as follows:

1. This was his first offense.
2. His employment and conduct record during his imprisonment have been excellent.
3. He will have served over three years of his sentence by the time he can be released.

The trial judge, supervisor of paroles, and the trustees of the penitentiary recommend clemency for the applicant.

Employment has been assured. The applicant will be on parole until 1940.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Peter Chrusch: No. 368 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Peter Chrusch, convicted of second degree murder, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Lackawanna County, on February 7, 1924, be commuted from ten years to nine years, expiring on February 7, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

We believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons are as follows:

1. He will have served over nine years of his sentence.
2. His conduct and employment record during his incarceration have been excellent.
3. This was his first offense.

The trial judge and district attorney recommend clemency. The applicant will be on parole until 1944. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Thomas Collins: No. 1058 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Thomas Collins, convicted of first degree murder, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery of Cumberland County, on November 23, 1926, be commuted from life imprisonment to six years, two months, expiring on January 23, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant shot and killed an intoxicated man who attempted to attack him. He pleaded not guilty and was convicted of first degree murder. He was sentenced to life imprisonment.

The applicant is ninety-two years of age and in good mental and physical condition. We feel, on account of his advanced age, that a commutation of sentence would be an act of mercy.

Reputable citizens of Carlisle, the applicant's home town, guarantee sufficient work to enable him to support himself.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Francis Desmond: No. 1030 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Francis Desmond, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Lawrence County, on August 1, 1931, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of robbery and sentenced to from three and one-half to ten years in the Western State Penitentiary in 1931. Prior to this time he had never been convicted of any crime.

In the report from the trustees of the Western State Penitentiary, it is stated that there is a possibility of intentional mis-identification.

The trial judge in a letter dated October 29, 1932, states that since the trial he has learned of some facts which indicate that the applicant was innocent and "that the jury had made a mistake."

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Andrew Dibrino: No. 478 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Andrew Dibrino, convicted of escaping penitentiary, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County, on July 13, 1929, be commuted from one year, six months to seven months, expiring on January 19, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows: The applicant was sentenced to serve a term of from one and one-half to four years on the charges of larceny and receiving stolen goods. He escaped from the Rockview Farm Prison and on this charge received a like sentence. He has already served the maximum of his original sentence.

A deportation warrant has been lodged against him. The trial district attorney, trial judge, and the supervisor of paroles recommend a commutation for deportation. Our recommendation is conditioned upon applicant's return to his native country.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Vernon Fitzgerald: No. 1054 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Vernon Fitzgerald, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Bucks County, on December 2, 1930, be commuted from four years to two years, two months, expiring on February 2, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows: The applicant and two others were implicated in a robbery. The accomplices pleaded guilty and have been paroled. The applicant, on advice of counsel, pleaded not guilty, and was convicted and sentenced to a term of from four to eight years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. The trial judge states that if he had known all of the facts he probably would have imposed a shorter term of imprisonment.

The applicant's mother, wife and daughter are entirely dependent upon him for support. He will be on parole until 1938. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Walter A. George: No. 1047 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Walter A. George, convicted of felony (larceny of chickens), in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Juniata County, on September 2, 1930, be computed from four years to two years, five months, expiring on February 2, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows: The applicant was involved in a number of chicken thefts. He was convicted on three charges of larceny and received a sentence of from four to nine years. The district attorney and the trustees of the penitentiary state that the applicant was one of the most recent additions to the gang and was in no way a ring leader. He will have served approximately two and one-half years of his sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. His work and conduct record while in prison have been excellent.

The applicant has a wife and six children who are dependent upon him for their support. He will be on parole until 1939 Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Clarence Edward Heitman: No. 1060 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Clarence Edward Heitman, convicted of forgery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on December 16, 1929, be commuted from five years to three years, one month, expiring on January 16, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows: The applicant was convicted of forgery and sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not less than five nor more than ten years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. Since his incarceration he has been employed in the parole office and as chief clerk to the deputy warden. He has enjoyed the fullest confidence of the prison officials. This was his first offense. He has served over three years of his sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The applicant will be on parole until 1939. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Robert E. Holliday: No. 490 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Robert E. Holliday, convicted of larceny of chickens, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lackawanna County, on March 27, 1931, be commuted from three years to one year, ten months, expiring on January 27, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant, a first offender, pleaded guilty to stealing a few chickens. He was sentenced to from three to six years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. By the time he can be released he will have served almost two-thirds of his minimum sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The trial judge, trustees of the penitentiary and the supervisor of paroles recommend a commutation of sentence. The applicant will be on parole until 1937.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,

In re application of Theodore Horst Kleffel: No. 1038 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Theodore Horst Kleffel, convicted of sodomy, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on July 11, 1927, be commuted from ten years to five years, seven months expiring on February 11, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

We believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons are as follows:

1. The board of trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state, in a report dated November 3, 1932, as follows:

"Our confidence in this man's ability to live free from further crime has been established.

"We also know that with no difficulty he will secure employment.

"We are, therefore, disposed to feel that in this case five years has been ample punishment for one of his education and former social standing."

2. Circumstances surrounding the conviction lend some credence to the applicant's contention of innocence.

3. He has served over five and one-half years of his sentence and will be on parole until 1947.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Israel Lazar: No. 1048 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Israel Lazar, convicted of sedition, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on April 10, 1931, be commuted from two years to seven months expiring on February 1, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is a naturalized Roumanian Jew. In August, 1928, afer receiving a permit, he made a public speech to about fifty people in favor of William Z. Foster, Communist candidate for president in the then approaching election.

There was no disorder or violence. There was no evidence that the applicant advocated any illegal act. He was arrested and convicted of sedition and sentenced to a term of imprisonment of from two to four years in the Eastern State Penitentiary and fined $250.00.

We believe the term of imprisonment was excessive. By the time he can be released applicant will have served approximatly seven months of his sentence. Accordingly we believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The applicant will be on parole until 1936. Employment has been assured.

In re application of Cristofaro Murano: No. 1053 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Cristofaro Murano, convicted of first degree murder, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on February 2, 1923, be commuted from life imprisonment to ten years expiring on February 2, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of first degree murder. He was sentenced to death. This sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. We recommend a further commutation. Our reasons are as follows:

1. The medical department of the Eastern State Penitentiary, submitted a report to the effect that the applicant showed signs of the final stage of Banti's disease and that the prognosis was poor.

2. The applicant is subject to, and our recommendation is contingent upon, his deportation to Italy.

In re application of John Obleski: No. 748 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Obleski, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Potter County, on October 4, 1929, be commuted from four years to three years, eight months, expiring on February 4, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of robbery and received a sentence of from four to eight years. The trial judge states that as a result of an investigation he recommends that the minimum sentence be commuted. The trial district attorney joins in this recommendation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1937. Employment has been assured.

In re application of Lawrence Francis O'Leary: No. 476 December, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Lawrence Francis O'Leary, convicted of robbery, receiving stolen goods, escaping penitentiary, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on April 8, 1924 and March 29, 1925 (escape), be commuted from sixteen years-six years (escape) to eight years, eight months-one month (escape) expiring on December 30, 1932 and January 30, 1933 (escape).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant received a sentence of from eight to sixteen years in the Western State Penitentiary on the charges of robbery and receiving stolen goods in 1924. He escaped in 1925 and was recaptured within twenty-four hours. On the escape charge he was sentenced to an additional term of from six to twelve years. He has served over eight and one-half years of his original sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The present judge of the court in which the applicant was sentenced recommends a commutation of sentence.

The applicant will be on parole until 1952. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,

In re application of Joseph L. Pelton: No. 348 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph L. Pelton, convicted of larceny by bailee, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Erie County, on September 10, 1929, be commuted from five and one-half years to three years, five months, expiring on February 10, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was engaged in the brokerage business. During the decline in the stock market in 1929 he converted some of his clients' money to his own use to cover certain losses. He was convicted of larceny by bailee, and sentenced to from five and one-half to twelve years in the Western State Penitentiary.

We believe applicant has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follows:

1. This was his first offense.
2. He has served over three years of his sentence.
3. His conduct and employment record during his incarceration have been excellent.
4. He is sixty-two years of age and suffering from intermittment claudication.

The applicant will be on parole until 1941. His family are able, and have expressed a willingness, to care for him.

In re application of George Trussler, al. Tressler: No. 1045 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of George Trussler, al. Tresler, convicted of assault and battery to ravish, enticing a minor, rape, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on September 29, 1926, be commuted from seven years to six years, four months, expiring on January 29, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of assault and battery to ravish, rape, enticing a minor, etc., and sentenced to from twenty-one to forty-two years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. He is now sixty-seven years of age. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follows:

1. This was his first offense.
2. He has been imprisoned for over six years.
3. His conduct and employment record during his incarceration have been excellent.
4. The trial judge states that nothing can be gained by further imprisonment.

W. J. Freihofer has guaranteed employment for the applicant, who will be on parole until 1968.

In re application of Joseph Zuby: No. 1027 December Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph Zuby, convicted of aggravated assault and battery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on February 10, 1928, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was a police officer in Pittsburgh, Pa. He was attempting to arrest a man visibly under the influence of liquor. The man resisted and it was necessary to use force to keep him in custody. The applicant was convicted of aggravated assault and battery and was placed on probation for one year. The conviction resulted in his removal from the police force. The director of public safety of Pittsburgh states that a pardon will remove all obstacles affecting the applicant's eligibility to the police force.

The district attorney of Allegheny County states in regard to the applicant's petition, "There was much provocation for his act and I, therefore, recommend that he be granted a pardon." The supervisor of paroles also recommends a pardon. We concur in these views.

In re application of John Patrick King: No. 933 July (Special) Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Patrick King, convicted of assault, being armed with an offensive weapon, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 23, 1929, be commuted from ten years to three years, one month, expiring on June 23, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant has tuberculosis of the lungs. He has lost ground rapidly during the last few weeks. His death is imminent.

The board of trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and District Attorney Kelley recommend a commutation of sentence in order that the applicant may be taken home to die. We approve these recommendations.

In re application of Loris M. Shepardson: No. 934 July Session, 1392.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Loris M. Shepardson, convicted of larceny and receiving stolen goods, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County, on January 24, 1930, be commuted from two years to one month, expiring on June 26, 1932, to remain on parole until May 26, 1934.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. In January, 1930, the applicant pleaded guilty to the charges of larceny and receiving stolen goods. He was sentenced to from two to four years in the penitentiary, term of imprisonment to be computed from date of commitment,

October 28, 1929. On October 28, 1931, the applicant was released on parole. The applicant's behavior while on parole was exemplary until May, 1932, when he was convicted on a charge of assault and battery. He was placed on probation for one year. This was changed later to a sentence of five days. Investigation by the agents of the board of trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary disclosed facts which lead them to unanimously recommend the applicant for a commutation of sentence. This recommendation we approve.

2. The applicant will be on parole for one year and eleven months.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Clarence Heitzenrater, convicted of breaking and entering, larceny, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Indiana County, on March 17, 1930, be commuted from three years to two years, six months, expiring on September 17, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was implicated in a series of chicken thefts. He pleaded guilty to the charges and received a sentence of from three to six years. The applicant has served two and one-half years of his sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

2. The applicant's wife and six children are dependent upon him for support. The Indiana County commissioners recommend clemency and guarantee employment.

3. The trial judge and the trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary recommend clemency. The applicant will be on parole until 1936.

In re application of Harry Lessner: No. 902 September Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Harry Lessner, convicted of murder (first degree, May 1922-commuted to life imprisonment), in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on December 9, 1921, be commuted from life imprisonment to a minimum of ten years and a maximum of twenty years, expiring on December 9, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant, then eighteen years old, and George Jackel attempted to rob a store in Philadelphia in 1921. Jackel had a criminal record and was seventeen years older than the applicant. They were frightened in the attempt and started to run away. The applicant was hemmed in by an angry mob. The crowd began to strike him. He drew his revolver and in the excitement it was discharged. An innocent bystander was killed. The applicant and Jackel pleaded not guilty to the charge of murder. The applicant was found guilty of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to death. In May, 1922, the sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. Jackel was found guilty of murder in the second degree and was sentenced to from twelve to twenty years. He is now on parole. We believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follows:

(a) This was applicant's first offense.

(b) He is in very serious physical condition, and, we are informed, will become fatally ill unless he gets outside treatment.

(c) He has been imprisoned for over eleven years.

2. The trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state, "A responsible sponsor and an absolute guarantee of a permanent job are the only conditions which in our judgment should prevent his release from prison." At least four responsible companies are willing to employ applicant. Dr. Nathan Blumberg, Philadelphia, Pa., will take care of his physical welfare and if necessary have him admitted to a hospital.

In re application of Earl Scott Cain: No. 887 September Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Earl Scott Cain, convicted of embezzlement and forgery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on August 13, 1931, be commuted from two years to one year, one month, expiring on September 13, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The trial judge in a letter dated May 16, 1932, and addressed to this Board stated, "I am inclined to believe that the minimum sentence I gave this young man is too long, and that one year in the penitentiary and the balance of his term on parole would be sufficient punishment and ample protection to the public. I therefore respectfully submit that commutation at the end of a year from the date of his sentence would be justifiable consideration for this young man."

2. The applicant will be on parole until 1941. Employment has been guaranteed by Mr. N. M. Cahen, Coraopolis, Pa.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Coward, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Westemoreland County, on February 20, 1926, be commuted from seven years to six years, seven months, expiring on September 20, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant pleaded guilty to the charge of robbery. He was sentenced to from seven to fourteen years. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) He has served over six and one-half years of his minimum sentence.

(b) His conduct record during the period of his incarceration has been excellent.

2. Dr. J. W. Claudy, superintendent of the Rockview Farm Prison states, "that in giving a man of this character 'a break,' it may be beneficial to the morale of the institution."

3. The applicant wil lbe on parole until 1940.

In re application of Frank Anton Brenner: No. 885 September Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Frank Anton Brenner, convicted of arson, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 28, 1928, be commuted from ten years to four years, four months, expiring on September 28, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant pleaded not guilty to the charge of arson. Of German origin he spoke English very brokenly. At the trial no interpreter was furnished and he was without counsel. He was convicted entirely on circumstantial evidence of a flimsy nature. We believe there is considerable doubt as to his guilt. He has served over four years of his sentence.

2. The applicant's conduct record while in prison has been excellent. The supervisor of paroles recommends a commutation.

3. Employment has been assured by the H. A. Dunker and Company of Millville, N. J. The applicant will be on parole until 1948.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Mode Auman: No. 671 September Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pradons recommend that the minimum sentence of Mode Auman, convicted of breaking, entering and larceny, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County, on September 13, 1929, be commuted from five years to three years, expiring on September 13, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant pleaded guilty to breaking and entering and larceny. He received a sentence of from five to ten years in the Western State Penitentiary. We believe that he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) This was his first offense.

(b) He has been in prison for over three and one-half years.

(c) He has an excellent prison record.

(d) The property stolen was valued at approximately $100.00 and practically all was recovered.

2. The applicant's wife and seven children are dependent upon him and are in destitute circumstances.

3. The applicant will be on parole until 1939. Employment has been guaranteed by A. L. Auman, Coburn, Pa.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Earl W. Maybee: No. 278 September Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Earl W. Maybee, convicted of murder, second degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Armstrong County, on December 20, 1927, be commuted from ten years to four years, nine months, expiring on September 20, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. On December 20, 1927, the applicant was sentenced to from ten to twenty years for murder in the second degree. On June 18, 1932, the trial judge made a statement to this Board, as follows: "Since the trial of the case certain facts have been brougt to light which I have thoroughly considered. I wish at this time to recommend to your Honorable Board that he be granted a pardon." The special prosecuting counsel recommends clemency.

2. The applicant will be on parole until 1947. Employment has been guaranteed by William Atkin, Huntingdon, N. Y.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Omer Morrison: No. 910 September Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Omer Morrison, convicted of larceny, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Juniata County, on September 2, 1930, be commuted from four years to two years, expiring on September 2, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant and six accomplices were implicated in a series of chicekn thefts. All received the sentence of from four to nine years. The applicant has served over one-half of his minimum sentence. It appears that he was the least culpable of the gang. Accordingly we believe he has been sufficiently punished.

2. The applicant's wife and three children are dependent upon him for support. Mr. Arthur Brauw of Liverpool, Pa., guarantees employment.

3. The supervisor of paroles and board of trustees of the Western State Penitentiary recommend favorable consideration. The applicant will be on parole until 1939.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re applicant of Morris Harry Smiley: No. 921 September Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Morris Harry Smiley, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Fayette County, on April 6, 1929, be commuted from four years to three years, five months, expiring on September 6, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant, a first offender, was sentenced to from four to eight years on the charge of robbery. He has served over three and one-half years of his sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

2. The supervisor of paroles and the trustees of the Western State Penitentiary recommend favorable consideration. Dr. Claudy, superintendent, Rockview Farm Prison states that the applicant has an excellent record of service.

3. Employment has been guaranteed by at least two responsible companies. The applicant will be on parole until 1937.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Krick: No. 694 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Krick, convicted of rape, abuse of a woman child under the age of sixteen years, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Mifflin County, on October 28, 1931, be commuted from one and one-half years to one year, expiring on October 28, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant, sixty-three years of age, pleaded not guilty to the charge of rape. He was convicted on the testimony of two witnesses whose reputations were very poor. A report from the Western State Penitentiary states that there is reasonable doubt as to the applicant's guilt. We concur in this view.

The applicant has served over one year of his minimum sentence of one and one-half years. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. He will be on parole until 1934.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Steve Pados: No. 968 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Steve Pados, convicted of statutory rape, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on December 2, 1931, be commuted from three years to ten months expiring on ten months.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant pleaded not guilty to statutory rape. He was found guilty and was sentenced to from three to ten years. A report from the penitentiary states that there is reasonable doubt as to his guilt. The conviction is attributed to the applicant's general ignorance and failure to understand English. A physical examination of the girl involved in the case, disclosed no evidence of rape. We feel that there is substantial doubt as to applicant's guilt.

2. The applicant will be on parole until 1941. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Edwin F. Quinn: No. 950 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members o the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Edwin F. Quinn, convicted of arson, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Chester County on April 29,1931, be commuted from two and one-half years to one year, six months, expiring on October 29, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant and Charles Allison pleaded guilty to arson. They received sentences of from two and one-half to five years. We believe they have been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) This was their first offense.

(b) They have served over one and one-half years of their sentences.

(c) Their prison records are excellent.

2. The applicant has a wife and two children who are in urgent need of his support. He will be on parole until 1936.

3. Neither the local authorities nor the insurance company which paid the fire loss oppose clemency.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Bliss: No. 663 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Bliss, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Delaware County, on June 21, 1929, be commuted from ten years to three years, four months, expiring on October 21, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was convicted of robbery in June, 1929. A sentence of from ten to twenty years was imposed. The only evidence presented against him was the testimony of an eyewitness who had previously identified some one else as the guilty person. We believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) There is considerable doubt in our minds as to applicant's guilt.

(b) He has served over three years of his sentence.

(c) His conduct in the penitentiary has been very good.

(d) The board of trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary states, "It is our feeling that his mind has undergone a wholesome change and that he is not criminal in type."

2. The applicant has been guaranteed employment in New York City. Our recommendation is conditioned upon his return to New York. He will be on parole until 1949.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,

In re application of Francesco Carmolino: No. 966 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Francesco Carmolino, convicted of assault, being armed, robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on January 17, 1922, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant, a parolee from the Eastern State Penitentiary, is living in Long Island, N. Y. He is gainfully employed and is supporting his wife and two children. Unless a pardon is granted he will be deported to Italy, and thus separated from his family. His conduct while on parole has been above reproach.

Accordingly we believe the granting of a pardon will be an entirely proper act of mercy.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

In re application of Clarence Forbes: No. 773 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of hte Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Clarence Forbes, convicted of statutory rape, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on January 9, 1931, be commuted from three years to one year, nine months, expiring on October 9, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was convicted of statutory rape. The report of the trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary states that the prosecutrix was a notorious prostitute who supposedly has married since the commission of the alleged act. Accordingly there is considerable doubt in our minds that the offense committed was stautory rape.

2. Before the applicant can be released he will have served two-thirds of his minimum sentence. He will be on parole until 1941. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,

In re application of James O. Williams: No. 956 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James O. Williams, convicted of voluntary manslaughter, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Beaver County, on March 29, 1928, be commuted from six years to four years, seven months, expiring on October 29, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant shot and killed his brother-in-law in a drunken brawl. He was convicted of voluntary manslaughter and was sentenced to from six to twelve years in the Allegheny County Work House. He has been imprisoned more than four years. This was applicant's first offense. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

2. The supervisor of paroles and the superintendent of the Allegheny County Work House recommend a commutation. The applicant will be on parole until 1940.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Thomas Watson: No. 958 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Thomas Watson, convicted of assault; being armed, entering to commit felony; conspiracy, C. C. D. W., larceny; operating auto without owner's consent, conspiracy, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on April 19, 1926, be commuted from seven and one-half years to six years, six months, expiring on October 19, 1032.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was sentenced to from seven and one-half to fifteen years in the Philadelphia County Prison after a plea of guilty to the charges of assault, entering to commit a felony and larceny. He has served over six and one-half years of his sentence. He was a first offender. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

2. The superintendent of the Philadelphia County Prison and the supervisor of paroles recommend a commutation. Applicant will be on parole until 1941.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

In re application of A. L. Hanford: No. 602 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of A. L. Hanford, convicted of larceny, breaking and entering, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Clarion County, on December 5, 1930, be commuted from three years to one year, ten months expiring on October 5, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant pleaded guilty to breaking and entering and larceny. He was sentenced to from three to six years in the Western State Penitentiary. Three accomplices received lighter sentences. The trial judge writes of the applicant, "I can sincerely recommend him to your favorable consideration." We are satisfied that this is a proper recommendation.

2. The applicant has a wife and six children who need his support. Employment has been assured. Parole supervision will be exercised until 1936.

In re application of Ross H. Hoover: No. 943 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ross H. Hoover, convicted of larceny, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Beaver County, on October 25, 1930, be commuted from four years to two years, expiring on October 25, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was sentenced on two charges, the sentence on each being for a term of not less than two nor more than four years. The sentences were cumulative. The applicant has served more than the minimum of one sentence. The trial judge has recommended the granting of clemency after the expiration of the first sentence. We believe that this recommendation is proper.

2. The applicant has a wife and five children who are dependent upon him for support. He will be on parole until 1938.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,

In re application of Natale Alampi: No. 220 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Natale Alampi, convicted of second degree murder, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Indiana County, on July 6, 1925, be commuted from ten years to seven years, three months expiring on October 6, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is an Italian citizen. He has a wife and two children living in Calabria, Italy. A satisfactory guarantee has been given us that he will be deported if released from the penitentiary. He has served over seven years of his sentence.

The trial judge and the supervisor of paroles recommend a commutation of sentence for deportation.

Our recommendation is contingent upon the applicant's return to Italy.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

In re application of Frank Celmer: No. 621 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Frank Celmer, convicted of felonious entry, larceny, receiving stolen goods, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Berks County, on June 16, 1928, be commuted from ten years to four years, four months, expiring on October 16, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

President Judge Schaeffer, of the Berks County Court, in a letter of July 28, 1932, stated to this Board that he participated in the sentencing of the applicant, that in his opinion the sentence was too severe and that he heartily endorses the application for clemency.

Judge Mays, who imposed sentence, writes "I now endorse his (applicant's) application for clemency."

The board of trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary are in accord with the recommendation of Judges Schaeffer and Mays. We feel that we should defer to the views of the sentencing court in this case. The applicant will be on parole until 1948.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

In re application of Mike Churley: No. 970 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Mike Churley, convicted of statutory rape, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on March 31, 1931, be commuted from four years to one year, seven months expiring on October 31, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was convicted of rape. After discovered evidence proves that the girl was a notorious prostitute. The report of the officials of the penitentiary states that this was "a rape case only in the technical sense." Accordingly, we believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished. He has served over one and one-half years of his sentence.

2. This was the applicant's first offense. His previous reputation was very good as was his employment record.

3. Parole supervision will be exercised until 1946. Employment has been assured.

In re application of Theodore Blank: No. 577 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Theodore Blank, convicted of embezzlement, fraudulently making a written instrument, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on February 7, 1929, be commuted from five years to three years, eight months, expiring on October 7, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant embezzled over $80,000.00 from the Scandinavian Building and Loan Association, all of which he invested in real estate in New Jersey. For several years before he was indicted he made a sincere effort to find a purchaser for his property so that he cold save the building and loan association from loss. When he failed he pleaded guilty. The assistant district attorney and the attorney for the Department of Banking recommended a three and one-half to seven year sentence, but the judge imposed a sentence of from five to ten years. The applicant has been imprisoned over three and one-half years. We believe that he has been sufficiently punshed.

2. The applicant will be on parole until 1939. Employment has been assured.

In re application of Albert L. Briggs: No. 520 October Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Albert L. Briggs, convicted of felonious attempt to assault, horse stealing, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Columbia County, on November 1, 1926, be commuted from eight and one-half years to five years, eleven months, expiring on October 1, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. In 1926 the applicant, nineteen years of age, was convicted of felonious attempt to assault, and horse stealing. He received a sentence of from eight and one-half to seventeen years. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) He has served approximately six years of his sentence.

(b) The trial judge states, "Briggs has suffered sufficient punishment for the crimes committed."

2. The applicant's aged parents are in need of his support. He will be on parole until 1943.

In re application of Frank A. Reed: No. 953 November Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Frank A. Reed, convicted of robbery, breaking and escaping, in the Court of Common Pleas of Lackawanna and Centre County, on February 9, 1924, August 19, 1925, be commuted from three to ten years, three to ten year to two to six years, three to six years expiring on February 9, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows.

The applicant pleaded guilty to the charge of robbery in 1924. Only $1.80 was stolen. He was sentenced to from three to ten years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. He was transferred to the Rockview, Prison Farm and escaped in August, 1925. He has served over eight and one-half years of his sentence.

The trial judge recommends clemency, and we believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished. He will be on parole until 1936. Employment has been assured.

Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel G. Earl: No. 645 November Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Samuel C. Saul, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Clarion County, on March 7, 1927, be commuted from ten years to five years, eight months expiring on November 7, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of robbery. He was sentenced to from ten to twenty years in the Western State Penitentiary. He has served over five and one-half years of his sentence. This was his first offense. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The trial district attorney, private prosecutor, trial judge and the trustees of the Western State Penitentiary recommend clemency.

Applicant will be on parole until 1947.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Leo Fowler: No. 894 November Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Leo Fowler, convicted of robbery, armed, assault and battery to kill, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on September 9, 1927, be commuted from forty to eighty years to six to twenty years, expiring on September 9, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant and another were involved in the holdup of a store. Several persons were robbed. The applicant and his partner were indicted on six separate counts. The applicant pleaded guilty to only one indictment. He was found guilty on the other five. Both the applicant and his accomplice received sentences of from 40 to 80 years. The accomplice was a hardened criminal.

We believe the applicant will be sufficiently punished if he serves six years of his minimum sentence. Our reasons follow:

(a) This was the applicant's first offense.

(b) His conduct while in prison has been excellent.

(c) The district attorney's representative stated at the public hearing that both the trial judge and the district attorney were of the opinion at the time sentence was imposed that six separate and distinct robberies had been committed at different times.

Our recommendation is contingent upon the applicant's return to Iowa. Parole supervision will be exercised for fourteen years after the applicant's release from the penitentiary.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Jack Gustaferra: No. 641 November Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Jack Gustaferra, convicted of murder first degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery of Allegheny County, on April 5, 1918, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant entered this country when thirteen years of age. At the age of seventeen he was convicted of murder in the first degree. A death sentence was imposed. This was commuted to life imprisonment. On January 20, 1932, we recommended a further commutation of sentence. One of the reasons for our recommendation was, "The district attorney's office of Allegheny County now states that after-discovered evidence tends to verify the allegations of the applicant, and there is a reasonable doubt in our minds that the offense which the applicant committed was first degree murder."

The applicant's family and friends live in this country. His conduct record while on parole has been excellent. Accordingly, we believe the granting of a pardon will be an entirely proper act of mercy.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Padmonsky: No. 393 November Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Padmonsky, convicted of robbery, burglary and larceny, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County, on December 19, 1922, be commuted from thirty years to nine years, eleven months, expiring on November 19, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant pleaded guilty to four counts of robbery, burglary and larceny. He was sentenced to from thirty to eighty years in the penitentiary. He has served over ten years of his sentence, during which time he has contributed over $2000.00 of his earnings to his mother. His conduct record has been very good. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and the trial judge recommend clemency.

The applicant will be on parole until 2002.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

(1) Adjusted to exclude the estimated receipts from fees of the State Teachers Colleges $4,802,402—recommended by the Governor to be appropriated to the Colleges in the amount received. To compare the estimate of Revenue available for appropriation with the estimate for 1931-1933, $4,802,402 should be added to this figure, when it will become $156,656,274.

(2) To compare the appropriation recommendations for 1933-1935 with the appropriations for 1931-1933, this amount should be increased by $4,802,402, the estimated fees collected by the Teachers Colleges which the Governor recommends appropriating in the amount received. The total General Fund Budget will then become $158,077,775.03.

(1) The receipts to the Motor License Fund are largest in December and January because of the Motor License Fees, while the expenditure requirements are heaviest in June, July, August and September. Consequently, sufficient unobligated cash balances must be maintained at the end of each biennium and each fiscal year to finance operations during the peak of the working season or until the bulk of the Motor License Fees is collected. The estimated cash balances (1) and (2) are presented as the minimum reserves necessary.

* Qualified by Note †.

† During this period the State-owned institutions retained and spent receipts from their operations. In comparing this amount with the appropriations for subsequent biennium, the amount of these expenditures, approximately $5,250,000 should be added to this figure.

‡ Amount to which this appropriation was abated by decision of Supreme Court in the Talbot Act Case.

(1) To include the Registration and Certification of Teachers and Pre-Professional Examinations now supported from the appropriation for Departmental Salaries and Expenses.

(2) The Salaries and Expenses of the Public School Employes Retirement System can now be paid from the earnings of the invested funds in excess of the legal 4%.

(3) The Governor recommends that in addition to this $3,000,000, the estimated receipts of the Colleges from Students' fees be appropriated to the Colleges in the amount collected.

(4) This School is to be discontinued after June 1, 1933 and the students transferred to other institutions.

(5) This will pay cost of instruction only. All maintenance costs will be borne by the Trustees of the Thaddeus Stevens Orphans' Home from endowments.

(6) Contemplates a 10% reduction for eleven months of the biennnium beginning July 1, 1934.

(7) If the school districts of the State are consolidated into fewer and larger units this amount will be sufficient. If they remain as at present $3,250,000 will be required under the terms of the present law.

(8) This amount will be sufficient if the Governor's recommendations of January 3 with regard to teachsr salaries are carried out. Otherwise, under present laws, $58,200,000 will be required.

(1) Refund of Motor License Fund moneys and the cost of collecting Motor License Fees and Fines were paid by the Department of Highways these periods. Under the provisions of the Act of 1929, P. L. 1046, the Board of Finance and Revenue was authorized to refund Motor License Fund moneys and the Department of Revenue was provided with sufficient funds to defray the cost of collecting Motor License Fees and Fines and operate the State Highway Patrol.

(2) Paid from Motor License Fund this period from continuing appropriations for Maintenance, Repairs and Construction of Roads; Salaries and General Expenses

(3) Includes $3,017,060.00 of the Emergency Federal Aid Program which will be expended immediately after June 1, 1933. Includes, also, the unexpened balances of 1929-1931 appropriations in specific amounts to the Department of Highways. Not included, however, are $2,000,000 of Reconstruction Finance Corporation Funds and $81,935.00 allocation for road work in certain counties from the appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board.

(1) These amounts are the total Maintenance and Operation Costs of Plant and Equipment which are distributed to and included in the various functions and jobs for which the equipment is used. This method not only provides Plant and Equipment Costs, but results in accurate Function and Job Costs.

(2) These amounts represent the Plant and Equipment Costs in addition to (1) which are distributed to and included in the various functions, and is the amount that is charged to the functions and jobs to cover the depreciation of old and new equipment.

(3) Includes $3,017,060.00 of Federal Aid Program which will be expended during 1933-1935. Includes, also, the unexpended balances of 1929-1931 appropriations in specific amounts to the Department of Highways. Not included, however, are $2,000,000.00 of Reconstruction Finance Corporation Funds and $81,985.00 for road work in counties allocated from the appropriation for the State Emergency Relief Board.

(4) Funds to maintain the additional 53,000 miles of township roads recommended by the Governor to be taken over by the State will come from this item.

(A) This loan has been repaid in the amount of $4,999,999.98 to November 30, 1932. By May 31, 1932, the entire $10,000,000.00 will be repaid.

(B) $2,000,000.00 of this amount represents the revolving fund for temporary loans to school districts. Under the terms of the Act any parts of it used must be repaid or offset against the $56,000,000.00 appropriated by the 1931 General Assembly for Common Schools before May 31, 1933, so that on that date the $2,000,000.00 appropriation should be intact and will lapse. This $2,000,000.00 is not considered an appropriation liability in determining the surplus.

(C) As adjusted by 1931 and 1932 Special Sessions.

(D) The actual liability is $2,000,000.00 less than this figure. See Note B.

* Does not include amounts which supplemented or adjusted appropriations passed by the 1931 General Assembly.

REPORT TO GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1933 OF A BILL CODIFYING THE LAWS RELATING TO COUNTY TAX ASSESSMENTS WITH NOTES AND ANNOTATIONS

To the Honorable, the Senators and Members of the General Assembly:

There is reported to the General Assembly herewith a proposed code of the county assessment laws, as directed by a concurrent resolution adopted by the House of Representatives, April 21, 1931, and agreed to by the Senate, May 20, 1931. The language of this resolution is as follows:

> "Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Legislative Reference Bureau is hereby directed to compile a codification of the County Tax Assessment Laws of the Commonwealth, excluding therefrom, (a) the laws relating to the assessment of intangible personal property for county purposes; (b) the laws relating to the creation and administration of county boards for the assessment and revision of taxes, and (c) the election of taxation assessors; and to make report thereon in printed form to the Session of the General Assembly in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three."

The basis of the present law on the subject of county tax assessments, is the Act of April 15, 1843, P. L. 509. Aside from this, there are about ninety-five other scattered acts and parts of acts, mostly of more recent date, dealing directly with county assessments, all of which are cited in the table at the end of the draft of the proposed code.

A code consolidating the entire subject of State and local taxation was undertaken by this Bureau and presented to the General Assembly for its consideration at its regular session in 1915, as House Bill No. 403. This bill, however, was recommitted on second reading in the House of Representatives, and was not acted on finally by either House.

By an Act of July 18, 1919 (Appropriation Acts, page 229), a commission was created to revise, amend, consolidate and simplify the laws relative to the assessment, levy and collection of taxes for county, city, borough, township, school and poor purposes. This commission reported to the General Assembly in 1921 a code containing many drastic changes in the local taxing system, principal among these, as affecting assessments, was the abolition of the elected assessors and the creation of appointed county boards, and the appointment of subordinate assessors by these boards, somewhat similar to the "county unit system" now in force in counties of the second and third classes. This code (House Bill No. 420, generally known as the "Marshall-Ludlow Bill") did not come to a final vote in either House of the General Assembly. It was again introduced at the Legislative Session in 1923, as House Bill No. 940, and was defeated on final passage in the House of Representatives. Subsequently this same code was adopted by the Pennsylvania Tax Commission, created by the Act of June 14, 1923, P. L. 750, but efforts to enact the proposed code at the Session of 1925 and subsequent sessions failed.

The code now submitted makes no change in the substance of the laws as they now exist. Except in the case of the preliminary article and three or four other sections that are clearly indicated, this code follows the exact language of existing laws. All deviations from this language are shown by brackets, indicating strike-outs, and by italicizing all words that have been added, so that anyone can, at a glance, note each change of language. Explanatory notes follow each section where this is considered necessary, and many annotations have been added. A table of statutes will be found at the end of the code which contains references to the section numbers where the material has been incorporated or where the statute has been referred to in a note. The table also shows whether or not the statute is to be repealed and to what extent.

The consolidation of the county tax assesment laws presented many troublesome problems, particularly those involving a correct application of provisions of existing law to given classes of counties, which resulted from the creation of the board of revision of taxes in Philadelphia, and boards for the assessment and revision of taxes in counties of the second and third classes, and by acts relating only to townships of the first class and counties of the fourth class. The laws relating to the creation and administration of county boards for the assessment and revision of taxes were, by the resolution directing this work, expressly excluded from the scope of the subject. These laws, however, are not in themselves sufficient to provide all the administrative details in the counties to which they apply. They must be considered rather as supplemental to the general laws, which undoubtedly still apply where inconsistent provisions are not contained in the acts creating or specifically administered by these boards. Much care has, therefore, been exercised to insert such phraseology into various sections of general law as will readily enable the administrator to ascertain whether particular provisions apply to his county. As an added safeguard, provision has been made in Section 105 to assure that an inconsistency between the proposed code and specific laws relating to the assessment boards in counties of the first, second and third classes shall be resolved in favor of the classification laws not included in this code. By carefully studying the definitions in Section 102 the application of particular sections may be ascertained.

As in most compilations of statutes, there are a number of acts on the border-line, dealing more or less directly with the subjects under consideration, but which more properly should be classified under some other general subject of law. The following, although not a complete list, will serve as illustrations of what is meant. Such acts are, of course, entirely omitted.

Section 1, Act of April 3, 1804, P. L. 517, requiring deputy-surveyors to make returns to the county commissioners of lands surveyed, etc. for taxation purposes, may not be altogether obsolete, but is not sufficiently closely tied up with the assessment system to warrant its being included in the code. The section is neither included in the code, nor repealed by it.

Section 1, Act of February 15, 1832, P. L. 79, and Section 8, Act of May 15, 1841, P. L. 393, requiring statements of assessments to be furnished to the Auditor General was for the purpose of the then existing State tax on real and personal property. The purpose no longer existing, the provisions became obsolete and will be repealed.

Sections 6, 7, 8 and 9, Act of March 11, 1834, P. L. 117, imposed duties on the local assessors in connection with the valuation of inns and taverns for the purpose of fixing the amount of liquor license fees. This system passed out with the high license system, and, of course, at present has no application at all. The sections will be cited for repeal.

Section 7, Act of April 15, 1834, P. L. 509, while incorporated among the provisions of the act pertaining particularly to assessments, seems to have a more direct bearing on the subject of county tax levies. In any event, the provisions are supplied by later legislation, and the section will be cited for repeal.

Section 2, Act of April 19, 1843, P. L. 342, provides in part that certified extracts from the assessment books of unseated lands shall be received in evidence. This is more properly a part of the law of evidence, and therefore is not included in the code.

Section 8, Act of February 25, 1901, P. L. 11, exempts forestry reservation lands from local taxation. This and similar provisions exempting game preserves, etc. have been omitted as they are more properly a part of the forest, game and other laws in which they are now incorporated. These lands are undoubtedly exempt from taxation by the clause exempting all public property.

Section 1, Act of May 23, 1919, P. L. 239, requires county commissioners, tax assessors and tax collectors to furnish certain additional information to the Secretary of Internal Affairs. This provision pertains more directly to the subject of State statistics.

Section 1, Act of May 7, 1927, P. L. 857, and Section 1, Act of May 13, 1927, P. L. 982, fix the compensation of assessors and members of the board of revision of taxes in first class counties, which is a part of the system expressly excluded from the code by the resolution directing the work.

Section 1, Act of April 26, 1929, P. L. 823, provides for an optional system of assessments for borough tax purposes made by appointees of borough council, similar to the separate assessments for city purposes. It has nothing to do with the county system.

The Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau certifies that in his opinion the proposed code contains a correct statement of the existing law, after obsolete and inconsistent matter has been eliminated.

S. Edw. Hannestad, Esq., Chief Compiler of the Legislative Reference Bureau, compiled and annotated this consolidation of the county tax assessment laws; and his careful and conscientious work is now submitted for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
Legislative Reference Bureau,
JOHN H. FERTIG, Director.

December 15, 1932

An Act relating to taxation; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes; providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons, property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations; amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto; and repealing existing laws.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the laws designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for county, city, borough, town, township, school and poor purposes, and for the assessment of persons, property and subjects of taxation for county purposes, and for boroughs, towns, townships, school assessments, are hereby amended, revised and consolidated as districts and poor districts which levy their taxes on county follows:

ARTICLE I

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

Section 101. Short Title. Effective Date. This act shall be known, and may be cited, as "The General County Assessment Law." This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Since 1933 is the year for the regular triennial assessment in counties, it was thought advisable to make the act effective immediately. If adopted reasonably early during the Session of 1933, advance copies of the law can be furnished to counties, thereby aiding materially in making the assessment. In case the act is not adopted before the precepts for the triennial are issued, no harm can result since the act makes no change in the law.

Section 102. Definitions. The following words and phrases shall, for the purpose of this act, have the meanings respectively ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

"Assessors" and "elected assessors" shall mean the assessors for county tax purposes elected in wards, boroughs, towns and townships in counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes.

"Appointed assessors" shall mean the assessors appointed by the board of revision of taxes in counties of the first class, and the subordinate assessors appointed by the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in counties of the second and third classes.

"Board of revision of taxes" shall mean the board of revision of taxes in counties of the first class.

"Board for the assessment and revision of taxes" shall mean the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in counties of the second and third classes.

Section 103. Excluded Provisions. This act does not include any provisions, and shall not be construed to repeal:

(1) The act approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, (P. L. 507), entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes, and, in cities coextensive with counties, for city and county purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment and collection of the same; providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith; and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes" or any of its amendments;

(2) The laws specifically relating to boards of revision of taxes or boards for the assessment and revision of taxes in counties of the first, second and third classes.

Philadelphia presents a difficult problem in codifying the county tax assessment laws. While assessments are made largely under local laws and as city rather than county assessments, the system as a whole is, nevertheless, based on the general laws providing for county assessments; and these laws cannot be wholly repealed unless in the codification reenacting them they are also made applicable to Philadelphia. Sec. 17 of the Act of Feb. 2, 1854, P. L. 21, consolidating the city and county of Philadelphia, provided for the election of two assessors in each ward of the city, who "shall do and perform * * * all the duties that the usages and laws of this Commonwealth now enjoin upon assessors and assistant assessors." By Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 14, 1865, P. L. 320, and Secs. 1 and 2, Act of Feb. 2, 1867, P. L. 137, the board for the revision of taxes were established, to "exercise all the powers heretofore vested in the county board of revision;" and who "shall have and exercise all and singular the powers heretofore, by law, conferred upon the commissioners of the city of Philadelphia, and the county commissioners of the different counties of this Commonwealth, in relation to the assessors, and the assessments and collection of taxes, within the city and county of Philadelphia, and the correction of all valuation and return therefor." By Secs. 1 and 2, Act of Apr. 12, 1873, P. L. 715, the board of revision of taxes was directed to divide the city into fifteen assessment districts, and to appoint two assessors for each district; and by Sec. 1, Act of June 5, 1874, P. L. 276, the creation of additional districts and the appointment of assessors for them was authorized. At present the assessors are appointed by the board of revision of taxes under the provisions of Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 24, 1903, P. L. 51, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 5, 1921, P. L. 346.

In Allegheny county, assessments are made under the provisions of the Act of July 22, 1919, P. L. 1093, and its amendments, by the board for the assessment and revision of taxes and subordinate assessors appointed by it. While there is no specific reference in this act to the general assessment laws, it is felt that some of these provisions are still applicable in Allegheny county, and that the Act of 1919 was supplementary to the laws establishing the county tax assessment system; the main changes being to vest the powers of the county commissioners in a new board and to abolish the elected county assessors.

Similar provisions apply in counties of the third class under the Act of June 26, 1931, P. L. 1379. Sec. 6 of this act, however, specifically provides as to subordinate assessors that, "They shall also have and possess, except as modified by this act, the same powers and perform the same duties and be subject to the same liabilities as are now or shall hereafter be conferred or imposed upon borough, ward, town and township assessors, with respect to making assessments and valuations for taxation purposes."

Of course, the provisions establishing the subjects of taxation and exemptions apply alike to all counties.

Section 104. Application of Act. Except as otherwise in this act specifically limited, this act shall apply in all of the counties of the Commonwealth.

Section 105. Saving Clause. Construction. The provisions of this act so far as they are the same as those of existing laws are intended as a continuation of such laws, and not as new enactments.

The repeal by this act of any act of Assembly, or part thereof, shall not revive any act, or part thereof, heretofore repealed or superseded.

All local acts of Assembly applying to particular counties or political subdivisions thereof, and not heretofore repealed, shall continue in force, and any provisions of this act inconsistent therewith shall not apply to the counties or political subdivisions thereof affected by such local laws. The reenactment by this act of any act of Assembly or part thereof that has heretofore been repealed by any local act of Assembly in so far as it applied to a particular county or political subdivision thereof, shall not revive or extend the provisions so reenacted to such county or political subdivision thereof.

Whenever the provisions of this act are inconsistent with any law relating to or administered by any board of revision of taxes or board for the assessment and revision of taxes in counties of the first, second or third class, the laws relating to and administered by such boards, and not included in this act, shall apply, and the inconsistent provisions of this act shall not apply to such classes of counties, but shall be in full force as to all other classes of counties, except as affected by local laws.

The provisions of this act shall not affect any act done, liability incurred, or right accrued or vested, or affect any suit, proceeding or prosecution pending or to be instituted to enforce any right or penalty or punish any offense under the authority of any act of Assembly repealed by this act.

Any person holding office under any act of Assembly repealed by this act, shall continue to hold such office until the expiration of the term thereof, subject to the conditions attached to such office prior to the passage of this act.

Section 106. Constitutional Construction. The provisions of this act shall be severable, and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act. It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein.

ARTICLE II

SUBJECTS OF LOCAL TAXATION. EXEMPTIONS

Section 201. Subjects of Taxation Enumerated. The following subjects and property shall as hereinafter provided be valued and assessed, and subject to taxation for all county, city, borough, town, township, school and poor purposes at the annual rate:

(a) All real estate, to wit: Houses, lands, lots of ground and ground rents, mills and manufactories of all kinds, furnaces, forges, bloomeries, distilleries, sugar houses, malt houses, breweries, tan yards, fisheries and ferries, wharves and all other real estate not exempt by [law] this act from taxation:

(b) All salaries and emoluments of office, all offices and posts of profit, professions, trades and occupations, except the occupation of farmer, and all [single freemen] persons over the age of twenty-one years who [shall] do not follow any occupation or calling, as well of unnaturalized foreign-born persons who shall have resided within this Commonwealth for one whole year, as of citizens of this Commonwealth: Provided, That [hereafter,] whenever [by reason of an exemption in the tax laws of the Commonwealth,] a person, other than a Federal employe, not taxable under the provision of this clause, is disfranchised from voting because he cannot be lawfully assessed for a county or State tax, it shall be lawful for the county commissioners to assess the occupation of such person for county taxation purposes, in the manner provided [by law] by this act for such assessments, [notwithstanding such exemption. The taxes so assessed shall be collected in the manner now provided by law for the collection of taxes on occupations.] The provisions of this clause shall not apply to counties of the first, second and third class, or to cities of the first, second and second A class.

(c) [together with] All other things now taxable by the laws of this Commonwealth for county purposes. [shall be valued and assessed and subject to taxation for the purposes in this act mentioned, and for all county purposes whatsoever.]

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 28, 1927, P. L. 491, amending Sec. 32, Act of Apr. 29, 1844, P. L. 486; Sec. 1, Act of May 2, 1929, P. L. 1270, No. 440; part of Sec. 4, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509; and Secs. 1 and 2, Act of Mar. 30, 1911, P. L. 38.

In clause (b) the words "single freeman" as they appear in the Act of 1834 have been changed to "persons" so as to include the whole of the class.

Change in present law recommended: The words "all salaries and emoluments of office" should be stricken from the above section, since under the present system it is the office, post of profit, etc. which is valued and on which the tax is levied. The words "salaries and emoluments of office" are misleading and tend to indicate a valuation based on income which is improper: Banger's App. 109 Pa. 79; Williamsport v. Wenner, 172 Pa. 173, 181.

"There may be an enumeration of the constituent parts of a single subject of taxation and a value placed on each." Pittsburgh Terminal Coal Co. Appeals 83 Super. Ct. 535, 537.

The machinery in a factory is a part of the real estate and subject to taxation as such: Patterson v. Delaware Co. 70 Pa. 381; and this is so even though the machinery belongs to a tenant and may be removed by him; Guthrie v. Pittsburgh Dry Gds. Co. 47 Super. Ct. 384.

Section does not necessarily contemplate ownership of the land on which taxable improvements are located. Cowanshannock C. and C. Co's Tax Assessment, 283 Pa. 122.

A house built on land owned by and leased from the State, and which may be removed by the owner at the end of his lease, although personal property as between the lesser and lessee, is nevertheless, real estate for other purposes and taxable as such: County of Franklin v. McClean, 93 Super. Ct. 165.

Occupation of farmer is a proper classification, and the exemption of this occupation is constitutional: Thompson v. Indiana Co., 83 Super Ct. 248.

The application of clause (b) has been restricted. In cities of the first class the council imposes a poll tax in lieu of the occupation tax under Sec. 41, Act of Apr. 17, 1869, P. L. 49. In cities of the second and second A classes, the occupation tax was abolished by Sec. 1, Act of May 22, 1878, P. L. 87, and a poll tax substituted. The Act of Mar. 7, 1901, P. L. 20, Art. XIX, Sec. 3, Cl. 3, also authorizes a poll tax in these cities. By the Act of May 31, 1931, P. L. 117, the occupation tax in counties of the second and third classes was abolished and a fifty cent poll tax substituted. See Sec. 202. However, the municipalities in these counties are still authorized to assess this occupation tax: See Sec. 404. It seems that cities of the third class may levy either an occupation or poll tax or both under the Act of June 23, 1931, P. L. 932, Sec. 2551.

Basis of valuation of real estate is acutal value limited and defined by market value: Appeal of Penn'a Stone Co. 236 Pa. 97.

The Act of May 2, 1929, P. L. 1270, incorporated as the proviso in clause (b), was passed to tax those farmers who own no property and are exempt from the occuation tax, and thereby enable them to qualify to vote by the payment of a county tax.

By judicial decisions it has been determined that so much of the property of public service corporations as is essential to the enjoyment and exercise of their franchises is exempt from county and local taxation: Eastman on Taxation, Vol. 1, p. 82 etc. This was first decided in 1825, with respect to a toll bridge, on the ground that bridges were not specifically enumerated in the statute imposing the tax, also that enterprises of this kind should be encouraged and, therefore, taxing statutes strictly construed as to them: Schuylkill Bridge Co. v. Frailey, 13 S. and R. 422. In 1856 it was held that certain buildings of a railroad company were exempt from taxation, since a special act applying to it laid a tax on that portion of the company's stock which represents the cost of construction in Pennsylvania, and there was no evidence of an intention on the part of the Legislature to make this an additional tax. It must therefore be regarded as in lieu of all other taxation. The principal is also announced in this case that buildings and lands in no way appurtenant or essential to the railroad would not fall within the exemption: N. Y. and Erie R. R. Co. v. Sabin, 26 Pa. 242. In the case of West Chester Gas Co. v. County of Chester, 30 Pa. 232, is found a review of other earlier decisions. In that case, houses erected for the accommodation of the workmen of a gas company were denied exemption from taxation, as they were not necessary to the performance of the company's proper work: In Carbon Iron Co. v. Carbond Co., 39 Pa. 251; distinction is made between corporations, as such, and public works held by corporations, together with their necessary appurtances, as public works. The former are not exempt, while the latter are. This is a distinct departure from the reasoning upon which the early cases were based. In Allegheny Co. v. Diamond Market, 123, Pa. 164, 169, (1888), this distinction is again clearly made, and it is pointed out that the controlling principle is that the public works of a public corporation could not be subject to double taxation without an express mandate of the Legislature to that effect; and that this principle has never been applied to a private corporation. A public corporation is defined as one which cannot carry out the purposes of its organization without chartered rights from the Commonwealth, such as the right of eminent domain. It is further stated that a private corporation which needs no chartered rights in order to carry on its business, stands in no different position from an individual. In Conoy Twp. v. York Haven Co. 222 Pa. 319, still another theory is advanced, that the power to tax necessarily includes the power to sell for nonpayment of taxes, and the corporate functions of the utility might thereby be interfered with; also that a utility extending into a number of different municipalities should not be subject to the exactions of the taxing officer at every municipal division line.

By a special act, Apr. 21, 1858, P. L. 385, Sec. 1, the city of Philadelphia was empowered to tax the real estate of railroad corporations, except the superstructure and the water stations. This act is an exception to the above rules and still continues in force. It is not affected by this act; see Sec. 105.

Section 202. Poll in Lieu of Occupation Tax in Counties of the Second and Third Class. In counties of the second and third class, the county tax on trades, occupations and professions is hereby abolished [as to all years after one thousand nine hundred and thirty] and in lieu thereof each such county shall assess a poll tax of fifty cents on each resident or inhabitant in said county over the age of twenty-one years, which tax, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, shall be collected by the county treasurer and delinquent tax collector, or the several county tax collectors as now provided by law, with like powers, duties and authority as provided by law for the collection of taxes on trades, occupations and professions.

Sec. 1, Act of May 13, 1931, P. L. 117. Clause (b) of Sec. 201 has been restricted so that the occupation tax does not apply to counties of the second and third class.

Section 203. Poll Tax on Federal Employes. The assessors for county purposes in [the several] counties [of this Commonwealth] of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes, shall hereafter list and assess all persons resident in this Commonwealth who are employes of the Federal Government, and the county commissioners of the several counties shall levy and provide for the collection from each such Federal employe of an annual county poll tax of fifty cents.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 20, 1929, P. L. 31, No. 31.

It was held in Dobbins v. Commissioners of Erie Co., 16 Pet. 435 that an occupation tax may not be levied against an officer of the United States government. In Ulsh v. Perry Co. 7 D. R. 488, this doctrine was also applied to other employes of the federal government.

While this act contains provision for the levy of the tax, which subject is not comprehended by this bill, it is difficult to sever this provision and it has consequently been retained.

This section has been restricted to counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes. Its purpose was to assess a poll tax in lieu of the occupation tax on federal employes. Since no occupation tax but only poll taxes are collected in counties of the first, second and third classes, the act would not apply to them.

Section 204. Exemptions From Taxation. The following property shall be exempt from all county, city, borough, town, township, road, poor and school tax, to wit:

(a) All churches, meeting-houses, or other regular places of stated worship, with the ground thereto annexed necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same:

(b) All burial grounds and all mausoleums, vaults, crypts or structures intended to hold or contain the bodies of the dead, not used or held for private or corporate profit;

(c) All hospitals, universities, colleges, seminaries, academies associations and institutions of learning, benevolence, or charity, with the grounds thereto annexed and necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same, founded, endowed and maintained by the public or private charity: Provided, That the entire revenue derived by the same be applied to the support [of] and to increase the efficiency and facilities thereof, the repair and the necessary increase of grounds and buildings thereof, and for no other purpose; [and]

(d) All school houses belonging to any county, borough or school district, with the ground thereto annexed and necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same;

(e) All courthouses, jails and poorhouses, with the ground thereto annexed and necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same;

(f) All public parks when owned and held by trustees for the benefit of the public and used for amusements, recreation, sports, and other public purposes, without profit; [and]

(g) All other public property used for public purposes, with the ground thereto annexed and necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same; [and]

(h) All real and personal property, owned, occupied and used by any branch, post or camp of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines;

(i) All real property owned by one or more institutions of purely public charity, used and occupied partly by such owner or owners and partly by other institutions of purely public charity and necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of such institutions so using it; [as foresaid, be, and the same hereby are, exempt from all and every county, city, borough, township, road, school, and poor tax]

(j) All playgrounds, with the equipments and grounds thereto annexed, necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same, founded, endowed, or maintained, by public or private charity, which apply their revenue to the support and repair of such playgrounds and to increase the efficiency and facilities thereof, either in ground or buildings or otherwise and for no other purpose, and owned, leased possessed or controlled by public school boards or properly organized and duly constituted playground associations, and approved and accepted by the board of county commissioners or board of revision of taxes of the county in which said playgrounds are situated as such playgrounds, [be, and the same are hereby, exempt from county, city, borough, road, school, and poor taxes for terms of not less than five years:] Provided, That a property, real or personal, other than that which is in actual use and occupation for the purpose aforesaid, and from which any income or revenue is derived, shall be subject to taxation same as heretofore;

(k) [Any building which shall be] All buildings owned and occupied by [a] free, public, nonsectarian libraries, and the land on which [it stands] they stand and that which is immediately and necessarily appurtenant thereto, [shall be exempt from all county, city, borough, town, school, bounty, poor, or road taxes,] notwithstanding the fact that some portion or portions of said building or lands appurtenant may be yielding rentals to the corporation or association managing such library: Provided, That the net receipts of such corporation or association from rentals shall be used solely for the purpose of maintaining the said library;

(l) All property, including buildings and the land reasonably necessary thereto, provided and maintained by public or private charity, and used exclusively for public libraries, museums or art galleries, and not used for private or corporate profit, so long as the said public use continues, [shall be exempt from taxation by any county, city, borough, township, school district or poor districts.]

The foregoing section is drafted principally from Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 17, 1925, P. L. 39, and Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 30, 1925, P. L. 388, both amending Sec. 1, Act of July 17, 1919, P. L. 1021. The provision of clause (b) covering mausoleums, vaults, crypts, etc., are from Sec. 1, Par. (7), Act of June 23, 1917, P. L. 637. Clause (i) is from Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 923, No. 360. Clause (j) is from Sec. 1, Act of June 12, 1919, P. L. 452. Clause (k) is from Sec. 27, Act of July 20, 1917, P. L. 1143. Clause (l) is from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 20, 1905, P. L. 234.

All special laws exempting property from local taxation, except such as constituted contract obligations prior to the adoption of the constitutional amendment of 1857, were repealed by Secs. 1 and 2, Art. IX of the Constitution of 1874, if, indeed, they had not already been repealed by the Act of Apr. 8, 1873, P. L. 64. Northampton Co. v. Lehigh Coal and Nav. Co., 57 Pa. 461, 463, 464; Wagner Institute v. Phila. 132 Pa. 612, 616; Phila. v. Masonic Home, 160 Pa. 572, 580; German Soc. v. Phila., 4 W. N. C. 213, 215; Pittsburgh v. Mercantile Library Hall Co., 9 Sadler 59.

From a study of the authorities, we are of the opinion that this rule, as to repeal by the provisions of the Constitution, applies equally to general laws in force on the date of the going into effct of the Constitution of 1874, in so far as they were inconsistent with the provisions of Sec. 1, Art. IX, covering permitted exemptions. The general rule is thus stated by Eastman in his work on taxation:

> "From an examination of the cases construing the foregoing provision, (Constitution, Art. IX, Sec. 2), it would seem that it repeals all acts exempting property from taxation in existence at the date of the adoption of the Constitution, except acts exempting property of the classes permitted to be exmpted by Sec. 1 of Article IX of the Constitution, and acts granting exemptions involving the obligation of contracts, although the authorities are not clear on this subject." Eastman on Taxation, Vol. 1, p. 32.

We believe this to be an accurate statement of the law as laid down in the foregoing cases, and as recognized in the case of Lehigh Iron Co. v. Lower Macungie Twp., 81 Pa. 432, 485-6, wherein Sec. 2, Art. IX, is expressly referred to as a repealing provision limited to laws relating to exemptions only.

There are, however, one or two cases which may tend to a somewhat different conclusion. Most difficult to distinguish of these cases is Ruth's App. 10, W. N. C. 493, (1881), wherein it was contended among other things that an act of 1866 exempting the people of the City of Scranton from the payment of county tax to Luzerne County, violated Sec. 1, Art. IX of the Constitution, as creating a lack of uniformity. The opinion of the lower court expressly states (p. 500):

> "And notwithstanding this is a special exemption, the adoption of the Constitution of 1874 does not deprive the people of this city of the benefit thereof."

This was said in reply to the argument that the lack of uniformity arose from the fact that cities were by statute made a part of the county in which they were situated, and as a part of the counter-argument that the act making them so saved to each city, and to the citizens thereof, all rights, privileges and immunties granted by their charters and by law. It is difficult to understand how this saving clause in an Act of Assembly could override a constitutional inhibition. The Supreme Court, on appeal, affirmed the action of the lower court as a proper exercise of its discretion, without, however, writing an opinion or adopting that of the lower court. We submit that the above ruling is not well considered. It also appeared that the tax in question was invalid as not having been properly assessed.

The other cases are readily distinguishable. Coatesville Gas Co. v. County of Chester, 97 Pa. 476, 481, (1881), involved the taxation of the property of a public service company, upon which the company paid no local taxes, not by reason of express exemption, but by reason of judicial decision to the effect that such property had not been subjected to local taxation. The question involved, therefore, was not the repeal of an exemption law. In Walker's App., 44 Super. Ct. 145, (1910) the question involved was the repeal of the provisions of the Act of 1834, authorizing exonerations to the tax collectors, and not the exemption of any particular property or class of property.

The provisions of the Act of Apr. 8, 1873, P. L. 64, we regard as being wholly supplied by the Act of July 17, 1919, P. L. 1021, as amended, except such parts as are contrary to the provisions of Art. IX, Secs. 1 and 2 of the Constitution, and therefore repealed by it. Although it is suggested in Philadelphia v. Barber, 160 Pa. 123 and Carlisle School Dist. v. Carlisle Boro., 11 D. R. 294, that the Act of 1873 makes all real estate subject to taxation, except that specifically exempted, it seems that the language of Sec. 32, Act of Apr. 29, 1844, P. L. 486, and its amendments is equally effective for this purpose. It has nowhere been pointed out wherein the Act of 1873 made any property taxable that was not taxed, under the Act of 1844. Moreover, the Act of 1873 gives no notice in its title of any such purpose. The act will, therefor,e be repealed without reenactment.

Sec. 29, Act of Apr. 16, 1838, P. L. 514, and Sec. 3, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 576, were repealed by the School Code (Act of May 18, 1911, P. L. 309), which is not an absolute repeal of all their provisions. They are, however, supplied by the Act of July 17, 1919, P. L. 1021, and its amendments, and will be repealed without reenactment.

The act of Apr. 5, 1859, P. L. 363, exempting burial lots from taxation seems to be fully taken care of by the broader term of "burial grounds" in the Act of 1919, and will, therefore, be repealed without reenactment.

The Act of Apr. 10, 1867, P. L. 66, and the Act of Apr. 24, 1869, P. L. 95, are no longer operative, as the soldiers' orphan schools provided for were required to be taken over by the State by Sec. 5, Act of May 25, 1889, P. L. 379, and the Act of May 27, 1893, P. L. 171. Exemption from taxation for such institutions is also amply provided for by the provisions of the Act of 1919. These acts will be repealed in so far as they provide for tax exemption, without reenactment.

The Act of June 4, 1879, P. L. 90, No. 104, exempting buildings in course of construction, supplements the Act of May 14, 1874, P. L. 158, which was repealed by the Act of 1919, and, therefore, has nothing on which to operate. It will be repealed without reenactment.

Sec. 13, Act of Apr. 14, 1851, P. L. 622, providing for taxation of property not used for exempted purposes, is supplied by the Act of 1919, and will be repealed without reenactment.

The Act of June 13, 1883, P. L. 118, and the Act of Mar. 17, 1905, P. L. 45, exempt from taxation all pieces of land, not exceeding ten acres in any one township or ward of a city or borough, owned and used by the United States for post offices, custom houses or other structures. No property owned by the United States for any purpose, regardless of acreage, may be taxed by the State or any of its subdivisions: Irwin v. Wright, 258 U. S. 219, 228; Clallam Co. v. U. S. 263 U. S. 341, 344; Phila. v. Myers, 102 Super. Ct., 424, 428. The above statutes are, therefore, misleading as well as unnecessary, and their text is omitted from this code. They are cited for repeal.

ARTICLE III

TAX ASSESSORS

Section 301. Election of Assessors. The qualified voters of each ward in cities of the third class shall, [on the third Tuesday of February, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and triennially] at the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, and every four years thereafter, vote for and elect a properly qualified person according to law, to act as county assessor in each of said wards under [existing laws] the provisions of this act, who shall serve for [three] four years, [and shall make the triennial assesment the second year of his term of office.] All county assessors in boroughs, towns, townships and wards thereof shall be elected at the times and for the terms prescribed by existing laws.

This section does not apply in counties of the first, second and third classes where assessors under existing law are appointed.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of May 9, 1889, P. L. 139, with the changes in date of election and length of term prescribed by the constitutional amendments of 1909 and the act of Mar. 2, 1911, P. L. 8. See Com. ex rel. v. Samuel, 238 Pa. 155.

The election of assessors in boroughs and townships is provided for in the borough and township codes, and is therefore, incorporated in the above section by reference only. In the draft of the Third Class City Code of 1931, the provision for the election of this officer was omitted, since he performs no duty for the city. In the borough and township codes a different situation prevailed, since the assessor makes the assessment upon which borough and township taxes are levied and collected.

Section 302. Oath of Assessors. The elected and appointed assessors of the several wards, townships, towns, boroughs and districts, and in townships of the first class, also the assistant township assessors and assistant triennial assessors, [within this Commonwealth] shall immediately on the receipt of the precept from the county commissioners [according to the second section of the act entitled "An act relating to county rates and levies, and township rates and levies," passed the fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four] and before entering upon the duties of their office, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

You do (swear or affirm) that you will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of Pennsylvania, that you will, as assessor for (ward, district, borough, town or township), use your utmost diligence and ability to discover and ascertain all the property, real and personal, within your (ward, district, borough, town or township), and all other objects subject to taxation by the laws of this Commonwealth, and take an accurate account of the same, and that you will justly and honestly to the best of your judgment, assess and value every separate lot, piece or tract of land with the improvements thereon, and all personal property made taxable by the laws of this Commonwealth within your (ward, district, borough, town or township) at the rate or price which you shall ,after due examination and consideration, believe the same would sell for if sold singly and separately at a bona fide sale, after full public notice; and that you will [rate all] assess all persons according to their correct offices and posts of profit, trades and occupations, [at what you shall believe to be the actual yearly income arising therefrom,] and that you will perform your duty as assessor of said (ward, district or township.) with honesty and fidelity, according to the laws of this Commonwealth, without fear, favor or affection, hatred, malice or ill will.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of May 15, 1841, P. L. 393, and Sec. 9, Act of July 27, 1842, P. L. 441.

The standard of valuation of property set forth in the oath is different from that prescribed by Sec. 4, Act of May 15, 1841, P. L. 393. See note, Sec. 402 below.

The provision for the valuation of occupations, etc. according to yearly income has been changed to correspond to the prevailing practice of fixing the rates of occupations by the boards of revision.

Sec. 2 of the Act of 1941, providing for the oath of assistant assessors will be repealed without reenactment, as that office was abolished by the Act of Feb. 14, 1889, P. L. 7, No. 8: Wood v. Armstrong Co., 12 C. C. 289; Com. ex rel. v. Cornelius, 15 C. C. 73.

Section 303. Filing of Assessor's Oath. It shall be the duty of each elected and appointed assessor and assistant township and triennial assessor to produce to the commissioners or board of revision of taxes or board for the assessment and revision of taxes of the county within twenty days after his election or appointment, a copy of the oath or affirmation taken and subscribed by him as is hereinbefore directed, and attested by the person before whom the same was administered, which shall be filed by the commissioners or said boards in their respective office.

Drafted from Sec. 88, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 537.

The office of assistant assessor was abolished by the Act of Feb. 14, 1889, P. L. 7: Wood v. Armstrong Co., 12 C. C. 289; Com. ex rel. v. Cornelius, 15 C. C. 73.

Section 304. Vacancies in the Office of Assessor. Whenever an elected assessor, or in townships of the first class an assessor assistant township assessor or assistant triennial assessor, refuses or neglects to qualify, as required by law, or refuses or neglects to receive the precept and books for the triennial or other assessment, the County commissioners are hereby authorized to appoint a suitable person to serve as assessor on the eighth day after the time designated by [law] this act to begin the assessment.

If the electors of any ward, borough, town or township shall fail to choose an assessor [or assistant assessor] or in townships of the first class, an assistant township assessor or assistant triennial assessor, at the time appointed by law, or if any person elected to such office shall neglect or refuse to serve therein or if any vacancy shall happen therein by death or otherwise, the commissioners of the county shall appoint a fit person to fill the office who shall serve until the expiration of the then current term of such officer, and who shall have the same powers, be subject to the same penalties and receive the same compensation, as if he had been elected [in manner aforesaid] to such office.

[Whenever the commissioners of any county shall, under existing laws, appoint a person to fill the office of assessor, such person shall serve until the next election for assessors as provided by this act.]

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of May 5, 1897, P. L. 39, No. 33, Sec. 87, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 537, No. 247, and Sec. 4, Act of Feb. 14, 1889, P. L. 7, No. 8.

The provisions of Sec. 87 of the Act of 1834 have been extended to include all assessors, thereby taking care of the provisions of Sec. 2, Act of May 9, 1889, P. L. 139, No. 156, applying to assessors in third class cities. There seems to be no specific provision for the filling of vacancies in the office of assessor in boroughs.

The office of assistant assessor contemplated by the Act of 1834 was abolished by the Act of Feb. 14, 1889, P. L. 7, No. 8: Wood v. Armstrong Co., 12 C. C. 289; Com. ex rel. v. Cornelius, 15 C. C. 73. In townships of the first class, however, there are now elected one assistant township assessor and two assistant triennial assessors; Sec. 503, Act of June 24, 1931, P. L. 1206. Vacancies in these offices are directed to be filled "in the manner provided by law." Sec. 533 Id.

Section 305. Compensation of Assessors Except in First Class Townships. In counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes, each elected assessor [and assistant assessor] for county purposes in cities of the third class, boroughs, town and townships of the second class, shall keep an account of the several days by him actually employed in the performance of his duties, and shall make return of the same to the commissioners of the county, verified by his oath or affirmation, and for each day necessarily so employed, he shall receive: In cities of the third class, such compensation as shall be fixed by the county commissioners; in boroughs and townships of the second class, the sum of five dollars; and in towns, the same compensation as is now received by assessors in towns.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 24, 1929, P. L. 653, No. 278, amending Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 4, 1919, P. L. 38, No. 27, and from Sec. 1, Act of May 12, 1921, P. L. 534, amending Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 4, 1919, P. L. 35, No. 22. We have not been able to ascertain under what law assessors in towns are paid.

There is no assistant assessor for county taxation purposes provided for in the municipalities covered by this section. The assistant assessor referred to is probably the election assessor provided for by the Act of June 16, 1891, P. L. 298, No. 227. The sections will be repealed only as to assessors.

Section 306. Compensation and Expenses of Assessors and Assistants in First Class Townships. In counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes, the township assessor and the assistant township assessor in each township of the first class [in this Commonwealth] shall receive, as compensation for his services, ten ($10.00) dollars per diem for each day actually employed by him in the performance of the duties of his office, both in making the triennial assessment and in making the supplemental assessments in the intervening years between the years of the triennial assessment; the said compensation to be paid by the county as heretofore. The compensation of the assistant triennial assessors in the said townships of the first class shall be five ($5.00) dollars per diem for each day actually employed by them, respectively, in the performance of the duties of their office, to be paid by the county as heretofore. In addition to the compensation hereinbefore provided, the township assessors, assistant township assessors, and assistant triennial assessors of first class townships shall be reimbursed by the county for any expenditures made for postage or stationery necessarily used in the performance of their duties and for any necessary office rent.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of July 11, 1923, P. L. 1040.

Section 307. Fixing Amount of Compensation and Expenses in First Class Townships. Payment. The said township assessors and assistant township assessors and assistant triennial assessors shall make return, on oath or affirmation, to the county commissioners of the proper county, of the number of days actually employed by them in the performance of the duties of their office, and of amounts expended for postage, stationery, and office rent; and the county commissioners are hereby empowered to summon the respective township assessors and assistant township assessors and assistant triennial assessors before them, and examine them, upon oath or affirmation, as to the accuracy of the said return. When the county commissioners shall have determined, either from the returns of the township assessors and assistant township assessors and assistant triennial assessors, or from their examination of them as aforesaid, the number of days actually employed by them and the amount of moneys properly and necessarily expended for postage, stationery, and office rent, clerk hire, and other expenses, the county commissioners shall make payment to the aforesaid township assessors, assistant township assessors, and assistant triennial assessors the amount due them from the funds of the county as hereinbefore stated.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 18, 1927, P. L. 304, amending Sec. 4, Act of July 11, 1923, P. L. 1040.

Section 308. Mileage. Whenever any elected assessor or [assistant assessor] in townships of the first class, any assessor, assistant township assessor, or assistant triennial assessor whose duties pertain to making assessments for purposes of [State and] county taxation [or either] shall be required to travel to the county seat of his county, or to any place of sitting of the county seat of his county, or to any place of sitting of the county commissioners elsewhere than at the county seat, he shall receive from the county, mileage at the rate of three cents a mile for each mile necessarily traveled, both going and returning, in addition to the per diem compensation for services allowed by [law] this act.

The assistant assesors referred to in the Act of 1909 are probably those provided for in townships of the first class by the Act of Apr. 23, 1903, P. L. 284, No. 215. At present, one assistant township assessor and two assistant triennial assessors are provided for: Sec. 503, Act of June 24, 1931, P. L. 1206. These are, therefore, taken care of in the above draft.
Local assessors no longer have any duties to perform in connection with State taxes.

Section 309. Interpreters. In counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth classes, county commissioners may appoint interpreters, to act as such for assessors or [assistant assessors,] in townships of the first class, for assessors, assistant township assessors or assistant triennial assessors.

Such interpreters may be assigned by the county commissioners to assist any assessor or assistant assessor, and shall accompany him to his district at and for such time as the commissioners may designate. Such interpreters shall, on behalf of such assessor or assistant assessor, and under his direction, and control, administer oaths, and interrogate and take concerning name, occupation, residence, and property of said taxable.

The number of said interpreters, so appointed shall be within the discretion of the county commissioners, provided not more than one interpreter be employed to a district; and, in no event, shall any interpreter be employed for a greater length of time than ten days in and one district.

The compensation for any interpreter appointed under the provisions of this act shall be two dollars and fifty cents per day, and traveling expenses, payable upon warrant of county commissioners, out of the county treasury.

[This act shall apply only to counties having a population of less than two hundred thousand inhabitants.]

Drafted from Secs. 1 to 5, Act of June 1, 1915, P. L. 659.
According to the census of 1930, the Act of 1915 would not apply to the fourth class counties of Berks, Cambria, Schuylkill and Washington. Of these, however, only Schuylkill did not come within the terms of the act according to the census of 1910, effective when the act was adopted.
As to assistant assessors, see note to preceding section.

Section 310. Penalty for refusing to serve. Exception. [If any person appointed collector, from whom security shall not be required, or] If any elected assessor [shall refuse] refuses to serve he shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered before a justice of the peace or alderman, at the suit of the commissioners, as debts of similar amount are now recoverable: Provided, that no person who shall have served as collector or assessor shall be appointed or chosen for a second term without his consent for the term of ten years.

Drafted from Sec. 2, Act of Feb. 28, 1835, P. L. 45.

ARTICLE IV

TRIENNIAL AND INTER-TRIENNIAL ASSESSMENTS

(a) Triennial Assessments

Section 401. Issuing of Precepts and Returns of Assessments in Triennial Years. (a) In counties of the first class, the precepts to make triennial assessments shall be issued to the appointed assessors by the board of revision of taxes and return thereof made as provided by existing law relating to the board of revision of taxes in said counties;

(b) In counties of the second class, the precepts to make triennial assessments shall be issued to the appointed assessors by the board for the assessment and revision of taxes at such time as the board may prescribed, and return thereof be made on or before the first Monday of November as provided by existing law relating to the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in said counties;

(c) In counties of the third class, the precepts to make triennial assessments shall be issued to the appointed assessors by the board for the assessment and revision of taxes and return thereof made at such times as the board shall determine in accordance with existing law relating to the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in said counties;

(d) In counties of the fourth class the county commissioners shall issue the precepts to make triennial assessments to the elected assessors of their respective townships, towns, boroughs and wards on or before the first day of June and the assessors are hereby required to complete the said assessment and make their return not later than the first day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and triennially thereafter;

(e) In counties of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes, the county commissioners shall issue the precepts to make triennal assessments to the assessors of the respective townships of the second class, towns, boroughs and wards on or before the second Monday of September, and to assessors in townships of the first class on or before the first day of July, and the assessors are hereby required to complete the said assessment and make their return not later than the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and triennially thereafter: Provided, That the county commissioners of said counties may at the time of issuing their precepts, direct the return thereof to be made at any time before the thirty-first day of December: Provided further, That where assessors in townships of the first class shall have been continuously engaged in the actual performance of their duties after the delivery of the precepts to them, except where prevented by sickness or stress of weather, and are not able to compete the triennial assessment and make return thereof on or before the thirty-first day of December, it shall be lawful for the said assessors to continue the performance of their duties and to make return of their assessment to the county commissioners after said date, but in no case shall any such return be made later than the fifteenth day of February of the year following the delivery of the precepts to the assessors.

This section states the existing law with respect to the precepts for and returns of triennial assessments for counties by classes, and represents a consolidation of the law as it is believed to be. The sources of the various clauses are as follows:

(a) Declaratory of and a reference to the special Act of Feb. 2, 1967, P. L. 137, Secs. 2 and 3, relating to the board of revision of taxes in Philadelphia. Since this act requires the aggregate value of assessments to be certified to the mayor on or before the first day of November it is believed the general law cannot be held to apply, and the dates of issue of precepts and returns of assessments are a matter of discretion with the board of revision of taxes.

(b) Declaratory of Sec. 5, Act of July 22, 1919, P. L. 1093, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 26, 1921, P. L. 307. This act fixes no date for the issue of precepts, but requires returns on or before the first Monday of November which is about two months earlier than the date found in the general law. It is believed that the general law date for issuing precepts does not govern in these counties since under Sec. 5 of the above Act of 1919, the first day of June was fixed for this purpose, which date was eliminated by the amendment of 1921.

(c) Declaratory of Sec. 5, Act of June 26, 1931, P. L. 1379. We construe this section as vesting in the board for the assessment and revision of taxes the absolute discretion to fix the dates when precepts for assessments shall issue returns be made, and as repealing the dates found in the general law.

(d) Draft from Sec. 1, Act of May 10, 1929, P. L. 1712. We view this section as establishing a uniform system for the issuing of precepts in counties of the fourth class and for the return of assessments, and as repealing the Act of July 11, 1923, P. L. 1040, fixing different dates for the issuing of precepts in townships of the first class. Since under the Act of 1929, the precepts issue one month earlier than under the Act of 1923, the reason for the extension of time to assessors in townships of the first class under the Act of 1923 no longer exists.

(e) Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 23, 1903, P. L. 292. The first proviso is from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 20, 1897, P. L. 28. The second proviso is from Secs. 2 and 3, Act of July 11, 1923, P. L. 1040. This last act provides that it shall not apply in counties having boards for the assessment and revision of taxes (counties of the second and third classes), and we have set forth our reasons for not applying it to counties of the fourth class in our notes to clause (d).

Section 402. Valuation of Property. It shall be the duty of the several elected and appointed assessors, and [assistant assessors] in townships of the first class of the assessors, assistant township assessors and assistant triennial assessors, to assess, rate and value all objects of taxation, whether for [State,] county, [city, district, ward] township, town, school, poor or borough purposes, according to the actual value thereof, and at such rates and prices for which the same would separately bona fide sell.

Drafted from a part of Sec. 4, Act of May 15, 1841, P. L. 393.

The assistant assessors contemplated by the Act of 1841 were abolished by the Act of Feb. 14, 1889, P. L. 7, No. 8: Wood v. Armstrong Co., 12 C. C. 289; Com. ex rel v. Cornelius, 15 C. C. 73. Since that time, however, assistant township assessors and assistant triennial assessors have been provided for in townships of the first class: Sec. 503, Act of June 24, 1931, P. L. 1206.

No assessments for State tax purposes are any longer made by the local assessors.

Sec. 9, Act of July 27, 1842, P. L. 441 (Sec. 302 above) prescribing form of oath for assessors, requires valuations of property to be made "at the rate or price which you shall, after due examination and consideration, believe the same would sell for if sold singly and separately at a bona fide sale after full public notice." Sec. 13, Act of 1842 (Sec. 505 below), requires the board of revision to ascertain "whether all property has been valued at a sum or price not less than the same would bring after full public notice at a public sale, supposing each separate lot or piece or tract of land, with the improvements, or the personal property of each individual, company or corporation only were to be sold." Obviously, these sections all fix the standard of valuation at public sale values, which in the present day is not a fair criterion, as there are practically no public sales other than forced sales. The courts have, however, construed the standard as being that of market value: "The only standard of valuation recognized by law in making assessments is market value as distinguished from actual value, or, more accurately expressed, actual value limited and defined by market value."Kaemmerling's App., 282 Pa. 78, 82; Penn'a Co. App., 282 Pa. 69, 74; L. & W-B C. Co's Assessm't, 293 Pa. 294, 300. "By fair market value is meant the amount of money which a purchaser, willing but not obliged to buy the property, would pay to an owner willing but not obliged to sell it, taking into consideration all the uses to which the property is adapted and might in reason be applied." Penn'a Co., supra p. 74. While this rule formulated by the Supreme Court excludes forced sales as a criterion of value, it permits the use of exorbitant prices paid by persons who are not obliged to buy, but who choose to do so even though they know that the price paid is far in excess of either actual or market value. A more generally fair test would probably be place assessments on the basis of prudent investment, or the price the average prudent investor would pay for the property, expecting to derive a reasonable return therefrom and to resell without loss, or as stated by the court in other cases, "Common sence and practical every day business experience are the best guides for those entrusted with the administration of tax laws." Coal & Iron Co. v. Co. Commrs. 229 Pa. 460, 471; Harleigh Realty Co's Case, 299 Pa. 385, 390. "The general rule in Pennsylvania is that market value means the price or value of an article established or shown by sales, public or private, in the way of ordinary business." Coal & Iron Co. v. Co. Commrs., above p. 466. Even the market value rule must give way, however, where it appears that another rule has been applied to other properties. Cumberland Coal Co. v. Board of Rev. 76 L. Ed. (U. S.) 131.

In the case of L. & W-B C. Co's Assessment, above p. 300, it is said. "The proper method of making assessments is governed by the Acts of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509, Sec. 2: May 15, 1841, P. L. 393, Secs. 4, 6: July 27, 1842, P. L. 441, Sec. 13." Sec. 2 of the Act of 1934, merely provides for the issuing of precepts and the making out and return of a list of taxables and taxable property "together with a just valuation of the same to be made in the manner hereinafter directed." We regard it as being wholly supplied by later legislation. To the same effect is Sec. 6, of the Act of 1841, which we likewise regard as being wholly supplied. Sec. 13 of the Act of 1842 has been noted above in this note.

The provisions of Sec. 5, Act of May 15, 1941, P. L. 393, providing that when the assessors believe that a taxable renders a false or incomplete return of his property, etc., the assessors shall return the same at full value, has not been incorporated, as no return is now required to be made by any taxable, except under the Act of June 17, 1913, P. L. 507, No. 335, the provisions of which are sufficient in themselves and are not a part of the present subject.

Secs. 4 and 5 of the Act of Apr. 15, 1934, P. L. 509 contain further provisions for making assessments, all of which are supplied by later legislation.

Section 403. List of Taxables. The elected and appointed assessors of the several counties, except counties of the first class, shall in each [and every] year make a return to the county commissioners or board for the assessment and revision of taxes of all the taxable inhabitants within their respective wards, boroughs, towns, townships, and districts, which return shall state the names and surnames and the address of each of such taxable inhabitants, stating the occupation and the street and number of the house in which such inhabitant resides. In all cases where such taxable inhabitant resides in a house not having a street and number address, the name of the owner of the house and his or her address, as definitely as possible, shall be given. [Providing, however, That the provisions of this act shall not affect the title.]

The proviso at the end of this section may well be omitted, as there is no possibility that the provisions of the section might affect any titles.

Section 404. Assessment of Persons in Second and Third Class Counties for Collection of Poll Taxes and Borough and Township Occupation Taxes. It shall be the duty of the assessors for taxation purposes to prepare a list of all residents and inhabitants in [such] counties of the second and third classes over the age of twenty-one years and return the same to the proper county authorities with other taxable property as provided by law. The assessor shall also state the occupation of each such resident and inhabitant for the assessment of any township or borough tax on occupations, as now provided by law. To the lists as furnished by the tax assessors, the county commissioners or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, as the case may be, shall add and assess for the poll tax such residents and inhabitants as may be assessed by assessors, assistant or registry assessors for the purpose of qualifying such persons to vote: Provided, That any person, subject to said tax and for any such reason not assessed, may appear before the county commissioners or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, at any time at least two months before any general or municipal election, and be so assessed. The county commissioners or board of assessment and revision of taxes shall immediately certify the fact of such assessment to the county treasurer, or if other county taxes for the year have become delinquent, then to the county delinquent tax collector. The county commissioners or boards for the assessments and revision of taxes, as the case may be, shall continue to fix vaulations for trades, occupations and professions, as now provided by law, for the use of boroughs and townships, and nothing contained in this act shall be construed to repeal the power of townships and boroughs to levy taxes on trades, occupations and professions as now provided by law.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of May 13, 1931, P. L. 117.

Section 405. Return of Exempt Property. It shall be the duty of the several elected and appointed assessors in this Commonwealth, to make return of all property now or which hereafter may be especially exempt by act of assembly from taxes, in a separate list to the commissioners or board of revision of taxes or board for the assessment and revision of taxes, as the case may be, of the proper county for which services to said assessors shall receive the same compensation as is allowed for like services in other cases.

Drafted from Sec. 5, Act of Apr. 5, 1849, P. L. 962.

Section 406. Real Estate Omitted from Triennial Assessment. Whenever any taxable real estate shall be omitted to be assessed at the triennial assessment, the elected or appointed assessor, on notice thereof shall forthwith assess and return the same to the proper office, which assessment shall be subject to appeal, and shall continue until the next triennial assessment, and its proper proportion of all taxes to which such real estate is liable levied after such assessment shall be laid thereon.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 28, 1868, P. L. 105, No. 66.
Notice of this assessment must be given in order to afford an opportunity to appeal. Such notice is, however, not essential to the validity of the assessment. Failure to give it is an irregularity, and no more. Winton Coal Co. v. Comm'rs, 1 Lack. L. N. 195, 207-8.

Section 407 (a) Recorder of Deeds in Certain Counties to Furnish Record of Conveyances. Compensation. [From and after the passage of this act,] It shall be the duty of the recorder of deeds in each [and every] county [in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, having a population not to exceed four hundred thousand,] of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes, to keep a daily record, separate and apart from all other records, of every deed or conveyance of land in said county, entered in his office for recording, which [said] record shall set forth the following information; to wit, the date of the deed or conveyance, the names of the grantor and grantee, the consideration mentioned in the deed, the location of the property as to city, borough, ward, town, or township, the acreage of the land conveyed, if mentioned, and, if the land conveyed be a lot or lots on a recorded plan, the number of numbers by which the same may be designated on the plan, if mentioned in the deed; and it shall be the further duty of the recorder, on the first Monday of each month, to file the aforesaid daily record in the commissioner's office or office of the board for the assessment and revision of taxes of the proper county, together with his certificate, appended thereto, that such record is correct; and the [said] recorder of deeds shall charge, and collect from the person presenting a deed of conveyance for record, the sum of fifteen (15) cents, when it contains but one description of land, and ten (10) cents for each additional description therein described, which sum shall be in full compensation for his services under this act.

According to the census of 1930, the Act of 1911 does not apply to the county of Luzerne. The act, however, did apply under the census of 1910 effective when the act became a law.

(b) Statement of Conveyances to be Furnished Assessors. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners or board for the assessment and revision of taxes of [the proper county,] such counties, upon receipt of such daily report from the office of the recorder of deeds, to keep the same on file in their office; and, prior to the making of the annual and of the triennial assessment, to deliver to the elected or appointed assessor or assessors of each city, borough, ward, town, [or] township, or district before he shall enter upon the discharge of his duty as assessor of the real estate in his district, a statement or statements of all such deeds and conveyances of all such real estate within said district, together with all the information regarding the same as set forth in [section one of] this [act] section to be used by such assessor or assessors in making the assessment in the name of the owners of the real estate, and in ascertaining the value of such real estate.

Drafted from Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 13, 1911, P. L. 62.

(c) Land to be Assessed in Name of Owner at Time of Assessment. It shall be the duty of such assessor or assessors, in such counties in making the triennial assessment and the intermediate annual assessments, to ascertain the owner or owners of each tract, piece, parcel, or lot of ground assessed, at the time of such assessment, and to assess the same in the name of the then owners or owners, as thus appears in such statement, unless to his personal knowledge there has been thereafter a change in the ownership, so that such tract, piece, parcel, or lot of real estate shall be assessed, in the name of the then owner or owners. [and to return the said assessment to the county commissioners in the manner directed by law.]

Drafted from Sec. 3, Act of Apr. 13, 1911, P. L. 62.
Sec. 4, Act of 1911, merely states its purpose, which is obvious from its provisions, and has, therefore, been omitted.

Section 408. (a) Recorder of Deeds to Furnish Abstract of Conveyances of Property in First Class Townships. Compensation. Before the recorder of deeds of any county, wherein there is no board for the assessment and revision of taxes for [State and] county purposes, shall admit to record in his office any deed of conveyance of land in any township of the first class within said county, he shall charge, and collect from the person presenting [the said] such deed of conveyance for record, the sum of fifteen (15) cents, as a fee for the service hereinafter prescribed; and, at the time of admitting the [said] deed of conveyance to record, the [said] recorder of deeds shall transmit to the town clerk of the township of the first class, in which the [said] land so conveyed may be located, an abstract of the [said] deed of conveyance, giving the name of the grantor, the name and address of the grantee, the acreage conveyed, if mentioned, and the consideration money mentioned; and, if the land conveyed be a lot or lots on a recorded plan, the number of numbers by which the same may be designated on the plan, if mentioned in the deed. [and it shall be the duty of the town clerk to note the said deed of conveyance in the record books hereinbefore directed to be kept, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, and it shall be the further duty of the town clerk, without any fee or compensation therefor, other than the salary of his office, to ascertain and note on the said record books the election district or districts of the said township in which the said land so conveyed may be located.]

Drafted from Sec. 2, Act of May 14, 1915, P. L. 489, amending Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 29, 1909, P. L. 275.
Sec. 1 of this act, requiring township commissioners to procure and cause to be kept by the town clerk a record of conveyances, was repealed by the Township Code of 1917, and reenacted as Sec. 303 of that code, which section was in turn repealed by the Act of June 24, 1931, P. L. 1206. Secs. 1310 to 1315 of the Act of 1931 provide for an optional system of registering real estate by the township engineer. It seems, therefore, that the records to be kept by the town clerk under the provisions of the Act of 1909 are no longer required. Sec. 1314 of the Act of 1931, however, provides that the township engineer's registration may be effected by the recorder of deeds "in accordance with existing laws," which undoubtedly has reference to the above provision.
It is recommended that this act be repealed and this and the succeeding section be omitted from this bill, since the same information is secured under Sec. 417.

(b) Assessors In First Class Townships to Examine Records and Return Property in Name of Then Owner. It shall be the duty of the assessor and assistant assessors in each of such townships of the first class before making the triennial assessment, to examine the record books [required by this act to be kept,] or registers of real estate, if any, kept in such township, and to assess each tract, piece, parcel, or lot of land in the said township in the name of the owner thereof, as shown by the said record books, or registers; and it shall further be the duty of the assessor, in the years intermediate between the triennial assessments to revise the preceding assessment according to the changes of ownership, as shown by the record books or registers, so that each tract, piece, parcel, or lot of real estate in the [said] township shall be assessed in the name of the then owner as shown by the said record books or registers, and to return the said revised assessment to the county commissioners in the manner directed by [law] this act.

Drafted from Sec. 3, Act of Apr. 29, 1909, P. L. 275.
See note to preceding clause.
Sec. 4 of the Act of 1909 merely states the purpose of the act which is no longer applicable since the system of records is abolished.

Section 409. Persons Acquiring Unseated Lands to Furnish Statement to County Commissioners. [It shall be the duty of every holder of unseated lands within this Commonwealth, who has not complied with the injunctions required by the second section of the act to which this is a supplement, to furnish to the commissioners of the proper county, on or before the fourth Monday of November, next, a statement signed by such holder or his, her or their agent, containing a description of each and every tract so held, the name of the person or persons to whom the original title from the Commonwealth passed, and the nature, number and date of such original title; and] It shall be the duty of every person hereafter becoming a holder of unseated lands by gift, grant or other conveyance, to furnish to the county commissioners or board for the assessment and revision of taxes, as the case may be, a [like] statement, signed by such holder or his, her or their agent, containing a description of each tract so acquired, the name of the person or persons to whom the original title from the Commonwealth passed, and the nature, number and date of such original title, together with the date of the conveyance to such holder, and the name of the grantor, within one year, from and after such conveyance, and on failure of any holder of unseated lands to comply with the injunctions of this act, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to assess on every tract of land, respecting which such default shall be made when discovered, four times the amount of the tax to which such tract or tracts of land would have been otherwise liable, and to enforce the collection thereof, in the same manner that taxes dues on unseated lands are or may be assessed and collected: Provided, That nothing in this [act nor in the act to which this is a supplement,] section shall be construed as giving greater validity to unexecuted land warrants, than they are now entitled to, nor to the detriment of persons under legal disabilities: Provided, such person or persons comply with the foregoing requisitions within the time or times limited respectively, after such disability shall be removed.

The first part of this section is obsolete.
Balance is recognized as being in force as late as 1901: Hutchinson v. Kline, 199 Pa. 564, 568.

Section 410. Assessment of Unseated Lands. All unseated lands within this Commonwealth, held by individuals, [companies or bodies corporate) copartnerships, associations or corporations, either by improvement, warrant, patent or otherwise, shall for the purpose of raising county rates and levies, be valued and assessed in the same manner as other property.

Whenever [an assessment of road tax by the supervisors may be] any tax levy is made upon land as unseated, which the assessors for the same year by error or mistake returned assessed as seated, while the same ought or might legally have been assessed as unseated, [the said assessment by the supervisors] such levy shall be deemed valid and regular for all intents and purposes, notwithstanding it differs from the copy of the duplicate furnished [the supervisor] by the assessor. [and] All records of the county commissioners charging lands as unseated with arrears of taxes shall be evidence of an assessment. [and] No clearing over by mistake shall ever be deemed sufficient to render land unseated.

Drafted from a part of Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 3, 1804, P. L. 517 and Sec. 21, Act of Apr. 12, 1842, P. L. 262.
The balance of Sec. 2 of the Act of 1804 does not deal with the subject of assessments.
Sec. 21 of the Act of 1842, in using the term "assessment of road tax" evidently refers to the levy of the tax. On this theory, the section has been made general to all tax levies.

Section 411. Assessment of Seated Lands Divided by County Lines. The elected and appointed assessors of the several counties [within this Commonwealth] shall, on seated lands, make the assessment in the county in which the mansion house is situate, when county lines divide a tract of land. [and where the lines which separate a borough from a township, or one borough from another, pass through the lands of any person such lands shall be assessed where the mansion is situated.]

Sec. 1, Act of July 13, 1883, P. L. 51.
The title of this act gave no notice of any provision affecting assessments where lands are divided by township or borough lines, and is therefore unconstitutional, except in so far as it provides for assessments where lands are divided by county lines. La Plenne Boro. v. Gardner, 148 Pa. 192.

Section 412. Assessment of Seated Lands Divided by Township Lines. Where seated lands are divided by the boundary line between two townships or between a township and a city, borough or town, and the mansion house is situated in a township, the whole of such lands shall be assessed only in the township where the mansion house is situated. Where the mansion house is situated in a city, borough or town, and the balance of such seated lands are located in one or more townships, the land located in such township or townships shall be assessed therein, and the land located in the city, borough or town shall be assessed therein.

This is a new draft embodying the provisions of Sec. 59, Act of July 11, 1842, P. L. 321 and Sec. 15, Act of Apr. 25, 1850, P. L. 569, as affected by the court decisions noted below. Sec. 59 of the Act of 1842 reads as follows:
"Hereafter the assessors of the several counties within this Commonwealth shall, on seated lands, make the assessment in the township in which the mansion house is situate, where township lines divide a tract of land."
Sec. 15 of the Act of 1850 reads as follows:
"The fifty-ninth section of the act of 11 July, 1842, entitled 'An act regulating election districts and for other purposes,' shall not be construed to extend to lands lying in different townships, the mansion house of which is in an incorporated borough or city."
The township lines referred to in the Act of 1842 may be between a township and a city or borough as well as between two townships. Bansman v. Lancaster, 50 Pa. 208, 211.
Where the mansion house is situated in a borough or a city, the land in the township is to be assessed in the township, and the land in the borough or city is to be assessed there. Follett v. Butler Co. 31 Pa. Super. Ct. 571, 573; affirmed 219 Pa. 509, 512, 513.
Act of 1850 applies where balance of land lies in one township as well as where it lies in more than one. Follett v. Butler Co. 219 Pa. 509, 512, 513.

Section 413. Assessment Where Township Line Passes Through Mansion House. Whenever the dividing line between any township and city or borough or between any two townships, [in this Commonwealth] as now or may be hereafter located, shall pass through the mansion house of any tract of [farm] land, [it shall be and may be lawful for] the owner of the land so divided [to] may choose, as the place of residence of its occupants, either of the townships or the borough, by a written notice of his election to the commissioners of the county. [Provided, that] A choice once so made shall be binding on the owner and occupiers of such mansion house and on future owners thereof. [And provided further, that] In case of the neglect or refusal of the owner of such land to make an election as aforesaid, the persons occupying said mansion house shall be regarded as residing wholly within the township, and the elected or appointed assessors of such township shall, in such case, or when he elects to reside in the township, assess therein such persons, and all the [farm or] tract of land on which such mansion house is erected.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of May 24, 1878, P. L. 131, No. 163.
This act applies also where a part of the mansion house is in a city, and where the house is not connected with farm lands. Lancaster v. Bare, 22 C. C. 662, 666, 667. Same principle applied in Brown's Appeal, 75 P. L. J. 398, in which, however, it appears that the mansion house was situated wholly in the township. The section has been changed in accordance with these cases.

Section 414. Assessment of Coal Underlying Lands Divided by County, Township or Borough Lines. The elected or appointed assessors of the wards, townships and boroughs of the several counties [of this Commonwealth] shall, where seated lands, underlaid with coal, are divided by county, city, township or borough lines, the ownership of which coal has been severed from the ownership of the overlying strata or surface, assess each division of said coal in the county, city, township or borough in which it actually lies.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 27, 1903, P. L. 326, No. 256.
The principle of assessing coal land in the district in which actually located has been extended in the above section to cities. This is probably now the rule of law.

Section 415. Separate Assessment of Coal and Surface. All elected and appointed assessors shall [hereafter] assess coal and surface separately in cases where the life tenant of land has not the right to operate the coal underlying said surface. [and the tax on the underlying coal shall be paid by the owner or owners thereof.]

Drafted from Sec. 2, Act of May 9, 1932, P. L. 175, No. 129.
The balance of the Act of 1923 refers to the payment of taxes as between the life tenant having the use of the surface only and the owner of the underlying coal.

Section 416. Assessing Real Estate Subject to Ground Rent, Dower or Mortgage. All real estate subject to ground rent, dower or mortgage shall be estimated at its full value and taxed accordingly, except in the case of real estate subject to ground rent where there is no provision made in the ground rent deed that the lessee shall pay the taxes on the ground rent, in which cases such ground rent shall be estimated and assessed for taxes to the owners thereof.

This is a new draft embodying the provisions of Sec. 7, Act of May 15, 1841, P. L. 393 and Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 1, 1845, P. L. 280. Sec. 7, Act of 1841 reads as follows:
"So much of the proviso contained in the fourth section of an act entitled 'An act to create additional revenue to be applied towards the payment of interest and the extinguishment of the debts of the Commonwealth,' passed the eleventh day of June, 1840, as authorized the deduction of the value of any ground rent, dower or mortgage on any real estate within this Commonwealth, in estimating the value thereof, be and the same is hereby repealed, and said real estate shall hereafter be estimated at its full value, and taxed accordingly."

Sec. 1, Act of 1845, reads as follows:

"The assessors in the several cities, boroughs and counties in estimating real estate subject to ground rent, where there is no provision made in ground rent deeds that the lessee shall pay the taxes on the said ground rents, the assessors shall estimate and assess for taxes the said ground rents to the owners thereof."

Provision in deed that lessee shall pay tax on the ground rent must be definite. Robinson v. Allegheny, 7 Pa. 161, 163.

Although dower was abolished by the Intestate Law of 1917 (Sec. 3, Act of June 7, 1917, P. L. 429), there undoubtedly still are a number of dower interests that became operative prior to the taking effect of that act.

Section 417. Assessment of Property of Decedents' Estates. Where any person shall [hereafter] die, leaving real or personal estate, which by the existing laws of this Commonwealth is subject to taxation for [State or] county purposes, such property, so long as the same shall belong to the estate of such deceased person, may be [taxed] assessed in the name of the decedent, or in the name of his administrator or administrators, executor or executors, or his heirs generally, or in the name of any of the administrators, executors or heirs; and in [taxing] assessing it in the names of the executors, administrators, or heirs, it shall not be necessary to designate them by their Christian or surnames.

The section will not be repealed in so far as it applies to the levy and collection of taxes.

Section 418. Returns of Timber Lands. It shall be the duty of the several elected and appointed assessors, in their return of real estate to the commissioners of the proper county, [at the next triennial assessment, and] at each triennial assessment [thereafter] to make returns of all the timber land in their proper district by specifying in separate columns how many acres each tract contains of cleared land, and how many in timber.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of June 13, 1883, P. L. 112. No. 100.

Section 419. Assessment of Auxiliary Forest Reserves. All surface land which [may hereafter be] has, since the fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, been classified and set apart as auxiliary forest reserves, in the manner provided by law, or which may hereafter be so classified, shall, so long as the same remains so classified, be rated in value, for the purpose of taxation, not in excess of one dollar ($1.00) per acre and shall continue to be so rated so long as the said land remains within the class designated as auxiliary forest reserves: Provided, however, That if the said surface land be underlaid with coal, iron ore, oil, gas, or other valuable minerals, said minerals may be separately assessed. The elected and appointed assessors in the several boroughs, townships and districts in which such lands are situate shall assess such lands in the manner now or hereafter provided for the assessment of real estate for purposes of taxation, as if they had not been set apart as auxiliary forest reserves, and shall make their return to the county commissioners in like manner as is now or hereafter may be provided by law, subject to exception, appeal, and final adjustment.

Upon receipt of assessment returns from the various assessors, the county commissioners or board for the assessment and revision of taxes shall reduce, in their records, to a sum not in excess of one dollar ($1.00) per acre, the assessment on all those lands which shall have been placed in the class known as auxiliary forest reserves, in accordance with certificates filed with them by the [State Forestry Reservation Commission] Department of Forests and Waters, and the original assessment returns made by said assessors shall be preserved.

Drafted from Secs. 1 and 2, Act of June 5, 1913, P. L. 405.
The State Forestry Reservation Commission was changed to the State Forest Commission by Act of Feb. 25, 1901, P. L. 11, as amended. It was abolished by the Administrative Code of 1923 (Act of June 7, 1923, P. L. 498, Sec. 2). Its duties are now performed by the Department of Forests and Waters under Sec. 1601, Act of Apr. 9, 1929, P. L. 177.
Secs. 3, 4 and 5 of the Act of 1913 do not pertain to assessments. Sec. 6 provides the effective date.

Section 420. Assessment for County and Poor Purposes Where Lands in One County are Annexed to a Borough in Another County. Where lands situated in one county now are or hereafter shall be annexed to a borough situated in an adjoining county, the authorities in the county wherein the land is actually situated, now or hereafter having authority to make the assessments on which the county and poor taxes are levied, shall assess the taxable property within the lines of land lying in [one] such county [and annexed to a borough in an adjoining county,] and shall record the same in a separate book. This assessment shall be made by the authority that would have made the assessment had the land not been annexed to the borough. The owners of all property so assessed shall have the same right of appeal from this assessment as any other taxable in the same county.

Drafted from Sec. 2, Act of June 28, 1923, P. L. 903.
The Act of 1923 is a supplement to the Borough Code of 1915; and provides for a system of government, etc., where land in an adjoining county is annexed to a borough. It is incorporated by reference only in Sec. 420 of the Borough Code of 1927. See also following section.

Section 421. Assessment for Borough and School Purposes Where Lands in One County are Annexed to a Borough in Another County. The authorities within the county wherein is situated the borough to which such land has been annexed, now or hereafter having authority to make the assessments on which the borough and school taxes are levied, shall also assess the taxable property within the territory which is situated in one county and has been annexed to a borough which is situated in an adjoining county, and shall record the same in a separate book. This assessment shall be made by the authority which would have assessed this land had it been in the same county as the borough to which it is annexed. The owner of any property so annexed shall have the same right of appeal from this assessment as any other taxable in the same county as the borough.

Drafted from Sec. 3, Act of June 28, 1923, P. L. 903.
See note to preceding section.

Section 422. Borough Ward Assessors to Act as Board. [The assessors elected pursuant to the provisions of this act shall perform all the duties of assessors under the laws of this Commonwealth, as well as those related to elections, as to the valuation of property: Provided, that] In boroughs divided into wards, in making the valuation of property, the elected assessors of all the wards shall act as a board of assessors and such board of assessors shall make the assessments of all subjects of taxation in the borough, for borough, school, district and county purposes, and return thereof shall be made to the county commissioners, as now provided by law, subject to revision by the county commissioners as now provided by law.

Sec. 1, Act of July 9, 1901, P. L. 613, amending Sec. 3, Act of Feb. 14, 1889, P. L. 7, No. 8, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 8, 1889, P. L. 133.
Secs. 1 and 2, Act of Feb. 14, 1889, P. L. 7, provided for the election of assessors in boroughs only. They are supplied and repealed by the Borough Code of 1927.
This section, if of any actual value, might well be extended to cities.

(b) Inter-Triennial Assessments

Section 431. Issuing of Precepts and Return of Assessments in Inter-Triennial Years.

(a) In counties of the first class the precepts to make assessments in the years between triennial assessments shall be issued to the appointed assessors by the board of revision of taxes and return made as provided by existing law relating to the board of revision of taxes in said counties;

(b) In counties of the second class the precepts to make assessments in the years between triennial assessments shall be issued to the appointed assessors by the board for the assessment and revision of taxes at such time as the board may prescribe, and return thereof made on or before the first Monday of November, as provided by existing law relating to the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in said counties;

(c) In counties of the third class the precepts to make assessments in the years between triennial assessments shall be issued to the appointed assessors by the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, and return thereof made at such times as the board shall determine in accordance with existing law relating to the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in said counties;

(d) In counties of the fourth class the precepts to make assessments in the years between triennial assessments shall be issued to the assessors by the county commissioners on or before the first day of June and the assessors are hereby required to complete the said assessments and to make return thereof not later than ninety days from the date of the issuing of said precepts;

(e) In counties of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes the precepts to make assessments in the years between triennial assessments shall be issued to the assessors of townships of the second class, towns, boroughs and wards on or before the second Monday of September, and to assessors in townships of the first class on or before the first day of July, and the said assessors are hereby required to complete the said assessments and to make return thereof not later than ninety days from the date of the issuing of said precepts: Provided, That in cases of an emergency or in wards where an assessor cannot complete the re-assessment within the said ninety days, the county commissioners may at their discretion extend the time for completing the said re-assessment and for making return thereof: And provided further, That where assessors in townships of the first class shall have been continuously engaged in the actual performance of their duties after the delivery of the precepts to them, except where prevented by sickness or stress of weather, and are not able to complete the assessment and make return thereof as herein provided, it shall be lawful for said assessors to continue the performance of their duties and to make return of their assessment to the county commissioners after said date, but in no case shall any such return be made later than the fifteenth day of February of the year following the delivery of the precepts to the assessors.

This section states the existing law with respect to the precepts for and returns of inter-triennial assessments for counties by classes, and represents a consolidation of the law as it is believed to be. The sources of the various clauses are as follows:

(a) Same as Sec. 401 (a) supra.
(b) Sec. 9, Act of July 22, 1919, P. L. 1093, as amended by Sec. 3, Act of Apr. 26, 1921, P. L. 307.
(c) Same as Sec. 401 (c) supra.
(d) Same as Sec. 401 (d) supra.
(e) From Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 23, 1903, P. L. 292, as amended May 9, 1929, P. L. 1692. The second proviso and the provisions relating to townships of the first class are from Secs. 2 and 3, Act of July 11, 1923, P. L. 1040. See also the notes to Sec. 401 (e) supra which apply to this section.

Section 432. Inter-Triennial Assessments. [On or before the first day of April] In each of the two years succeeding the triennial assessment, except as in counties of the first, second and third classes otherwise provided, the commissioners or board of revision of taxes or board for the assessment and revision of taxes, as the case may be, of the respective county shall send a transcript of such triennial assessment to the elected or appointed assessors of every ward, borough, town, township and district herein, together with their precepts, requiring [him] them to take an account of all [freemen and of all] personal property taxable by law, together with a just valuation of same, and all persons and also a valuation of all offices and posts of profit, professions, trades and occupations taxable by law, enjoining such assessors to make a just return to them [within thirty days after the date of such precept,] and to note in such return such alterations in his ward, borough, town, township or district, as may have been occasioned by the transfer or division of real estate, or by the destruction of buildings, or by the mining out of coal, ore, or other minerals assessed under the triennial assessment, and also noting all [single freemen] persons who have arrived at the age of twenty-one years since the last triennial assessment, and all others who have since that time come to inhabit in such ward, borough, town, township or district, together with the taxable property such persons may possess and the valuation thereof agreeably to the provisions of this act; [The assessors of the several counties of this Commonwealth are hereby authorized and directed] and to re-assess [between the periods of the triennial assessments] all real estate which have been improved by the erection of buildings, or other improvements, subsequent to the last preceding triennial assessments, subject to appeals as now provided by law.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1909, P. L. 491, amending Sec. 11, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509; and Sec. 34, Act of Apr. 10, 1849, P. L. 570.
The word "persons" has been substituted for "freemen" and "single freemen" to correspond with the change in Sec. 201 above.

(c) Optional Re-assessments

Section 441. The county commissioners or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, as the case may be, may in their discretion, issue their precepts to the elected or appointed assessors of the respective wards, districts, boroughs, towns, and townships, on or before the first day in March of each year, for the assessment of such persons as may remove into the respective township, ward, borough, town, or district since the last assessment, and for the re-assessment of such property as may have been transferred since the last assessment, and for the assessment of those who may have been omitted from last assessment. And it shall be the duty of such assessors to make such assessment, and return the same before the twenty-fifth of May. For such service the said assessors shall receive, out of the county funds, such compensation as may be fixed by the county commissioners, not however, exceeding the per diem compensation fixed by [law] this act.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of May 20, 1913, P. L. 241.

(d) Penal Provisions

Section 451. Penalty on Assessors for Failure to Assess and for Making Incorrect Assessments. If any elected or appointed assessor or [assistant assessor shall] in townships of the first class, any assessor, assistant township assessor or assistant triennial assesor, knowingly and intentionally [omit neglect or refuse] omits, neglects or refuses to assess and return any property, person or thing made taxable by law or [shall] knowingly and intentionally [assess, rate or value] assesses, rates or values the same at more or less than he [shall know and believe] knows and believes the just cash value or rate thereof, or [neglect or refuse] neglects or refuses to assess any tax required by law, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction thereof, be subject to imprisonment, not less than three nor more than twelve months, and fined in a sum not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred dollars.

Drafted from Sec. 3, Act of May 15, 1841, P. L. 393.
Assistant assessors, as they existed at the time of the approval of the above act, were abolished by the Act of Feb. 14, 1889, P. L. 7, No. 8 Wood v. Armstrong Co., 12 C. C. 289; Com. ex rel. v. Cornelius, 15 C. C. 73. The present assistant township assessors and assistant triennial assessors in townships of the first class have, however, been included in the provisions of this section.
This section supplies the provisions of Sec. 23, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509.

Section 452. Penalty on Assessor for Failure to Perform Duty. If any elected or appointed assesor or [assistant assessor] in townships of the first class, any assessor, assistant township assessor or assistant triennial assessor who shall have taken upon himself the duties of such office, [shall neglect or refuse] neglects or refuses to comply with any order or warrant issued to him [by the commissioners of the same county] in conformity with law, or [shall] does not perform the duties enjoined upon him by law, he shall forfeit any sum not exceeding forty dollars, to be recovered by the county as debts of a like amount are recoverable.

Drafted from Sec. 24, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509.
As to the assistant assessor, see note to preceding section.

Section 453. Penalty on County Commissioners for Failure to Perform Duty. It shall be a misdemeanor in office for the county commissioners, or members of the board of revision of taxes or board for the assessment and revision of taxes of any county to neglect or refuse to perform the duties required of them by law in the assessment [or collection] of any tax which has been or shall be imposed by the laws of this Commonwealth, and on conviction of said offence he or they shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars.

Drafted from Sec. 9, Act of May 15, 1841, P. L. 393.
This section has been extended to include the officers charged with the duty of making assessments in counties of the first, second and third classes. Having taken over the duties of the commissioners they should be subject to like penalties.
Since this bill is limited to assessments, the phrase relating to collection has been eliminated. The section will, however, be cited for absolute repeal, since the county commissioners are not primarily concerned with the collection of taxes.

ARTICLE V

Revisions and Appeals

Section 501. Commissioners to Constitute Board of Revision; Oath. The county commissioners [and associate judges] of each county of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes, shall compose a board to be called a "Board of Revision," of which the county commissioners holding the oldest certificate of election shall be the president. The members of said board shall each take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, before the president of the court of common pleas, the prothonotary or any of the associate judges [for] of the county, in the following words, to wit: "I . . . . do swear or affirm that I will faithfully, and to the best of my knowledge and judgment, revise, correct and equalize the valuation of all property taxable by law . . . in . . . county . . . and faithfully perform all the duties of a member of the board of revision for . . . . county, according to the laws of this Commonwealth,"—which oath shall be deposited in the office of the recorder [for] of the county.

Drafted from Sec. 10, Act of July 27, 1842, P. L. 441, with the provision of Sec. 1, Act of Feb. 11, 1859, P. L. 37, authorizing the prothonotary or associate judge to administer the oath.
This section was repealed by Sec. 41, Act of Apr. 29, 1844, P. L. 486, in so far as it constituted the associate judges members of the board of revision.

Section 502. Publication of Statement Showing Aggregate Assessments, Etc. The county commissioners acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be, of the several counties shall, as soon as the elected or appointed assessors of the several wards, districts, boroughs, towns, and townships in their respective counties shall have made their returns, [according to the sixth section of the act, entitled "An Act to estimate a uniform mode for the valuation of property and assessment of taxes," passed the fifteenth May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one,] make out and publish in not less than two newspapers for two weeks, or if there be no newspaper published in the county, by handbills posted up in each ward, district, borough, town or township, at the place of holding township, town, borough, ward or district elections, a statement in such form as will show the aggregate value and assessments made by each assessor in the county, upon property taxable by law, for county purposes, upon personal property [mortgages, moneys at interest debts due from solvent debtors, stocks, loans, and investments in corporations of other states, upon household furniture, and upon watches according to the second section of the act, entitled "An act to create additional revenue to be applied towards the payment of interest and the extinguishment of the debt of the Commonwealth," passed the eleventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty, according to any laws that may hereafter be passed relating to similar objects of taxation,] upon all salaries and emoluments of office, and all persons, trades, occupations and professions, [according to the ninth section of the act, entitled "An act to provide revenue to meet the demands on the treasury and for other purposes," passed the fifth May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, or according to any laws that may hereafter be passed relating to similar objects of taxation,] and as will also show the whole amount of taxes assessed on each ward, district, borough, town and township in the county, and at the time and in the manner herein provided for publishing said statements the county commissioners acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be, shall also give public notice of a day not later than thirty days from the time of publishing, by them appointed, for finally determining whether any of the valuation of the assessors have been made below a just rate, according to the meaning and intention of this act: Provided, That any neglect or refusal of the county commissioners or board of revision of taxes or board for the assessment and revision of taxes, to make and publish the statement required by this section shall not invalidate or hinder the collection of any tax imposed by any law of this Commonwealth.

In the event that the words "salaries and emoluments of office" are eliminated from Sec. 201 above, they should also be stricken out here

Section 503. Revision of Time of Appeals. The county commissioners [of the several counties of this Commonwealth who were, by the tenth section of the Act of July twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and by the forty-first section of the Act of April twenty-ninth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, constituted] acting as a Board of Revision, or the board of revision of taxes or board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be, [be and they] are hereby authorized to do and perform the duties of said Board of Revision upon the same day, and at the same time and place, [of holding the] fixed for the hearing of appeals for the several townships, towns, boroughs, and wards in their respective counties.

The balance of this section has been incorporated in Sec. 502 above and Sec. 506 below.

Section 504. Right of Taxables to Examine Returns. From the time of publishing the returns of the elected or appointed assessors, [according to the third section of this act] until the day appoined for finally deermining wheher any valuaion of he assessors have been made too low, any taxable inhabitant of the county shall have the right to examine the [said] return in the commissioners' office, or office of the board of revision of taxes or board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be.

Drafted from Sec. 12, Act of July 27, 1842, P. L. 441.
The reference to the "third" section is evidently an error. The reference should be to the "eleventh" section.

Section 505. Making Revisions. The county commissioners acting as the board of revision, or board of revision of taxes or board for the assessment and revision of taxes, as the case may be, in each county, shall on receiving the returns of the elected or appointed assessors, proceed to examine and inquire whether the same have been made in conformity with the laws of this Commonwealth and whether all property to be valued for taxation for [State and] county purposes has been valued at a sum or price not less than the same would bring after full public notice at a public sale, supposing each separate lot or piece or tract of land, with the improvements, or the personal property of each individual, company or corporation only were to be sold. They shall receive and consider the written communication of any taxable inhabitant of the county, relative to any property which such taxable inhabitant shall believe to have been reduced too low, and on the day appointed for determining whether any property has been reduced too low, or [reduce the same if] assessed too high, they shall proceed to raise or lower the price or valuation of any property which they shall believe to have been reduced too low, or assessed too high, and if they cannot on the day appointed, revise, raise and equalize the valuation of all property [which they shall believe to have been reduced too low,] they may adjourn from day to day until the whole of such valuation shall have been revised, raised or equalized.

Drafted from Sec. 13, Act of July 27, 1842, P. L. 441.
Board of revision may be aided by the advice of experts: Pa. Co., Appeal 282 Pa. 69, 72
Sec. 4, Act of May 15, 1841, P. L. 393, is superseded by the above section: Com. v. Hanna, 33 C. C. 498, 509.
The application of the standard fixed by the above section cannot be passed upon by the courts, for on appeals to the courts, under the Constitution and the Act of Apr. 19, 1889, P. L. 37, the test is uniformity, and applying the standard of value would result in a lack of uniformity: D. L. & W. R. R. Co's. Tax Assm't. (No. 1), 224 Pa. 240, 247.

Section 506. Employment of Assistants in Counties of the Fourth Class. The commissioners [aforesaid] of each county of the fourth class are hereby authorized and empowered to employ competent persons, resident freeholders of the county, who shall assist the county commissioners of such counties in the adjustment and revision of assessments; and are further authorized and empowered to employ such clerical and other assistance as may be necessary to enable the commissioners to function properly in their capacity as a board of revision of the assessments and valuations arrived at by such assessments.

The salary of such employes shall be fixed by the salary board in the respective counties, and shall be paid out of the funds of the county in the usual manner.

Drafted from Sec. 2, Act of May 10, 1929, P. L. 1712.
The Act of 1929 applies only to counties of the fourth class.

Section 507. Transcript of Assessments, Statement of Rate and Day for Appeal Sent to Assessors. When the [proportions of the several wards, townships and districts shall be ascertained as aforesaid] revisions of the triennial assessments have been completed, the commissioners, acting as a board of re- vision, or the board of revision of taxes or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be, of the respective [county] counties shall cause accurate transcripts of the assessments to be made out by their clerk, and shall transmit the same to the respective elected or appointed assessors on or before the second Monday of April following, together with a statement of the rate per cent. of the tax and the day of appeal fixed by them.

Drafted from Sec. 8, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509.

Section 508. Notice of Assessment, Rate and Appeal. It shall be the duty of the several elected or appointed assessors on receiving such transcript of the triennial assessment from the county commissioners, acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be, to give written or printed notice at least five days before the day of appeal to every taxable inhabitant within the respective ward, borough, town, township or district, of the amount or sum of which he stands rated, and the rate per cent. of the tax [such amount] and of the time and place of such appeal. In every case where the county commissioners, acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be, shall raise the price or valuation of any property which they believe has been valued or reduced by the assessor too low, a notice of such increased valuation shall also be given to the owner or owners, [and in said notice fixing a date when an appeal for such cases will be held in the office of the county commissioners.]

Drafted from Sec. 9, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509, and Act of Apr. 27, 1909, P. L. 244.
Notice is not defective for failure to specify the rate per cent.: Ins. Co. v. York, 17 Pa. 331, 338.
This section accords with Sec. 8, Act of June 26, 1931, P. L. 1379, relating to the board of assessment and revision of taxes in counties of the third class. See also Sec. 7, 1919, July 22, P. L. 1093, as amended by Sec. 1, June 29, 1923, P. L. 915, as to second class counties.

Section 509. Publication of Notice of Appeal. It shall also be the duty of the commissioners, acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be, of the respective counties, to give notice by advertisement in one or more newspapers printed in or nearest to the seat of justice of the proper county, at least three weeks before the day of appeal, of the time and place fixed for such appeal, from triennial assessments.

Drafted from Sec. 10, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509.

Section 510. Notice of Appeals in Inter-Triennial Years. It shall be the duty of the several elected and appointed assessors in each of the two years succeeding the triennial assessment to give notice to the taxable inhabitants in like manner as after the triennial assessment, but in the following cases only; namely, in the case of real property, where buildings or other improvements have been newly erected or have been destroyed, and when coal ore, or other minerals assessed under the triennial assessment have been mined out, since such triennial assessment; and in the case of personal property, offices, professions, trades and occupations, where there has been any alteration in the assessment, occasioning a different valuation from the former year, and also where persons have come to inhabit in the county since such triennial assessment.

Drafted from Sec. 2, Act of May 8, 1909, P. L. 491, amending Sec. 12, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509.

Section 511. Board of Revision to Hear and Pass on Appeals. At the time and place fixed for the appeal, [which in each of the two years after the triennial assessment shall be held in the commissioners' office of the proper county,] whether at a triennial or inter-triennial assessment, the commissioners, acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes, or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, shall attend and hear all persons who may apply for redress, and grant such relief as to them shall appear just and reasonable: Provided, that the commissioners acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, shall not make any allowance or statement in the valuation of any real estate, in any other year than that in which the triennial assessment is made, excepting where buildings or other improvements have been destroyed, or where coal, ore or other minerals, assessed under the triennial assessment have been mined out, subsequently to such triennial assessment, in which cases such allowance or abatement shall be made.

Drafted from Sec. 3, Act of May 8, 1909, P. L. 491, amending Sec. 13, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509.
The clause requiring inter-triennial assessment appeals to be heard at the county seat is apparently repealed by the Act of May 7, 1923, P. L. 154. See infra Sec. 513.

Section 512. Assessors to Attend Appeals. It shall be the duty of the several elected and appointed assessors to attend at the time and place fixed for the appeal from triennial and inter-triennial assessments for the respective ward, borough, town, township or district, to prevent impositions being practiced on the commissioners, acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be, by the persons appealing.

Drafted from Sec. 14, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509.

Section 513. Place of Holding Appeals. The county commissioners acting as boards of revision of taxes and boards for the assessment and revision of taxes of the several counties shall have power when hearing tax appeals, either in triennial or inter-triennial years, to sit and to hold hearings and dispose of appeals away from the county seat and within the city, borough, town or township of the county where the appeals originate, and to take action on any such appeals with like force and effect as if said appeals were regularly heard and action thereon taken in their respective offices at the county seat.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of May 7, 1923, P. L. 154.

Section 514. Assessments Regulated. Duplicates. Immediately after the appeals are over, the commissioners, acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, as the case may be, shall proceed to regulate the assessments, according to the alterations made, and shall cause their clerks to make fair duplicates thereof, in such form as the commissioners or board may direct.

Drafted from Sec. 15, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509.

Section 515. Duplicates to Be Furnished School Districts of Third and Fourth Classes. In order to enable the board of school directors in each district of the third class, other than school districts of that class which are located wholly within the boundary lines of cities of the third class, and where such third class school districts comprise the same territory as such city of the third class in which the same is so located, as aforesaid, and in each district of the fourth class in this Commonwealth, to assess and levy the necessary school taxes required by such district each year, the county commissioners or board for the assessment and revision of taxes, in each county shall, on or before the first day of April in each year, at the expense of the county, furnish to each school district of the third class, other than school districts of that class which are located wholly within the boundary lines of cities of the third class, and where such third class school districts comprise the same territory as such city of the third class in which the same is so located, as aforesaid, and to each district of the fourth class, therein, for its use, to be retained by it, a properly certified duplicate of the last adjusted valuation of all real estate, personal property, and residents or inhabitants made taxable for county purposes in such school district, stating the name of each taxable, and the valuation, description, and kind of property, and a list of the residents or inhabitants assessed; all of which real estate, personal property, and residents or inhabitants are hereby made taxable for school purposes in each school district of the third and fourth class.

Drafted from part of Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 26, 1923, P. L. 102, amending Sec. 541, Act of May 18, 1911, P. L. 309.
The above provision as it now appears in the School Code will not be repealed.

Section 516. Duplicates to Be Furnished Townships of the First Class. The county commissioners, or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, of the several counties shall, on or before the first day of April of each year, at the expense of the county, furnish to the township commissioners of each township of the first class for its use, a properly certified duplicate of the last adjusted valuation of all real estate, personal property, and occupations made taxable for county purposes in such township of the first class. Such duplicate shall state the name of each taxable, with the valuation, description, and kind of property and occupation of such taxable.

Sec. 1, Act of May 5, 1915, P. L. 258, No. 148.

Section 517. Hearing Appeals Subsequent to Time Fixed. It shall be the duty of the commissioners, acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be, to hear appeals at any subsequent time when they may be in session, previous to the payment of the tax, and to make such alterations as they might have done on the regular day of appeal: Provided, that no such appeal shall be heard unless the appellant shall have given due notice thereof to the assessor of the proper ward, borough, town, township or district.

Drafted from Sec. 16, Act of Apr. 15, 1834, P. L. 509.

Neither Sec. 4, Act of May 15, 1841, P. L. 393, nor Sec. 14, Act of July 27, 1842, P. L. 441, points out the mode by which an appeal may be heard from an unjust assessment after the time named in said acts; and do not, therefore, repeal the provisions of the above section: D. L. and W. R. Co. v. Broderich, 5 Luz. 101, 103.

It seems that appeals under the above section must be taken within the period of the triennial year, and cannot be taken thereafter: Price v. Lack Co. Com., 1 Lack. L. Rec. 469, 471.

Section 518. Appeal to Court From Assessments. Collection Pending Appeal. Payment Into Court. Any owner of real estate or taxable property in this Commonwealth, who may feel aggrieved by the last or any future assessment or valuation of his real estate or taxable property, may appeal from the decision of the county commissioners, [or board of revision and appeal,] acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes, or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, as the case may be, to the court of common pleas of the county within which such property is situated, and for that purpose may present to said court, or file in the prothonotary's office, within sixty days after the county commissioners [or board of revision and appeal] acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes, or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, as the case may be, have held the appeals provided for by [law] this or any other act of assembly, and acted on the said assessments and valuations, a petition signed by him, his agent or attorney, setting forth the facts of the case, and thereupon the [said] court shall proceed at the earliest convenient time to be by them appointed, of which notice shall be given to the county commissioners [of the proper county, or to the board of revision and appeal of the proper city] acting as a board of revision, or the board of revision of taxes, or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes, as the case may be, to hear the said appeal, and the proofs in the case, and to make such orders and decrees touching the matter complained of as to the judges of said court may seem just and equitable, having due regard to the valuation and assessment made of other real estate in such county or city; the costs of the appeal and hearing to be apportioned or paid as the court may direct: Provided, however, That the [said] appeal shall not prevent the collection of the taxes complained of, but in case the same shall be reduced, then the excess shall be returned to the person or persons who shall have paid the same; And provided further, That the appellant may pay the amount of the tax alleged to be due by reason of the assessment appealed from into the court to which such appeal is taken; whereupon said court shall allocate and pay over to the proper authorities such amount of said tax as shall appear to said court to be reasonably free from dispute, and the remainder of the amount paid in shall be held by the court pending the final disposition of the appeal.

Sec. 1, Act of June 12, 1931, P. L. 548, amending Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 19, 1889, P. L. 37, No. 34.

Interest may be recovered on the excess of tax paid from the time demand is made for repayment after the amount of excess is determined: P. and R. C. and I. Co. v. Tamaqua Sch. Dist. 304 Pa. 489, 496-7.

"While the Act of 1889 authorizes an appeal to the common pleas from the final adjudication of the board of revision, the appeal is not a supersedeas and does not prevent the collection of the tax. If the valuation is reduced, the excess of taxes is returned to the person who paid them: Frick Coke Co. v. Mt. Pleasant Twp. 222 Pa. 451, 457.

Upon appeal to the court of common pleas, the whole proceeding is de novo: D. L. and W. R. R. Co's. Tax Assm't. (No. 1), 224 Pa. 240, 245.

Under the Constitution and the Act of 1889, the courts are more concerned with uniformity in valuation than with the standard fixed by the Act of 1842, Id. p. 247.

Lack of uniformity in assessments is also a violation of the 14th amendment to the Federal Constitution: Cumberland Coal Co. v. Board of Revision, 76 L. Ed. (U. S.) 131, 134-5, reversing 302 Pa. 179.

"We, therefore, decide that the Acts of 1876 and 1878 (supplied by the Act of 1889) give the right of appeal from triennial assessments within the limitations of the act during the triennial year, and for the annual assessments in the cases mentioned:" Price v. Lack. Co. Com. 1 Lack. L. Rec. 469, 471.

Section 519. Appeals to Supreme or Superior Courts. Any owner of real estate or taxable property in this Commonwealth, or any county, city, borough, town, township, school district or other public corporation, having power and authority to levy taxes on the assessment of his real estate or taxable property in question may appeal from the judgment, order or decree of any court of common pleas, in any matter affecting the assessment of taxes on said property, to the Supreme or Superior Court, in the same manner as appeals are taken in other cases to the said Supreme or Superior Court: Provided, That the [said] appeal shall not prevent the collection of the taxes upon the assessment fixed or allowed by such judgment, order or decree of the court of common pleas; but in case the same shall be reduced, then the excess shall be returned to the person or persons who shall have paid the same.

Sec. 1, Act of June 12, 1931, P. L. 547, No. 181, amending Sec. 1, Act of June 26, 1901, P. L. 601, No. 296.

In determining the amount in controversy, the taxes on contiguous tracts in the same township belonging to the same owner may be considered as one: Du Bois's App. 293 Pa. 186, 192.

Section 520. Appeals by Municipalities. The corporate authorities of any borough, town, township, school district, or poor district, which may feel aggrieved by any assessment of any property or other subject of taxation for its corporate purposes, shall have the right to appeal therefrom to the proper board of revision, court of common pleas, or to the Supreme or Superior Court, in the same manner, subject to the same procedure, and with like effect, as if such appeal were taken by a taxable with respect to his property.

REPORT OF THE AUDITORS OF THE PHILADELPHIA SAVING FUND SOCIETY FOR THE YEAR 1932

The subscribers, duly appointed by the President Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County, to audit and settle the Accounts of The Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, under the provisions of the Third Section of the Supplement to the "Act" incorporating the said Society, approved March 15, 1824, having been duly qualified, respectfully report:—

That, in the performance of the duties assigned them, they have audited and settled the Books and Accounts of The Philadelphia Saving Fund Society for the year ending the thirty-first day of December, 1932, and have examined and ascertained the amount of the Bonds and Mortgages, Real Estate, Public Loans, Railroad Loans, and the other evidences of the property and effects of the said Society, and agreeably thereto have made out the subjoined statement, which agrees with the books at that date, and exhibits the situation and condition of the said The Philadelphia Saving Fund Society on the first day of January, 1933.

C. BERKELEY TAYLOR,
FRANCES BIDDLE,
EMILN C. GUGELIN,
Auditors.

REPORT TO GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1933 OF A BILL CODIFYING THE ELECTION LAWS WITH NOTES AND NOTATIONS

To the Honorable, the Members of the General Assembly:

This proposed Code of the Election Laws of the Commonwealth is reported to the General Assembly in accordance with the directions contained in a concurrent resolution adopted by the Senate and House of Representatives on May 27, 1931. The resolution is as follows:

> "Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Legislative Reference Bureau is hereby directed to compile a codification of the election laws of the Commonwealth, together with notes and annotations, and to make report thereon in printed form to the session of the General Assembly in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three."

A proposed code of election laws was first compiled in tentative form by the Legislative Reference Bureau during the year 1926, and was printed in bill form at the end of the Session of 1927 in order to make copies available for "the Election Law Commission," created by the Act of May 4, 1927, P. L. 756. Several members of this Commission made a thorough study of the proposed code and reported favorably on it to the Bureau. The Commission made no report at the Legislative Session of 1929 and was continued for a further period of two years by the Act of May 8, 1929, P. L. 1672. In a brief report made to the General Assembly of 1931, this Commission said (Legislative Journal, p. 2561.):

> "At the request of the Commission, the Legislative Reference Bureau prepared a Code of the existing election laws, systematically arranged and harmonized, with obsolete and inconsistent matter eliminated. This code has been introduced as Senate Bill No. 24."

Senate Bill No. 24 passed the Senate finally on May 25, 1931, and was referred to the House Committee on Elections on the same day. It was not reported from that committee.

At the same Session of 1931, another Election Code, drafted for a group of citizens interested in a revision of the Election Laws, was introduced in both Houses. This work was not a codification of the existing laws, but a revision of the whole Election Law. The revision code was never reported in the Senate. In the House this revision code, after the insertion of various amendments, was defeated on final passage May 25, 1931. Two days later the concurrent resolution above referred to was adopted, directing the Bureau to submit to the Legislative Session of 1933 a code of the existing Election Laws.

The material in the Code which is now reported, has been thoroughly rechecked and annotated with the leading cases. A careful check has been made with the practice in the various counties and with "The Voter's Guide," the election handbook compiled by Mr. J. Oscar Emrich, the able librarian of the Allegheny County Law Library, whose advice on many doubtful points has been most helpful. The proposed Code does not include the voting-machine law. This law is of recent enactment and as it is available for distribution, there is no necessity for its re-enactment at this time.

Where the law on a point was doubtful, our reasons for the position assumed have been set forth in notes to the sections in question. In the case of the personal registration of governmental employes by mail, the existing law applies only to cities of the first, second and second A classes. This law has been extended to include cities of the third class, since it has been ascertained that the practice of registering by mail is followed in some of the third class cities. In a few instances in consolidating penal sections, it was found necessary to select a penalty where the existing penalties varied. Certain penalty clauses were also extended to include primary elections where it was apparent from the Primary Act of 1913 (Section 23) that such extension was intended. In the case of election contests, the law has been extended to include primary elections as contemplated by the extension clause in the Primary clause of 1913. Occasionally the language of a statute has been slightly changed without changing the substance. Various provisions of the draft have been extended to the town of Bloomsburg in order to include all political subdivisions of the Commonwealth.

With the exceptions noted above, the director of the Legislative Reference Bureau certifies that in his opinion the proposed Code contains a correct statement of the existing law after obsolete and inconsistent matter has been eliminated.

Some of the existing election laws, particularly those relating to the personal registration of electors in cities, are extremely cumbersome and verbose. Much space would be saved and clarity result by rewriting them entirely, but we have hesitated to do this for fear that a comparison would be difficult and the fear be created that they had not been accurately restated. Our efforts to produce greater clarity have therefore been limited to the shortening of certain sections and the rearrangement of material in a more logical sequence.

Particular attention is directed to Sections 131 and 175, which require the assessor for county purposes to sit at their homes in cities of the second, second-A and third classes, on the 62nd and 63rd days preceding each election, in order to enable voters to qualify by assessment and tax payment as required by the Constitution. The theory on which these sections are introduced is explained in the notes attached thereto. The practice established by these sections we believe to be now applied in the law.

While the original Code drafted in 1926 represented the labor of the whole legal staff of the Bureau, the final work of rechecking, annotating and bringing the draft up to date, was done in the main by Burt R. Glidden, Esq., of the Legislative Reference Bureau staff, whose careful and conscientious work is now submitted for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. FERTIG, Director,
Pennsylvania Legislative Reference Bureau.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the laws relating to general, municipal, primary and special elections, voting by soldiers, the assessment and registration of voters, and election contests are hereby revised, consolidated and codified as follows:

This is a new section, usually carried as a matter of form in Pennsylvania Codes.

ARTICLE I

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

Section 2. Short Title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Election Law."

Section 3. Definitions. Whenever the masculine gender is used in this act, it shall be construed to include the feminine.

The term "general election" shall mean the election held in November of each even-numbered year for the purpose of lecting United States Senators, Representatives in Congress, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of Internal Affairs, Auditor General, State Treasurer and members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth.

The term "municipal election" shall mean the election held in November of each odd-numbered year for the purpose of electing judges of courts of record, elected in any county or judicial district, and all county, city, borough, town, township, school district, poor district, ward and election officers.

The term "primary" or "primary election" shall mean the election held in the Spring of each even-numbered year, and in the Fall of each odd-numbered year, for the purpose of nominating party candidates and electing delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions, party officers and State committeemen.

These two sections are new, usually carried as a matter of form in Pennsylvania codes.

Section 4. Construction. The purpose of this act is to codify, revise and consolidate the general laws of this Commonwealth relating to the qualifications, assessment, registration, and enrollment of voters, to the conduct of general, municipal, primary and special elections, and to all other matters germane to the subject of elections, except the use of voting machines as provided for by the act, approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 549), entitled "An act to permit the use of voting machines for recording and computing the vote at all elections, including primaries in any county, city, borough, or township of the Commonwealth, at the option of the electors thereof; prescribing regulations with reference to the adoption, requirements, examination, purchase, installation, preparation, custody and demonstration of use of voting machines; providing rules and regulations for the conduct of elections held with voting machines; prescribing the qualifications, number and duties of election officers in election districts in which voting machines may be used; placing duties upon county commissioners and the Secretary of the Commonwealth; providing for redivision of wards of cities and boroughs into election districts, and the consolidation of election districts; providing for the payment of expenses incident to the purchase and use of voting machines by the counties in which they are used; and providing penalties for violation of the provisions of this act." The provisions of this act shall be construed to also apply to all elections and primary elections conducted by the use of voting machines, where the same are applicable, to such elections, and are not inconsistent with the provisions of said Voting Machine Law of 1929. Where there is an inconsistency, the voting machine law shall govern elections at which such machines are used.

The provisions of this act are severable, and if any article, section, clause, or part thereof of this act is held to be unconstitutional, the decision shall not be construed to affect or invalidate any other provisions of this act, or the act as a whole. It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein.

The provisions of this act, so far as they are the same as those of existing laws, are intended as a continuation of such laws, and not as new enactments. The repeal by this act of any act of Assembly or part thereof shall not revive any act or part thereof heretofore repealed or superseded. The provisions of this act shall not affect any act done, liability incurred, or right accrued or vested, or nomination made, or affect any suit or prosecution pending or to be instituted to enforce any right or penalty or punish any offense under the authority of such repealed laws. Any person holding office under any act of assembly, repealed by this act shall continue to hold such office until the expiration of the term thereof, subject to the conditions attached to such office prior to the passage of this act.

Whenever in this act reference is made to any other act by title, such reference shall be construed to apply to, and include any codification or other Act of Assembly wherein the provisions of the act referred to and substantially reenacted.

This is a new section, and is such as is usually carried in Pennsylvania Codes.

Section 5 Rule For Reckoning Periods of Time Provided In Act. In determining or reckoning any period of time as provided in this act, the day upon which the act is done, papers filed, or notice given, shall be excluded from, and the day of election or other day from which the calculation is made, shall be included in the reckoning.

This section is drafted from like provisions found in Sec. 5, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 832, which applied only to that act, and Sec. 1, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 634, which provided this system of reckoning time for the primary Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. We have herein made this system apply to the reckoning of time in all cases provided in this compilation, as it seems that our courts are of the opinion that, as found in the said Act of 1893, it should apply to the general election systems of the Commonwealth. See Ellwood City Borough's Election, 286 Pa. 257.

ARTICLE II

THE VOTER

(a) Qualifications of Voters

Section 10. Qualifications of Voters. Every citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject, however, to the provisions of this act requiring and regulating the registration and enrollment of electors, and the qualification of electors at primary elections:

(1) He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month;

(2) He shall have resided in the State one year (or having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned then six months) immediately preceding the election;

(3) He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election;

(4) If twenty-two years of age, and upwards, he shall have paid within two years, a State or county tax which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

A slight re-wording of Art. VIII, Sec. 1 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, as amended Nov. 5, 1901. The word "male" as limiting "citizen" in the first paragraph is omitted because of the adoption of the nineteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States. In the same paragraph, we say "subject however, to the provisions of this act requiring and regulating the registration of electors," instead of "subject however, to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact."

Section 11. Domicile of Married Women. The domicile of a married woman for the purpose of voting or holding public office, shall be determined for all purposes as if she were unmarried.

Sec. 1, Act of July 11, 1923, P. L. 1034.

(b) Registry, Assessment of Voters in Cities of the First Class, Boroughs, Towns and Townships

Section 15. Valuation Assessors to Act As Registry Assessors In Certain Districts. In towns, townships, boroughs, and in wards thereof, composing but one election district, the assessors for purposes of valuation shall be assessors for the holding of elections and the registration and enrollment of voters.

This is the proviso to Sec. 1, Act of Feb. 13, 1874, P. L. 44, declaratory of Secs. 14 and 15, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. This section formerly applied to such districts in townships, boroughs and wards. We have added towns. The sections under this heading are limited in subject matter to the assessors, assistant assessors or registry assessors in relation to their duties and activities incident to elections and the preparation of the list of voters. All such acts in so far as they relate to cities of the second and third classes, are omitted under the theory that the various provisions governing personal registration in such cities, and the assessment of the county occupation tax therein by the property assessors, supply the provisions of these acts as to such cities. This appears to be the general practice in such cities. Cities of the first class are included under this heading inasmuch as the property assessors of Philadelphia have nothing to do with the assessment of the poll tax which, in such city, takes the place of the occupation tax.

Section 16. Registry Assessors. Election of In Boroughs, Towns and Townships Containing More Than One Election District. The qualified voters of every election district in boroughs, towns, townships and wards thereof, wherein more than one election district is authorized shall, at the expiration of the term of the present assistant assessor and every four years thereafter, elect a properly qualified person for registry assessor in each of said election districts, who shall perform all the duties relating to the assessment, registration and enrollment of electors as hereinafter provided.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 20, 1917, P. L. 87, amending Sec. 1, Act of June 16, 1891, P. L. 298. We have added the word "towns" and the words "wards thereof" in order to keep towns in their natural grouping, i. e., with boroughs and townships, and to clarify the law as to the election districts in the wards. We have also changed the name of assistant assessor to registry assessor to end the confusion between property and election assessments. We have omitted the following words which followed the word "authorized"; "and where but one assessor for valuation of taxable property resides in the borough or township having more than one election district," as it added nothing to the meaning of the section.

Section 17. Registry Assessors. Election of In Cities of the First Class. The qualified electors of every election district in cities of the first class shall at the next municipal election, and every two years thereafter, elect a properly qualified person for registry assessor in each of said election districts, who shall perform such duties relating to the assessment and enrollment of electors in such election districts, as required by the provisions of this act.

This is a redraft of Sec. 15, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, so as to provide for the election of registry assessors in first class cities. The election is changed to every two years to comply with Art. VIII, Sec. 3 of the Constitution, and the amendments of Nov. 2, 1909, which added one year to the term.

Section 18. Filling Vacancies. In case of a vacancy in the office of registry assessor, the court of quarter sessions or any judge of the said court shall appoint a person to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 20, 1917, P. L. 87, amending Sec. 1, Act of June 16, 1891, P. L. 298. We have omitted the words "of the same county" as unnecessary. Suggest that such appointment be made "upon petition of voters of the election district or a majority of the county commissioners." We have also made this section apply to cities of the first class.

Section 19. Original Registry List. For the purpose of making the original annual assessment and registration of voters in each of the election districts of cities of the first class, boroughs, towns, and townships, the assessors or registry assessors shall visit in person each and every dwelling house in his district on the first Monday of May and in cities of the first class also on the first Monday of December of each year, or as soon thereafter as may be possible and practicable when all of said dwelling houses cannot be personally visited by him on the said first Monday of May and on the first Monday of December, and to make a list in a book prepared for that purpose by the county commissioners, of all the qualified voters that he shall find upon careful and diligent inquiry to be bona fide residents of his district, together with the date when such dwelling house was visited by the assessor, entering them in such book in the order in which such dwelling houses are visited, and the qualified electors in each dwelling house being grouped together, and the names of the qualified electors shall be grouped together by streets, alleys or courts if such exist and the persons so found to be legally qualified electors shall forthwith be assessed. The assessor or registry assessor shall in all cases personally ascertain by careful and diligent inquiry of the voter or of some known resident of the election district in which the voter claims the right to vote, upon what ground each person so assessed claims to be a legally qualified voter.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134. The provisions of this section, providing for a registration day on the first Monday in December were never specifically repealed, but they were obviously intended for a registration preliminary to the municipal election then held on the third Tuesday of February under Sec. 3, Art. VIII of the Constitution. By amendments of Nov. 2, 1909, and Nov. 4, 1913, the date for the municipal election was fixed as the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each odd-numbered year, and as a result, an original registry list is no longer prepared on the first Monday in December, except in Philadelphia. In Com. ex rel Hutchinson v. County Commissioners, 21 Dist. 265 (1911), it was decided that the December registration is no longer necessary in boroughs and townships. The provisions as to grouping by streets in cities is made general when and where streets exist.

Section 20. Entries In Original Registry List. The list thus prepared shall be designated and known as the "Original Registry List." The assessor or registry assessor shall enter in said "Original Registry List," the names of citizens twenty-one years of age and upwards, claiming to be qualified voters in his election district, and opposite each of said names, state whether said citizen is or is not a housekeeper, and if he is, the number of his residence where the same are numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated, and if there are no numbers, the name of the street, alley or court on which said house fronts, if such exist; also the occupation of the person at the date of such assessment and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding and with whom, at the date of his assessment; and if working for another, the name of the employer, and write opposite each of said names, the word "voter."

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134. The word "male" as limiting citizens is eliminated.

Section 21. Registration of Naturalized Citizens. Where any person claims to vote by reason of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor or registry assessor, unless he has been for two consecutive years next preceding a voter in said district; and in all cases where the person has been naturalized, the name shall be marked with the letter "N." Where the person has merely declared his intentions to become a citizen, and designs to be naturalized before the next election, he shall exhibit the certificate of his declaration of intention and the name shall be marked "D. I." Where the person shall be entitled by existing laws to be naturalized and intends to be naturalized at least one month before the next general or municipal election, the name of such person shall be marked "I. N."

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134. In the last sentence, providing for the marking of a person's name when he intends to be naturalized at least one month before the general election, we have changed the language to general or municipal election.

Section 22. Registration on Age and Change or Residence. Where the claim is to vote by reason of being of the age of twenty-one years and under twenty-two, as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered; and if the person has moved into the election district to reside since the last general or municipal election, the letter "R" shall be placed opposite the name.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134. We have made this read general or municipal election.

Section 23. Copy of Original Registry List. The assessor or registry assessor shall forthwith make a copy of the said original list with the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75. The wording has been slightly changed for the purpose of clarification.

Section 24. Posting of Copy of Registry List. The assessor or registry assessor shall on or prior to the fourth Monday of May, and in cities of the first class on or prior to the second Monday of December, in each year, place a copy of the original registry list on the door of or on the house where the election of the respective district is required to be held, and retain the original list in his possession.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75, slightly reworded. See notes to Sec. 19.

Section 25. Registry Assessment on Personal Application. The assessor or registry assessor shall assess from time to time on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such claimant and mark opposite the name "C. V." and immediately register him, noting as in all other cases his occupation, residence, the date of his assessment, whether a boarder or housekeeper, if a boarder with whom he boards and whether naturalized or designing to be, marking in all cases opposite the name "N" or "D. I." or "I. N." as the case may be. If the person claiming to be assessed is naturalized he shall exhibit to the assessor his certificate of naturalization. If he claims that he designs to be naturalized before the next ensuing election, he shall exhibit the certificate of his declaration of intention, if such previous declaration is required by the laws of the United States.

Part of Sec. 2 Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75. In line 5, the word "register" was substituted for the word "assess" for the purpose of clarity. Names should not be added to the assessment list after the fourth Monday of May, unless the voter applies in person; but names added without personal application cannot be stricken off by the court, unless an appeal was made to the assessor at his public sitting or cause shown why such appeal was not made, or fraud be shown. Assessors' List of Voters, 10 Dist. 624 (1901).

Section 26. Special Registry Assessment Day. The assessor or registry assessor shall be present at the election house of his election district or in the event that temporary voting places are or may be established in said election district, then to be present at his place of residence in said election district during the two secular days next preceding the sixty-first day before the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each year, from ten ante meridian to three post meridian and from six post meridian to nine post meridian of each of said days for the purpose of hearing and acting upon applications for registration to be made under the provisions of this article, or relating to names upon said list, or that are sought to be placed thereon or struck therefrom.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 28, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75. The provisions of the Act of June 12, 1893, P. L. 455 are also embodied in this section, and from Sec. 3, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 3, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75, we have taken the exact days for the assessors to sit at the polling place and inserted it here instead of referring to said section.

Section 27. Correction of Original Registry List. The assessor or registry assessor shall correct said original list by adding thereto, upon personal application, the names of persons entitled to vote not already thereon, and by striking therefrom fictitious names or names of persons who may have died or removed from said district.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75.

Section 28. Record of Informants to be Kept. In all cases the assessor or registry assessor shall enter in his book opposite the name of each voter, the name or names of the person or persons, together with the residence of the same, who shall furnish information as to the residence and qualifications of any voter who has been assessed, or as to the persons whose names shall be stricken from said original list.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75.

Section 29. Original Registry List Open to Inspection. The said original list shall be open for inspection by any person, resident in the said election district, or by any qualified elector of the county in which the election district is situated as well as by the person claiming to be registered.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75. We have taken from the first part of the original section and added hereto the words "any person resident in the said election district," and have omitted the word "ward" as meaning nothing since it is included in the more general word "county."

Section 30. Appeal from Action of Assessor or Registry Assessor. The Court of common pleas of the proper county or any law judge thereof at chambers, on the application of any qualified elector of the county under oath, which may be made at any time before the day of election, shall call the assessor or registry assessor and the complaint before it or him by citation or rule to show cause and shall hear the parties and dispose of the subject in a summary manner as to law and justice shall belong, and shall if need be, order the assessor or registry assessor to correct the registry accordingly, and the said court or judge may enforce such order by attachment as in proceedings for contempt.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75. We have omitted the word "ward" where used as follows: "any qualified elector of the [ward or] county," as it is meaningless.

Such appeal to the court is to be made only after the assessor has declined to correct his list after application has been made to him, or unless it be shown that the application could not by diligence have been made. Steelton Borough's Registration of Voters, 27 Dauphin 331 (1924); Assessors' List of Voters, 10 Dist. 624 (1901).

Section 31. Return of Original Registry List to County Commissioners. After the assessments have been completed on the sixty-second day before the third Tuesday of February and on the sixty-second day before the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each year, the assessor or registry assessor shall, on the following day, make a return to the county commissioners of the "Original Registry List" thus revised and completed.

Part of Sec. 3, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 3, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by the second section of the Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75. The provision relating to the assessment before the February election is carried out only in Philadelphia, see note to Sec. 19.

Section 32. Proofs by Non-Registered Voter. No person shall be permitted to vote at any election whose name is not on said list, unless he shall make proof of his right to vote as hereinafter provided under the provisions of this act relating to the conduct of elections.

Part of Sec. 3, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 3, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by the second section of the Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75. The wording in this section has been changed slightly for the purpose of clarity. "No man" has been changed to "no person"; "the election" has been changed to "any election"; "as hereinbefore provided" has been changed to "as hereinafter provided under the provisions of this act relating to the conduct of elections."

Section 33. Power of Assessors and Registry Assessors to Administer Oaths. The assessors or registry assessors shall have the power to administer oaths to any person claiming the right to be assessed or the right of suffrage or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by them under provisions of this act. Any wilful false swearing by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any assessor or registry assessor shall be perjury.

Sec. 17, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, in so far as the section pertains to the subject matter at hand.

Section 34. Limit of Tax Assessment. It shall be unlawful for any assessor or registry assessor to assess a tax against any person whatever within sixty-one days next preceding the annual election in November. Any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor, and subject the officer so offending to a fine on conviction, not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment, not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Part of Sec. 18, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31.

Section 35. Pay of Assessors and Registry Assessors. Each assessor and registry assessor in boroughs, towns and townships shall keep an account of the several days actually employed by him in the performance of his duties relating to elections, including the special sittings on the sixty-second and sixty-third days preceding each primary as required by the provisions of this act relating to party enrollment, and make return of the same, verified by oath or affirmation to the county commissioners, and for each day so employed, including attendance at election, he shall receive the sum of five dollars to be paid by the county.

Each registry assessor in cities of the first class shall continue to receive the same compensation for the performance of his duties relating to elections, as he receives at the time of the approval of this act, or as may hereafter be provided by law.

This is drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 3, 1923, P. L. 53 (1st class townships), Sec. 1, Act of June 12, 1923, P. L. 692, and Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 4, 1919, P. L. 35, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 12, 1921, P. L. 534 (2nd class townships, boroughs and wards of boroughs). Each of the said acts provided for the payment of five dollars per day for such compensation. The provision relating to the sittings before the primary is taken from Sec. 7, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043.

The Act of Apr. 17, 1869, P. L. 49, Sec. 27, provided that the assessors in the several wards of Philadelphia, should make out lists of electors before June 1st of each year.

The Act of Apr. 6, 1870, P. L. 53, required the division canvassers created by the above Act of 1869, P. L. 49, to perform said duties, and says that the assessors shall not assess any poll or personal tax for election purposes.

The Act of Apr. 12, 1873, P. L. 715, provided for the division of Philadelphia into fifteen assessment districts by the board of revision, with power to alter and re-arrange said districts. The board appoints two assessors for each district with salaries of $2,000 per year.

The above Acts of 1869, P. L. 49 and 1870, P. L. 53, seem to have been repealed by Art. VIII, Sec. 7 of the Constitution, and the same year the Acts of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31 and Feb. 13, 1874, P. L. 44, were passed, providing for the election annually of an assessor for election purposes only in each election district in the Commonwealth; and outlining their duties. Sec. 18 of said act provides that "the assessor shall receive the same compensation for the time necessarily spent performing the duties hereby enjoined as is provided by law to assessors making valuations." As we have seen above, in Philadelphia, the property assessors receive a salary of $2,000 per year, therefore, we have no idea how the compensation of the registry assessors is computed since we find that they each actually receive $44.00 for their work in the months of May and September, and $38.50 for the month of December—making a total of $82.50 for the year. We have, therefore, provided in our bill that they shall continue to receive the same compensation as they are receiving at the time of the approval of the act, or may hereafter be provided by law.

Section 36. Penalties. Any assessor or registry assessor who shall knowingly assess any person as a voter who is not qualified, or shall refuse to assess any one who is qualified, or shall in like manner neglect or refuse to return the name of any person property assessed to the county commissioners as herein provided, or shall intentionally neglect or refuse to perform any other duty enjoined on him herein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved.

This is drafted from part of Sec. 19, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, and from Sec. 108, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519. We have increased the penalty on the following violations by including them herewith: (1) Neglecting or refusing to return the names of persons assessed to the county commissioners and (2) neglecting or refusing to perform other duties. These violations were each penalized by a fine of not less than $50.00 and not more than $200.00.

Section 37. Return of Original Registry List by County Commissioners to Assessor or Registry Assessor. "The Original Registry List," as returned to the county commissioners, preceding the election, shall be returned by the county commissioners to the assessor or registry assessor before the first Monday of December which shall be used by said assessor or registry assessor to make his original registry list for the next election.

This is the remaining part of Sec. 3, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 3, Act of May 29, 1891, P. L. 134, and finally amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75. As explained in previous notes, the February election having been done away with, the assessors have no need for said list until May, except in Philadelphia.

(c) Personal Registration of Voters in Cities
(1) First Class Cities

Section 40. Definitions. As used in subdivision (c) (1) of this article, the following words and terms shall be construed to mean:

The word "city" means any city of the first class.

The word "commission" means the registration commission in a city of the first class.

The word "commissioner" means any member of the registration commission in a city of the first class.

The word "oath" includes affirmation, and the word "swear" includes affirm.

The word "election" means any general, special or municipal election, unless otherwise specified.

The term "general election" means the election which the Constitution of this Commonwealth requires to be held in even-numbered years.

The term "municipal election" means that election which the Constitution requires to be held in odd-numbered years.

The term "November election" means both the general and municipal election, or either, according to the context.

The word "party" means any political party or body of electors, one of whose candidates either at the last general or at the last municipal election, polled at least five per centum of the largest entire vote cast for any elected candidate in any city of the first class, although such percentage of said vote may not have been attained in any particular election district thereof.

The term "body of electors" means any political body not recognized as a political party, but entitled to make nominations of candidates for any public office by nomination papers on whose behalf proper affidavits have been filed with prothonotary or elsewhere, as now is or hereafter may be required by law to obtain the exclusive right to use a party name or appellation for any election or primary.

The term "Spring primary" means the primaries that now, or hereafter may be required to be held in even-numbered years, and the term "Fall primary" means those in all odd-numbered years.

The term "qualified elector" means any person who shall possess all the qualifications for voting now or hereafter prescribed by the Constitution of this Commonwealth, or who being otherwise qualified then by continued residence in his election district, will obtain such qualifications before the next ensuing election or primary.

The word "register" means the book containing or to contain all or any part of the registry list of qualified electors prepared or to be prepared by the registrars or the commissioners, as hereinafter provided.

The word "county" means any county in which any city of the first class is situated, or with which such city is coextensive.

All references to prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, courts, judges, peace officers and other officials where not otherwise specified, shall be understood to mean only those of the proper counties aforesaid, or of any judicial district in which any city of the first class is situated or with which it is coextensive.

All reference to mayors, city councils, city treasurers, controllers, receivers of taxes, police officers and other officials, where not otherwise specified shall mean only those of any city of the first class.

The term "public office" shall include any National, State, judicial, county, city, ward or election office requiring any person elected or appointed thereto to render any public service for a fixed fee or compensation, except the office of notary public or commissioner of deeds.

Section 41. Registration Commissioners. Appointment. Removal. Compensation. Term. The Governor of the Commonwealth shall at the expiration of the terms of the present commissioners, and in every fourth year thereafter, appoint a registration commission for each city, consisting of five duly qualified electors thereof, not more than three of whom shall belong to the same political party. As soon as the commissioners so appointed for any city shall qualify, the terms of office of all existing registration commissioners in such city, and of all their appointees shall be ended, and they shall immediately surrender, transfer and deliver all public property, records, funds and accounts then in their charge to the custody and use of the commissioners so appointed hereunder.

All commissioners appointed shall hold office for a term of four years, or until their successors qualify, unless sooner removed or otherwise disqualified. Any vacancy in any commission shall be filled by the Governor within ten days after the vacancy occurs, by appointing a competent person to hold office during the remainder of the term of the commissioner whose place becomes vacant. The Governor may at any time, without stating any cause remove any commissioner and appoint his successor for the remainder of his term.

Each commissioner shall receive a compensation at the rate of four thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly by the treasurer of such city, upon the presentation of proper warrants, signed by the chairman or chief clerk of the commission.

Sec. 3, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 42. Commission Organization. As soon after their appointment as may be, the commissioners shall take the oath of office, required by the Constitution, and organize by selecting a chairman and a secretary, who shall not be members of the same party. All actions of the commisssion or commissioners shall be decided by a majority vote of all the commissioners, except as may be otherwise provided hereinafter.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.
The portion of the above section referring to the judicial powers of the commission, is carried as a separate section. See Section 46.

Section 43. Appointment and Salaries of Employes. The commission shall have power to appoint a chief clerk (who shall have power to administer oaths), and to fix his compensation at a sum not exceeding thirty-five hundred dollars per annum; two assistant clerks at salaries not over eighteen hundred dollars per annum for each; a stenographer (who may act as a clerk), who shall receive not more than fifteen hundred dollars per annum; one or two custodians of the records to guard the same while they are open to the public inspection, each of whom shall receive not more than twelve hundred dollars per annum; a messenger who shall receive not more than one thousand dollars per annum; as many clerks as they may deem necessary, from time to time, at a compensation not exceeding four dollars per diem for the time actually employed; such inspectors of registration as they may deem necessary from time to time, at a compensation not exceeding five dollars per diem for the time actually employed, except on days when the registrars are in session at the polling places, when said inspectors shall be paid at the same rate of compensation as the registrars; the said registrars shall be paid for their services at the rate of ten dollars for each day that they are in session at the polling places (payable after they deliver the registers, et cetera, to the commission, as hereinafter provided), and at the same rate as other witnesses when they are summoned to appear before the commission or the court of common pleas.

Sec. 43, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 20, 1921, P. L. 994.

Section 44. Authority of Clerks. Any insertion or striking out of names or other information in registers, or the amending of any records, done by any clerks of the commission by order of the commission, shall be construed to have been done by the commission itself, and shall likewise be subject to the correction of any errors in the doing thereof.

Part of Sec. 39, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 45. Counsel. Salary. Duties. The commission may employ special counsel at a compensation not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum. Such counsel shall advise the commission from time to time regarding its powers and duties and the rights of electors, and concerning the best methods of legal procedure for carrying out the various provisions of subdivision (c) (1) of this article, and shall appear for and represent the commission on all appeals taken from its decisions or orders to the court of common pleas as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 44, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 46. Power to Administer and Examine Under Oath. Each commissioner shall have the power to administer oaths.

The commission shall have power to summon any person whom it desires to interrogate and all persons testifying before said commission shall be first duly sworn by one of them, or by the chief clerk who shall also have the power to administer oaths.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 47. Registrars. Appointment. Qualifications. The commission shall, not later than August fifteenth of each year, appoint four registrars for each election district, as hereinafter provided and designate two of them, one of whom shall be of the majority party, to have charge of the two registers as hereinafter provided. The registrars must be duly qualified electors of the said district, and shall have been residents of the city for a period of two years, and of the ward for one year immediately preceding their appointment. They must be sober and judicious persons, of good moral character, able to read intelligently, and to write legibly. Two, and not more than two of the registrars, shall be members of the party polling the highest vote with the election district at the last preceding November election, and one at least shall be a member of the party polling the next highest number of votes at said election.

Whenever expedient they may appoint the assessor of any election district, if otherwise qualified, as one of the registrars, but no other person who holds or is a candidate for public office shall act as registrar.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.
This section has been slightly altered to eliminate ambiguity and repetition. The portion relating to a board of registrars has been omitted as confusing, as it refers to the four registrars and there is no organization of them into a board. The portion of the section relating to the removal of registrars is carried as a separate section, See Section 51.

Section 48. Nomination, Examination and Appointment of Registrars. Not later than July twentieth of each year, any five or more qualified electors of any election district, of the same political party, may file with the commission their petition for the appointment of not more than two qualified persons, also members of said party, as registrars. The petition shall set forth the name, address, qualifications, occupation, and political affiliation of each person suggested for appointment as a registrar, and give the respective residences of the petitioners, and declare that each of them belongs to the same party as that designated as the party of each candidate; which petition shall be signed by each petitioner in his own handwriting ,and sworn to by one of them and by each candidate.

More than one petition may be filed on behalf of the same party for each election district, provided that no elector shall be competent to sign petitions for more than two candidates, but if any candidate dies, withdraws, or becomes disqualified, before the last day of filing petitions aforesaid, any elector who recommended him may sign a petition for another candidate.

All petitions shall be open to public inspection, and not earlier than July twenty-sixth of each year, the commission shall commence public hearings thereof, considering them on consecutive week-days in the numerical order of the wards and of the election districts within each ward to which they relate respectively, unless reasonable cause be shown for postponing any hearing to a later time or date, and reasonable notice of such postponement given to all concerned.

The commission shall publish one general notice of the place and times or days when they will examine the candidates from the election districts of the various wards, at least three days prior to the first hearing, in at least two daily newspapers, each having a paid circulation of at least fifty place and times or days when they will examine the candidate a special notice of the time and place when he will be examined regarding his qualifications, at least three days before the day fixed for same, except that the commission need not notify any candidate who had previously been appointed a registrar to appear, but may reappoint him without such examination.

If more candidates are duly nominated as members of any party than it is entitled to have appointed, the commission shall appoint the candidate or candidates whom it considers most fit, and if there are not sufficient fit candidates nominated on behalf of any part, the commission may appoint other persons without regard to party, of whom it has knowledge. No person shall be appointed a registrar, unless the appointment is approved by three commissioners.

Part of Sec. 7, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.
Those portions of the section relating to protests against registrars or candidates for that office and the power of the commission to act thereon, and the duties of registrars to serve, are carried as separate sections: See Secs. 50 and 52.

Section 49. Filling of Vacancies in the Office of Registrar. Any vacancy occurring in the office of registrar of any election district, shall be filled by the commission, upon like petition as those filed for an annual appointment, after such petitions shall have been on file, open to public inspection at least five days, except in cases where a vacancy occurs within ten days of any registration day, when it may appoint any proper person of whom it has knowledge.

Sec. 23, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857. The term "board of registrars" eliminated as explained under Sec. 47.

Section 50. Power of Commission to Refuse to Appoint and to Remove After Protest. Any qualified elector of the city may appear before the commission and show wherein any person nominated for appointment or appointed as a registrar does not possess the requisite qualifications and the commission may decline to appoint any candidate and may remove any registrar whom it considers unfit.

Part of Sec. 7, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857. The word "or" following the word "candidate" in the last line is omitted, "and may" being substituted therefor.

Section 51. Removal of Registrars for Error or Change in Political Affiliation. If it appears at any time that by reason of a change in political affiliations or because of error in the appointment the registrars of any election district are not divided according to political affiliations, as herein provided, any ten electors of the election district may file a petition with the commission, setting forth the facts, and praying that one or more of the appointments be revoked and that other appointments be made. Upon presentation of such a petition, one of the commissioners shall fix a time not less than five days thereafter, and at least three days' notice shall be given by mail to all the registrars of such election district, when a public hearing shall be given all concerned, and if the facts are then found to be as represented, the commission shall give the relief asked for.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.
The reference to the registrars as a "board" has been eliminated for the reason explained under Sec. 47. The clause permitting "any ten electors of any election district" to file a petition to revoke an appointment of a registrar, we have interpreted to means that in any election district any ten electors thereof may file a petition for revocation of the appointment of a registrar of such district; we have changed the wording of the section to clearly show this meaning. The wording has also been changed to require the notice of the hearing, to be given to all the registrars of such district, instead of the ones "alleged to be of the same political faith;" this distinction was exceedingly ambiguous and clearly failed to provide notice to the interested parties under certain circumstances.

Sction 52. Duty of Registrars to Serve. Any person appointed a registrar must perform his duties as prescribed by subdivision (c) (1) of this article, unless excused therefrom by the commission for cause shown.

Part of Sec. 7, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 53. County Commissioners to Prepare Polling Places For Registrars. The county commissioners of each county in which is situated such a city, shall see that the polling places are open and in proper order for the use of the registrars on each day when they are required to be in session in the various election districts, and provide for the payment of all rentals for same upon proper vouchers by the treasurer of such county.

Part of Sec. 46, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.
The portion of said section referring to the removal or change of registration places is carried as a separate section. (See Sec. 54).

Section 54. Change of Place of Registration. Whenever the registrars of any election district or any inspector of registration, shall at any time make written report to the commission that the registrars are or will be unable to hold their sessions on any registration day at the polling place of such district on account of the failure of the county commissioners to arrange for the use thereof, or the refusal of the owner or occupant thereof to permit such use, or because the building has been so altered or destroyed that it is no longer suitable for registration purposes, the commission may forthwith, on its own motion, remove the place of registration in that district to any other place therein that is suitable and convenient for such purposes.

Immediate notice of such change shall be given to the central or city committee of each party or body of electors by messenger, and to the electors of said district, by posting at least two written or printed handbills outside or adjacent to the old polling place, stating in large type where the registrars will hold their sessions, and reposting such handbills on each registration day during each following period of registration until proper arrangements are made to use or change the polling place.

Such changes of the places of registration by the commission shall not operate as a change of the polling place in any election district aforesaid for the holding of elections or primaries therein, unless the county commissioners shall duly approve the same upon petition filed by electors as now is or hereafter may be required by law.

The words "polling place" when used elsewhere in subdivision (c) (1) of this article, shall be held to include any such temporary place of registration.

Part of Sec. 46, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 55. Time and Place of Meeting of Registrars, Powers and Duties. Th registrars of each election district shall meet at the polling place thereof in even-numbered years on the ninth Thursday, the seventh Tuesday, and fifth Saturday preceding the general election, which shall be known as a fall registration; on the fifth Wednesday preceding the spring primary, which shall be known as the spring registration; and in odd-numbered years on the tenth Tuesday, ninth Tuesday, and ninth Saturday preceding the municipal election, which shall also be known as a fall registration. They shall remain in open session from seven o'clock ante meridian to one o'clock post meridian and from four o'clock post meridian to ten o'clock post meridian of each registration day aforesaid.

They shall on said days receive personal applications from persons who claim that they are entitled to be registered. They shall have power to administer oaths, shall examine said applicants under oath, and shall record on the registers the names of those whom they shall determine to be qualified as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 8, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 56. Notice of Registration Days. Two weeks notice of all registration days shall be given by the commission by one general notice published in at least two daily newspapers, each having a paid circulation of at least fifty thousand copies daily, in the city, and by posting notices at the polling places.

Part of Sec. 12, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.
The portion of the section referring to use of old registers is carried in another section. (See Sec. 59).

Section 57. Spring Registration. Electors, who did not register at a fall registration, may register at the spring registration, if any, of the following year, if they will be otherwise qualified to vote at the spring primary.

Part of Sec. 11, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857. (See Sec. 58 for remainder of said section.)

Section 58. Registration for Special Election. The commission shall also sit on the third Wednesday preceding every special election for the purpose of registering all electors who have not been registered in the election district in which they then reside, but who otherwise are, or will be, fully qualified to vote at such election if they shall continue to reside in said district.

Part of Sec. 11, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 59. Use and Disposition of old registers. The commission shall, at each fall registration preceding the November election, furnish to the registrars of the several wards and precincts, the registers of the proper ward or precinct for the previous year.

The old registers shall be preserved by the commission for at least two years after the year in which they are in use, and during said period, shall be open to public inspection under proper regulations for their safekeeping, and no register shall be destroyed without the previous consent, in writing, of the district attorney of the proper county.

The registration lists shall otherwise become of no validity at the beginning of the period of fall registration next succeeding that at which the registers were opened.

Part of Sec. 12, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857, and part of Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 26, 1921, P. L. 292, amending Sec. 13, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857, joined in one section because of similar subject matter.

Section 60. Form of Registers. Every person claiming the right to vote must appear in person before the registrars in the district in which he lives, or before the commission on one of the days prescribed by law, and answer the questions put to him by them or it. The answers must be recorded on a single line in the registers which shall have the following form:

Surname	Christian Name	Occupation	Present Residence
			Street and Number	Householder, Lodger Lessee or Owner	Room or Floor Occupied
1	2	3	4	5	6

24	25		26	27		28

The size and character of the said register shall be determined by the Secretary of the Commonwealth and the form thereof shall be furnished by the said secretary to the respective commissions.

Immediately above the form shall be printed the following instructions: "The Applicant Must Be Sworn or Affirmed That the Information Given by Him in Reference to His Right to Be Registered Shall Be the Truth. Any Wilful False Statement Constitutes Perjury and is Punishable as Such."

Every register shall be indexed alphabetically from A to Z. The lines of each page shall be consecutively numbered in both margins, beginning with the number one at each alphabetical division of the register.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857, as amended in part by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 26, 1921, P. L. 292. (For remaining portion of the Act of Apr. 26, 1921, P. L. 292, amending part of Sec. 13, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857, see Sec. 64.)

Section 61. Recording Answers of Applicants. The answers of the applicants shall be recorded in their presence in both registers in the following manner:

In the first column shall be entered the surname of the applicant, in the order of his appearance at the place of registration, on the page bearing the index letter of his surname; in the second column shall be entered his Christian name or names; in the third column his occupation; in the fourth column the street and number of his residence; in the fifth and sixth columns, whether he is a householder, lodger, lessee, or owner, and, if he is a lodger or lessee of a portion only of a house, the floor which he occupies; in the seventh and eighth columns shall be entered the length of his residence in the State and district respectively; in answer to the question as to his residence in the State and district respectively, it shall be sufficient for him to state such time as shall qualify him to vote within the district; in the ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth columns the location of the house from which he last registered, giving State, city, street, and number respectively, and the year in which he was so registered; in the thirteenth column the State or territory of the United States or the foreign country where he was born; in the fourteenth column whether, if foreign born he produces his naturalization papers; in the fifteenth column the number of the affidavit of naturalization of his father, if taken; in the sixteenth and seventeenth columns the manner in which he complies with the law relating to the payment of taxes as a qualification of the right to vote, whether by the production of his receipt or by making affidavit, if the applicant is less than twenty-two years of age the word "age" shall be recorded in said columns; in the eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth, and twenty-first columns his personal description, designating whether white or colored, his approximate age, height, and weight; in giving the approximate age, a statement that the applicant is twenty-one years of age and upwards shall be sufficient; in the twenty-second column the designation of the political party of the elector for the purpose of voting at the next succeeding primary or primaries, if such a statement shall be required by law as preliminary to the right to vote at such primary or primaries; in the twenty-third column in the register marked "voting check list," he shall be required to sign his name if able to write; if he alleges inability to write, a record of the fact shall be made in the same column, and unless due to some apparent physical infirmity, he shall be required to make affidavit of his inability to write; in the twenty-third column in the register marked "ballot check list," he shall (if challenged on election day) be required to sign his name; in the twenty-fourth column shall be entered the number of the challenge affidavit of every person who is required to take said affidavit; in the twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth columns the election officers shall record in one register, the obtaining of the ballot, and, in the other, the casting of the vote of the registered elector at the fall primary, November election, spring primary, or special election, as may be provided by law.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 11, 1929, P. L. 483.

Section 62. Qualification For Registration, Majority of Registrars or Commissioners Necessary to Determine. Every person who shall have paid, within two years, a State or county tax, either by himself or his duly authorized agent or attorney, which was assessed at least two months, and paid at least one month, before the next ensuing November election, and who shall possess all the other qualifications of an elector as provided in the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth, or who, by continued residence in his election district, will obtain such qualifications before the next ensuing general or municipal election, shall be entitled to be registered at a fall registration, but at the spring registration, only if he will be qualified to vote at the spring primary. No person shall be registered unless at least three of the registrars or commissioners determine that he is so qualified, except by order of a court of common pleas as herein after provided.

Sec. 14, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 63. Collection of Poll Tax by Registrars In Connection With Registration. The receiver of taxes in such cities, shall designate one of the registrars appointed by the registration commission for each election district in said cities, to be deputy poll-tax collector for such district, who shall receive poll-taxes from persons who have been duly assessed in said district and give proper receipt therefor on any of the registration days provided by law.

The receiver of taxes shall prepare blank poll-tax receipts, bound together in books containing fifty each, impressed with the seal of the city, which said books shall be issued to the said deputy collectors of poll-tax from time to time as required. The stub of each receipt, together with all unused receipts shall, on or before the second day next succeeding each registration day, be returned to the receiver of taxes and kept by him as a part of the records of his department for a period of two years.

The said deputy poll-tax collectors shall give bond in form and amount approved by the receiver of taxes, and shall for their services receive ten per centum of the amount collected by them, which shall be in addition to the compensation allowed them by law for their services as registrars. They shall make a full return of all moneys (less their commission of ten per centum) and blank receipts received by them, on or before the second day next succeeding each registration day.

Secs. 2, 3 and 4, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 994.

Section 64. Permanent Residents. Registration Simplified. Every person appearing before the registrars, who was registered in said district for the previous year, and who still resides at the same residence within said district as in the previous year, shall after being sworn, upon the production of a proper tax receipt, and the making of a statement that he was registered in said election district the year immediately preceding, that he resides in the same residence as during the year immediately preceding, and naming the political party, if any, to which he belongs, be again registered by the registrars without answering the additional questions. In all such cases the registrars shall, at any time during the day, complete the registration of such person from the registers of the preceding year, making due allowance for the elapsing of one year.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 26, 1921, P. L. 292, amending part of Sec. 13, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 65. Challenging of Applicants. Any person claiming the right to register at any polling place may be challenged by a registrar or by any qualified elector of the election district; and any person asking for registration by the commission, may be challenged by any commissioner or qualified elector of the city. Any person so challenged shall answer the questions of the challenge affidavit as hereinafter specified, and, after his answers have been recorded, he shall subscribe them by his signature or mark, and swear to their truth. He shall also make affidavit at the same time to the truth of his answers as recorded in the register, which he shall be deemed to have examined or have had read to him.

The affidavits of all persons so registered shall at the time of every such registration be numbered and kept with the registers or filed as hereinafter provided.

The challenge applicant shall produce such further proof as the law requires challenged persons to produce on election day, and it shall be the duty of the registrars or commission to require it before permitting him to be registered.

Sec. 15, and part of Sec. 17, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857. The paragraph of Sec. 17 is included as properly belonging under this heading.

Section 66. Form of Challenge Affidavit. The challenge affidavit shall be in the following form:

Sec. 16, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 67. Registration of Foreign-Born Citizens. All persons claiming the right to vote by reason of naturalization shall produce the proper naturalization papers, or a certified copy thereof, before they shall be registered, but no such person shall be required to produce his papers a second time in the same district, unless he is challenged.

Any person claiming citizenship by reason of the naturalization of a parent, may be registered either by the production of the parent's original papers, or a certified copy thereof, or by making affidavit that the parent was naturalized at a time when he, the applicant, was less than twenty-one years of age, and that he is unable to produce the original papers, or a certified copy thereof. Such applicant shall also make affidavit as to any other matter necessary to show his right to citizenship by reason of the naturalization of his parent.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857. The clause referring to proof of citizenship by naturalization of a father, is altered in conformity with the provisions of Title 8, U. S. Code, Secs. 7 and 8, "children of persons who have been naturalized," and Sec. 368, providing for separate naturalization of husband and wife.

Section 68. Records of Rejected Applicants. Whenever the applicant is rejected after a portion of the record has been filled in, a line shall be drawn through the record already made, and the registrar, or commissioner shall note on said line the reason for the rejection, and shall add his initials thereto.

Part of Sec. 18, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857. The portions of this section referring to duplicate records and procedure before commissioners are carried as separate sections.

Section 69. Duties of Registrars In Keeping Registers. The two registrars designated to keep the two registers shall obtain, at the office of the commission, before the first registration day in the fall of each year, and before the fifth Wednesday preceding the spring primary, the blank books, forms, and other supplies prepared for their use, and shall have the same at the polling place on each day when they are or should be in session. On such registration days and during the time from one such day to another, while the registers, affidavits, and other records remain in the custody of the said registrars, they shall be charged with the safe-keeping of the same; and the other two registrars shall be charged with the safekeeping of the lists of the names and addresses of persons being registered from which the street lists are subsequently to be prepared as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 32, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 70. Comparison, Notation and Correction of Errors by Registrars. At the end of each day when the registrars are in session, they shall compare the two registers and cause any errors in either of them to be corrected, if they are explained by the entries in the other, so as to make them agree respecting all facts properly recorded. If this is impossible the registrars shall report any serious omission or difference to the commission by mail, who shall cause the same to be properly investigated. In order to prevent further entries in the registers without the direction of the commission, all of the registrars shall at the end of each day aforesaid, sign their initials in the line immediately under the last name registered by them under each letter in each book, together with the date.

Sec. 33, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 71. Preparation and Posting of Street Lists.—At the same time the two registrars who have not charge of the registers, shall prepare two "street lists" of the names and addresses of all persons registered, in the order in which their residences appear upon the streets of the election district. One of said street lists shall be hung outside of the polling place, and shall remain in that position until the next November election or spring primary.

Part of Sec. 34, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 72. Certificate of Daily Registration by Registrars. At the end of the fifth Wednesday preceding the spring primary and at the end of the last day in the fall of each year when the registrars are in session, they shall sign a certificate, the form of which shall be printed on the last page of the register, setting forth the number of persons registered on each day and the number of names which have been stricken out, if any, and the total number of names remaining registered.

Part of Sec. 34, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 73. Striking Names From List. Record of Transferred Electors Kept. On the fifth Wednesday preceding the spring primary, the registrars shall, in addition to the registration of electors, strike from the list the names of such persons as shall be proven to their satisfaction, by the affidavits of at least two qualified electors of the district, to have died or removed from the district since the last registration. The registrars shall record on blank forms, provided for the purpose, the name and previous places of registration, giving wards and districts, of all persons registered by them on said day who give as such place of previous registration a place in the same city, and shall forward the same to the commission for their information.

The commission shall record the like facts relating to persons registered by them who have moved from one election district of the city into another since their previous registration.

Sec. 19, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 74. Affidavits and Vouchers In Duplicate. All affidavits and vouchers shall be executed in duplicate, one being delivered into the custody of each registrar who has charge of the registers.

Part of Sec. 18, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 75. Delivery of Registers and Records to Commission. Before ten o'clock ante meridian on the Monday following the last day when the registrars shall be in session in the fall of any year, and before the like hour on the fifth Saturday preceding the spring primary, the two registrars who have been charged with the keeping of the registers shall deliver the same, together with the aforesaid certificate and one street list and all affidavits, vouchers, unused forms, et cetera, to the commission at such place or places as may be designated by it, by the general instructions previously given to such registrars, and none of the registrars shall be entitled to any compensation until the said registers et cetera are returned as aforesaid.

Sec. 35, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 76. Registration of Electors By Commission. For the further accommodation of the public, the commission shall hold regular sessions for the registration of electors at its office, in even-numbered years on each day, except Sunday, from the fourth Tuesday to and including the second Saturday preceding the spring primary, and on each day, except Sunday, from the fourth Wednesday to and including the second Saturday preceding the general election; and in odd-numbered years on each day, except Sunday, from the eighth Wednesday preceding the municipal election to and including the fifth day preceding the fall primary; and after said primary, from the sixth Monday to and including the second Saturday before the municipal election; on each of which days, the commission shall remain in session from nine o'clock ante meridian to twelve o'clock noon, and from one o'clock to four o'clock post meridian, to receive personal applications for registration from electors who, on account of illness, absence from the city, business, or personal reasons, did not find it convenient to appear at their polling places on any of the registration days when the registrars were in session, or who, although not then qualified, have since become qualified to be registered, or who were refused registration by the registrars for any reason.

The Commission shall examine all applicants for registration before it, as fully as the registrars are required to interrogate persons who appear before them at the polling places, and inquire also whether they were refused registration by the registrars, and if so, why, and require any person who is challenged by any qualified elector of the city to meet such challenge in the same manner as if he had been duly challenged before the registrars of his election district.

Sec. 9, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 77. Collection of Poll Tax By Chief Clerk In Connection With Registration. The receiver of taxes in each city shall designate the chief clerk of the commission in said city, to be a deputy receiver of taxes for the collection and receipt of poll taxes from persons assessed as residents of such city. Such deputy shall hold office only while continuing in office as such chief clerk. He shall give said receiver of taxes a bond, in a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, in proper form for the safekeeping and paying over to him of all poll taxes collected by said deputy, in such amount, with such surety, as may be approved by said receiver of taxes, or by the court of common pleas of the proper county.

The receiver of taxes shall prepare blank poll tax receipts, bound together in books containing fifty each, and impressed with the proper seal of the city, and issue such number to such deputy from time to time as he may request. The number of receipts so delivered to him and not accounted for as hereinafter provided, shall not exceed ten thousand at any time.

On the days when electors may be registered by the commission, more than one month prior to any general or municipal election, such deputy shall be ready, during the hours when the commission shall be in session, to receive poll taxes from the residents of the various election districts in such city applying for such registration, upon any assessment of such taxes made at least two months prior to such election and give them the official receipts therefor.

Such deputy may from time to time, and within ten days after each November election shall, account to said receiver of taxes for all such taxes collected prior to such accounting, less ten per centum thereof which such deputy may retain as his commission for collecting the same, which commission shall be in addition to any compensation allowed for his services as chief clerk. Such deputy shall, on or before the tenth day following the November election, return the stub of each receipt given for such taxes, and also all unused receipts, to said receiver of taxes, who shall keep such stubs and unusuel receipts as a part of the records of his department for a period of one year.

Part of Sec 50, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.
The penal clause is transferred to the penal article. The last paragraph has been partly rewritten for purposes of clarity.

Section 78. Applications Before Commission Under Same Rulings as Before Registrars. The commission, when receiving applications for registration, shall require the same proofs of all persons as are required by registrars under similar conditions, and all affidavits and vouchers executed before the commission shall be retained by them for the same purposes as those filed by registrars.

Part of Sec. 18, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 79. Striking Names From Original Register on Transfer of Registration. Upon receiving from any registrars or making any record of the transfer of the registration of any qualified elector, who removed from one division to another in the same city on any registration day preceding the spring primary, the commission shall examine the registers of the election district given as the previous place of registration, and, if the name of such elector remains registered therein, they shall strike it therefrom, and note therein the reason for so doing.

Sec. 20, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 80. Name of Electors Registered by Commission to Be Carried on District Registry. The names and other information concerning those whom the commission shall determine to be entitled to be registered at the office of the commission, shall be recorded on the same registers as were previously used at the polling places by the registrars for registering other electors residing in the same election district. The commission shall keep separate lists of the names and addresses of all electors registered by it in each election district, but need not print them in the street lists previously prepared by the registrars.

Sec. 10, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 81. Investigation and Correction of Registration By Commission. The commission shall have power to (a) investigate on their own motion any irregularities in registration, (b) summon witnesses, (c) examine them under oath, (d) require the production of any relevant books and papers, (e) correct the registers by striking off names which they may find to be improperly registered, but none shall be so struck off except at the public sessions of the commission for registration purposes herein provided for.

Part of Sec. 24, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 82. Objections to Striking Name From Register. Notice. Hearing. If any person, claiming the right to be registered, shall object to the action of any registrars in striking his name from the registers, he may file his petition with the commission not later than two weeks prior to the spring primary, setting forth the ground of his complaint under oath, and praying for the correction of the registers by the restoration of his name thereto; which petition shall be heard and disposed of, not later than ten days preceding the spring primary, after one of the commissioners shall have fixed a time for a public hearing thereof at the office of the commission, and the petitioner shall have given each registrar at least forty-eight hours' notice of such hearing, by leaving a copy of said petition, with the time and place for hearing same indorsed thereon, at the residence of each registrar; and, at such hearing, if the commission is satisfied that such notice has been given and that the petitioner is entitled to be registered, it shall amend the register accordingly by registering the petitioner in the usual manner, but any registrar or qualified elector of the city may appear and show cause why the same should not be done.

Sec. 21. Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.
(Sec. 22 of said act is not carried in this article as the subject matter thereof is covered in Art. II (d) "Political Party Enrollment of Voters").

Section 83. Correction of Registration By Commission After Hearing. If any qualified elector including any watcher, registrar or inspector of registration of any city shall object to any action of any registrars in registering any person, or in refusing to strike off the name of any person registered, such elector may file his petition with the commission, praying for the correction of the registers upon such grounds as he may set forth in such petition, under oath. One of the commissioners shall fix a time and place for hearing such petition not later than five days before any fall primary, or ten days preceding any election or spring primary, and the petitioner shall cause forty-eight hours' notice of the proceeding to be given to the person whose registration is in question, by leaving a copy of the petition, with the time and place fixed for hearing the same indorsed thereon, with an adult person at his place of residence as given by him to the registrars and recorded in the registers. Upon proof of service of such notice or proof that there is no one residing at the address given, and after a public hearing, the commission, if satisfied that the said person is not entitled to be registered shall strike his name from the registers, and otherwise amend the records of the election district where he was registered accordingly.

Sec. 37, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 84. Correction of Registration By Commission Without Hearing. At any time, not later than five days before any fall primary or ten days preceding any election or spring primary, any qualified elector of the city, including any watcher, registrar, or inspector, may petition the commission to strike off from the registers of any election district, the name of any person previously registered therein by the commission, setting forth, under oath supported by the affidavits of at least two adult persons, sufficient grounds for striking off such name, and also setting forth that due notice of the time and place when said petition would be presented, had been given to the person so registered, personally, at least twenty-four hours prior to the presentation of the same, or that he could not be found at the place given in the registers as his residence, and that the person in charge thereof, to be mentioned by name in said petition, had declared that he or she was well acquainted with the names of all persons residing at the address given as such residence, and that the person so registered had never been or was no longer one of them, or that no prson is residing at the address given. Whereupon the commission shall forthwith strike such name from the register, unless the person so registered shall appear and show cause why the same should not be done.

Sec. 38, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 85. Subpoenas For Witnesses Before Commission. Method of Securing Fees. Any person filing any petition of any kind aforesaid with the commission, or opposing the same, shall have the privilege of having subpoenas issued by the commission over the signature of its chief clerk to compel the attendance of witnesses, upon condition that all witnesses so subpoenaed shall be paid two dollars and fifty cents each per day as witness fees in the manner herein provided. The commission on its own motion may subpoena witnesses, including registrars, each of whom shall also be entitled to daily witness fees, at the rate aforesaid, to be paid by the chief clerk of the commission out of any money to be provided for that purpose for the use of the commission, by the city council of each city in the same manner as its other necessary expenses are to be provided for.

All subpoenas shall be in substantially the same form and have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued by the court of common pleas. The commission shall have the benefit of the process of said courts if necessary to enforce any subpoena issued by the commission. No subpoena shall be issued for the benefit of any person other than the commission, until he shall have paid the chief clerk a fee of twenty-five cents for issuing the same, and shall have deposited with the said clerk one day's witness fees for each witness to be summoned thereby, whose names shall be given to the clerk and entered by him in such subpoena, and among the records of the commission.

No such subpoena shall be of any virtue to require the further attendance of any witness after the day mentioned therein, unless the hearing is postponed or continued by the commission, and, before four o'clock post meridian of said day, the person for whose benefit it is issued shall have deposited with the said chief clerk an additional day's witness fees for each witness whose further attendance is desired.

As soon as convenient after any hearing is concluded (or postponed or continued) on any day, the chief clerk shall disburse the fees deposited with him by any person, among those witnesses who have appeared in response to subpoenas issued, and return any fees deposited for others who did not attend, to the person who deposited them, and shall also pay like fees to any person summoned by the commission, taking their receipts therefor, so long as there are sufficient funds available for such payments.

The chief clerk shall pay over to the city treasurer all fees received for subpoenas, and his accounts respecting disbursements of witness fees, out of appropriation made to the commission by council, shall be subject to audit by the city controller from time to time.

Sec. 42, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 86. Printing and Distribution of Street Lists by Commission. The commission shall cause at least one hundred exact copies of the street list of each election district to be printed in pamphlet form as soon as possible, and it shall distribute the same as it deems proper among the inspectors of registration, and the city and county officials concerned with the conduct of any election or primary, and among the parties, bodies of electors, and candidates, interested therein, giving at least ten copies of each street list to the central or city committee of each political party, or body of electors, upon the written application of the chairman thereof and keeping two complete sets of such street lists on file at the office of the commission, convenient for public inspection during all the hours when its other records are open to public inspection.

Sec. 36, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 87. Power of Commission to Make and Enforce Regulations. The commission may make any regulations not inconsistent with subdivision (c) (1) of this article, or the laws of this Commonwealth, or of the United States, for the regulation of the business and public sessions of the commission, and may enforce such regulations and all its orders, and subpoenas to witnesses, and, is necessary, have the assistance of the courts of common pleas of the county and of all public officers subservient thereto, in enforcing the same; which assistance said officers, as well as the judges of said courts, shall render when requested to do so, subject, however, to the right of certain persons to appeal from the orders of the commission as hereinafter provided.

Part of Sec. 39, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857. (See Sec. 44 herein for other portion of Sec. 39).

Section 88. Appeal to Court of Common Pleas From Rulings of Commission. Any person whose claim for registration has been denied by the commission, or whose name, although previously registered, was struck off by the commission, or by any registrars and not restored by the commission upon a petition filed for that purpose as aforesaid, or any qualified elector of any city whose rights are impaired by any general order made by the commission, not including registration of particular names by the commission on personal application made to it as aforesaid, or refusals to strike off names upon any petition of any kind aforesaid, may file an appeal with the proper court of common pleas not later than the fourth day preceding any fall primary, or the eighth day preceding any election or spring primary, setting forth why he feels that an injustice has been done, and praying for such order as will give him relief. Such appeallant shall pay the prothonotary a fee of three dollars for filing such appeal.

Thereupon any judge of the said court may fix a time and place for hearing the matter in dispute of which notice shall be served with a copy of said appeal, by the appellant, upon the counsel for the commission, and upon any elector or his attorney who opposed the contention of the appellant before the commission, at least forty-eight hours before such matter will be reviewed by the court, and proof of notice or the waiver thereof must be filed with the records of the appeal.

Any judge of said court may extend the time of notice, or postpone such hearing, as may be reasonable with due regard for the time remaining before the next succeeding election or primary.

At the time so fixed, the court or any judge thereof assigned for the purpose, shall hear all the witnesses and other evidence that may be offered de novo, unless the issue can be decided in some other manner by agreement of all concerned. After such public hearing the said court may reverse affirm, or alter the decision of the commission, and modify any order may by it accordingly, and if necessary, issue its mandate to the election officers of any election district to permit the appellant to vote at any designated election or primary, although his name may not have been entered in, or restored to the register of such district. The said court may compel the appellant or any opposing party, other than the commission to pay all the witness fees and other legal costs of such appeal, which may be taxed by the prothonotary in the usual manner.

Sec. 40, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 89, Production of Records on Appeal. At the written request of any person taking an appeal from any action or order of the commission as aforesaid, the commission shall produce at the hearing thereof any petition, register or other record in its custody relevant to the issue involved, but the commissioners shall not be obliged to answer any appeal and shall not be obliged by subpoena or otherwise to appear at any such hearing, unless they deem it expedient to do so.

Sec. 41, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 90. Delivery of Registers to County Commissioners. Not later than noon of the second day preceding each election or primary, the commission shall deliver to the county commissioners of the proper county, the two registers prepared for each election district, in order that the same may be delivered to the election officers with other election supplies, for use on election day, in the manner in which the county commissioners now are or hereafter may be required to deliver the same.

Sec. 47, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 91, Acts Done on Sundays and Legal Holidays Valid. No part of any day fixed for the performance of any duties by any person or official in carrying out the provisions of subdivision (c) (1) of this article, shall be deemed a Sunday or a legal holiday so as to affect the legality of any work done for the purpose of carrying out the provisions hereof, or the right of any person to any compensation herein provided for, for rendering any service required hereby, or so as to relieve any person from doing on such day, whatever is necessary for such purposes, and such services are hereby declared to be necessary public services.

Sec. 48, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 92. Effect of Non-Registration. No person, except a qualified elector who is in actual military or naval service under a requisition of the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, shall be entitled to vote at any election or primary in any such city, without being registered, execpt by order of the court of common pleas, as hereinbefore provided regarding appeals.

Part of Sec. 49, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857. (For remainder of said section, see later article on the subject of conduct of elections.)

Section 93. Inspectors. Appointment, Qualifications and Powers. To assist it in securing correct and impartial information regarding any matter within the jurisdiction of the commission, the commission may, from time to time, appoint as many inspectors of registration as may be necessary for the city, who must be qualified electors of the city and sober and judicious persons of good moral character, able to read intelligently and to write legibly. They shall be chosen in such manner as shall be agreed upon by the commission, without regard to their party affiliations, and shall have the power to administer oaths and the other powers herein granted them, but shall not exercise the same until they shall have taken an oath of office, such as the commission may prescribe, and receive a certificate of appointment stating their names and addresses and the length of time for which they shall have been appointed respectively.

Part of Sec. 24, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857. (For other portion of this section see Sec. 81.)

Section 94. Duties and Powers of Inspectors at Registration. Any inspector of registration of any city shall be entitled to be present at any time during any session of the registrars at any polling place thereof, and whenever the registrars of any election district shall be equally divided in opinion regarding any matter, any inspector of registration who may be present shall have the power to decide the question of differences, and thereupon the registrars shall act in accordance with his opinion, but such action shall be subject to revision on petition of any person denied registration thereby or qualified elector not satisfied with same, as in other cases.

Such inspector shall have power to call any police or peace officer of the city or of the county to assist him in the maintenance of peace at any polling place or in making any arrest as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 25 and part of Sec. 26 of the Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857, which properly belongs under this heading. (For remainder of Sec. 26, see Sec. 95.)

Section 95. Duties and Powers of Inspectors as Investigators. Any inspector of registration, on his own motion or on complaint of any person known to him, may, and when directed by any commissioner, shall:

(a) Investigate all questions relating to the registration of electors, and for that purpose shall have power to enter and inspect any house, dwelling building, inn, lodging house, or hotel within any city, and to interrogate any inmate, householder, lodger, lessee, keeper, caretaker, owner, proprietor, or agent thereof or therein, regarding any person or persons residing or claiming to reside thereat or therein, without being required to show any warrant for so doing, except his certificate of appointment.

(b) Inspect and copy any register of lodgers in lodging houses, inns, or hotels, relating to or affecting the right of any person to vote, or to be registered, in like manner.

(c) Arrest any person without warrant, except any herein privileged from such arrest who, in the presence of the inspector of registration, violates, or attempts to violate, any of the provisions of subdivision (c) (1) of this article, when such violation is punishable as a crime.

Part of Sec. 26, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857. (See Sec. 94 for other part of said section).

Section 96. Appointment of Watchers. Parties or bodies of electors who now are or hereafter may be entitled to have watchers at any election or primary, may recommend not more than three electors of each election district to act as watchers at the polling place thereof, on each registration day when the registrars are in session, without expense to the city or county, and the commission shall appoint all such persons as watchers, and provide them with proper certificates, stating their names and the party or policy which they represent respectively, unless they are shown to have previously been convicted of any crime.

Sec. 27, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 97. Rights of Inspectors and Watchers at Registration. Any inspector of registration or watcher shall be entitled to remain at any polling place during all the hours when the registrars shall be in session on any registration day, and to keep a list and other memorandum of, or concerning, the person applying for registration, and to interrogate or challenge any person regarding his right to be registered, and to inspect any papers produced by such person, and the registrars shall give every inspector of registration and watcher ample opportunity, and afford them every convenience for the discharge of their duties. They may at any time be required to show their certificates of appointment, and not more than one inspector of registration and one watcher for each party or body of electors represented, shall be allowed in the polling place at any one time.

Sec. 28, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 98. Number of Electors Permitted at Registration in District. Not more than ten electors, other than the registrars and any inspectors of registration and watchers aforesaid, shall be allowed in the polling place of any election district at any one time; but, if more are in waiting immediately outside the entrance thereto at the time for closing any session on any registration day, they also shall be entitled to admittance and examination before said polling place is closed, notwithstanding the extension of such session thereby.

Sec. 29, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 99. Rights of Attorneys, Watchers and Candidates Before Commission. Such parties or bodies of electors shall also be entitled to appoint any attorneys or watchers who are qualified electors of the city, to represent such parties or bodies of electors at any public session or sessions of the commission, which attorneys or watchers may exercise the same rights as watchers at polling places, but the number who may be present at any one time may be limited by the commission to not less than three for each party or body of electors. Every candidate for nomination or election to any office shall also be entitled to be present and to participate in any proceeding before the commission whenever any matters which may affect his candidacy are being heard.

Sec. 30, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 100. Immunity From Arrest of Commisisoners, Registrars, and Inspectors. Commissioners, registrars and inspectors of registration shall be privileged from arrest while performing their duties as such, upon all registration days, except upon warrant of a court of record or judge thereof for felony, for wanton breach of the peace, or for a criminal violation of the provisions of subdivision (c) (1) of this article.

Sec. 31, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 101. Commission to Report to Governor. Records to Be Public. The commission shall keep a record in permanent form of all proceedings and make an annual report to the Governor. Its records and all registers, street lists, affidavits petitions ,appeals, witness lists, accounts, contracts, reports, and other documents in its custody shall be open to public inspection and may be inspected and copied by any qualified elector when they are not necessarily being used by the commissioners or employes having duties to perform in reference thereto, between the hours from nine o'clock ante meridian to four post meridian daily, except Sunday and legal holidays, between the first day of December of each year and the first day of September following, but during the months of September, October, and November in each year all such books and papers shall, while in the custody of the commission, be open to the public for the purposes aforesaid, both during the aforesaid hours and also during the hours from four post meridian to ten post meridian daily, except Sundays and legal holidays, under proper regulations for their safekeeping.

Sec. 5, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857.

Section 102. Appropriations. The council of each city shall appropriate annually, and from time to time, the funds necessary for the maintenance and operation of the commisison, and the carrying out of the provisions of subdivision (c) (1) of this article ,including the payment of the compensation of the registrars, the commissioners and their clerks, counsel, inspectors of registration, and other employes and the fees of witnesses as hereinbefore provided. The council of each city shall provide the commission with suitable and adequate rooms and furniture for keeping its records, holding its public sessions, and otherwise performing its duties. The said council shall also make appropriations from time to time for printing in accordance with the directions of the commission for securing and distributing, or receiving and preserving all street lists, blank registers, affidavits, vouchers, account books, stationery, and other supplies which the commission considers necessary, and for all other necessary expenses.

Sec. 45, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857, with the final sentence thereof omitted as superfluous, and for the further reason that the right of the General Assembly to control and dispose of, by statute, appropriations already made by cities, is questionable.

Section 103. Penalties For Violations of Registration Laws in First Class Cities. (a) Any person, who wilfully disobeys a lawful order of the commisison or commissioners, or refuses to obey their subpoena, duly issued and served under the provisions of subdivision (c) (1) of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred ($500) dollars.

(b) Any wilful false statement, made under oath, or in writing, stating that it is so made, although such oath may not have actually been made, by any person, regarding any material matter or thing relating to any subject being investigated, heard, or acted upon by any registrar, commisisoner, judge, watcher, inspector of registration, court, or commission, by virtue of subdivision (c) (1) of this article, shall be perjury, and any person upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred ($500) dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(c) Any registrar who knowingly registers or permits to be registered, a person not lawfully entitled to be registered, or who, without reasonable cause, refuses to register a person entitled to be registered, or knowlingly assists in preventing such person from being registered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

(d) Any person who applies for registration knowing or having reason to know that he is not entitled to be registered, or who falsely impersonates another in an application for registration, or who knowingly offers false naturalization papers, or a fraudulent tax receipt to establish his claim to be registered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced, for every such offense, to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding three years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(e) Any registrar who inserts, or intentionally permits to be inserted, a name on the registry list without a proper application in person, during the hours of registration on a registration day, on the part of the person registered, or without requiring the proper evidence of the right of the applicant to be registered, or who materially alters any registry list after the entry has been made, except upon an order of the court or of the commission, or who makes any entry therein at any time other than during the hours of registration and in the presence of the other registrars, except upon such an order, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(f) Any election officer who knowingly refuses the vote of a duly registered and qualified elector, or who knowingly accepts the vote of a person not registered in accordance with the provision of subdivision (c) (l) of this article except that of a person in actual military or naval service as aforesaid, or a person having an order of court as aforesaid, or who knowingly receives a vote from a person falsely claiming to be a registered voter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(g) Any commisisoner, registrar, chief clerk, inspector of registration, or other officer, upon whom a duty is laid by subdivision (c) (l) of this article, who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to perform his said duty, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(h) Any person, who inserts or intentionally permits to be inserted any name or material entry on any register, street list, affidavit, petition, subpoena, certificate, report, or other record authorized or required by subdivision (c) (l) of this article to be made or prepared for any purpose hereinbefore mentioned, except in accordance therewith, or who materially alters or destroys an entry which has been duly made therein, except as hereinbefore provided, or who takes and removes any such book, paper, or other record from the custody of any person having lawful charge thereof, in order to prevent the same from being used or inspected or copied as hereinbefore provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding three years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(i) Any person who neglects or refuses to furnish to any inspector of registration any information which he is hereinbefore authorized to obtain, or to exhibit any records, papers, or documents hereinbefore authorized to be inspected by him, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(j) Any constable, policeman, sheriff, or other peace or police officer or deputy or subordinate thereof, who shall fail upon demand of any inspector of registration to render such aid and assistance to him as he shall demand in the maintenance of peace and in the making of arrests without warrant as hereinbefore provided, or who shall wilfully hinder or delay or attempt to hinder or delay any inspector of registration in the performance of any duty, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(k) Any person who intentionally interferes with, hinders, or delays any other person in the performance of any act or duty hereinbefore authorized or imposed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

(l) Any chief clerk of a commission acting as deputy collector of taxes who shall, upon request of any person assessed as a voter as aforesaid, refuse to accept the payment of his poll tax and to furnish a receipt therefor, or who shall accept payment of any poll tax from any person, except an elector upon whom such tax has been properly assessed, or his duly authorized agent or attorney, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars for each offense.

(m) Any registrar acting as a deputy poll tax collector who shall, upon request, refuse to accept the payment of a tax from an elector upon whom said tax has been properly assessed, and to give a receipt therefor, or who shall accept payment of a tax from, and issue a receipt to, any person other than the said elector or his duly authorized agent or attorney, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Part of Secs. 50 and 51, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857, and Sec. 4, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 994.

(2) Second Class Cities and Second Class "A" Cities.

Section 110. Definitions. As used in subdivision (c) (2) of this article, the following words and terms shall be construed to mean:

The word "commissioners" means the registration commissioners.

The word "oath" includes affirmation and the word "swear" includes affirm, wherever used.

The term election "district" includes election "division."

All reference to public officers or municipal authorities where not otherwise specified shall be understood to refer to the authorities of the proper county or judicial district.

The word "party" means a political party which, at the last election polled two per centum of the vote cast in any city or election district for the candidate receiving the largest vote therein.

The word "register" means the book containing or to contain the registry list of electors prepared by the registrars.

The term "general election" means the election held in even-numbered years and the term "municipal election" means the election in odd-numbered years.

The word "cities" or "city" as used herein means second class cities, and second class "A" cities.

Sec. 2, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.
We have included under this subdivision second class A cities upon the authority of the act creating such cities.

Section 111. Appointment, Tenure, Qualifications, Compensation and Removal of Commissioners. The Governor of the Commonwealth shall, at the expiration of the terms of existing commissioners in said cities, and in every fourth year thereafter, appoint a board of registration commissioners for each of said cities, consisting of four duly qualified electors of said city, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same party.

The commissioners shall hold office for a term of four years, or until their successors qualify. Any commissioner may be removed for cause by the Governor. Any vacancy in a board of commisisoners shall be filled by the Governor within ten days after the vacancy occurs, and the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office during the remainder of the term of the commissioner in whose place he was appointed. All appointments shall be so made that at no time shall more than two commissioners belong to the same party.

The commissioners shall receive a compensation at the rate of three thousand dollars per annum. Said compensation shall be paid by the treasurer of the proper county out of the county treasury.

Sec. 3, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of July 19, 1917, P. L. 1108.

Section 112. Organization, Records. Reports. As soon after their appointment as may be, the commissioners shall organize by selecting a chairman, and a secretary, who shall not be members of the same party. The concurrence of three commissioners shall be necessary to any affirmative action, except as may be otherwise provided. The commissioners shall keep a record, in permanent form of all their proceedings. Their records shall be open to the public at all reasonable times, and they shall make an annual report to the Governor.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977. The right to administer oaths given by this section is carried in Section 141 herein.

Section 113. Employes. Salaries. The commissioners shall have power to appoint a recorder, who shall have power to administer oaths, and to fix his compensation at two thousand five hundred dollars per annum; a clerk who shall receive a salary of two thousand dollars per annum; a stenographer who may act as clerk, who shall receive a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; a custodian who shall receive a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; and a clerk who shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum; and as many other clerks as may be necessary at a compensation not exceeding five dollars per diem for the time actually employed; and a counsel whose compensation shall be two thousand dollars per annum.

Section 114. Appointment and Qualifications of Registrars. The commissioners shall, not later than August fifteenth of each year, appoint four registrars for each election district in any such city. The registrars must be duly qualified electors of the said district, and shall have been residents of the city for a period of two years, and of the ward for one year, immediately preceding their appointment. They must be sober and judicious persons of good moral character, able to read intelligently and to write legibly. Two of the registrars shall be members of the party polling the highest vote within the election district at the last preceding general election, and one at least shall be a member of the party polling the next highest number of votes at said election. No person, who holds or is a candidate for public office shall act as registrar.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977. For remainder of this section, see Secs. 115 to 122 and part of Secs. 126 and 141.

Section 115. Nomination of Registrars. The name of at least four qualified persons shall be suggested to the commissioners by petition duly filed for each election division, two by the ward executive committees if such exist, and if not, by the city committees of the parties of the district. These petitions shall be signed by the president and one secretary of the ward executive committees, if such exist, if not, by the president and one secretary of the city committee, if such exists, and by five electors of the division, and shall set forth the names, addresses and occupations, and political affiliations of the persons suggested. Each candidate for registrar shall swear to the truth of the facts set forth in his petition. The petition shall remain on file, open to public inspection at least ten days before the person named therein shall be appointed except in cases where a vacancy occurs in the office of registrar, then within ten days of a registration day.

If no petitions are filed the commissioners may appoint, without regard to party nomination.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.
Under this act the commisisoners have discretionary power to appoint the registrars without selecting them from the names submitted by the ward executive committees. Sullivan v. Pitts. Board of Registration Commissioners 65 Pitts. 220 (1917); Hutchinson v. Goshorn, 256 Pa. 69.

Section 116. Personal Examination of Candidates For Registrars. No appointment of a registrar shall be made unless the person so appointed has personally appeared before the commisisoners, and has satisfied them of his qualifications. but in case of a reappointment it shall not be necessary for the person so reappointed to be summoned. At least one week's notice of the time and place of the examination, for each ward or election district. of those persons who have been suggested by petition, or are under consideration, for appointment as registrars in such ward or election district, shall be published by the commisisoners in at least two daily newspapers in the city.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 117. Objections to Nominees For Registrars. Any elector residing in the same division as the person applying for appointment as registrar, may appear in person and being duly sworn, show wherein said person applying for appointment as registrar does not possess the requisite qualifications.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 118. Registrars Rejected as Nominees. If the persons nominated are found not to be properly qualified, the commissioners may decline to appoint them and the ward executive committee or city committee shall then suggest other names as aforesaid, and if the persons suggested by petition are unfit the commissioners shall have the power to appoint others of whom they shall have knowledge.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 119. Method of Appointment of Registrars. No person shall be appointed a registrar unless the appointment is approved by three commissioners. If two commissioners have concurred in approving four persons successively, to fill one position, and the other two commissioners have concurred in objecting to said persons, the commissioners first referred to, may approve four other names, and from these eight, all having been suggested by petition, the other two commissioners must select the registrar.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 120. Change of Registrars for Party Representation. The commissioners shall provide at all times, that not more than two of the registrars of any division shall be of the same political faith. If, therefore, it appears at any time, that by reason of a change in political affiliations or because of error in the appointment, the registrars of any division are not so divided, any ten electors of the division may file a petition with the commissioners, setting forth the facts, and praying that one or more of the appointments may be revoked, and that other appointments may be made. The commissioners shall grant a public hearing, and, if they find the facts to be as represented, shall give the relief asked for.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977. The part of this section calling the registrars a "board of registrars" has been eliminated as confusing. There is no provision for the organization of the registrars into a board, and there are no other references to them as a board.

Section 121. Pay of Registrars. The registrars shall receive a compensation of ten dollars per day for the time actually spent in registration.

Registrars, when summoned by the commissioners to assist them as hereinafter provided, shall be entitled to, and receive, the same compensation as is received by registrars for registration services.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, and part of Sec. 15, of said act as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 18, 1915, P. L. 1027.

Section 122. Duty of Registrars to Serve. Any person appointed a registrar must perform his duties as prescribed by subdivision (c) (2) of this article, unless excused therefrom by the commissioners for cause shown.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 123. Registration Days. The registrars of each election district shall meet at the polling place thereof, in even-numbered years, on the ninth Thursday, the seventh Tuesday, and fifth Saturday, preceding the November election, which shall be known as a Fall registration; on the fifth Wednesday preceding the Spring primary, which shall be known as the Spring registration; and in odd-numbered years, on the ninth Thursday, eighth Tuesday, and eighth Saturday, preceding the November election, which shall also be known as a fall registration. They shall remain in open session from seven o'clock ante meridian to ten o'clock ante meridian and from four o'clock post meridian to ten o'clock post meridian. of each registration day.

Secs. 123, 124 and 125 are parts of Sec. 6, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 28, 1915, P. L. 576. For other portions of said section, see Sec. 130. The words "at least three of them" have been added to Sec. 125, as Sec. 8 of said Act of 1913 requires three registrars to approve an applicant for registration.

An elector appeared before the registrars before 10 P. M. and was in the registration room with others waiting to be registered. At 10 P. M. the registrars registered the six at the head of the line, but refused to register the others. The commissioners of registration later refused to register the petitioner, and upon appeal to the court of common pleas, it was held that the registrars should have registered the applicant. The commissioners were ordered to place his name on the registers. Maull's Appeal, 20 Dist. 913.

Section 124. Notice of Registration Days. Two weeks' notice of the registration days shall be given by the commissioners, by publication in at least two daily newspapers in the city, and by posting notices at the polling places.

See note to Sec. 123.

Section 125. General Powers and Duties of Registrars at Registration. The registrars shall, on said days, receive personal applications from persons who claim that they are entitled to be registered. They shall have power to administer oaths, shall examine said applicants under oath, and shall record on the register the names of those whom at least three of them shall determine to be qualified, as hereinafter provided.

See note to Sec. 123.

Section 126. Custody of Registers and Supplies. Two of the said registrars of each district, one of whom shall be of the majority party, shall be designated by the commissioners to have charge of the two registers as hereinafter provided. They shall obtain at the office of the commissioners the blank books, forms, and other supplies prepared for their use, before the first registration day in the fall and before the spring registration day, and shall have the same at the polling place on said days. On registration days, and during the time from one such day to another until the close of the fall registration period, the said registrars shall have the custody and control and shall be charged with the safekeeping of the registers in which they have made entries, together with all affidavits, forms et cetera, which have been taken in duplicate as hereinafter provided.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, and part of Sec. 16 of said act, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of April 21, 1931, P. L. 239.

Section 127. Custody, Preparation and Use of Street Lists. The two registrars who have not charge of the registers shall, on registration days and during the time from one such day to another until the close of the fall registration period, be charged with the safekeeping of the street lists which are in course of preparation by them, and shall at the fall registration, prepare two "street lists" of all names registered. These lists shall contain the names of the electors and their addresses in the order which their residences appear upon the streets of the district. One of the said street lists shall be hung outside of the polling place and shall remain in that position until the next election. The other shall be returned to the office of the commissioners and at least one hundred exact copies of it shall be printed in pamphlet form and shall be ready for distribution at least three weeks before election day.

Sec. 14, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977,and part of Sec. 16 of said act as amended by Sec. 1 ,Act of April 21, 1931, P. L. 239.

Section 128. Form of Register. Every person claiming the right to vote must appear in person before the registrars in the district in which he lives, on one of the days prescribed by law, and answer the questions put to him by them. These answers must be recorded on a single line in two registers, which shall have the following form:

Surname	Christian Name	Occupation	Present Residence
			Street and Number	Lodger, Lessee or Owner	Room or Floor Occupied
1	2	3	4	5	6

Length of Residence		Place of Residence at Time of Last Registration				Place of Birth	Naturalization Papers Produced Yes or No	No. of Affidavit of Naturalization of Father if taken	Tax Receipt Produced Yes or No
In State	In District	State	City	Street and Number	Date of last Registration
7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16

No. of Affidavit of loss, if taken. If under 22 years of age write "Age"	Personal Description				Designation of Political Party for Primary Vote	Signature at time of Registration or of Voting
	Color	Twenty-one years of Age and upwards	Tall, Short or Medium	Approximate Weight
17	18	19	20	21	22	23

If Challenged, No. of Challenge Affidavit	VOTED These columns are for use at elections and are not to be filled in by Registrars
	Fall Primary	November Election	Spring Primary	Special Election
24	25	26	27	28

The size and character of the said register shall be determined by the Secretary of Commonwealth, and the form thereof shall be furnished by the said secretary to the respective commissioners.

Immediately above the form shall be printed the following instructions: "The applicant must be sworn or affirmed that the information given by him in reference to his right to be registered shall be the truth. Any wilful false statement constitutes perjury, and is punishable as such."

Every register shall be indexed alphabetically from A to Z. The lines of each page shall be consecutively numbered in both margins, beginning with the number one at each alphabetical division of the register.

Part of Sec. 7, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977. (For remainder of Sec. 7, see Sec. 129.)

Section 129. Recording Answers of Applicants. The answers of the applicants shall be recorded in their presence in both registers in the following manner:

In the first column shall be entered the surname of the applicant, in the order of his appearance at the polling place, on the page bearing the index letter of his surname; in the second column shall be entered his Christian name or names; in the third column his occupation; in the fourth column the street and number of his residence; in the fifth and sixth columns whether he is a householder, lodger, lessee, or owner, and, if he is a lodger or lessee of a portion only of a house, the floor which he occupies; in the seventh and eighth columns shall be entered the length of his residence in the State and district, respectively; in the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth columns the location of the house from which he last registered, giving State, city, street, and number respectively; and the year in which he is so registered; in the thirteenth column the State or territory of the United States, or the foreign country where he was born; in the fourteenth column whether, being foreign born, he produces his naturalization papers; in the fifteenth column the number of the affidavit of naturalization of his father if taken; in the sixteenth and seventeenth columns the manner in which he complies with the law relating to the payment of taxes as qualification of the right to vote, whether by the production of his receipt or by making affidavit; if the applicant is less than twenty-two years of age the word "age" shall be recorded in said columns; in the eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth and twenty-first columns his personal description, designating whether white or colored, that he is twenty-one years of age and upwards, and his height and weight; in the twenty-second column the designation of the political party of the elector for the purpose of voting at the next succeeding primary or primaries, if such a statement shall be by law required as preliminary to the right to vote at such primary or primaries; in the twenty-third column in the register marked "voting check list," he shall be required to sign his name, if able to write, if he alleges inability to write, a record of the fact shall be made in the same column, and unless due to some apparent physical infirmity he shall be required to make affidavit of his inability to write; in the twenty-third column in the register marked "ballot check list," he shall, if challenged on election day, be required to sign his name; in the twenty-fourth column shall be entered the number of the challenge affidavit of every person who is required to make such affidavit; in the twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth columns, the election officers shall record in one register, the obtaining of the ballot, and in the other the casting of the vote of the registered elector at the fall primary, November election, Spring primary, or special election, as hereinafter provided, or as may hereafter be provided by law.

No voter shall be required to state his correct age, unless actually registering on age. A statement that the voter is twenty-one years of age and upwards shall be deemed sufficient.

It shall be unlawful for the registrars to ask or require answers from a person desiring to register, except as to such questions as are hereinbefore required to be answered.

Part of Sec. 7, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of April 23, 1927, P. L. 370.

When an applicant for registration gives an untrue answer to a question, it has the legal affect of no answer at all, and his name should be stricken from the registers. Johnson's Registration, 20 Dist. 71 (1910).

When an applicant for registration has lost his tax receipt and wishes to register on an affidavit as to the payment thereof, such affidavit is sufficient when it identifies the tax so as to show the applicant has the right to vote. It need not necessarily give the month when the tax was paid. Waite's Petition, 18 Dist. 85.

If an applicant only gives the initial of his Christian name, his registration is fatally irregular. In re Registration of Solo. 20 Dist. 553 (1911).

Under the Act of Feb. 17, 1906, P. L. 49 (supplied and repealed by above act), it was held that the registrars could cross examine an applicant as to the payment of a poll tax for which he produces a receipt. Flick v. Woodruff 21 Dist. 137 (1912).

Section 130. Qualifications for Registration. Every person who shall have paid his taxes either by himself or his duly authorized agent or attorney, on or before the last day for registration, and who shall possess all the other qualifications of an elector as provided in the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth, or who by continued residence in his election district will obtain such qualifications before the next ensuing general or municipal election, shall be entitled to be registered at the Fall registration. If he does not register at the fall registration he may register at the Spring registration, but only if he will be qualified to vote at the Spring primary.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 28, 1915, P. L. 576, and part of Sec. 8, of said Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977. The requirement for three registrars to approve applicant, is omitted from this section and included in Sec. 125.

Section 131. Special Assessment to Enable Voters to Qualify as to Assessment and Tax Payment. A person not assessed for the payment of taxes and consequently unable to qualify to vote by assessment and tax payment may become assessed by applying to the assessor for county purposes resident in his or her ward on the sixty-second and sixty-third days preceding any general and municipal election, at which time the assessor shall sit at his residence between the hours of ten A. M. and three P. M. and between six P. M. and nine P. M., and assess each and every person appearing in order to enable him or her to pay a county, occupation or poll tax.

The county commissioners shall by publication once in a newspaper published in each city give notice of the time and place where the several assessors will sit in their respective wards for the assessment of such persons.

On the sixty-first day preceding each election, each assessor shall make return of the supplemental assessment list made in accordance with this section to the county commissioners who shall in turn certify the names of such persons so assessed to the proper tax collector together with the amount of the occupation or poll taxes due by each and with their warrant to the tax collector to collect such taxes.

The assessor shall be entitled to the same per diem compensation for making such assessments and return thereof as is provided by law for making assessments for taxation purposes.

With the passage of the personal registration laws for cities, the necessity for making a registry assessment of voters was in the main dispensed with, and in most cities, except Philadelphia, assistant or registry assessors were no longer elected. The purpose of the registry assessment was two-fold—to establish a list of eligible voters, and to enable persons to become legally qualified by assessment and tax payment as required by the Constitution. For this purpose, the assistant and registry assessors were required to sit specially on the sixty-second and sixty-third days preceding each election. While the first purpose of this law was destroyed, since the personal registration system now provides the list of eligible voters, the right of the voter to be assessed has undoubtedly not been denied by the Personal Registration Laws. However, the old laws contain no adequate machinery to bring this about. Consequently, this new section has been inserted, based on the theory that the right of voters to be assessed in cities on the 62nd and 63rd day preceding each election has not been avoided by the Personal Registration Laws.

Section 132. Registration of Foreign Born Citizens. All persons claiming the right to vote by reason of naturalization, shall be required to produce the proper naturalization papers or a certified copy thereof, before they shall be registered, but no such person shall be required to produce his papers a second time in the same district, unless he is challenged. Any person claiming citizenship by reason of the naturalization of a parent may be registered either by the production of the parent's papers or a certified copy thereof, or by making affidavit that the parent was naturalized at a time when he, the applicant was less than twenty-one years of age, and that he is unable to produce the original papers or a certified copy thereof. Such applicant shall also make affidavit as to any other matters necessary to show his right to citizenship by reason of the naturalization of his parent.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977. The clause referring to proof of citizenship by naturalization of a father, is altered to conform with the provisions of Title 8, U. S. Code, Sec. 368, providing for separate naturalization of husband and wife. (For remainder of Sec. 9 see Secs. 133, 134 and 138.)

Section 133. Challenges. Challenge Affidavits. Any person claiming the right to register may be challenged by a registrar or by any qualified elector of the election division. Any person so challenged shall answer the questions of the challenge affidavit as herein specified, and after his answers have been recorded, he shall sign, if able to write, and swear to their truth. He shall also make affidavit at the same time to the truth of his answers as recorded in the register, if able to read, and which he shall be deemed to have examined or have had the same read to him. The affidavits of all persons so registered shall, at the close of each day of registration, be numbered and filed. The challenge affidavit shall be in the following form:

Registrars.

The challenged applicant shall produce such further proof as the law requires challenged persons to produce on election day, and it shall be the duty of the registrars to require it before permitting him to be registered.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 134. Record of Rejected Applicants. Whenever the applicant is rejected after a portion of the record has been filled in, a line shall be drawn through the record already made, and the registrar shall note on said line the reason for the rejection, and shall add his initials thereto.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 135. Use of Registers by Registrars. At the end of each day's registration, the registrars shall compare the two registers so kept and cause any errors in either of them to be corrected by aid of the entries in the other, so as to make the same agree where there is any difference between them. All of the registrars shall then sign their initials in the line immediately under the last names registered under each letter, in both books, together with the date. At the close of both fall and spring registrations, the registrars shall sign a certificate, the forms of which shall be printed on the last page of the register, setting forth the number of persons registered on each day, and the number of names which have been stricken out, if any.

Sec. 13, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 136. Striking Names From Lists. On the Spring registration day, the registrars shall, in addition to the registration of electors, strike from the list the names of such persons as shall be proven to their satisfaction by the affidavits of at least two qualified electors of the division, to have died, or removed from the division, since the last registration. The registrars shall record on blank forms, provided for that purpose, the names and previous places of registration, giving wards and divisions, of all persons registered by them on said day, who give as such place of previous registration a place in the same city, and shall forward the same to the commissioners for their information. Thereafter, upon the return of the registers to the office of the commissioners, it shall be their duty to examine the same, and whenever registered persons have given as their last place of registration, another election division in the same city, to strike said name from the register of said division of prior residence, and to note thereon the reason for so removing the name.

Part of Sec. 10, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977. The provisions of this section relating to the enrollment of their political designation and the change of such enrollment has been omitted as these provisions are supplied under (d) 2 of this article. (See Sec. 148 for other part of above section.)

Section 137. Return of Registers, etc., to Commissioners. At the close of the registration, and before twelve o'clock noon on the following day, the two registrars who have been charged with the keeping of the registers, shall deliver the same, together with one street list, all affidavits, vouchers, unused forms et cetera to the commissioners, at such place as may be designated by them. The said papers and books shall remain on file at a place designated by the commissioners, open to public inspection, under proper regulation for their safekeeping.

Section 138. Affidavits and Vouchers in Duplicate. All affidavits and vouchers shall be executed in duplicate, one being delivered into the custody of each registrar who has charge of the registers.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 139. Appointment, Duties, Powers and Qualification of Watchers. Parties or bodies of electors, who now are, or hereafter may be, entitled to have watchers at the general election, shall be allowed to appoint not more than three electors of the division to act as watchers in each place of registry, without expense to the county, on each registration day. No more than one watcher from such party shall be allowed in the registry place at any one time. Each watcher shall be provided with a certificate from the county commissioners, stating his name and the party or policy he represents. Watchers shall be entitled to be present during all of the public sessions herein provided for, and shall be required to show their certificates when requested to do so. They shall have the power to challenge.

Sec. 11, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.
Watchers have not the right to address questions to applicants for registration, as the act requires the questions to be asked by the registrars. Flick v. Woodruff 21 Dist. 137 (1912).

Section 140. Number of Electors in Registry Room. No more than six electors, other than the registrars and the watchers herein provided for, shall be allowed in the registry room at any one time.

Sec. 12, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 141. Power of Commissioners to Administer Oaths and Examine Witnesses. The commissioners shall have the power to administer oaths. They shall have power to summon any person whom they desire to interrogate, and all persons testifying before said commissioners shall be first duly sworn by one of said commissioners or by the recorder.

Part of Sec. 4, and part of Sec. 5, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977.

Section 142. Powers of Commissioners to Correct Registration. The commissioners shall have power to (a) investigate, on their own motion, any irregularities in registration; (b) summon witnesses; (c) examine them under oath; (b) require the production of the books and papers of the registrars; (e) correct the registers by striking off names which they may find to be improperly registered; and (f) summon such number of registrars, as, in their judgment, may be necessary to assist them in carrying into effect the provisions of subdivision (c) (2) of this article.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 18, 1915, P. L. 1027. (For remainder of this section, see Secs. 121, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147 and 149.)

Section 143. Appeal to Commissioners From Decision of Registrars. If any citizen shall object to the action of the registrars in accepting or rejecting any claim for registration, he may file his petition, duly sworn to by said citizen, with the commissioners, setting forth the ground of his complaint. If the complaint is to the acceptance of a claim, notice to the claimant shall be given by leaving a written or printed notice at his place of residence, as given by him to the registrar, and recorded in the register. When such petitions are filed the commissioners shall fix a time and place for hearing them, sufficiently in advance of the election, to enable the same to be heard and disposed of prior thereto, and to have a review thereof by the courts. Such hearing shall be public before the commisioners, and the register of voters may be amended, either by the insertion of a new name or the cancellation of a name already on the register, or otherwise, as the commissioners may order. The commissioners may enforce their orders as herein provided, or may make amendments themselves or by their clerks. All such applications for correcting the register must be made not later than two weeks prior to a general or municipal election.

The commissioners in a proceeding to cancel a registration may go behind the record of a tax receipt and inquire into the legality thereof. In re Rubinovitz 15 D. & C. 68 (1930).

Section 144. Power to Subpoena Witnesses. All persons filing appeals or petitions with the commissioners, praying action on its part, shall have the privilege of having subpoenas issued by the commissioners to compel the attendance of witnesses, and shall pay therefor at the rate of twenty-five cents for each subpoena issued, which shall be in the same form and have the same force and effect as subpoenas now issued by the several courts of law of this Commonwealth. All money paid for subpoenas, shall be paid to the county treasurer by the commissioners.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 18, 1915, P. L. 1027. The word "commissioner" is substituted for the word "board" for uniformity.

Section 145. Pay of Witnesses. All witnesses subpoenaed to appear before the commissioners, shall be entitled to receive one dollar fifty cents ($1.50) each, per day, as witness fees, for their attendance. When witnesses so subpoenaed shall have entered their appearance upon the day or days set for the hearing or hearings the person or persons who shall have petitioned the hearing requiring the presence of said witnesses, shall pay to the recorder of the commissioners, the amount due as witness fees, which amount the recorder shall in turn disburse among the witnesses according to their pro rata share, as soon after the conclusion of the hearing as possible. Witnesses summoned to attend hearings, called by the commissioners of their own volition, shall be entitled to the same rate of compensation as witnesses subpoenaed to attend hearings petitioned by other persons, and the moneys required to pay such fees shall be provided by the county commissioners in each county, in the same manner as is now provided by law for the payment of all other necessary and legal expenses of commissioners.

Section 146. Registration by Commissioner Because of Qualification After Registration Days. Any qualified elector, who has by himself or his duly authorized agent or attorney, paid his taxes after the last day of the Fall registration and on or before the final day for the payment of the same, in odd-numbered years, or any qualified elector who will arrive at the age of twenty-one years between the primary election and the next succeeding election, or any elector who has become qualified by reason of naturalization or residence in the division in which he seeks to be registered, between the primary election and the next preceding election, may on the twentieth day preceding the election in odd-numbered years, present his petition to the commissioners, setting forth the fact as to the payment of his taxes, and giving in detail the information required to be recorded in the register, and praying that his name may be added to the register in the proper division. If the facts are proven to the satisfaction of the commissioners, subject to the same conditions as though the applicant for such registration had presented himself for registration before the board of registrars of his district, they shall order the name of the petitioner to be inserted in the register in the proper place.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 18, 1915, P. L. 1027.

Section 147. Registration by Commissioners Because of Physical Inability or Absence on Registration Days. Any qualified elector who was too ill to appear at the polling place on all of the registration days, or who was unavoidably absent from the city on all of said days, may at any time, but not less than two weeks before any election or primary, present his petition to the commissioners, setting forth the facts as to his illness or unavoidable absence, and setting forth in detail the information required to be recorded in the register, and praying that his name may be added to the register of the proper division. After his petition shall have remained in the office of the commissioners, open to public inspection for at least two days, a hearing shall be granted. The petitioner shall personally appear and if the facts are proven to the satisfaction of the commissioners to be as reported, they shall order the name of the petitioner to be inserted on the register in the proper place. This hearing shall be public and any qualified elector of the division shall have the right to challenge and to require proper proof of identity, as in the case of registry before the registrars.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 18, 1915, P. L. 1027. The right of appeal stated in this part of said section, is omitted as superfluous, being restated subsequently in Sec. 149.

Section 148. Change of Registration. At any time between the November election and the ten days before the Spring primary, any registered elector who has removed from one election division to another in the same city, two calendar months prior to the Spring primary, may apply at the office of the Commission, and have the registry of his name transferred from the division from which he has removed to the one in which he has taken up his new residence. It shall be the duty of the commissioners upon satisfactory proof of the elector's identity, to strike his name from the register in the division from which he has removed; to examine him in the regular way as to his qualifications, and, if his answers are satisfactory to the commissioners, to register him in the division to which he has removed. In such cases no change shall be made in the registration of the elector's designation of his political party later than the fifth Wednesday preceding the Spring primary.

Part of Sec. 10, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977. The proviso in said section limiting the time when an elector may change his political designation, has been reworded to apply merely to this section.

Section 149. Appeal to Court From Decisions of Commissioners. The applicant or any elector who is not satisfied with the decision of the commissioners, may petition the court of common pleas, setting forth the reason why he feels that injustice has been done, and thereupon the said court may, in its discretion, allow an appeal to it from the decision of the commissioners. The said court may then fix a day for a public hearing, of which notice shall be served by the petitioner upon the commissioners, and upon the person, or his attorney, who opposed his contention before the commissioners, together with a copy of the petition, at least five days before such public hearing may take place, proof of which must be exhibited to the court. The said court after such public hearing may reverse, affirm, or alter the decision of the commissioners. Such petitions for appeals must be filed not later than ten days preceding an election.

Under the Act of Feb. 17, 1906, P. L. 49 (supplied and repealed by above act), where the registrars and the board of registration commissioners failed to ask a challenged applicant whether or not he had himself paid the poll tax for which he produced a receipt, upon appeal to the court of common pleas, the court awarded a procedendo directing the commissioners to call the applicant before them in order to put the challenger's question. Flick v. Woodruff, 21 Dist. 137 (1912).

Section 150. Final Disposition of Registers. The registration lists shall become of no validity at the beginning of the period of Fall registration next succeeding that at which the registers were opened. The old registers shall be preserved by the commissioners for at least two years after the year in which they are in use.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 28, 1915, P. L. 576.

Section 151. Duties of County Commissioners in Connection With Registrations. The county commissioners of each county, upon proper vouchers, shall provide for the payment of the commissioners, counsel, registrars, and other officers or clerks provided by subdivision (c) (2) of this article. They shall furnish proper rooms for the accommodation of the commissioners and their records. They shall also, at the direction of the commissioners, prepare and have printed at the expense of the county, all the registers, street lists, affidavits, blanks, blank books, and stationery required by the provisions of subdivision (c) (2) of this article, or which, in the judgment of the commissioners are reasonably necessary to carry out said provisions, and shall provide for their proper distribution to the commissioners and their registrars. It shall also be their duty to see that the polling places are open and in proper order for the use of the registrars. They shall also deliver the two registers to the election officers in the manner in which they are or may be required to deliver other election materials for use on election day.

Section 152. Penalties For Violations of Registration Laws in Second Class and Second Class "A" Cities. (a) Any person who wilfully disobeys a lawful order of the commissioners, or refuses to obey their subpoena duly issued and served, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred ($500) dollars.

(b) Any wilful false statement made under oath by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which he or she shall be lawfully interrogated by the registrars or by the commissioners shall be perjury, and any person upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(c) Any registrar who intentionally registers or permits to be registered a person not lawfully entitled to be registered, or who intentionally refuses to register a person lawfully entitled to be registered, or who intentionally assists in preventing such person from being registered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

(d) Any person who applies for registration, knowing that he is not entitled to be registered, or who falsely impersonates another in an application for registration, or who knowingly offers false naturalization papers or a fraudulent tax receipt to establish his claim to be registered, or who impersonates another, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced, for every such offense, to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding three years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(e) Any registrar who inserts or intentionally permits to be inserted, a name on the registry list without a proper application in person, during the hours of registration on a registration day, on the part of the person registered, or without requiring the proper evidence of the right of the applicant to be registered, or who alters any registry list after the entry has been duly made, except upon an order of the court or of the commissioners, or who makes any entry therein at any time other than during the hours of registration and in the presence of the other registrars, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(f) Any election officer, who knowingly refuses the vote of a duly registered and qualified elector, or who knowingly accepts the vote of a person not registered, or who knowingly receives a vote from a person falsely claiming to be a registered voter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(g) Any commissioner, registrar, or other officer, upon whom a duty is laid by the provisions of subdivisions (c) (2) of this article, who shall wilfully refuse to perform his said duty, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 18, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of June 18, 1915, P. L. 1027.

(3) Third Class Cities

Section 160. Scope of Subdivision. The provisions of subdivision (c) (3) of this article shall apply to third class cities, and the word "city" or "cities" as used therein shall mean only cities of that class.

This section is new.
The word "district" is substituted for the words "precinct or ward" throughout this subdivision.

Section 161. Appointment and Term of Registrars. The county commissioners of each county in which is located such a city, shall, not later than July fifteenth of every year, appoint two registrars for each election district to serve for a term of one year and until their successors are duly qualified.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 7, 1923, P. L. 148. This section was previously amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 16, 1911, P. L. 148. This section was previously amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 16, 1911, P. L. 1014. For the remainder of this section, see Secs. 165, 166 and 167.

Section 162. Nomination of Registrars. The names of two suitable persons to be registrars shall be suggested to the county commissioners by petitions, duly filed for each election district, by the party representatives of the two leading parties of the election district. The petitions shall be signed by five electors of the district, and shall set forth the names, addresses, occupations and political affiliations of the persons suggested. The signers of the petitions shall swear to the truth of the facts set forth herein. The petitions shall remain on file open to the public inspection at least ten days before the persons named therein shall be appointed, except in cases where a vacancy occurs in the office of registrar within ten days of a registration day when the appointment can be made without such delay.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 14, 1925, P. L. 693. This section was previously amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 25, 1907, P. L. 251. For remainder of this section, see Secs. 163, 164 and 168.
No one can be appointed registrar by the county commissioners other than those selected by the party representatives, unless they fail to select one who can qualify. Com. v. County Commissioners, 19 Dist. 553; Com. v. Reist, 8 Justice's Law Reporter 185.

Section 163. Personal Examination of Applicants For Registrars. No appointment as registrar shall be made unless the person who desires to be appointed personally appears before the county commissioners and satisfies them of his qualifications. In case of reappointment, however, it shall not be necessary for him to appear before them.

At least one week's notice of the time and place of the examination of the suggested registrars shall be given by the county commissioners in the daily press and any elector may appear, either in person or by counsel and object to the qualifications of any applicant.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 14, 1925, P. L. 693.

Section 164. Appointment of Registrars in the Absence of Nominations. If no petitions are filed, the county commissioners may appoint without regard to party.

If the persons nominated are found not to be properly qualified, the county commissioners may decline to appoint them, and the party authorities of the election district may then suggest another name or other names for the said place or places.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 14, 1925, P. L. 693.

Section 165. Qualifications of Registrars. The registrars must be duly qualified electors of the city for which they are appointed and must have been residents of the city for a period of two years before their said appointment. They must be sober and judicious persons, of good moral character, able to read intelligently and to write legibly. One of the said registrars of each election district, and one only, shall be a member of the party polling the highest vote in excess of two per centum within the election district at the last preceding presidential election for presidential electors. No person, who holds or is a candidate for a public office, shall act as registrar.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 7, 1923, P. L. 148. In the sentence requiring one registrar to be a member of the party polling the highest vote, the words "of each election district, and one only" have been added as Sec. 167 requires the registrars to be of different political parties.

Section 166. Removal of Registrars For Misconduct. The county commissioners may remove any of the said registrars for misconduct or malfeasance in office.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 7, 1923, P. L. 148.

Section 167. Removal of Registrars When Both Are of Same Party. The registrars of each election district shall be of different political faith, and therefore, if it appears that at any time, by reason of a change in political affiliations or because of error in the appointment, they are not so divided, any ten electors of the district may file a petition with the county commissioners, setting forth the facts and praying that the changed or erroneous appointment may be revoked and another appointment made instead. The county commissioners shall grant a public hearing, and if they find the facts to be as represented they shall give the relief asked for.

No registrar shall be removed merely because his party at an election, following his appointment, has polled a less number of votes in the district than some other party.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 7, 1923, P. L. 148. The reference to the board of registrars, evidently meaning the two registrars of each district, is eliminated to prevent misconstruction.

Section 168. Compensation of Registrars. The registrars shall receive a compensation of ten dollars a day for the time actually spent in the work of registration.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 14, 1925, P. L. 693.

A registrar is entitled to compensation for the day he delivers the registers and vouchers to the county commissioners; he is not entitled to mileage. Griffin v. Crawford, 19 Dist. 1150 (1909).

Section 169. Registration Days. Notice. The registrars of each election district shall meet at the polling places thereof, in even-numbered years, on the ninth Thursday, seventh Tuesday, and fifth Saturday, preceding the November election, which shall be known as a Fall registration, and on the third Wednesday preceding the Spring primary, which shall be known as the Spring registration, and in odd-numbered years on the tenth Thursday, ninth Tuesday, and eighth Saturday, preceding the November election, which shall also be known as a Fall registration; and in any year when any special election for any purpose is held, on the third Wednesday preceding such special election, which shall be known as a special registration. They shall remain in open session from seven o'clock ante meridian to nine o'clock ante meridian, and from eleven o'clock ante meridian to two o'clock post meridian, and from four o'clock post meridian to ten o'clock post meridian of each registration day.

They shall on said days receive personal applications from persons who claim that they are entitled to be registered as voters. They shall have power to administer oaths, shall examine said applicants under oath, and shall record on the registers the names of such persons as are qualified to vote as herein provided.

Two weeks' notice of the registration days shall be given by the registrars posting notices at the polling places.

Part of Sec. 3, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 375. This section was previously amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 25, 1907, P. L. 251, Sec. 2, Act of June 16, 1911, P. L. 1014, and Sec. 1, Act of July 6, 1917, P. L. 738. For remainder of this section, see Secs. 170 and 193.

Section 170. Electors to Appear For Registration. Every person claiming the right to vote must appear in person before the registrars in the election district in which he lives, on one of the days prescribed by law, prior to every November election. If he has subsequently to the said November election moved into another election district, or if he was not registered for the November election, he must appear in person before the registrars at the spring or special registration in the district to which he has thus removed, or in which he resides, in order to enable him to vote at the ensuing Spring primary or any ensuing special election.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of July 6, 1917, P. L. 738. This section was previously amended by Sec. 3, Act of July 16, 1911, P. L. 1014.

This section also includes the provision that persons not registered in the Fall registration may register in the Spring or special registrations; this was taken from Sec. 3, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 375.

Section 171. Form of Register. Every person appearing before the registrars, after being sworn, shall answer the questions put to him by them. These answers must be recorded on a single line in two registers which shall have the following form:

Surname	Christian Name	Occupation	Present Residence
			Street and Number	Lodger, Lessee or Owner	Room or Floor Occupied
1	2	3	4	5	6

Length of Residence		Place of Residence at Time of Last Registration				Place of Birth	Naturalization Papers Yes or No	Affidavit of Naturalization of Father if taken	Tax Receipt Produced Yes or No

	Fall Primary	November Election	Spring Primary	Special Election
22	23	24	25	26	27

The size and character of the register shall be determined by the county commisioners.

Immediately above the form shall be printed the following instructions: "The applicant must be sworn or affirmed that the information given by him in reference to his right to be registered shall be the truth. Any wilful false statement constitutes perjury and is punishable as such."

Every register shall be indexed alphabetically from A to Z. The lines of each page shall be consecutively numbered in both margins, beginning with the number one at each alphabetical division of the register.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as amended by Sec. 3, Act of July 16, 1911, P. L. 1014, and as amended in part by Sec. 1, Act of May 20, 1921, P. L. 977, and Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 368.

The wording in column 19 has been changed to fit the answers now required to be given relative to age (See Sec. 172).

Section 172. Recording Answers of Applicants. The answers of the applicants shall be recorded in their presence in both registers in the following manner; in the first column shall be entered the surname of the applicant, in the order of his appearance at the polling place, on the page bearing the index letter of his surname; in the second column shall be entered his Christian name or names; in the third column his occupation; in the fourth column, the street and number of his residence; in the fifth or sixth columns, whether he is a lodger, lessee or owner, and if he is a lodger or lessee of a portion only of a house, the location or number of the room or floor which he occupies; in the seventh and eighth columns shall be entered the length of his residence in the State, and district, respectively; in the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth columns, the location of the house from which he last registered, giving State, city, street and number, respectively, and the year in which he is so registered; in the thirteenth column, the State or territory of the United States, or the foreign country, where he was born; in the fourteenth column, whether being foreign born, he produces his naturalization papers; in the fifteenth column, the number of the affidavit of naturalization of his father, if taken; in the sixteenth and seventeenth columns, the manner in which he complies with the law relating to the payment of taxes as a qualification of the right to vote, whether by the production of his receipt or by making affidavit of payment of tax, if receipt is not produced; if the applicant is less than twenty-two years of age, the word "age" shall be recorded in said column; in the eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth and twenty-first columns, his personal description, designating whether white or colored, that he or she is twenty-one years of age and upwards and his height and weight; in the twenty-second column, shall be entered the number of the challenge affidavit of every person who is required to take said affidavit; in the twenty-third, twenty-fourth, twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth columns, the election officers shall record, in one register, the obtaining of a ballot, and in the other the casting of the vote of the registered elector at the fall primary, November election, Spring primary or special election; in the twenty-seventh column, the designation of the political party of the elector for the purpose of voting at the next succeeding primary or primaries if such a statement shall be required by law as preliminary to the right to vote at such primary or primaries. No voter shall be required to state his correct age, unless actually registering on age. A statement that the voter is twenty-one years of age and upwards shall be deemed sufficient. It shall be unlawful for the registrars to ask, or require, answers from a person desiring to register, except as to such questions as are hereinbefore required to be answered.

The provisions relating to the twenty-seventh column have been added to this section in order to comply with Sec. 2, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043 (See Sec. 215).

Section 173. Use of Previous Registers. The county commissioners shall at each fall registration, preceding the November election, furnish to the registrars of the several election districts, the registers of the proper election district for the previous year.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 20, 1921, P. L. 977. (See Sec. 176 for remainder of said section).

Section 174. Qualifications For Registration. Every person who shall have paid his taxes on or before the last day for registration, and who shall possess all the other qualifications of an elector as provided in the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth, or who, by continued residence in his election district, will obtain such qualifications before the next ensuing election, shall be entitled to be registered.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as amended by Sec. 4, Act of June 16, 1911, P. L. 1014.

Section 175. Special Assessment to Enable Voters to Qualify as to Assessment and Tax Payment. A person not assessed for the payment of taxes and consequently unable to qualify to vote by assessment and tax payment may become assessed by applying to the assessor for county purposes resident in his or her ward on the sixty-second and sixty-third days preceding any general and municipal election, at which time the assessor shall sit at his residence betwene the hours of ten A. M. and three P. M. and between six P. M. and nine P. M., and assess each and every person appearing in order to enable him or her to pay a county, occupation or poll tax

The county commissioners shall by publication once in a newspaper published in each city give notice of the time and place where the several assessors will sit in their respective wards for the assessment of such persons.

On the sixty-first day preceding each election, each assessor shall make return of the supplemental assessment list made in accordance with this section to the county commissioners who shall in turn certify the names of such persons so assessed to the proper tax collector together with the amount of the occupation or poll taxes due by each and with their warrant to the tax collector to collect such taxes.

The assessor shall be entitled to the same per diem compensation for making such assessments and return thereof as is provided by law for making assesments for taxation purpoes.

With the passage of the personal registration laws for cities, the necessity for making a registry assessment of voters was in the main dispensed with, and in most cities, except Philadelphia, assistant or registry assessors were no longer elected. The purpose of the registry assessment was two-fold—to establish a list of eligible voters, and to enable persons to become legally qualified by assesment and tax payment as required by the Constitution. For this purpose, the assistant and registry assessors were required to sit specially on the sixty-second and sixty-third days preceding each election. While the first purpose of this law was destroyed, since the personal registration system now provides the list of eligible voters, the right of the voter to be assessed has undoubtedly not been denied by the Personal Registration Laws. However, the old laws contain no adequate machinery to bring this about. Consequently, this new section has been inserted, based on the theory that the right of voters to be assessed in cities on the sixty-second and sixty-third days preceding each election has not been avoided by the Personal Registration Laws.

Section 176. Permanent Residents. Registration Simplified. Every person appearing before the registrars, who was registered in said district for the previous year, and who still resides at the same residence within said district as in the previous year, shall, after being sworn, upon the production of a proper tax receipt, and the making of a statement that he was registered in said election district the year immediately preceding, that he resides in the same residence as during the year immediately preceding, and naming the political party, if any, to which he belongs, be again registered by the registrars without answering the additional questions. In all such cases the registrars shall complete the registration of such person from the registers of the preceding year, making due allowance for the elapsing of one year.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 20, 1921, P. L. 977.

Section 177. Proof of Naturalization. All persons claiming the right to vote by reason of naturalization shall be required to produce the proper naturalization papers, or a certified copy thereof, before they shall be registered, but no such person shall be required to produce the papers a second time in the same election district, unless he is challenged.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63. For remainder of this section, see Secs. 178, 179, 180 and 181.

A person claiming the right to vote by reason of the naturalization of his father during his minority must produce his papers or a certified copy of the record thereof. Davis's Registration, 15 Dist. 815 (1906).

Section 178. Challenge at Registration. Any person claiming the right to register may be challenged by a registrar or by any elector of the election district. Any person so challenged shall answer the questions of the challenge affidavit as hereinafter specified. After his answers have been recorded he shall sign and swear or affirm to their truth. He shall also make affidavit at the same time of the truth of his answers as recorded in the registers, and which he shall be deemed to have examined or had read to him. The affidavits of all persons so registered shall, at the close of each day of registration be numbered and filed.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63.

Section 179. Challenge Affidavit. The challenge affidavit shall be in the following form,

Part of Sec. 6, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63.

Section 180. Other Proofs on Challenge. The challenged applicant shall produce such further proof as the law requires challenged persons to produce on election day, and it shall be the duty of the registrars to require it before permitting him to be registered.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63.

Section 181. Rejected Applicants. Marking of Record. Whenever the applicant is rejected after a portion of the record has been filled in, a line shall be drawn through the record already made, and the registrars shall note on said line the reason for the rejection, and shall add their initials thereto.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63.

Section 182. Registrars to Strike Names From List on Proof of Removal. On the registration day preceding the Spring primary, and on the registration day preceding each special election, the registrars shall, in addition to the registration of electors, strike from the list the names of such persons as shall be proven to their satisfaction by the affidavits of at least two qualified electors of the election district, to have died or removed from the district since the last registration.

Part of Sec. 7, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 3, Act of July 6, 1917, P. L. 738. This section was previously amended by Sec. 3, Act of May 25, 1907, P. L. 251, and by Sec. 5, Act of June 16, 1911, P. L. 1014. (For remainder of this section, see Secs. 183 and 190.)

Section 183. Records of Removals. The registrars shall record on blank forms, provided for that purpose, the names and previous places of registration, giving wards and precincts of all persons registered by them on said day, who give as such place of previous registration, a place in the same city, and shall forward the same to the county commissioners for their information. Thereafter upon the return of the registers to the office of the county commissioners, it shall be their duty to examine the same, and wherever registered persons have given as their last place of registration another election district in the same city, to strike said name from the register of said district of prior residence and to note thereon the reason for so removing the name.

Part of Sec. 7, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 3, Act of July 6, 1917, P. L. 738.

Section 184. Notations on, and Summarizing of Registers by Registrars. Street Lists. At the end of each day's registration, the registrars shall compare the two registers so kept, and cause any errors in either of them to be corrected by aid of the entries in the other, so as to make the same agree where there is any difference between them. The registrars shall then sign their initials on the line immediately under the last name registered under each letter, in both books, together with the date.

At the close of both Fall and Spring registrations, and of any special registration, the registrars shall sign a certificate, the form of which shall be printed on the last page of the register, setting forth the number of persons registered on each day, and the number of names which have been striken out, if any.

The county commissioners shall, after the Fall registration, prepare "street lists" of all names registered. These lists shall contain the names of the electors and their addresses, in the order which their residences appear upon the streets of the district, as shown by the registration book. At least one hundred exact copies of such lists shall be printed in pamphlet form, and shall be ready for distribution at least three weeks before election day.

Sec. 10, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 10, 1929, P. L. 475. This section was previously amended by Sec. 6, Act of June 16, 1911, P. L. 1014, and Sec. 4, Act of June 16, 1911, P. L. 1014, and Sec. 4, Act of July 6, 1917, P. L. 738.

Section 185. Watchers at Registrations. Parties or bodies of electors who are now, or hereafter may be entitled to have watchers at the general election, shall be allowed to appoint not more than three electors of the election district to act as watchers in each place of registry, without expense to the county, on each registration day. No more than one watcher from such party shall be allowed in the registry place at any one time. Every watcher shall be provided with a certificate from the county commissioners stating his name and the party or policy he represents. Watchers shall be entitled to be present during all of the public registrations herein provided for, and shall be required to show their certificates when requested to do so. They shall have the power to challenge.

Sec. 8, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63.

Section 186. Number of Electors in Registry Room. No more than six electors, other than the registrars and the watchers herein provided for, shall be allowed in the registry room at any one time.

Sec. 9, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63.

Section 187. Registration Before County Commissioners Where Unable to Appear Before Registrars. Appeals. If any elector is prevented by sickness or necessary absence from the city, from appearing before the registrars to be registered in person, it shall, in either of those cases, be his right at any time, until noon of the Saturday preceding the day on which the election or primary is to be held, to present his petition to the county commisioners. In case they shall refuse to order his name placed on the registration list, the said petitioner may appeal to the court of common pleas of the county in which he resides, if the said court is in session, or if not in session to any judge thereof, whereupon the said court shall grant a rule upon the county commissioners to show cause why the name of the said person should not be placed upon the register. The court or judge thereof, shall fix a day certain for the return of the said rule, at which time the parties can be heard. Upon the return of the said rule and upon a hearing duly had, if the said court or judge shall be satisfied that the facts set forth in the petition are true, and that the applicant was prevented by sickness or necessary absence from the city from appearing in person before the registrars and being registered, and is qualified to vote, the rule may be made absolute and the county commissioners shall be directed to place the name of such person upon the registers.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 638. This section was previously amended by Sec. 2, Act of July 6, 1917, P. L. 738.

An applicant's petition to be registered under this section was refused by the county commissioners because of his failure to appear in person before them; upon appeal to the court of common pleas, the court ordered the name to be placed on the registry. Chidsey's Case, 22 Dist. 698 (1912).

In cities of the third class if a voter has failed to register on the first or second registration days, and is incapacitated from registering on the last day, he can be registered on petition to the county commissioners. Lerch's Election No. 2, 21 Dist. 703 (1912).

Section 188. Appeal to County Commissioners From Action of Registrars. If any citizen shall object to the action of the registrars in accepting or rejecting any claim for registration he may, within ten days, file his petition with the county commissioners, setting forth the ground of his complaint. If the complaint is to the acceptance of a claim, notice to the claimant shall be given by leaving a written or printed notice at his place of residence as given by him to the registrars and recorded on the registers. When such petitions are filed, the county commisisoners shall fix a time for hearing them sufficiently in advance of the election to enable the same to be heard and disposed of prior thereto, and to have a review thereof by the courts. Such hearing shall be public before the county commissioners, and the registers of voters may be amended either by the insertion of a new name or the cancellation of a name already on the registers, or otherwise, as the county commissioners may order. The county commissioners may enforce their orders as herein provided or may make the amendments themselves or by their clerks. All such applications for correcting the registers must be made not later than ten days prior to an election.

Part of Sec. 11, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63. For remainder of said section, see Sec. 191.

Section 189. Registration by County Commissioners Where Qualified After Registration Days. Any qualified elector, who has paid his taxes after the last day of the Fall registration, and on or before the final day for the payment of the same in odd-numbered years, may, on the twentieth day preceding the election in odd-numbered years, present his petition to the county commissioners, setting forth the fact as to the payment of his taxes, and giving in detail the information required to be recorded in the register and praying that his name be added to the register in the proper division. If the facts that are proven to the satisfaction of the commissioners, subject to the same conditions as though the applicant for such registration had presented himself for registration before the registrars of his district, they shall order the name of the petitioner to be inserted in the register in the proper place.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as amended by Sec. 4, Act of June 16, 1911, P. L. 1014.

Section 190. New Registration by County Commissioners Because of Change of Election District After Registration Days. Any registered elector, who has removed between the November election and the Spring primary or any special election, from one election district to another in the same city, two calendar months prior to the Spring primary or special election, and who failed to apply to have his name transferred on the register on the registration day prior to the Spring primary or special election, in the district to which he has removed, may apply on the eleventh or tenth day prior to the Spring primary or special election, at the office of the county commissioners, and have the registry of his name transferred from the district from which he has removed to the one in which he has taken up his new residence. It shall be the duty of the commissioners, upon satisfactory proof of the elector's identity, to strike his name from the register in the district from which he was removed, to examine him in the regular way as to his qualifications, and if his answers are satisfactory, to register him in the district to which he has removed.

Section 191. Appeal to Court From Action of County Commissioners. The applicant, or any elector who is not satisfied with any decision of the county commisisoners, may petition the court of common pleas, setting forth the reasons why he feels that injustice has been done, and thereupon the said court of common pleas may, in its discretion, allow an appeal to it from the decision of the county commissioners. And the said court, after a public hearing, may reverse, affirm, or alter the decision of the county commissioners. Said appeals must be made not later than five days preceding an election.

Part of Sec. 11, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63.

Section 192. Use and Custody of Registers and Records. The registrars shall obtain at the office of the county commissioners not more than two days before the first Fall registration day before the Spring registration day, and before any special registration day the registers, forms, and other supplies prepared for their use, and shall have the same at the polling place on the said days. During the Fall registration period, and on Spring and special registration days, the said registrars, shall have the custody and control and shall be charged with the safekeeping of the registers in which they have made entries, together with all affidavits, forms, and so forth, which have been taken in duplicate. At the close of the last Fall registration day, the Spring registration day, and any special registration day, and before twelve o'clock noon of the following day, the registrars shall deliver the registers, together with all affidavits, vouchers, unused forms, and so forth, to the office of the county commissioners, and the said papers shall there remain on file, open to public inspection, under proper regulations for their safekeeping.

Part of Sec. 12, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 5, Act of July 6, 1917, P. L. 738. The entire section was previously amended by Sec. 4, Act of May 25, 1907, P. L. 251, and Sec. 7, Act of June 16, 1911, P. L. 1014. For the remainder of this section, see Sec. 194.
This section has been rewritten to secure compactness.

Section 193. Period of Use of Registers. The registration lists shall become of no validity, for purposes of registration, at the beginning of the period of Fall registration next succeeding that at which the registers were opened, except as hereinbefore provided. The old registers shall be preserved by the county commissioners for at least two years after the year in which they shall have been in use.

Part of Sec. 3, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 23, 1917, P. L. 375.
The words "for purposes of registration" and "except as hereinbefore provided" have been added to clarify the relationship of this section to other provisions relating to the use of old registers.

Section 194. County Commissioners to Pay Registrars and Furnish Registration Rooms and Supplies. The county commisisoners, upon proper vouchers, shall provide for the payment of the registrars. They shall furnish proper rooms for the accommodation of their records. They shall also prepare and have printed at the expense of the county, all the registers, affidavits, blanks, blank books, and stationery, required by the provisions of subdivision (c) (3) of this article, or which are reasonably necessary to carry out its provisions and shall provide for their proper distribution to the registrars. They shall also see that the polling places are open and in proper order for the use of the registrars. They shall also deliver the two registers to the election officers in the manner in which they are or may be required to deliver other materials for use on election day.

Part of Sec. 12, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as last amended by Sec. 7, Act of June 16, 1911, P. L. 1014.

Section 195. Rental of Registration Rooms. The owners or lessees of any room or rooms provided by the county commissioners for the use of the registrars when sitting for the purpose of registering electors, shall receive the sum of ten dollars for each day such room is so used, which shall be paid by the county.

Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1919, P. L. 117.

Section 196. Penalties For Violation of Registration Laws of Third Class Cities. (a) Any wilful false statement made under oath by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which he shall be lawfully interrogated by the registrars, shall be perjury, and any person upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(b) Any registrar, who intentionally registers, or permits to be registered a person not lawfully entitled to be registered, or who intentionally refuses to register a person lawfully entitled to be registered, or who intentionally assists in preventing such person from being registered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(c) Any person, who applies for registration knowing that he is not entitled to be registered, or who falsely impersonates another in an application for registration, or who knowingly offers false naturalization papers or a fraudulent tax receipt to establish his claims to be registered, and any person who aids or abets another in any such application or impersonations, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced for every such offense to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding three years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(d) Any registrar, who inserts or intentionally permits to be inserted a name on the registry list without a proper application in person during the hours of registration on a registration day on the part of the person registered, or without requiring the proper evidence of the right of the applicant to be registered, or who wilfully and maliciously alters any registry list after the entry has been duly made, except upon an order of the court, or of the county commissioners, or who makes an entry or alteration therein at any time other than during the hours of registration, and in the presence of the other registrar, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding five years or both, in the discretion of the court.

(e) Any registrar or other officer upon whom a duty is laid by subdivision (c) (3) of this article, who shall wilfully refuse to perform his said duty, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 14, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63.

(4) Of Governmental Employes by Mail

Section 200. Registration of Governmental Employes by Mail. Any person employed in the service of this State or in the service of the Federal government, and required thereby to be absent from the city wherein he resided when entering such employment, his wife or her husband, shall on petition to the proper registration commissioners, or county commissioners, verified by affidavit and without appearing personally before the commissioners, be registered as of the district wherein he or she shall have resided prior to entering such service. In such case a residence by street and number shall not be required, but the person shall be registered as of the proper district.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 21, 1919, P. L. 1065, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 7, 1923, P. L. 680.
The provisions contained in this subdivision have herein been extended to registration in all classes of cities. The existing law applies only to cities of the first and second classes.

Section 201. Proof by State Employes. In the case of persons employed by this Commonwealth, no such petition shall be considered unless it is accompanied by a certificate from the Auditor General, under the seal of his office, setting forth that the proper person or the husband or wife of the person actually employed in the service of this Commonwealth, and also setting forth the nature of such employment and the time when such person first entered such employment.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 21, 1919, P. L. 1065, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 7, 1923, P. L. 680.

Section 202. Proof by Federal Employes. In the case of persons employed by the Federal government, no such petition shall be considered unless it is accompanied by a certificate from the head of the proper department or chief of the proper division or bureau, under the seal of his office, setting forth that the proper person or the husband or wife of the person, is actually employed in the service of the United States, and also setting forth the nature of such employment and the time when such person first entered such employment.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 21, 1919, P. L. 1065, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 7, 1923, P. L. 680.

Section 203. Qualifications For Registration. No such person shall be registered unless he or she shall produce to the registration commissioners or the county commissioners, satisfactory proof that he or she is, by payment of taxes and otherwise as required by law, entitled to registration.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 21, 1919, P. L. 1065, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 7, 1923, P. L. 680.

Section 204. Registered Person to Sign Ballot Check List. When any such person so registered shall vote, he or she shall be required by the proper election officers, to sign the ballot check list of the proper district.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 21, 1919, P. L. 1065, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 7, 1923, P. L. 680.

Section 205. Forms of Petition. The petitions required by subdivision (c) (4) of this article, shall be upon blank form, which shall be prepared by the proper registration commissioners or county commissioners, and shall be by them furnished on written application.

Sec. 2, Act of July 21, 1919, P. L. 1065. The words "or county commissioners" have been added in order to take care of cities of the third class.

(d) Political Party Enrollment of Voters

(1) General Provisions

Section 210. Enrollment at Registration. At each and every registration of voters, held under any of the election and registration laws of this State, whether it is a personal registration or otherwise, and in all cities, boroughs, townships, and towns, there shall be an enrollment of the voters according to their respective party preferences and affiliations.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043. The clause as to non-partisan voting is eliminated as obsolete.
This act has been declared constitutional in Com. v. Richards, 22 Dist. 622.

Section 211. Correction of Errors in Enrollment. Should the registration commission or commissioners, registrars, assessors, or registry assessors, make a mistake in recording an elector's party, the said elector may have the registry corrected, amended, or altered, so as to secure a correct party enrollment in the same manner and by the same processes as are provided by law for the correction and amendment of the registry in other particulars. Such amendments shall not be made later than ten days before any primary election at which the voter desires or intends to vote.

Sec. 8, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043.
If an elector wishes to vote at a primary it is his duty to see that he is registered with his party enrollment. He should make application to the assessor either before or at the sitting of the latter at the polling place before he is entitled to appeal to the court. In re Partisan Registration, 65 Pitts. 705.

(2) In Cities

Section 215. Party Enrollment at Registration. In all election districts in cities of the first, second, second A and third classes, any elector desiring to participate in the primaries of the party, shall, at the time of registration, state under oath to the registering officers the name of the party of which he is a member and whose ballot he desires to vote at the primaries, and it shall then be the duty of the registering officers to write the name of such party, opposite the name of the elector on the register in a column provided for that purpose.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043. For remainder of this section, see Secs. 217 to 221.
The provisions relating to the recording of such information by the registrars in a column of the registers to be provided by the registration commissioners, has been eliminated as the sections relating to the registration of electors in each class of cities takes care of such provisions.
The sections drafted from the above section contain no new provisions, but have been broadened to include the special provisions relating to the same subject matter under registration acts of first and second class cities, and re-arranged for clarity and proper distinction between registration and party enrollment.

Section 216. Effect of Enrollment. When an elector enrolls his political party at the Fall registration he may vote the ballot of that party at the succeeding fall and spring primary.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043.

Section 217. Change of Enrollment. Should such elector change his political affiliation by voting for a majority of candidates of some other party at the November election and desires to change his party at the spring primary, he may appear before the registrars or other officers having charge of the registers of his election district at the spring registration or any day prior thereto upon which registration is authorized by law, and upon taking oath that at the preceding November election he voted for a majority of candidates of some other party, it shall be the duty of the registrars or other officers to change his political designation on the register, and if otherwise qualified, he may vote the ballot of the said party at the spring primary.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043. The provision has been inserted in this section that such persons may apply to "other officers having charge of the registers on any day prior to the Spring registration upon which registration is authorized by law." This is to take care of the existing law in cities of the first and second classes.

Section 218. Enrollment After Registration. Any elector who has registered at the fall registration, but did not designate his political party, may appear before the registrars or other officers having charge of the registers of his election district, at the spring registration or any day prior thereto upon which registration is authorized by law, and under oath designate the party of which he is a member, and for whom he desires to vote, at the ensuing spring primary, and if otherwise qualified, he may vote the ballot of the said party at the spring primary.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043. The provision has been inserted in this section that such persons may apply to "other officers having charge of the registers on any day prior to the Spring registration upon which registration is authorized by law." This is to take care of the existing law in cities of the first and second classes.

Section 219. Enrollment Under Special Party. Any qualified elector may enroll as a member of any party which has secured, by order of the court of common pleas of Dauphin County, the exclusive use of a party name or political appellation for the ensuing primary.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043.

Section 220. Challenge Oath. If an elector about to enroll as a member of a party at registration or subsequent to his registration is challenged, he shall not be enrolled as a member of that party unless he makes oath before the said registrars that, at the last preceding November election at which he voted, he voted for a majority of the candidates of that party.

In arriving at a majority of candidates of a political party, voted for under these provisions, the group of presidential electors shall be counted as two candidates.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043.

Section 221. Party Enrollment Optional With Elector. If an elector does not desire to vote at a primary election, he shall not be required to answer as to his party affiliation or membership, and such party affiliation or membership shall not be recorded.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043.

(3) In Boroughs, Towns and Townships

Section 225. Enrollment by Assessors or Registry Assessors. The assessor or registry assessor making the enrollment in boroughs, towns, and townships, shall ascertain, if possible, at the time of making the annual assessment, by personal inquiry of the elector, the party politics preferences, or affiliations of the elector, and note and record the same, with the residence and other particulars required in making the assessment. In case the elector is not at his residence at the time the said assessor or registry assessor visits the residence of the elector, he shall leave a certificate of enrollment which the elector may fill out and give to the assessor of registry assessor at some time prior to or on the sixty-second or sixty-third day preceding each primary, at which time said assessor or registry assessor shall sit at the polling place and receive said certificate; and at which time, or when received from the elector, if prior thereto, the same shall be recorded by the assessor or registry assessor in the register.

Sec. 4, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043.
The provision in this section requiring the registry assessors to sit at the polling place on the sixty-second and sixty-third days preceding the primary, seems very unnecessary in the year when there is a fall primary, as such sitting would come in July, and their regular sitting on the sixty-second and sixty-third days preceding the election comes in the early part of September.

Section 226. Form of Certificate of Enrollment. The certificate of enrollment shall be in the following form, and shall be furnished to each assessor or registry assessor by the county commissioners of the various counties, at the time of the delivery of said assessors' books by the county commissioners:

Certificate of Enrollment

Date, ...19....

I ....., a duly qualified voter residing in ..... election district, hereby declare that I desire to be enrolled as a member of the .... party, and express my desire to vote the ticket of the .....party at the ..... primary election next ensuing and request that my name be enrolled on the assessor's list as a member of said party for the purpose of participating in said primary or primaries.

.....
(Signature of Elector)

Witness, ...
(Address)

Drafted from Sec. 3, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043. The temporary provisions and the provisions which are repeated in Sec. 4 of said Act (Sec. 225 herein) are eliminated in this section.

Section 227. Form of Register. The county commissioners shall have the register so prepared as to permit the assessor or registry assessor to insert the party enrollment of each elector.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043. The portion of this section relating to the recording of the party enrollment in the registers, is eliminated as repetition. (See Sec. 225).

Section 228. Prior Enrollment in Effect Until Changed By Elector. If an elector has at any time received party enrollment, it shall be the duty of the assessor or registry assessor to insert in the said register, from year to year, at the time of making the annual assessment, said party enrollment, after the name of the said elector, until such time as a certificate of enrollment is presented to or filed with him by the said elector to a contrary effect.

Part of Sec. 2, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043.

Section 229. Enrollment By County Commissioners. Persons otherwise qualified to vote at any primary election in any borough, town or township, except by registration or enrollment, shall be entitled to register and enroll as a member of a political party with the county commissioners at any time at least ten days before such primary election. The county commissioners shall, in such cases, register and enroll any such person as an elector of his or her proper election district in the same manner as electors are registered and enrolled by registry assessors.

Sec. 1, Act of May 11, 1927, P. L. 972, broadened to include towns.

Section 230. Party Enrollment Necessary to Vote at Primary. Each elector, not already enrolled, desiring to participate in the primaries, must file with the assessor, registry assessor, or county commissioners, his enrollment certificate. If an elector does not desire to vote at a primary election, he shall not be required to sign or execute the certificate as to his party affiliations or membership, and such party affiliation shall not be recorded.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043.

(4) Penal Provisions

Section 235. Penalties. (a) Any registration commission or commissioner, county commissioner, registrar, assessor, or registry assessor, wilfully violating any of the provisions of subdivision (d) of this article, or wilfully registering any false statement of an elector, or registering as the member of a political party, one whom he knows not to be such, or excluding from a party registry or enrollment any voter whom he knows to be entitled thereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both, in the discretion of the court.

(b) Any elector who shall wilfully make any false affidavit or statement to any registrar, assessor, registry assessor, or county commissioner, with intent to procure the false party enrollment or registration of himself or of any other voter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or both, in the discretion of the court.

(c) Any voter or elector of this Commonwealth, wilfully voting or attempting to vote at any primary election in violation of the provisions of subdivision (d) of this article, or any election officer wilfully receiving or conspiring to receive the vote of any elector casting the ballot as an elector of any political party not qualified as a member of said party, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or both, in the discretion of the court.

Drafted from Secs. 10, 11 and 12, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043. Certain of the penalties have been extended to registration commissioners and county commissioners.

(e) Statistical Information as to Registration and Enrollment

Section 240. Summary of Registration and Enrollment Furnished County Commissioners. The registrars, registration commissioners, assessors, and registry assessors of the various cities, boroughs, towns and townships, charged with the registration and enrollment of voters, shall immediately after the last registration day before the general or municipal election in cities, and immediately after the last day fixed for the assessment of voters in boroughs, towns and townships, forward to the commissioners of their respective counties, on forms to be furnished by the county commissioners, a summary of the total number of persons registered or assessed in their respective election districts, enumerating them by sex, color, political affiliation, and whether native or foreign born.

Sec. 1, Act of May 13, 1925, P. L. 663.

Section 241. Summaries to Be Tabulated and Published by State. The county commissioners shall immediately upon the receipt of the returns provided for in the foregoing section, tabulate the totals thereof, and forward a copy of said totals to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, who may tabulate the returns so received from the various counties, and publish the same for the information of the public.

Sec. 2, Act of May 13, 1925, P. L. 663.

Section 242. Form of Return. The returns of the registration shall be made to the county commissioners in the following form:

Sec. 3, Act of May 13, 1925, P. L. 663.

(f) Assistance to Voters

Section 250. Who Entitled to Assistance. Records of Assisted Voters Filed. No voter shall be permitted to receive any assistance in marking his ballot at any general, municipal, special, or primary election, unless he shall first state distinctly and audibly, under oath or affirmation which shall be administered to him by the judge of election, that he cannot read the names on the ballot, or that, by reason of physical disability, he is unable to see or mark the ballot, or to enter the voting compartment without assistance. The voter shall state the specific physical disability which requires him to receive assistance. Thereupon the voter shall be permitted by the judge of election to select a qualified voter of the election district to aid him in the preparation of his ballot, such preparation being made in the voting compartment.

The judge of election shall forthwith enter in writing in the record of assisted voters herein provided, (1) the voter's name; (2) the fact that the voter cannot read the names on the ballot, if that be the reason for requiring assistance, and otherwise the specific physical disability which requires him to receive assistance; and (3) the name of the person furnishing the assistance.

The record of assisted voters shall be returned by the judge of election to the prothonotary, in the case of a general municipal or special election, and to the county commissioners in the case of a primary election, with the tally sheet, triplicate return, list of voters and oaths of election officers. The prothonotary or county commissioners, as the case may be, shall file such record of assitsed voters in their respective offices, and shall permit the same to be examined only upon the written order of a judge of the court of common pleas permitting a named person or persons to make such examination thereof: Provided, however, That such record shall be subject to subpoena to the same extent to which other election records may be subpoenaed.

It shall be the duty of the county commissioners of each county to furnish to the election officers in each election district contained therein, with the other election supplies, a book to be entitled "Record of Assisted Voters," the form of which shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth which shall be ruled with vertical columns and transverse lines, with appropriate column headings on each page, and which shall provide suitable and sufficient accommodation for the entries required hereby.

Sec. 26, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 363.

The penalties for violating the provisions of this section, provided by Sec. 30, of the said Act of 1893, amended by Sec. 2 of the said Act of 1927, will be found in Art. XXI, on Penal Provisions.

ARTICLE III

ELECTION DISTRICTS, POLLING PLACES, EQUIPMENT OF ELECTION ROOMS

(a) Election Districts

Section 300. Election Districts. Townships, and wards of cities or boroughs, shall form or be divided into election districts of compact and contiguous territory, in such manner as the court of quarter sessions of the city or county in which the same are located may direct; but the courts of quarter sessions, having jurisdiction therein, shall have power to divide or change the boundaries of election districts whenever the court of the proper county shall be of opinion that the convenience of the electors and the public interests will be promoted thereby.

Sec. 11, Art. VIII of the Constitution, as amended Nov. 6, 1928.

Section 301. Power to Create New Election Districts. The court of quarter sessions may divide any borough, town, township, or ward into two or more election districts of compact and contiguous territory, or alter the bounds of any election district, or form an election district out of two or more or out of parts of two or more adjoining districts, so as to suit the convenience of the voter, [but no such district shall be formed that shall contain less than one hundred voters.]

Drafted from Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 20, 1854, P. L. 419; Sec. 1, Act of May 18, 1876, P. L. 178; Sec. 1, Act of June 26, 1895, P. L. 377; and Art. VIII, Sec. 11, of the Constitution. In this and the following two sections we attempt to provide a uniform procedure for the formation of election districts by petition to court.

It seems that the above limitation relating to the number of voters necessary for each district, should be omitted as repealed by Sec. 11, Art. VIII of the Constitution, which gives the court the power to fix the election districts without any restrictions. See Sec. 300.

The above Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 20, 1854, P. L. 419, is still in force and the court of quarter sessions may, upon petition, divide a borough ward into election districts without appointment of commissioners. Waynesburg Boorough's North Ward, 29 Pa. Super. Ct. 525, (1905).

Section 302. Procedure to Create New Election Districts. Upon the petition of twenty electors of any township, borough, ward, or election district, to the court of quarter sessions of the county within which such township, borough, ward, or election district is situated for the purpose of dividing any such township, borough, ward or election district into two or more election districts, or for the purpose of altering the bounds of any election district, or upon the petition of a majority of the qualified electors voting at the last general or municipal election in each of two or more adjoining election districts for forming an election district out of two or more, or parts of two or more existing election districts, said court [shall] may appoint three impartial men to inquire into the propriety of granting the prayer of the petition.

It shall be the duty of the commissioners so appointed, or any two of them, to make a plot or draft of the proposed new, altered, or formed election district or districts, if the same cannot be fully designated by natural lines or bounds, all of which they, or any two of them, shall report to the next court of quarter sessions, together with their opinion of the same.

Drafted from Sec. 2, Act of May 18, 1876, P. L. 178, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 24, 1885, P. L. 149; Sec. 1, Act of June 26, 1895, P. L. 377.

The said Act of June 28, 1895, P. L. 377, provided for the consolidation of two or more election districts by the court without giving any procedure. We have included that in this procedure in order to make a complete system since it supplies and repeals by implication the procedure set forth in Sec. 5 of the Act of May 18, 1876, P. L. 178 for the consolidation of election districts.

The Act of May 18, 1876, P. L. 178, is not binding upon the court of quarter sessions, nor can the court delegate its constitional power, but if it chooses to adopt the method provided by this act to obtain the information necessary to enable it to act, a decree entered in the proper exercise of its discretion will not be reversed. Fell Township Polling Place, 39 Pa. Super. Ct. 319, (1909); Waynesburg Borough's North Ward, 29 Pa. Super Ct. 525, (1905).

In view of the above decisions, since this section is not mandatory upon the court, we have changed the word "shall" to may, thereby providing a procedure which the courts may follow at their own discretion.

Section 303. Order of Court on Report of Commissioners. When such report has been made by said commissioners to the said court of quarter sessions, said court may make such order approving, modifying or disapproving such report as may in its opinion promote the convenience of the electors and the interest of the public, or the court may order a review if, in its opinion, it may be necessary to secure a fair adjudication of the same.

A new election district shall be created upon the entry of a final order of the court approving the same.

Drafted from Sec. 3, Act of May 18, 1876, P. L. 178; Sec. 1, Act of June 26, 1895, P. L. 377.

This section eliminates the mandatory provision requiring the court to approve the said report when no exceptions are filed thereto, as found in Sec. 3, Act of May 18, 1876, P. L. 178. This provision was declared unconstitutional in re Bern Township, 115 Pa. 615.

Section 304. Cost of Proceedings to Create New Districts. In all cases of the division, creation, consolidation or formation of election districts by the court of quarter sessions, the said court shall order the costs and expenses thereof, including the compensation of the commissioners, which shall be the same as that paid to road viewers, to be paid by the county and on such order being made, the county commissioners shall draw their warrant on the county treasury for the payment of the same.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 18, 1875, P. L. 29, and Sec. 6, Act of May 18, 1876, P. L. 178.

Section 305. Abolishing Existing Districts by County Commissioners. In addition to any other method herein provided, the county commissioners of any county may abolish any election district within their respective county in which less than ten qualified electors reside. Before any such election district is abolished the county commissioners shall give notice, once a week for three weeks, in at least two newspapers of the county of a time and place of hearing, at which all persons interested may attend and give such evidence as may be pertinent to the matter in question. After such hearing, the county commisisoners shall determine whether such election district has less than ten qualified voters residing therein, and if in their judgment such election district is unnecessary, they shall make an order to that effect, and in such order shall specify and direct that such abolished election district shall become and constitute a part or parts of such other election district or districts as in their opinion may best serve the convenience of the voters residing in such abolished election district, a copy of which order shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions.

Sec. 1, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 805. The clause providing that the county commissioners shall specify what district the abolished district shall become a part of, is new.

Section 306. Appeal from Order Abolishing District. Any person aggrieved by any order made by the county commissioners under the provisions of the foregoing section, may appeal therefrom to the court of quarter sessions of the county, and upon such appeal the court shall hear all parties interested and their witnesses, and shall decide whether such election district is useless or burdensome, and whether the election district or districts of which such abolished election district shall have been made a part is the one best suited to the convenience of the voters therein. On any such appeal the order of the court shall be final.

Sec. 2, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 805.

(b) Polling Places

Section 320. Polling Place Must Be Located Within Boundary of District. The polling place for each election district shall be located within the limits of such district.

Drafted from Secs. 1 and 2, Act of Apr. 18, 1893, P. L. 107. The wording of the said act has not been used in this section in as much as the act made it unlawful for any voter, except in military service, to cast his ballot at any polling place outside the election district in which he is domiciled. It then says that the courts of quarter sessions shall designate the polling places within the election districts in the manner provided by law. The said act seems to accomplish nothing but provides that the polling places must be within the limits of the districts, and thereby repeals the Act of June 11, 1891, P. L. 296, which allowed townships to have their polling places in a borough or city adjoining.

Section 321. Place for Holding Elections in New Districts. In all cases in which any election district shall be created by the division of boroughs, townships, towns, wards or election districts, or the consolidation of two or more, or parts of two or more election districts, or by altering the bounds of any election districts, the court of quarter sessions creating, consolidating, or altering the same, shall fix the place for holding the elections in such new districts, which shall continue to be the place for holding elections therein until the same shall be changed according to the provisions of this article.

Section 322. Change of Polling Place by Court. The court of quarter sessions of the proper county may, at any time, within the three weeks immediately preceding any election, for any reason that may seem proper to the court, upon petition of at least ten qualified electors of any election district, and upon such notice to the county commissioners as the court may direct, change the polling place of said district.

Sec. 1, Act of May 18, 1933, P. L. 106. It appears that this section and the section following, are broad enough to cover all the cases provided for in Sec. 1, Act of June 13, 1883; P. L. 124; Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 12, 1866, P. L. 107; and Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 15, 1867, P. L. 86.

The Act of Apr. 14, 1903, P. L. 187, as amended by the Act of July 8, 1919, P. L. 769, has supplied and repealed this section, except as to the three weeks preceding an election. See New Phila. Polling Place 49 Pa. C. C. 35; Change of Polling Place, 16 Sch. 145; Change of Polling Place 72 Pitts, 737; we have therefore so limited the powers of the court in this section, and have eliminated the last sentence authorizing an election, as this provision can have no meaning, as it would be too late to hold such an election.

Section 323. Changing of Polling Place by County Commissioners. The county commissioners may, at any time, at least three weeks prior to any election, for any reason that may seem proper to the county commissioners, upon a petition of at least ten qualified electors of any election district, and after written notice to the occupant or owner of said polling place at least one week before the hearing on said petition, change the polling place of said election district. Upon the presentation of a petition to the county commissioners, on or before the day of hearing of said petition for the change, signed by a majority of the registered electors of the said election district, and sworn to by one of the qualified electors thereof, objecting to such change of the polling place, said county commissioners shall not make any change in the said polling place of said election district. The county commissioners may, in their discretion, direct that an election be held to settle the question as to where the said polling place shall be located. A record of all changes of polling places made pursuant to this section shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 14, 1903, P. L. 187, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of July 8, 1919, P. L. 769.

The word "district" has been substituted for the word "division," and the word "township" has been eliminated, as it added nothing to the meaning of the section. See Polling Place 25 Dist. 993.

Sec. 94, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, providing for the change of polling places by the Governor, has been omitted as obsolete.

Sec. 56, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, providing for the change of polling places by election has been eliminated because in our opinion it has been supplied and repealed by implication by the above section. See cases cited under Sec. 322. While these cases do not mention Sec. 56 of the Act of 1839, P. L. 519, they seem to hold that the county commissioners have sole authority to change the polling places, except during the three weeks immediately preceding an election, when the court of quarter sessions has jurisdiction.

Section 324. Polling Places Not To Be In Rooms Used For Sale Of Liquor. No public elections shall be held in any room, any part of which is used for the sale of liquors if it be possible to obtain another room for that purpose in the vicinity, and it shall be the duty of the court of quarter sessions or any law judge thereof, to inquire upon the petition of five or more citizens, resident in the election district, whether any such rooms are now designated as polling places, and in such cases to select other places for holding the election.

Sec. 2, Act of May 19, 1887, P. L. 126.

Section 325. Compensation For Use Of Polling Places. The commissioners of the several counties shall fix the compensation for lights, rent and fuel for election purposes in each and every election district in the respective counties, which said compensation shall be fixed and established at least once every three years by resolution duly entered upon the minutes of said commissioners, and the said expenses shall be paid (on bills certified by election officers) by said respective counties, according to the compensation so ascertained and entered upon said minutes and not otherwise.

Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1876, P. L. 136.

(c) Equipment of Election Rooms

Section 340. Election Rooms. The county commissioners of each county shall provide for each election district therein, at each election, a room large enough to be fitted up with voting shelves and a guard rail, as hereinafter provided.

If in any district no such room can be rented or otherwise obtained, the said commissioners shall cause to be constructed for such district a temporary room of adequate size to be used as a voting room.

Part of Sec. 19, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Where there is no room of adequate size at the regular polling place, the county commissioners must construct a temporary room at such place; they can not rent a room in some other part of the district. Egly v. Armstrong Co. Commissioners 158 Pa. 65.

Section 341. Equipment of Polling Places. The county commissioners shall also cause all the said rooms to be suitably provided with heat and light, and with a sufficient number of voting shelves or compartments with proper supplies, at or in which voters may conveniently mark their ballots, with a curtain, screen or door at the upper part of the front of each compartment so that in the marking thereof they may be screened from the observation of others, and a guard rail shall be so constructed and placed that only such persons as are inside said rail can approach within six feet of the ballot-box and of such voting shelves or compartments. The arrangement shall be such that neither the ballot-box nor the voting booths shall be hidden from view of those just outside the said guard rail.

The number of such voting shelves or compartments shall not be less than one for every seventy-five names on the assessor's or registry lists, but shall not in any case be less than three for the voters qualified to vote at such voting place.

Part of Sec.. 19, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

ARTICLE IV

ELECTION AND OTHER OFFICERS PERFORMING DUTIES AT ELECTIONS

(a) Election Officers

Section 400. Qualifications of Election Officers. Every person, excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judiciary Department of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth. No. inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for, except that of an election officer.

Part of Sec. 10. Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 26, 1895, P. L. 392.
The election will not be set aside because an election officer failed to possess all the necessary qualifications. In re Krickbaum's Contested Election, 221 Pa. 521 (1908).

Section 401. Election of Election Officers. Terms. Election boards consisting of a judge and two inspectors shall be elected at each municipal election in odd-numbered years in each election district of the Commonwealth. Each elector may vote for one person as judge and also for one person as inspector, and the person receiving the greatest number of votes for judge shall be publicly declared to be elected judge, and the two persons having the greatest number of votes for inspectors shall in like manner be declared to be elected inspector of election. Each inspector of election shall appoint one clerk who shall be a qualified voter of such district. The election board so chosen shall conduct all election and primary elections held within their respective districts for two years following their election.

This is drafted from Art. VIII, Secs. 3 and 14 of the Constitution; Sec. 15, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31; Secs. 3, 4, 7 and 15, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519; and Sec. 11, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.
The said Sec. 14, Art. VIII of the Constitution, which provides for the annual election of election officers, was inadvertantly overlooked in the amendments of 1909 and 1913, which amended Sec. 3, of said article, and provided for municipal elections.

Section 402. Tie Votes for Judges and Inspectors of Election in Townships. In all township elections of this Commonwealth for judges of election, where a tie shall exist in said election for judges, the inspector who shall have the highest number of votes in said election shall appoint a judge of election.

Where ties shall exist in said election for two inspectors, the two candidates who received the same number of votes for inspector shall determine by lot which of them shall be the majority inspector and the other candidate shall be the minority inspector, and the person so determined to be the majority inspector shall appoint a judge of elections, in case of a tie vote for judge.

Sec. 84, Act of Mar. 1842, P. L. 43, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 19, 1897, P. L. 78. (This section was previously amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 6, 1893, P. L. 324).
This section applies to townships only. No similar provision is found for districts in cities and boroughs. Recommend that this be made to apply to all election districts.

Section 403. Appointment of Election Boards for New Districts. Terms. In all cases in which new election districts are created by the erection of new districts, the division of an old district into two or more districts, the altering of the bounds of former districts or the consolidation of two or more or parts of two or more old districts, or in any other manner or proceedings, the court of quarter sessions of the county wherein such new districts is located shall appoint the election officers for such new districts to conduct the elections to be held therein, until their successors are duly elected according to law.

This is a redraft of the provisions of the following acts which are pertinent to this subject: Sec. 1, Act of Jan. 31, 1855, P. L. 5; Sec. 4, Act of May 18, 1876, P. L. 178; Sec. 560, Act of June 23, 1931, P. L. 932; Sec. 2, Act of June 26, 1895, P. L. 377; Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 21, 1911, P. L. 80; and Sec. 29 (b), Chap. 3, Act of July 14, 1917, P. L. 840, as added by Sec. 1, Act of April 27, 1925, P. L. 308.
The court of quarter sessions may designate the polling place and appoint the first election board when it divides a borough ward into election districts. Waynesburg Borough's North Ward, 29 Pa. Super. Ct. 525 (1905); Franklin Twp.'s Election Districts, 29 Pa. Super Ct. 534.

Section 404. Filling Vacancies in Election Offices by Court. In all election districts where a vacancy exists by reason of the disqualification of the officer or by removal, resignation, death, or other cause in an election board, the judge or judges of the court of quarter sessions of the county, upon proof furnished that such vacancy or vacancies exist, shall at any time before any general, municipal primary, or special election, appoint competent persons who shall be of good character and known in the district where the vacancy occurs, to fill said vacancies to conduct the election in said districts. In the appointment of the inspectors in any election district, both shall not be of the same political party, and the judge of election shall, in all cases be of the political party having the majority of votes in said district as nearly as the said judge or judges can ascertain the fact. In case of the failure of said judges of the courts to act on the selection of inspectors, the political majority of the judges shall select one of such inspectors and the minority judge or judges select the other.

Sec. 6, Act of Jan. 20. 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 16, 1921, P. L. 618.
The act does not require notice to be given before the court exercises its power to fill a vacancy. Judge of Election, appointment of, 75 Pitts. 642 (1927).

Section 405. Filling Vacancies on Day of Election. In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for isnpector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceding election shall act as inspector in his place, and in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspectors shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place. In case the person elected a judge shall not attend then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

Sec. 16, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.
If an election officer absents himself from the polls after they are opened, those who remain need not wait an hour before proceeding to fill the vacancy so caused. Gibbons v. Sheppard, 2 Brewst. 1 (1868).
A person appointed to fill a vacancy in the office of inspector under this section is not entitled to act at a succeeding election if the regular inspector appears and claims his office. Penn District Election. Brightly's Election Cases, 523 N. (1850).

Section 406. Filling Vacancy in Office of Clerk of Election. In case any clerk appointed under the provisions of this article, shall neglect to attend at any election, it shall be the duty of the inspector who appointed said clerk (or the person filling the place of such inspector) to forthwith appoint a suitable person as clerk, qualified as aforesaid, who shall perform said duties for the term for which the person so neglecting to attend shall have been appointed.

Sec. 17, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.
Where an unsworn person acted for a time in the place of an intoxicated clerk, the court refused to set aside the election. Bolleau's Case, 2 Parsons 503 (1845); Weaver v. Given, 1 Brewst. 140 1868).

Section 407. Swearing or Affirming of Election Officers. All judges, inspectors, and clerks of any election, shall, before entering upon their duties, be duly sworn or affirmed in the presence of each other. The judge shall be sworn by the minority inspector, if there shall be such minority inspector, and in case there be no minority inspector, then by a justice of the peace or alderman, and the inspectors and clerks shall be sworn by the judge. Certificates of such swearing or affirming shall be duly made out and signed by the officers so sworn and attested by the officer who administered the oath.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31.
The word "overseers" has been eliminated from this section and placed under the proper heading (see Sec. 420). The penalty clause has been placed under the article on Penal Provisions, (see Sec. 2114).
An election officer performing duties without having taken the oath is liable to punishment, but the election will not be set aside. Carbondale Election, 25 Lack. 1 (1923).

Section 408. Oath of Judges of Election. The following shall be the oath or affirmation of each judge, viz: "I, (A. B.) do .....that I will as judge, duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying on the same; that I will not give my consent that any ballot shall be received from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law, and that I will use my best endeavors to prevent any fraud, deceit or abuse in carrying on the same by citizens qualified to vote, or others, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding, and that I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and will in all things truly, impartially and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of my judgment and ability, and that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election."

Sec. 20, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, and part of Sec. 9, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31.

Section 409. Oath of Inspectors of Election. The following shall be the form of the oath or affirmation to be taken by each inspector, viz: "I (A. B.) do ..... that I will duly attend to the ensuing election during the continuance thereof as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be according to the provisions of the Constitution and the laws of this Commonwealth entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted unless required to do so in a judicial proceedings, nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person whom I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things, truly, impartially and faithfully perform my duties therein to the best of my judgment and ability; and that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election."

Sec. 19, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, and part of Sec. 9, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31.

Section 410. Oath of Clerks of Election. The following shall be the form of the oath or affirmation to be taken by each clerk, viz: "I, (A. B.) do ..... that I will impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the election district wherein such elector resides, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted unless required to do so in a judicial proceeding, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and ability; and that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election."

Sec. 21, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, and part of Sec. 9, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31.

Section 411. Copies of Oaths to be Made by Clerks. The clerks shall forthwith make out two copies of the forms of each of the said oaths or affirmations, which shall be severally subscribed by each of the inspectors, judges and clerks, and the said oaths or affirmations shall be certified under the hands of the persons by whom they are administered.

Sec. 22, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 412. Power of Election Officers to Administer Oaths. Penalty. The inspectors and judges of the election shall each have the power to administer oaths to any person claiming the right of suffrage, or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by any of said officers under this act.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. Assessors are omitted from this section and carried under the proper heading, (see Sec. 33.) The penalty is covered under the proper heading, (see Sec. 2125.)

Section 413. Compensation of Election Officers in First Class Cities. At all elections in the cities of the first class the pay of judges of election shall be twenty dollars, and the pay of inspectors and clerks shall be ten dollars.

Sec. 1, Act of May 25, 1923, P. L. 455.

Section 414. Compensation of Election Officers, Second Class Counties. In counties of the second class the pay of judges of election shall be fifteen dollars for each election, and the pay of inspectors and clerks shall be ten dollars. When a primary and special election, or a special and general or municipal election, take place on the same day, they shall be construed as one election for the purposes of this section.

Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 27, 1925, P. L. 305, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 3, 1929, P. L. 131. Shortened by eliminating unnecessary words.

Section 415. Compensation of Election Officers in Districts Other Than First Class Cities and Second Class Counties. The minimum pay of all judges of election, inspectors, and clerks, appointed by inspectors, except in cities of the first class and counties of the second class, is hereby fixed at five dollars per day. In any such election district in which more than one hundred votes are cast at any election the judge and each inspector and clerk shall be paid one dollar for each one hundred ballots, or fractional part thereof cast after the first one hundred ballots, in addition to the minimum pay herein provided for. Ten dollars per day shall be the maximum pay allowed under this section.

Sec. 1, Act of May 5, 1927, P. L. 819.
Under Sec. 92 of the Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519 (supplied by above section), election officers being paid by the day, as in the above act, were held to be entitled to an extra day's pay if they were necessarily employed in the discharge of their duties beyond midnight. Potter v. Tioga Co., 8 Pa. C. C. 24 (1890).

Section 416. Compensation and Mileage of Return Judges. At municipal elections the return judge of each election district shall be paid two dollars per day for delivering the returns and shall be allowed six cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in delivering them; at all elections except municipal elections, the said return judges shall be paid one dollar and fifty cents per day for delivering the returns and shall be allowed ten cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in delivering them, said mileage to be computed circular, and paid out of the county treasury on orders drawn by the county commissioners in the usual manner. No compensation shall be paid where the return is not delivered within the time prescribed by law.

Drafted from Sec. 10, Act of June 13, 1840, P. L. 683, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 25, 1895, P. L. 290; and Secs. 92 and 93, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.
The form and wording of this section is changed for the purpose of clarification. Sec. 10 of the said Act of 1840, P. L. 683, provides compensation for making returns of "township" elections. The Voter's Guide, published by William G. Johnston Co. interprets this to mean the municipal elections; see also Potter v. Tioga Co., 8 Pa. C. C. 24. We have herein followed this interpretation and provided the compensation for municipal elections to be different from that provided for other elections under the Act of 1839.

(b) Overseers.

Section 420. Overseers of Election. On the petition of five or more citizens of any election district, setting forth that the appointment of overseers is a reasonable precaution to secure the purity and fairness of the election in said district at any general, municipal, primary or special election, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of the proper county, all the law judges of the said court able to act at the time concurring, to appoint two judicious, sober and intelligent citizens of the said district, belonging to different political parties, overseers of election, to supervise the proceedings of election officers thereof, and to make report of the same as they may be required by such court. Said overseers shall be persons qualified to serve upon election boards, shall be sworn by the judge of election, and shall have the right to be present with the officers of such election during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted, and the returns made out and signed by the election officers; to keep a list of voters if they see proper; to challenge any person offering to vote, and interrogate him and his witnesses under oath, in regard to his right of suffrage at said election, and to examine his papers produced.

If the overseers shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, all the votes polled in such election district may be rejected by the proper tribunal trying a contest under said election, or a part or portion of such votes aforesaid may be counted, as such tribunal may deem necessary to a just and proper disposition of the case.

Drafted from Secs. 4 and 9, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31 and Sec. 20, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

This section providing for the appointment of overseers is not repealed by the provisions of the Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419 or its amendments which provide for the appointment of watchers. In re Parish, 214 Pa. 63 (1906).

The court's right to guard against anticipated fraud is limited to the appointment of overseers to conduct the election when the necessity for such course is made apparent by petition of a party interested. Luzerne County Election Returns, 301 Pa. 247 (1930).

Section 421. Election Officers Not to Interfere with Overseers. Election officers are required to afford to said overseers, so selected and appointed, every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duties.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. The penal clauses of this section and of Sec. 19, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31 and Sec. 22, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719 which relate to overseers, will be found in Sec. 2133.

(c) Watchers

Section 430. Appointment of Watchers. Each candidate for nomination at any primary shall be entitled to appoint two watchers at the primary election in each election district in which such candidate is voted for.

Each poltical party and each group of citizens which has sent to the proper office a nomination paper nominating candidates for offices to be voted for at a general, municipal or special election, shall be allowed to appoint three qualified electors as watchers. All watchers must be electors resident of the district in which they are authorized to act. They shall serve without expense to the county. One of each set of watchers shall be allowed to remain in the room outside the enclosed space. Each watcher shall be provided with a certificate from the county commissioners stating his name, the names of the candidate or persons who have appointed him, and the party or policy he represents, if any, and no candidate, part or policy shall be represented by more than one watcher in the same voting room at any one time. Watchers shall be required to show their certificates when requested to do so.

(d) Constables

Section 440. Compensation of Constables for Attending Elections Et Cetera. The constable of every township, borough and ward shall receive from the county wherein such township, borough or ward is situated, for attending each election, five dollars, which sum shall include pay for serving notice in writing to the persons elected at such elections. When any such election is held in any township, ward or borough in which there is more than one election district or precinct, and a deputy constable is appointed to attend an election held at each of such districts or precincts, said deputy constables shall each receive the sum of five dollars.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 20, 1917, P. L. 1158, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 23, 1919, P. L. 274.

ARTICLE V

CANDIDATES FOR NOMINATION AND ELECTION AT PRIMARIES

Section 500. Names of Candidates to be Printed Upon Primary Ballot Upon Petitions Filed. The names of candidates for nomination as President of the United States, and the names of all other party candidates, shall be printed upon the official ballot of a designated party, upon the filing of nomination petitions in their behalf, signed by qualified electors of the State, or of the political district or division, as the case may be, within which the nomination is to be made or election is to be held. The names of no candidates shall be printed upon an official ballot of a political party, to be used at any primary, unless such petitions shall have been filed.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 18, 1917, P. L. 244. For remainder of above section, see Secs. 501 to 504.

Section 501. Candidates for Party Officers to be Qualified Electors of Party. In no event shall any person's name be printed upon the official ballot of any party as a delegate, State committeeman, National committeeman, or party officer, unless he is a qualified elector of said party.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 18, 1917, P. L. 244.

This section does not confer any judicial functions in the matter upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth or upon the county commissioners. Com. v. Hard, 2 D. & C. 520 (1922).

Section 502. Manner of Signing Nomination Petitions. Time of Circulating Affidavit. Each signer of a nomination petition shall sign but one such petition for each office to be filled, and shall declare therein that he is a member of the party designated in such petition, except where two or more persons are to be elected to the same office, each signer may sign petitions for as many candidates for such office, as, and no more than, he could vote for at the succeeding election. He shall also declare therein that he is a qualified elector of the county therein named, and, in case the nomination is not to be made or candidates are not to be elected by the electors of the State at large, of the political district or division therein named in which the nomination is to be made or the election is to be held. He shall add his occupation and residence, giving city, borough or township, with street and number, if any, and shall also add the date of signing.

No nomination petition shall be circulated prior to forty (40) days before the last day on which such petition may be filed, and no signature shall be counted unless it bears date within forty (40) days of the last day for filing the same.

Said nomination petition may be on one or more sheets, and different sheets must be used for signers resident in different counties.

Each sheet shall have appended thereto the affidavit of some person, not necessarily a signer, and not necessarily the same person on each sheet, setting forth: (a) that the affiant is a qualified elector of the State, or of the political district or division, as the case may be referred to in said petition; (b) his residence, giving city, borough or township, with street and number, if any; (c) that the signers signed with full knowledge of the contents of the petition; (d) that their respective residences are correctly stated therein; (e) that they all reside in the county named in the affidavit; (f) that each signed on the date set opposite his name; and (g) that to the best of affiant's knowledge and belief, the signers are qualified electors and members of the designated party of the State, or of the political district or division, as the case may be.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 18, 1917, P. L. 244.

In order to be qualified as a member of a party, an elector must have voted for a majority of the candidates of that party as candidates of that party, not as candidates of some other party. Weiss v. County Commissioners, 17 Dist. 262 (1908).

An elector in a city who enrolls as a member of a particular party at the fall enrollment, may sign nomination petitions for candidates of that party irrespective of whether or not he votes for a majority of the candidates of another party at the November election following his enrollment. Johnson's Nomination, 27 Dist. 710 (1918).

Section 503. Affidavit of Candidate to Nomination Petition. Each candidate for any State, county or city office, shall file with his nomination petition, his affidavit stating (a) his residence, with street and number, if any, and his post office address; (b) his election district; (c) the name of the office for which he consents to be a candidate; (d) that he is eligible for such office; and (e) that he will not knowingly violate any election law or any law regulating and limiting nomination and election expenses, and prohibiting corrupt practices in connection therewith.

In the case of a candidate for nomination as President of the United States, it shall not be necessary for such candidate to file the affidavit required in this section to be filed by candidates, but the post office address of such candidate shall be stated in such nomination petition.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 18, 1917, P. L. 244.
Recommend this be extended to borough, town, township and party officers, and to U. S. Senators and Representatives.

Section 504. Statement of Candidates for Delegates to Party Conventions. Each candidate for election as delegate or alternate delegate to a National party convention may include with his affidavit the statement hereinafter set for in this section, but his failure to include such statement shall not be a valid ground, on the party of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, for refusal to receive and file his nomination petition. Such statement, if any be made, shall be substantially in the following form:

Delegate's Statement

I hereby declare to the voters of my political party in the (here insert "State of Pennsylvania" if a delegate or alternate delegate at large, otherwise insert "..... District") that, if elected and in attendance as a delegate to the National Convention of the party, I shall, with all fidelity, to the best of my judgment and ability, in all matters coming before the convention, support that candidate for President of the United States who shall have received the highest number of votes cast in the (here insert "State" if a delegate or alternate delegate at large, otherwise insert "..... District") by the voters of my party, for said office at the ensuing primary, and shall use all honorable means within my power to aid in securing the nomination for such candidate for President.

(Signature of candidate for delegate or alternate delegate.)

On the ballot used at a primary, after or under the name of each candidate for delegate or alternate delegate to a National party convention, shall appear the words "Promise to support popular choice of party in the (here insert 'State' if a delegate or alternate delegate at large, otherwise insert '..... District') for President" or "Does not promise to support popular choice of party in the (here insert 'State' if a delegate or alternate delegate at large, otherwise insert '..... District') for President" according as if the candidate included, or failed to include, the above statement with his affidavit.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 18, 1917, P. L. 244.

Section 505. Number of Signers Required. Nomination petitions of candidates shall be signed:

(a) If for the office of President of the United States or of Senator of the United States, by at least one hundred qualified electors in each of at least ten counties of the State.

(b) If for a State office to be filled by a vote of the electors of the State at large; for the office of Representative from the State at large in the Congress of the United States; for the office of delegate or alternate delegate at large to a National party convention; or for the office of member of the National committee; by at least one hundred qualified electors in each of at least five counties of the State.

(c) If for the office of a member of the House of Representatives of the United States to be filled by a vote of the electors of a Congressional district; or of delegate or alternate delegate to a National party convention, other than delegate or alternate delegate at large; or of judge of any court, other than a court whose judges are to be elected by a vote of the electors of the State at large; or of State senator; or of any municipal office to be filled by a vote of the electors of a senatorial district; by at least two hundred qualified electors.

(d) If for the office of a member of the State House of Representatives; or for the office of member of the State committee; or an office to be voted for by the electors of the entire county; by at least one hundred qualified electors, except for the office of magistrate in cities of the first class, in which case it must be signed by at least one thousand qualified electors.

(e) If for the office of inspector of election, at least five qualified electors.

(f) And for all other offices and all other party offices, by at least ten qualified electors.

Part of Sec. 7, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 839, and part of said section as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 685. (This section was previously amended by Sec. 3, Act of May 18, 1917, P, L. 244).

This section does not violate the Constitution in requiring the petitions of candidates for office of Member of State House of Representatives to be signed by one hundred qualified voters. Com. v. King, 27 Dauph. 96; 5 D. & C., 515 (1924).

Section 506. Time of Filing Nomination Petitions. The nomination petitions in the case of candidates for the office of President of the United States, Senator of the United States, Member of the House of Representatives of the United States, for all State offices, for the office of delegate or alternate to a National party convention, and for the office of member of the State or National committee, shall be filed at least fifty days prior to the primary, with the Secretary of the Commonwealth. Nomination petitions in all other cases shall be filed at least five weeks prior to the primary, with the county commissioners of the respective counties.

Part of Sec. 7, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 29, 1925, P. L. 361; Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 372.
In Derringe v. Walton et al., 13 D. & C. 82 (1929), it was decided that in computing the five weeks under this section both the terminal days are excluded. But the Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 634 was passed providing that the first day should be excluded and the day of the primary included. See Sec. 5 of this compilation.
A signer of a petition who has been deceived and induced to sign by false representation, may withdraw his name before the petition has actually been acted upon by the county commissioners. Moore v. Neil, 233 Pa. 408 (1912).

Section 507. Objections to Nomination Petitions. No nomination petition shall be refused or set aside except for:

(a) Material error or defects apparent on the face thereof, or on the face of the appended or accompanying affidavit; or

(b) Material alterations made after signing without the consent of the signers; or

(c) Want of a sufficient number of genuine signatures of persons qualified, with respect to age, sex, residence and citizenship, to be electors.

The invalidity of any sheet of a petition shall not affect the validity of such petition, if a sufficient petition remains after eliminating such invalid sheet.

Application to set aside any nomination petition shall be by petition to the court of Common pleas of the county in which such nomination petition has been filed setting for specifically the matters objected to, and must be filed within five days after the last day for filing said nomination petition. Upon the presentation of such a petition the court shall make an order fixing a time for hearing, which shall not be later than ten days after the last day for filing said nomination petition, and specifying the time and manner of notice that shall be given to the candidate named in the nomination petition sought to be set aside.

If the matters objected to are such as are specified in subdivision (a) of this section, the court upon hearing the case may, in its discretion, permit amendments within such time and upon such terms as to payment of costs, as the said court may specify.

In case the petition to set aside a nomination petition is dismissed, the petitioner shall pay the whole of the costs of the proceedings including all witness fees.

Sec. 8, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. This section was intended to apply only to petitions which had been filed, not to ones which were refused by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. Hamilton v. Johnson, 293 Pa. 136.
The only power that is not purely ministerial conferred upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth is to determine whether the petitions presented to him are in proper form and conform to the requirements of the Act of Assembly. The act does not give him the right to pass upon the qualifications of the petitioners who signed the petition, nor of the candidate in whose behalf the petition is signed. Com. v. Hard, 2 D. & C. 520 (1922); Hamilton v. Johnson, 293 Pa. 136.
A petition will not be set aside because persons signing it were not registered. Nomination Papers for Alderman, 28 Lack. 144 (1927).
"Material error" as used in subdivision (a) of this section, means material error generally and is not limited to error apparent on the face of the petition or affidavits. Morin's Petition, 19 Dauph. 182, 44 C. C. 249 (1916); Hosenfeld's Nomination, 23 Dauph. 101.
The later decisions seems to hold that the court has no jurisdiction to set aside a nominating petition or to restrain the printing on the official primary ballot the name of a candidate on the ground that he is not eligible to hold the office which he seeks. Mosby v. Armstrong, 75 Pitts. 649 (1927); Wilner v. Lewis, 33 Dauph. 35 (1929); Reid's Case, 19 Dauph. 169, 44 C. C. 252 (1916), but some decisions hold to the contrary, see Robert's Petition, 2 D. & C. 236 (1922) and Beaver's Petition, 29 Dist. 245 1919). We find no cases where the Supreme Court has passed upon this question, but see Mosby v. Armstrong, 290 Pa. 517 (1927).

An objection to the nomination petition under paragraph (c) of this section will not be sustained when the proof submitted on the hearing goes only to the competency of the affiants, the genuineness of the signatures not being disputed. Logue's Petition, 19 Dauph. 183 (1916).

When the electors have filed a complete nominating petition and only the formality of an affidavit is lacking or the correction of a mistake required, or where material error is apparent on the face thereof, and no corruption or fraud appears, an amendment will be granted:

Goodnough's Petition, 23 Dauph. 95, 29 Dist. 360 (1920);
Morgan's Petition, 23 Dauph. 97, 99, 29 Dist. 696, 697 (1920).
Hosenfeld's Petition, 23 Dauph. 101, 29 Dist. 510 (1920);
Beatty's Petition, 23 Dauph. 103 (1920);
Pefferman's Petition, 23 Dauph. 112, 29 Dist. 511 (1920);
Smith's Petition, 23 Dauph. 113, 29 Dist. 619 (1920);
Fairley's Petition, 23 Dauphin. 115, 29 Dist. 512;
Hogan's Petition, 23 Dauphin, 116, 29, Dist. 487;
Brillhart's Petition, 23 Dauph. 121, 29 Dist. 524;
Bulger's Petition, 23 Dauph. 122, 29 Dist. 523;
Hummel's Petition, 23 Dauph. 135, 29 Dist. 619.

Where the Secretary of the Commonwealth refuses to file a petition because it contained less than the required number of signatures bearing date within forty days of the last day of filing, the secretary cannot be compelled by mandamus to file it, nor can the court permit an amendment by supplying omitted dates of signatures and then compel the secretary to file the petition. Hamilton v. Johnson, 293 Pa. 136 (1928).

Section 508. Withdrawal of Candidates for Nomination. Any of the candidates for nomination, including candidates for President of the United States, to be voted for at a primary under this act, may, at any time before four o'clock of the seventh day next succeeding the last day fixed for filing nomination petitions, withdraw his name as a candidate, by a request in writing, signed by him and acknowledged before a notary public or justice of the peace, and filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, if such candidate filed his nomination petition with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and, in all other cases with the county commissioners.

The Secretary of the Commonwealth, upon the filing of requests for withdrawal in the manner herein provided, shall forthwith certify to the county commissioners of the proper county a correct list of candidates filing such requests.

Sec. 19, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 29, 1925, P. L. 361.

A withdrawal of a nomination petition is complete if made and mailed prior to four o'clock of the last day allowed by the above section. Zok's Nomination Petition, 31 Dauph. 339 (1928); Majchyzak's Nomination Petition, 31 Dauph. 341; Wolfe's Nomination Petition, 31 Dauph. 343.

Section 509. Manner of Filling Vacancy Caused by Death of Party Named in Nomination Petition. Where a nomination petition has been duly filed under the provisions of this act, and thereafter and before the day of the primary, the candidate named in said petition dies, the original signers of said petition, or the majority of them, may sign another petition proposing a new candidate for said office, at any time prior to the printing of the ballot. Said petition shall have the same force and effect as the original petition.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

ARTICLE VI

PREPARATION FOR THE PRIMARY

Section 600. Party Chairman to Notify County Commissioners of Party Delegates and Committeemen to be Elected. On or before the ninth Tuesday preceding the spring primary, the chairman of the State committee of each political party, shall send to the county commissioners of each county a written notice, setting forth the number of delegates and alternate delegates to the National convention of such party, who are to be elected in the State at large at the ensuing primary, and the number of such delegates and alternate delegates who are to be elected at said primary in such county, or in any district of which such county forms a part. The said notice shall also set forth the number of members of the National committee, if any, who, under the National party rules, are to be elected at the said primary in the State at large, and the number of members of the State committee to be elected at the said primary in such county, or in any district of which such county or part thereof forms a part.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 18, 1915, P. L. 1044.

The words "herein defined to be a political party" have been omitted as unnecessary.

Section 601. County Chairman to Certify List of Party Officers to be Elected. On or before the ninth Tuesday preceding the spring primary, the chairman of the county, and in cases where a city is coextensive with a county, the chairman of the city committee of each party, shall send to the county commissioners of such county a written notice, setting forth the names of all party officers within the county or city to be filled by election at the ensuing primary.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 602. Secretary of the Commonwealth to Notify Commissioners of Offices to Be Filled at Spring Primary. On or before the ninth Tuesday preceding the spring primary, the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall send to the county commissioners of each county, a written notice designating all the offices for which candidates are to be nominated therein, or in any district of which such county forms a part, or in the State at large, at the ensuing spring primary, and for the nomination to which candidates are required to file nomination petitions in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, including that of President of the United States; and shall also in said notice, set forth the number of Senators and Representatives in Congress and officers of the Commonwealth to be elected at the next succeeding election by a vote of the electors of the State at large, and the number to be elected by a vote of the electors of the county or of any district therein, or of any district of which such county forms a part.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. The word "Senators" has been added to this section, as its omission was evidently an oversight and the practice is to include Senators in the said notice.

Section 603. Municipal Secretaries to Notify Commissioners of Officers to Be Nominated at the Fall Primary. On or before the ninth Tuesday preceding the fall primary, the clerks or secretaries of the various cities, boroughs, towns, townships, school and poor districts, shall respectively send to the county commissioners of their respective counties, a written notice setting forth the names of all city, borough, town, township, school and poor district offices for which candidates are to be nominated at the ensuing primary.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. Towns and poor districts have been added to this section as their omission was evidently an oversight.

Section 604. Secretary of Commonwealth to Notify Commissioners of Offices to Be Filled at the Fall Primary. On or before the ninth Tuesday preceding the fall primary, the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall send to the county commissioners of each county a written notice designating all the offices for which candidates are to be nominated therein, or in any district of which such county forms a part, or in the State at large, at the ensuing primary, and for the nomination to which candidates are required to file nomination petitions in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and designating how many persons are to be elected to such offices respectively, at the next succeeding election.

Section 605. Secretary of Commonwealth to Furnish Commissioners a List of Candidates. Candidates to Be Notified. The Secretary of the Commonwealth immediately after the last day fixed for the filing of nomination petitions with him shall forward to the county commissioners of each county, a correct list of candidates of each party for the various offices, as shown in such petitions, with their respective residences and post office addresses as shown in their affidavits; and shall also, at the same time, notify the said candidates by mail that their names have been so certified to said county commissioners. In the case of each candidate for delegate or alternate delegate to a National party convention, the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall certify as to whether such candidate has included with his affidavit the statement provided for in section five hundred four of article five.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 606. Publication of Notice of Officers and Delegates to Be Nominated or Elected. Beginning not earlier than nine weeks, nor later than eight weeks, before any primary, the county commissioners of each county shall publish the number of delegates and alternate delegates to the National convention of each party who are to be elected in the State at large at the ensuing primary, and the number of such delegates and alternate delegates and State committeemen, who are to be elected at said primary in said county or in any district of which such county or part thereof forms a part; and shall also publish the names of all offices for which nominations are to be made, and the names of all party offices, including that of members of the National committee, if any and State committeemen, for which candidates are to be elected at said primary in said county, or in any district of which such county or part thereof forms a part, or in the State at large. Said notice shall contain the date of the primary, and shall be inserted in two newspapers of general circulation published within the county, wherever such course is possible, at least once each week for three successive weeks. Such newspapers, so far as practicable, shall be representative of the two different political parties polling the highest vote in such county at the last preceding November election, the highest vote cast within the county for any candidate of a party being deemed to be the vote of that party.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 607. Casting of Lots For Position of Names Upon the Primary Ballot. Immediately after the last day fixed for filing of such nomination petitions with them, the Secretary of the Commonwealth or the county commissioners, as the case may be, shall fix a day for the casting of lots for the position of names upon the primary ballot, and shall give notice to the candidates to appear before them for that purpose. Such candidates shall appear in person or by agent duly authorized by letter of attorney signed and acknowledged by an officer empowered to take acknowledgments. In the event of any said candidates not being present in person or by representative at the time of casting of lots it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Commonwealth or the county commissioners to appoint some person to represent such absentee. After said lots are cast, the Secretary of the Commonwealth or the county commissioners, as the case may be, shall accordingly establish the order in which the names of said candidates are to appear upon the primary ballot, and to certify the same for printing upon the official primary ballot.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of May 17, 1921, P. L. 630, amending part of Sec. 5, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 608. Candidates Having the Same or Similar Surnames. If two or more candidates for the same office shall have the same surname, or similar surnames, the county commissioners shall, upon the request of any of said candidates, filed in writing not later than five days after the last day of filing nomination petitions print the occupation of any such candidates, so filing a request, on the ballot opposite or under his name.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of June 18, 1915, P. L. 1025, amending part of Sec. 5, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 609. Official Ballots Furnished Election Districts. Binding. Numbering Etc. of Stubs. The county commisisoners shall prepare and furnish to the election officers in each election district, in due time for use at the primaries, one book of fifty official ballots of each party for every forty and fraction of forty votes cast within the particular election district for the candidate of the particular party who received the largest vote cast for any candidate of such party at any of the last three preceding elections, either general or municipal; and no additional official ballots shall be furnished any party in any election district, unless the number of electors registered and enrolled as members of any particular party in any election district shall exceed the largest vote aforesaid, in which case the county commissioners shall furnish official ballots for said party in the ratio aforesaid, upon the basis of such enrollment or registration.

The official ballots shall be attached to stubs or counterfoils in such manner that each ballot may be detached and removed separately. The stubs or counterfoils shall be numbered for each party consecutively, from one to the highest number to be furnished to each particular election district, and bound in books of fifty each, which shall be numbered in the order of the numbers of their stubs in the same manner as at elections. The numbers on the stubs or counterfoils shall be preceded by appropriate letters to designate the respective political parties. The numbers on stubs or counterfoils in republican ballot books shall be preceded by the letter "R," the numbers on stubs or counterfoils in democratic ballot books by the letter "D," and so on. Should the names of two or more political parties begin with the same letter, the county commissioners shall precede the numbers on the stubs or counterfoils of the ballot books for such parties with any distinctive letters of the alphabet not used on the stubs or counterfoils of the ballot books of any other political party.

The county commissioners shall keep a record of the number of such books and ballots printed and delivered to each election district, and of the number of stubs, unused ballots and spoiled and canceled ballots subsequently returned therefrom.

Drafted from part of Sec. 10, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 839, and Sec. 1, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 627.

The above Act of 1931 provides that the official ballots shall be bound together in books "in convenient numbers." We have omitted that from this section, and made it read "in books of fifty each" as provided in the above Act of 1919, as it seems from the other provisions of this section the "convenient numbers" must be so interpreted.

Section 610. Numbering and Lettering of Ballots. At the upper right hand corner of the back of each official ballot prepared for use at any such election, a diagonal perforated line shall be printed, and upon the corner of the ballot included within such line, which shall not include any other printing, shall be printed the same number as appears on the stub or counterfoil to which the ballot is attached. The number thus printed shall be preceded by the same letter of the alphabet which precedes the number on the stub or counterfoil.

Sec. 2, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 627.

Section 611. How Names of Candidates Shall Appear on Official Primary Ballot. Under each group of names of candidates shall be printed as many blank spaces, defined by light lines or ruled three-eighths of an inch apart, as there are to be candidates nominated for such office.

On the back of the official ballot shall be printed in prominent type the words "Official primary ballot of ..... Party," and there shall also appear on the back of such ballot the facsimile signatures of the county commissioners of the county.

Opposite or under the name of each candidate, except candidates for the office of President of the United States, who is to be voted for by the electors of more than one county, shall be printed the name of the county in which such candidate resides; and opposite or under the name of each candidate who is to be voted for by the electors of an entire county, or any congressional, senatorial, or representative district, within the county, shall be printed the name of the township, borough, town, or ward and city, as the case may be, in which such candidates resides.

The ballot shall vary in form only as the name of districts, offices, candidates, or the provisions of this act, may require.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of June 18, 1915, P. L. 1025, amending part of Sec. 5, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, and part of Sec. 1, Act of May 17, 1921, P. L. 680, amending part of Sec. 5, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 612. Form of Official Primary Ballot. The official ballot for each party shall be printed on white paper of uniform quality, shall be uniform in size, printing and general appearance, and shall be in the following form:

.....Primary Ballot

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

When a voter writes a name in the blank space provided for that purpose in the ballot, but puts no cross mark after it, such vote must be counted for that purpose. East Norwegian Twp's. Primary Election, 1 D & C, 415 (1921).

If a voter indicates his choice by written words or any other marks than an X after a candidate's name, it is illegal and must be rejected. John's Appeal, 63 Pitts. 577.

Section 613. Specimen Ballots. With the official ballots to be furnished in advance of the primaries, the county commissioners shall also furnish and deliver to the election officers, specimen ballots for the use of electors at the polls, equal in number to one-fifth the whole number of such official ballots, said specimen ballots to be printed on colored paper, and to be of the same size and form as the official ballots, but without any permanent binding or stubs. On the Wednesday preceding every primary, the county commissioners shall, upon request made at their office, there deliver to each candidate whose name is printed on any party ballot, or to his authorized representative, without charge, three specimen ballots of such party for each election district in the county or city or political district thereof in which such candidate may be voted for, for the use of such candidate and the watchers whom he may appoint as hereinafter provided.

On the back of each specimen ballot for the primary next preceding the election of a President of the United States, the county commissioners shall print section five hundred and four of article five.

Part of Sec. 10, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 839.

Section 614. Forms of Ballot on File and Open to Public Inspection. The county commissioners shall have on file in their office, on and after the Wednesday preceding the primary, open to public inspection, forms of the ballots with the names and such statements and notations as may be required by the provisions of this article, printed thereon, which shall be used in each election district within such county.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 615. Commissioners to Furnish Ballot Boxes and Election Supplies. In addition to official and specimen ballots as aforesaid, the county commissioners shall prepare and furnish to the election officers in due time for use at the primaries, (a) sufficient ballot boxes and other election materials, properly numbered for each election district, including the assessor's lists or registers known as the "ballot check list" and the "voting check list" repsectively; (b) blank forms, including forms for the duplicate oaths of the election officers, and forms of affidavits for electors desiring assistance in marking their ballots, and for those challenged as to their identity, party membership, residence, or bribery, to make proof of their right to vote; (c) blank tally papers and triplicate return sheets for each party; (d) blank statements for general returns of all votes cast; (e) blank books for making lists of persons voting, with sufficient space for noting their party enrollments; (f) printed instructions and notices of penalties for the information of electors and election officers; and (g) such other supplies as they are, or hereafter may be, required by law to furnish to said election officers for use at elections, and shall deliver them in the same manner as at elections.

The said forms, blanks, books, and other supplies shall have printed upon them appropriate instructions, and shall be in appropriate form for use at the primaries.

The county commissioners shall also provide for the opening of the polling places and for the compensation of the owners thereof, and shall see that they are in proper order and provided with voting booths, as at elections.

The county commissioners shall provide each election district with cards of instructions as aforesaid, equal in number to one-fifth of the whole number of official ballots furnished thereto, on which shall be printed section two hundred fifty, sections seven hundred and fourteen to seven hundred and sixteen inclusive, and sections seven hundred and eighteen to seven hundred and twenty-three inclusive, of this act, and such other directions regarding the marking and counting of ballots or the general election laws, not inconsistent herewith, as the county commissioners think proper.

Part of Sec. 10, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 839.

Sec. 10 of the Act of July 12, 1913, as above amended, required to be printed on the cards of instructions, the last paragraph of Sec. 11 of said act, all of Sec. 13, and the part of Sec. 14 which relates to the duties of election officers after the closing of the polls. We have herein substituted for such references the sections of this compilation which contains the provisions of said sections, and parts of sections or which supplies and repeals such provisions. The last paragraph of Sec. 11 relating to assistance to voters has been supplied and repealed by Sec. 26, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 363; this is found in Sec. 250 of this compilation, and is herein substituted for said portion of Sec. 11. Secs. 715 and 716 which we have referred to in this section instead of Sec. 13, Act of 1913, P. L. 719, contain the provisions of said section relating to qualifications and challenges of voters at primaries and also small portions of other acts inserted for the purpose of clarifying and making said section complete as to those subjects.

ARTICLE VII

THE PRIMARY ELECTION

Section 700. Nomination of Party Candidates. Election of Party Delegates. Party Officers and State Committeemen. Hereafter all candidates of political parties for the office of the United States Senator, for the office of Representative in Congress, for elective State, county, city, ward, borough, town, township, school district poor district and election divisions or district offices and for all other elective public offices, except that of presidental elector, shall be nominated, and delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions, State committeemen, and party officers, shall be elected, at primary elections held in accordance with the provisions of this act, and in no other manner.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1917, P. L. 244.

Section 701. Political Parties Defined. Any political party or body of electors, one of whose candidates at the general election next preceding the primary polled in each of at least ten counties of the State not less than two per centum of the largest entire vote cast in each of said counties for any elected candidate, and polled a total vote in the State equal to at least two per centum of the largest entire vote cast in the State for any elected candidate, is hereby declared to be a "political party" within the State; and shall nominate all its candidates for any of the offices provided for in this act at the primary election; and shall elect its delegates and alternate delegates to the National convention, State committeemen, and also such party officers, including members of the National committee, as its rules provide shall be elected by a vote of the party electors, in accordance with the provisions of this article at the primary election.

Any political party or body of electors, one of whose candidates at either the general or municipal election preceding the primary, polled at least five per centum of the largest entire vote cast for any elected candidate in any county, is hereby declared to be "political party" within said county; and shall nominate all its candidates for office in such county and in all political districts within said county, or of which said county forms a part, and shall elect such party officers as its rules provide shall be elected therein by a vote of the party electors, in accordance with the provisions of this article at the primary election.

Sec. 2, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 702. Annual Primary Elections. Dates. One primary election shall be held each year in every election district of this Commonwealth in which nominations are to be made, or delegates and alternate delegates to national party conventions, State committeemen, or party officers, including members of the National committee, are to be elected as herein provided.

The said primaries shall be held on the third Tuesday of September in all odd-numbered years, and on the third Tuesday of May in all even-numbered years, except in the year of the nomination of a President of the United States, in which year the primary shall be held on the fourth Tuesday of April. The primary held on the third Tuesday of September shall be known as the fall primary, and the primaries held on the third Tuesday of May and the fourth Tuesday of April shall be known as the spring primaries.

Part of Sec. 3, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 18, 1923, P. L. 256. (This section was previously amended by the Acts of 1917, P. L. 753, and 1919, P. L. 836).

Section 703. General Election Laws to Govern Primaries. Primaries shall be conducted in conformity with the laws governing the conduct of general elections, in so far as the same are not modified by the provisions of this article or are not inconsistent with its terms.

Part of Sec. 11, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 704. Nomination of Judges. All judges of the Supreme Court and Superior Court shall be nominated on party tickets at party primaries in any year, in the same manner and subject to the same laws in all respects as govern the nomination of other State officers nominated by the voters of political parties in the State at large.

All judges of courts of record, elected in any county or judicial district, shall be nominated on party tickets at party primaries in odd-numbered years, in the same manner and subject to the same laws in all respects as govern the [election] nomination of members of the General Assembly.

Part of Secs. 1 and 2, Act of May 10, 1921, P. L. 423. The part eliminated will be found in the article on conduct of general and municipal elections.

Section 705. Election of State Committeemen by Senatorial Districts. All State committeemen shall be elected by Senatorial districts. Each Senatorial district shall be entitled to elect two members of the State committee, except where a Senatorial district is composed of more than one county or part of a county; in which event the electors residing in each county or part of a county embraced in the said Senatorial district, shall be entitled to elect one State committeeman.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1917, P. L. 244.

Section 706. Election of Party Officers. National Committeemen. All such party officers as are required by the rules of the several political parties to be elected by the vote of the party electors, shall be elected at primaries held in accordance with the provisions of this act, excepting members of the national committee who shall be elected by the State committee of each respective party, unless the rules of the national party otherwise provide; in which case they shall be elected in the manner provided by rules of the national party.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1917, P. L. 244.

Section 707. Presidential Preference Votes. In the years when candidates for the office of President of the United States are to be nominated, every qualified elector of a political party shall have opportunity at the primaries held in such years, subject to the provisions of this article, to vote his preference for one person to be the candidate of his political party for President.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1917, P. L. 244.

Section 708. Article Not to Apply to Special Elections. Exceptions. Nominations by Nomination Papers Preserved. This article shall not apply to the nomination of candidates to be voted for at special elections to fill vacancies, except when such special election is held at the time of a regular election, and such vacancy occurred or existed at least sixty days prior to the regular primary antecedent to such regular elections.

Nothing contained in this article shall prevent any body of electors, not constituting a political party, from nominating candidates by nomination papers, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1917, P. L. 244.
For nominations by nomination papers, see Art. X.
Any existing office without an incumbent is a vacancy in the meaning of this act. Com. v. McAfee 232 Pa. 36.

Section 709. Candidates Nominated at Spring and Fall Primaries. Candidates for all offices to be filled at the general election shall be nominated at the spring primary. Delegates and alternate delegates to national party conventions, State committeemen, and such party officers, including members of the national committee, as are required by the rules of the several political parties to be elected by a vote of the party electors, shall be elected at the spring primary, except as otherwise provided in this act. The vote for candidates for the office of President of the United States as herein provided for, shall be cast at the spring primary.

Candidates for all offices to be filled at the municipal election shall be nominated at the fall primary.

Part of Sec. 3, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 18, 1923, P. L. 256.

Section 710. Regular Election Boards to Conduct Primaries. The primaries shall be conducted by the regular election boards, duly elected under existing or future laws, who shall receive the same compensation for their services as they receive at elections. Inspectors of elections shall have the right to appoint clerks to assist them as at elections, who shall receive the same compensation that clerks receive for such services at elections. Vacancies in election boards shall be filled in the manner provided by this act. Before entering upon their duties the election officers and clerks shall be sworn, and execute written oaths as required by this act in the case of elections.

Part of Sec. 11, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.
It seems under this section the return judges should receive for making returns of municipal primaries the same pay as for municipal elections, i. e. $2 per day, and six cents per mile, while for making returns of general primaries they should receive the same as for general elections, which is $1.50 per day and 10 cents per mile.

Section 711. Time For Opening and Closing of Polls. Liquor Selling Prohibited. The polls shall be open between the hours of seven o'clock ante meridian and seven o'clock post medirian. All persons licensed to sell liquors either at wholesale or retail, or as bottlers, shall be compelled to keep their places of business closed on said days for holding said primary, only between the hours of six o'clock ante meridian and eight o'clock post meridian.

Part of Sec. 11, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.
Recommended: That the clause relative to persons licensed to sell liquors, be eliminated as of no importance under present conditions.

Section 712. Election Officers to Post and Distribute Cards of Instructions. The election officers shall post at least three cards of instructions furnished by the county commissioners, in the voting room, outside of the guard-rail, as soon as the polls are open, and thereafter give such cards to such persons desiring to vote as shall request the same.

Part of Sec. 10, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 839.

Section 713. Use of Registers in Cities at Primaries. Return Thereof by Election Officers. The two registers for each election division in cities shall be used at primaries by the election officers in the place of the ballot check list and the voting check list. One of said registers shall be marked "ballot check list" and the other "voting check list." After the polls are closed the names of all electors in each register, checked as having voted, shall be immediately counted and the results compared and announced, and the cause of any differences ascertained, if possible, before the ballot box is opened. The two registers shall be immediately sealed in an envelope and shall be returned, (a) in cities of the first class, to the custody of the registration commission by the majority inspector before four post meridian on the second day following each primary, (b) in cities of the second class, to the custody of the registration commissioners when the ballot box and other election returns are delivered to the proper officers, and (c) in cities of the third class, to the custody of the county commissioners when the ballot boxes and other election returns are delivered to the proper officers.

Section 714. General Qualifications of Electors at Primaries. Qualifications of electors entitled to vote at a primary shall be the same as the qualifications of the electors entitled to vote at elections within the election district where the primary is held, except that with respect to the payment of taxes it shall be sufficient if an elector shall have paid, within two years before the next succeeding election, a State or county tax which shall have been assessed at least two months before the said election and paid on or before the day of the primary, and in cases where personal registration is required, on or before the registration day on which the elector registers.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 635.

Section 715. Qualifications and Challenges at the Primary in Cities. Any elector of any city, duly registered and enrolled as a member of a political party, may vote the ballot of said party at the primary election succeeding such registration without being subject to any challenge except as to residence and identity.

No elector registered and enrolled as a member of any one political party in any city, shall be allowed to receive or vote the ballot of any other political party at the primary election.

No elector who is not enrolled as a member of a political party in a city, shall be entitled to vote a party ballot at any primary election.

The presence of any person's name on the register of any election district in any city shall not be conclusive evidence of his qualifications as to length of residence and identity, and if challenged he shall sign his name in the register marked "ballot check list" or on the space in the register provided for that purpose, and produce such other evidence as is or may be required by the law relating to general elections, to satisfy the election officers of his identity and residence.

Secs. 715 and 716 should be carefully considered. They were drafted to simplify the law as to challenges and they are believed to state the present law as found in the several laws relating to the subject, to wit: the primary act part of Sec. 13, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 635, and the several personal registration acts, to wit: Sec. 49, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857 (first class); Sec. 17, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977 (second class); Sec. 13, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as amended by Sec. 6, Act of July 6, 1917, P. L. 738 (third class); and Secs. 6 and 9 of the enrollment act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043.

The law is clear that in cities of the first and second classes the registration and enrollment are conclusive as to party; see Johnson's Nomination 27 Dist. 710 (1918). All the registration acts seem to infer challenges only as to residence and identity, and in Sec. 6, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043, (the party enrollment act) provisions for challenges at primaries as to party enrollment are limited to districts other than in cities of the first, second and third classes.

It is a fact that age, citizenship and tax payments must be proved before registration, and there could therefore be no challenge at the primary for these causes. The election board has before it the registers which establish the voter's qualifications as to age, citizenship, tax payment and party.

The above is an excellent example of the condition of our election laws.

Section 716. Qualifications and Challenges at the Primary in Boroughs, Towns, and Townships. Any elector duly registered and enrolled as a member of a political party in any borough, town or township, if otherwise qualified, may vote the ballot of said party at the primary election.

No elector registered and enrolled as a member of any one political party in any borough, town, or township, shall be allowed to receive or vote the ballot of any other political party at the primary election.

No elector who is not enrolled as a member of some political party shall be permitted to vote a party ballot at any primary election in any borough, town, or township, except one who is twenty-one years of age and under twenty-two, whose name does not appear on the registry of voters, and who has all the other qualifications to vote except as to the payment of taxes. In such cases the elector may declare his party preference and prove his right to vote in the same manner as he would be called upon to do at a general election, whereupon he shall be entitled to vote the ballot of such party.

Each elector at the primary election in a borough, town, or township, may be challenged, and if challenged, shall prove his qualifications and his identity in the same manner as now required by law at general elections. If an elector in a borough, town, or township is challenged at the primary as to party enrollment he shall make an oath or affirmation that at the last preceding November election at which he voted, he voted for a majority of the candidates of that party, and in such cases the group of presidential electors shall be counted as two candidates; if unable or unwilling to make such affidavit, he shall be denied the right to receive such ballot, but he shall not be deemed to be guilty of any violation or attempted violation of any law by reason of having asked for a ballot of the party with which he is enrolled.

Drafted from Secs. 6 and 9, Act of July 25, 1913, P. L. 1043, and part of Sec. 13, of the Primary Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 635.
This section has been limited to boroughs, towns and townships, as it appears in such districts, challenges at the primary may be exercised the same as at general elections with the additional challenge as to party. See Note to Sec. 715.

Section 717. Errors in Marking Ballots. Failure to Tear Off Corner. The voter may designate his choice as is indicated by the instructions shown on the form of ballot hereinbefore set forth. If he shall vote for more persons for any office than there are candidates to be nominated or elected for such office, or if, for any reason, it may be impossible to determine his choice for any office, his ballot shall not be counted for such office, but the rest of his ballot, if properly marked, shall be counted.

Any ballot deposited in a ballot box without having the upper right hand corner thereof upon which the number is printed, torn off, shall be void, but otherwise no ballot shall be rejected for any technical error which does not render it impossible to determine the voter's choice.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 18, 1915, P. L. 1025, and Sec. 5, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 627.
Where a voter writes a name in the blank space provided for that purpose on the ballot, but puts no cross mark after it, such vote must be counted for that person. East Norwegian Twp's. Primary, 1 D. & C., 415.
If a voter indicates his choice by written words or any mark other than an X opposite a candidate's name it must be rejected, John's Appeal, 63 Pitts. 577 (1915).

Section 718. Detaching Official Ballots From Stubs. No official ballot shall be taken or detached from its stub in any book of ballots, except by an election officer when a person desiring to vote has been found to be a qualified elector entitled to vote. Not more than one ballot shall be removed at any one time or given to any voter, except when a voter inadvertently spoils a ballot and immediately returns it to the election officers for cancellation, in which case he may be given another ballot. Any person removing any ballot from any book of official ballots, except in the manner aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court, for each offense.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 635.

Section 719. Duties of Election Officers at the Primary After the Close of Poll. Upon the closing of the polls at the primary election, and before the ballot boxes are opened, the number of ballots issued to the voters of each party, as shown by the stubs, and the number of ballots of each party, if any, spoiled and returned by voters and canceled, shall be announced to all present in the voting room and entered on the general return sheets aforesaid. Then the names checked as having voted in the two assessor's lists or registers, marked "ballot check list" and "voting check list" respectively, shall be immediately counted, and the result announced and compared with the number of ballots issued as above ascertained, after deducting the number spoiled and canceled, and said results shall also be compared with the number of names written in the numbered lists of voters, which shall be made as at elections, as the electors receive and cast their ballots, with the addition of a note of each elector's party enrollment after his name. If any differences exist which are not found to be due merely to clerical errors, such differences shall also be noted on the general return sheets aforesaid. Then the numbered lists of voters (except a copy of the latter which shall be hung outside of the polling place), shall be placed in the separate envelopes provided for them respectively, and sealed.

In cities the voting and ballot check lists shall be put in one envelope and sealed, and subsequently delivered to the registration commission or county commisisoners as hereinbefore required.

The stubs of all ballots used, together with all unused ballots and all spoiled and canceled ballots of each party, and the ballot check list in boroughs, towns and townships, shall be placed in a separate envelope, and sealed before the ballot boxes are opened; which package shall be kept by the judge, and delivered by him in person to the county commissioners, at such place as they shall designate on or before noon of the Thursday following the primary election.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920. (This section was previously amended by Sec. 4, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 839; Sec. 1, Act of May 17, 1921, P. L. 669; and in part by Sec. 1, Act of May 21, 1923, P. L. 293).

Section 720. Count of Ballots at the Primary. As soon as all the ballots of each party have been properly accounted for, and those outside the ballot boxes, as well as the said lists, sealed as aforesaid, the election officers shall forthwith open the ballot boxes and take therefrom all ballots therein, and separate the same according to the party to which they belong, and first, audibly count the number cast for each party, one by one, and make a record thereof. Then the judge or one of the inspectors, in the presence of the other officers, shall read aloud the names marked or inserted upon each ballot keeping the ballots of each party in sequence, together with the office for which the person named is a candidate, and any other relevant matter necessary to identify him, and the clerks shall carefully enter each vote as read, and keep account of the same in triplicate tally papers for each party, to be provided as aforesaid.

All ballots after being removed from the box shall be kept within the unobstructed view of all persons in the voting room until replaced in said box. No person, while handling the ballots shall have in his hand any pencil, pen, stamp, or othe means of making or spoiling any ballot.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 721. Preparation of Triplicate and General Returns by Election Officers. Posting Return. Proclamation. When the vote cast for the different persons named upon said party ballots shall have been fully recorded on the tally papers and counted, the election officers shall duly certify to the number of votes cast for each person upon the respective party tickets, and shall prepare triplicate returns thereof for each party, and also general returns in duplicate, showing, besides the entries made thereon, as aforesaid, the number of ballots of each party cast and the number of ballots of each party declared altogether void, including any blank ballots cast, as well as the votes cast for each candidate on each party ticket. One of which statements shall be immediately posted for the information of the public outside the voting room or voting place, and the other of which shall be entrusted to the judge for delivery to the county commissioners, with the package of unused ballots et cetera aforesaid.

As soon as the vote is counted it shall be publicly and fully declared from the window of the election room to the citizens present.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 3, Act of July 29, 1923, P. L. 920; and part of Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 14, 1915, P. L. 122.

Section 722. Locking and Sealing Ballot Boxes. Papers to Be Deposited Therein. Delivery of Box. The election officers shall then replace the ballots cast, so counted and canvassed, in the boxes, including those declared void, together with one set of tally papers, one set of said triplicate return sheets, one numbered list of voters sealed as aforesaid, (and the voting check lists in districts other than cities), and one oath of each election officer, and lock and seal each ballot box so that nothing can be inserted therein until it be opened again; and the judge and minority inspector shall deliver them to the place which has been designated by the court of common pleas or by law, for the delivery of ballot boxes at general and municipal elections, on or before noon of the Thursday following such primary, and the county commissioners or return board shall not compute any returns from any election district until the ballot boxes thereof, as well as the package of unused ballots et cetera, are delivered as aforesaid.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 723. Papers to Be Retained by Minority Inspector. Sealing Returns and Delivery by Judge. The minority inspector, shall retain one complete set of tally papers, and one of the triplicate return sheets for each party, and one set of the affidavits of voters and other persons, except oaths of election officers, made pursuant to the provisions of this article at such primary, and carefully preserve the same for the period of at least one year. The remaining tally papers, triplicate return sheets, and affidavits of voters and others, including oaths of election officers, shall be placed in separate envelopes to be provided for the same, and sealed as soon as the count is finally completed. All of such envelopes and the other numbered list of voters, previously sealed as aforesaid, shall be entrusted to the judge of election, and shall, on or before noon of the Thursday following, be deposited by him, in person or by registered mail, with the county commissioners.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 724. Expenses of Holding Primaries to Be Paid by County. Each county of this Commonwealth shall be required to bear and pay the expenses of holding the primary elections in said county.

The county commissioners shall keep an accurate account of the entire expense of holding such primaries, including the preparation and delivery of supplies, voting material et cetera, and the total amount shall be paid by the county treasurer, upon the order of the county commissioners.

Part of Sec. 12, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, and Sec. 1, Act of May 28, 1915, P. L. 638. The latter act repeals the omitted part of Sec. 12, Act of 1913.

ARTICLE VIII

PRIMARY ELECTION RETURNS. NOMINEES. CERTIFICATION

Section 800. General Returns to Be Open For Inspection. The general returns from the various districts at the primary election shall be open to public inspection at the office of the county commissioners as soon as they receive the same from the judges thereof.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 801. Constitution of the Return Board. The county commissioners shall constitute the return board at primary elections, except that, if any of the county commissioners of any county shall be a candidate for any nomination at a primary, he shall not act as a member of the return board for computing or canvassing any returns of such primary, but the other two commissioners, if both are qualified, shall act. In case in any county there are not at least two commissioners so qualified, two or more judges of the court of common pleas of such county shall be designated by said court to act as the return board, provided that neither of them are candidates for any nomination at such primary; and if there shall be only one judge of such court in such county, or if less than two judges are qualified and able to act in such county, any judge who is qualified may act alone, and, if there be none qualified, the prothonotary of such county shall act as the return board, and if the prothonotary shall be a candidate at the primary, then the sheriff of the county shall act as the return board.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of May 21, 1923, P. L. 293, and part of Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920, consolidated. Both of said acts amending Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

This section does not disqualify a county commissioner who is a candidate for State committeeman of his party from serving as a member of return board at a primary. McGovern v. Armstrong, 76 Pitts. 340 (1928).

Section 802. County Commissioners to Provide Meeting Place For Return Board. Accommodations For Representatives of Candidates. Notice. The county commissioners shall provide a convenient public place for holding the sessions of the return board, whoever may compose it as aforesaid, with adequate accommodations for the authorized representatives of each party and candidate concerned in any such primary, not exceeding two such representatives for each of them at any one time, to attend and to keep or check up their own computation of the votes cast in the several election districts as the returns from the same are read as hereinafter directed.

The county commissioners shall give at least one week's previous notice by advertising once in at least two newspapers of a large paid circulation, published at the county seat, if so many be published there, of the time aforesaid and place when and where such return board will commence and hold its sessions, and keep copies of such advertisement posted in their office during said period.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 803. County Commissioners to Prepare Blank Forms. At noon on the Friday following the primary election, the county commissioners shall have ready a sufficient number of blank forms of returns, made out in a proper manner and headed as the nature of the ballots may require, for making out full and fair statements of all votes which shall have been given, within the county or any political district therein, according to the returns from the several election districts thereof, for any person voted for therein for any party nomination or party office.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 804. Clerks to Be Sworn. All the clerks of the county commissioners and other persons assisting in the computation and canvassing of the votes shall be first sworn to perform their duties impartially and not to read, write, count, or certify any return or vote falsely or fraudulently.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 805. When Return Board to Meet. The return board shall, at noon on the Friday succeeding the primary election, publicly commence the computation and canvassing of the returns, and continue the same from day to day until completed in the manner hereinafter provided.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of May 21, 1923, P. L. 293, and part of Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920, consolidated; both amending Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 806. Opening Sealed Returns. Comparison of Ballots Cast and Issued. Errors. None of the envelopes sealed by election officers, and entrusted to the judges of election shall be opened by any person, except by order of the return board or of the court of common pleas.

The general returns made by the election officers from the various election districts shall be read one after another in the usual order, slowly and audibly, by one of the clerks who shall in each case read therefrom the number of ballots of each party issued, spoiled, and canceled, and cast respectively, whereupon the clerk having charge of the records of the county commissioners showing the number of ballots of each party furnished for each election district and the number of stubs and unused ballots and spoiled and canceled ballots returned, shall publicly announce the number of same respectively; and unless it appears by said numbers or calculations therefrom that said records and the said general return correspond, no further returns shall be read from the latter until all the ballots issued are fully accounted for.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 807. Reading Returns. Correction of Discrepancies. Opening Ballot Boxes. Summoning Election Officers. When the records agree with the said returns, regarding the ballots, the votes recorded for each candidate on each party ticket shall be read by the said clerk slowly, audibly, and in an orderly manner, from the said returns, and the figures announced shall be compared by other clerks with the return sheets of each party for the respective districts, and discrepancies shall be immediately called to the attention of the return board, which shall thereupon compare said return sheets with the tally papers for the same election district respecting the same candidates or party ballots, and if the tally papers and party return sheets agree, the general return shall be forthwith corrected to conform thereto, but, in every other case the return board shall forthwith cause the ballot box of such division to be brought before it and opened under its direction, and the ballots therein recounted respecting any vote in question, in the presence of representatives of each party and candidate interested who are attending the canvass of such votes, and if such recount shall not be sufficient to correct the error in any of the said returns, the return board may summon the election officers and overseers, if any, to appear forthwith with all election papers in their possession, and the court of common pleas shall use its processes to enforce such summons if necessary. If any error or fraud is discovered, the return board shall compute and certify the votes justly, regardless of any fraudulent or erroneous returns presented to it, and report the facts to the district attorney of the proper county for action in cases that appear to warrant same.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 808. Final Computation of Returns. Certification Thereof. Appeals. As the returns from each election district are read, computed, and found to be correct or corrected as aforesaid, they shall be recorded on the blanks prepared for the purpose of casting up the total vote of each candidate on each party ticket, until all the returns from the various election districts which are entitled to be counted shall have been duly recorded, when they shall be added together, announced and attested by the clerks who made and computed the entries respectively, and at the expiration of five days after the completion of said computation, the return board shall certify the several returns accordingly to the county commissioners, unless upon appeals taken from any decision, the court of common pleas shall have directed any returns to be revised, in which case such returns shall be revised and certified accordingly.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 809. Appeals to Court From Decisions of the Return Board. Any person aggrieved by any order or decision of any return board, not consisting of a judge or judges of the court of common pleas, regarding the computation or canvassing of the returns, may appeal therefrom, within two days thereafter, to the court of common pleas of the proper county, setting forth why he feels that an injustice has been done, and praying for such order as will give him relief. Upon the payment to the prothonotary of a fee of three dollars for filing such appeal, a judge of the said court shall fix a time and place for hearing the matter in dispute within three days thereafter, of which due notice shall be served, with a copy of such appeal, by the appellant upon one of the return board whose action is complained of, and upon every attorney who opposed the contention of the appellant before such return board, and upon any other person that said judge shall direct, at least two days before said matter shall be reviewed by the court. Proof of such notice or the waiver thereof must be filed therein before any appeal is sustained.

That part of Sec. 15, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 25, 1921, P. L. 1125, which relates to opening of ballot boxes, has been omitted as supplied by Article XIV.
The appeal allowed under this section must be an appeal from specific orders or decisions of the return board, not from a general result of the court. Erie County Republican Nomination, 30 Dist. 631 (1921). On such appeal the court's power is limited the computation and canvassing of votes, and it can pass only on error or fraud appearing on the ballots or return sheets. Eighteenth Congresional Dist. 5 Northumberland 404 (1922).

Section 810. Power of Courts on Appeals. Contests. Appeals Final. Costs. The court on an appeal as hereinbefore provided shall have full power and authority to hear and determine all matters pertaining to any fraud or error committed in any election district to which such appeal relates, and to make such decree as right and justice may require. Pending such appeal, the return board shall suspend any official certification of the votes cast in such election district.

None of the orders or decisions of either the return board or any judge or judges, acting as a return board or the court of common pleas on any appeal, shall be deemed a final adjudication regarding the results of any primary election so as to preclude any contest thereof.

Contests of primaries shall originate and be conducted as in cases of elections.

No appeal shall be allowed from any decision of any judge or judges acting as a return board or from any order or decree of the court of common pleas made in pursuance of this section. The court may compel the appellant or any opposing party other than the commissioners or prothonotary, to pay all the witnesses fees, if any, and other legal costs of rehearing any matter in dispute, which costs may be taxed by the prothonotary in the usual manner.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 25, 1921, P. L. 1125.
The powers of the court as found in this section were given in the cases of opening of ballot boxes as well as appeals but has been eliminated as to opening of ballot boxes as it seems this section was repealed as to such powers by the Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 360. See Article XIV.

Section 811. Returns in Judicial, Congressional and Senatorial Districts. In the case of the nomination of judges, representatives in Congress of the United States and State Senators in judicial, congressional and senatorial districts composed of two or more counties, or parts of two or more counties, or of one or more counties and a part or parts of one or more counties, or a single county to which one or more counties are attached, returns at primary elections shall be made and computed and certificates thereof be made as now provided by the laws of the Commonwealth apportioning the State into judicial, congressional and senatorial districts.

Drafted as a reference to returns provided for in the several apportionment acts, and in the Act of May 10, 1921, P. L. 423, changing the system for the election of judges from the non-partisan to the party system.

Section 812. Records to Be Preserved and Open to Inspection. All the stubs and unused ballots, spoiled and canceled ballots, as well as the other election returns aforesaid, considered by the return board, shall be open to public inspection, and shall be carefully preserved together with the contents of the ballot box, by the county commissioners for at least eleven months, and not destroyed in any event without the previous consent in writing by the district attorney.

Part of Sec. 14, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 29, 1923, P. L. 920.

Section 813. Which Candidates Nominated. Candidates of the various political parties for nomination, except for the office of President of the United States, who receive a plurality of votes of their party electors in the State, or in the political districts or division, as the case may be, at the primary election, together with the candidates for the office of presidential elector nominated as hereinafter provided, shall be candidates of their respective parties; and it shall be the duty of the proper officers to print their names upon the official ballots of the succeeding election.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 814. Party Nominees For United States Senator. The name of the person in each political party who receives at a primary a plurality of the votes of such party in the State at large for United States Senator, shall be printed upon the official ballots for use at the succeeding election as the candidate of his party for said office, under the heading "United States Senator."

Part of Sec. 17, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 815. Delegates Elected to National Conventions. Candidates of the various political parties for the office of delegates and alternate delegates at large to a National party convention, who receive a plurality of the votes of their party electors in the State at large, shall be the duly elected delegates and alternate delegates at large to the National Convention of their respective parties. Candidates of the various political parties for the office of delegate and alternate delegate, other than delegate and alternate delegate at large, who receive a plurality of the votes of their party electors in the political district or division in which they are candidates, shall be duly elected delegates and alternate delegates to the National Convention of their respective parties.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 816. Who Shall Be Declared Elected Members of National or State Committee and Party Officers. Candidates of the various political parties for the office of member of the State committee, or for the office of member of the National Committee, in cases where the rules of the party provide that such office shall be filled by a vote of the party electors, who receive a plurality of the votes of the party electors at a primary, shall be the duly elected members of the State or National Committee, as the case may be, of their respective parties.

Candidates for other party offices, who receive a plurality of the votes of the party electors at a primary, shall be the party officers of their respective parties.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 817. Nominee in Case of Tie Vote. In the case of a tie the candidates receiving the tie vote shall cast lots before the county commissioners or the Secretary of the Commonwealth as the case may be, on the third Friday after the primary, and the one to whom the lot shall fall shall be entitled to the nomination or election. In any case where the fact of a tie vote is not authoritatively determined until after the third Wednesday after the primary, the day for casting lots shall be the second day after the fact of such tie vote is authoritatively determined. If any candidate or candidates, receiving a tie vote, fail to appear before twelve o'clock noon on said day, the county commissioners or the Secretary of the Commonwealth, as the case may be, shall cast lots for him or them. For the purpose of casting lots any candidate may appear in person, or by proxy appointed in writing.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 818. County Commissioners to Certify Certain Votes to Secretary of the Commonwealth. The county commissioners shall make the proper certification of returns of votes cast for the candidates of the various political parties for nomination for the office of President of the United States, Senator of the United States, member of the House of Representatives of the United States, for all State offices, for all judges elected at large and in judicial districts, for the office of delegate and alternate delegate to a National party convention, and member of the National Committee and members of the State committee, to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, who shall tabulate the same and shall certify to the county commissioners of the respective counties the result of the computation of the vote for all such offices as shall be voted for at the succeeding election, at least thirty days prior to the date of such election; [and shall also certify, within said time, to said county commissioners, the names of the Presidential electors chosen and certified to him.]

Part of Sec. 16, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.
We have added to this section the words "judges elected at large and in judicial districts." This seems desirable by reason of the abolition of the non-partisan system of electing judges.
We have placed brackets around the last two lines of this section as it seems unnecessary to have the names of the presidential electors certified to the county commissioners since such names are no longer printed on the ballots by reason of the Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 628.

Section 819. Secretary of the Commonwealth to Certify Votes of National Delegates and State Committeemen. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall also forthwith ascertain from said returns the persons in each political party who have been duly elected as delegates and alternate delegates to the National Convention of such party, and the persons in each party who have been duly elected members of the National Committee or State Committee of the party, and shall forthwith issue to each of such persons a certificate of election, which certificate of election, in the case of delegate and alternate delegate to a National party convention, shall show the number of votes received in the State, or in the political district of the State, as the case may be, by each candidate of such delegate's and alternate delegate's political party for nomination as President of the United States. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall also certify to the State chairman of each respective party, the votes cast for each candidate for the office of State committeeman.

Part of Sec. 16, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 820. Secretary of the Commonwealth to Certify Presidential Votes by Congressional Districts. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall forthwith prepare a statement from said returns, showing the total number of votes cast in the State, and in each Congressional district of the State, for each candidate of each political party for nomination as President of the United States, and shall make public announcement thereof. He shall also forthwith send a duplicate of such statement to the county commissioners of each county.

Part of Sec. 16, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

ARTICLE IX

ORGANIZATION OF STATE COMMITTEE

Section 900. Organization of State Committee. The State committeemen elected, at the spring primary, shall meet for organization not later than the fifth Wednesday following their election, at such hour and place as shall be designated by the State chairman of each political party.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1917, P. L. 244.

Section 901. Rules of State Committee. The State committee of each political party may make such rulues for the government of such State committee, not inconsistent with law, as it may deem expedient; and may also revoke, alter or amend, in any manner, not inconsistent with law, any present or future rules of such State committee.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1917, P. L. 244.

Section 902. Election of National Committeemen. National committeemen shall be elected, and vacancies happening at any time in said office shall be filled, by the State committee of the respective party, unless the rules of the National party otherwise provide; in which case such committeemen shall be elected and vacancies be filled in the manner provided by the rules of the National party.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1917, P. L. 244.

Section 903. Filling of Vacancies in State Committee. Vacancies happening at any time in the office of State committeeman shall be filled by the city or county committee of the respective parties. When said vacancy occurs in a county composed of more than one Senatorial district, the members of the city or county committee, embraced within the Senatorial district in said county, shall elect said committeeman; and when a vacancy occurs in a Senatorial district composed of more than one county or part of a county, the members of the county committees, embraced within said county or part of a county shall elect said committeeman.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1917, P. L. 244.

ARTICLE X

NOMINATION PAPERS. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS. WITHDRAWAL OF CANDIDATES. SUBSTITUTED NOMINATIONS.

(a) Nomination Papers

Section 1000. Nomination by Nomination Papers. In addition to the nominations made at the primary election, nominations of candidates for any public office may also be made by nomination papers by any body of electors not constituting a political party as defined in Article VII, such papers to be signed by qualified electors of the State or of the electoral district or division thereof for which the nomination is made, and filed in the proper office as provided by this article.

Where the nomination is for any office to be filled by the voters of the State at large, the number of qualified electors of the State signing such nomination paper shall be at least one-half of one per centum of the largest vote cast for any officer elected in the State at the last preceding election at which a State officer was voted for. In the case of all other nominations, the number of qualified electors of the electoral district or division signing such nomination paper shall be at least two per centum of the largest entire vote cast for any officer elected at the last preceding election in the said electoral district or division for which said nomination papers are designed to be made.

Each elector signing a nomination paper shall add to his signature his place of residence and occupation, and no person may subscribe to more than one nomination for each office to be filled. The signatures to each nomination paper and the qualification of the signers shall be vouched for by the affidavit of at least five of the signers thereof, which affidavit shall accompany the nomination paper.

Blank forms for making such nomination shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and no other form than the ones so prescribed shall be used for such purposes.

Part of Sec. 3, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 855. This section was previously amended by the Act of 1897, P. L. 223.

When more than one sheet of paper is used, they must be the blank forms furnished by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. Com. v. Martin, 22 C. C. 316 (1898).

Section 1, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, which provides that any body of electors not constituting a political party may nominate candidates by nomination papers as now is or may hereafter be provided by law, does not prevent electors who were registered and voted in another party at the preceding primary, from nominating candidates under the above section. Tracey's Nomination 23 Dist. 888 (1913).

Section 1001. Contents of Nomination Papers. Restriction on Names. All nomination papers shall specify (a) the party or policy which such candidate represents, expressed in not more than three words, in the case of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, the names of the candidates for President and Vice-President shall be added to the party or political appellation; (b) the name of each candidate nominated therein, his profession, business or occupation, if any, and his place of residence with street and number thereon, if any; and (c) the office for which such candidate is nominated.

No words shall be used in any nomination papers to describe or designate the party or policy or political appellation, represented by the candidate named in such nomination papers as aforesaid, identical with the words used for the like purpose by any political party required by this act to make its nomination of candidates at the primary election. Any objections filed to a nomination paper on account of the party or political appellation used therein or involving the right as defined by this article to file such paper, shall be decided by the court of common pleas on hearing as provided in this article in the case of objections to nomination papers.

Part of Sec. 4, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of July 9, 1897, P. L. 223. The first sentence of the second paragraph is a rewording of the proviso found in the said section.

The three words allowed to express the party or policy of the candidates may be three words exclusive of the word "party." Young's case 15 North. 113 (1915).

Section 1002. Filing of Nomination Papers. Nomination papers for candidates for the offices of Presidential electors and Members of the Senate and of the House of Representatives of the United States and for State offices, including those of judges, senators and representatives shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth at least sixty days before the day of election. Nomination papers for candidates for all other offices shall be filed with the county commissioners of the respective counties at least twenty-eight days before the day of election. [In determining or reckoning any period of time mentioned in this article, the day upon which the act is done, paper filed, or notice given, shall be excluded from, and the date of the election shall be included in the calculation or reckoning.]

Sec. 5, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 832. (This section was previously amended by Sec. 3, Act of July 9, 1897, P. L. 223).

We have added United States Senators to this section as it naturally belongs here since the Act of 1893 was passed before senators were elected by the voters of the Commonwealth; of course, it does not include them. The material in brackets may well be eliminated as covered by Sec. 5.

Section 1003. Objections to Nomination Papers. Procedure. It shall be the duty of the officer or officers to whom any nomination paper is brought for the purpose of filing, to examine the said paper, and if it lacks sufficient signatures or be otherwise manifestly defective it shall not be filed, but the action of said officer or officers in refusing to receive such paper may be reviewed by the court of common pleas of the county where filed, upon an application for mandamus to compel its reception as of the date when it was brought to the office.

All nomination papers which have been filed shall be deemed to be valid, unless objections thereto are duly made by writing filed in the court of common pleas of the county in which the paper objected to has been filed, and with the officer or officers with whom such papers have been filed, and within the following periods:

(a) In the case of papers filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, at least fifty days before the day of election;

(b) In the case of other papers, at least twenty-five days before the day of election;

In case the court is in session, one or more judges thereof shall proceed to hear such objections without unnecessary adjournment or delay, and shall give such hearing precedence before any other business before him or them. With respect to papers filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, such objections shall be heard and finally determined at least thirty days before the day of the election, and in all other cases at least eighteen days before the day of election.

In case the court is not in session, any judge thereof, on the presentation to him of the certificate of the prothonotary that such objections have been filed, shall proceed to hear such objections. No objection of any nature whatever shall be filed unless accompanied by proof of service of notice of the proposed objection upon at least one of the candidates named in the paper objected to, nor shall any objection be heard in the absence of any of the said candidates without proof of service of notice of the hearing upon them. If the court decides that the paper objected to was not filed by parties entitled under this act to file the same, it shall be wholly void; but if it be judged defective only, the court shall indicate the matters in which it requires amendment, and the time within which such amendments must be made, and every paper amended after the time when names therein contained should have been sent to the sheriff, shall be subject to the provisions of this act concerning substituted nominations.

The officers with whom nomination papers have been filed shall permit the political parties or bodies who have filed them to amend them, of their own motion, at any time prior to the printing of the ballot.

Sec. 6, Act of July 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as last amended by Sec. 2, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 832. (This section was previously amended by Sec. 4, Act of July 9, 1897, P. L. 223, and by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 21, 1903, P. L. 224).

If a nomination paper is regular on its face, the Secretary of the Commonwealth must file it though two or more are received apparently from the same party and naming different candidates for the same office. Com. v. Reeder, 182 C. C. 315; Jefferies v. Griest, 24 C.C. 412 (1900).

When a nomination paper is presented to the proper officer for filing, it is his duty to file it unless he finds that it lacks sufficient signatures or is otherwise manifestly defective. Jefferies v. Griest, 9 Dist. 683, 24 C.C. 412 (1900); Com. v. Fuller, 30 C.C 449 (1904); Com. v. Reeder, 18 C.C. 315.

The county commissioners should refuse to file nomination papers which pre-empt a party name which is in part identical with that used by a party entitled to a name and place on the ballot. Com. v. Cumbler, 24 Dauph. 386 (1921).

Nomination papers can be held void only on the ground that the party has no right to file them. If the papers are defectively vouched, they may be amended as provided by the above section. Weaver's Nomination, 18 Dist. 943 (1908).

Objections to nomination papers must be specific, a general averment that certain signatures are fraudulent is not sufficient. Ewing's Nomination Papers, 13 C.C. 638, 3 Dist. 471 (1893).

Objections to nomination papers for the office of alderman in third class cities, should be filed in the county commissioner's office and in the prothonotary's office. Saupp's Nomination, 2 Blair Co. 170 (1900).

The person filing objections to nomination papers need not be of the same political party. Independence Party Nomination, 208 Pa. 108 (1904), but he must reside in the district for which the nomination is made. Winton Borough's Nomination, 2 Lack. L. N. 13 (1896).

Section 1004. Preemption of Party Names. Whenever five of the electors composing any political body making a nomination by nomination papers shall file with the prothonotary of the county in which the nomination paper or papers are to be filed, an affidavit setting forth that they have adopted a certain political appellation to designate their policy, subject to the limitations of this article regarding the selection of names, and file with the nomination papers a certificate from the prothonotary, setting forth such a compliance with the act, then thereafter such political body shall have the exclusive right to use the said name or appellation for the election for which such nomination or nominations are made.

Part of Sec. 3, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 855.

The pre-emption of a party name for State purposes does not give to the pre-emptors the exclusive right to control the use of that name in the nomination of candidates for every local or district office. Wakefield's Appeal, 229 Pa. 581 (1911).

Under the provisions of the above section, the affidavit preempting a party name is filed in Dauphin County in all cases where the nomination papers are filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Section 1005. Preemption of Party Names in Wards. Whenever five electors, composing any political body as hereinbefore provided, shall file an affidavit as aforesaid, setting forth that they have adopted a certain political name or appellation to designate their policy for the purpose of making nominations for ward officers, or officers to be elected in any ward, such affidavit shall give to such body of electors the exclusive right to use the said name or appellation for the nomination of any candidates for any precinct or other subdivision of such ward for the election for which such nominations are made.

Part of Sec. 3, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 855.

(b) Nomination of Presidential Electors

Section 1010. Nomination of Presidential Electors. The nominee of each political party for the office of President of the United States, shall, within thirty days after his nomination by the National convention, nominate as many persons to be the candidates of his party for the office of Presidential elector as the State is then entitled to. If, for any reason, the nominee of any political party for the office of President of the United States fails or is unable to make the said nominations within the time herein provided, then the nominee of such party for the office of Vice-President of the United States shall, as soon as may be possible after the expiration of said thirty days, make the nominations.

The names of such nominees, with their post-office addresses, shall be certified immediately to the Secretary of the Commonwealth by the nominee for the office of President or Vice-President, as the case may be, making the nominations.

Part of Sec. 18, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

(c) Withdrawal of Nominated Candidates

Section 1015. Withdrawal of Candidates. Any person whose name has been presented as a candidate for the office of Presidential elector, Member of the Senate or the House of Representatives of the United States, or for any State office, including that of judge, senator, and representative, may cause his name to be withdrawn from nomination by request in writing signed by him and acknowledged before an officer qualified to take acknowledgements of deeds, and filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth at least fifty days previous to the day of the general election, and at least twenty-five days previous to the day of the municipal election, and all candidates for other offices, with the county commissioners of the respective counties at least twenty-five days previous to the day of the election; and no name so withdrawn shall be printed upon the ballots.

Where any office, not in court of record, shall for any cause become vacant after the time for making nominations for such office shall have elapsed, or when a writ for a special election to supply a vacancy shall direct such election to be held at a date which would prevent the making of nominations in time to comply with section one thousand and two of this article, nominations for the office to be filled may still be made in accordance with the provisions of this article relating to nomination papers, but in other respects the provisions of subdivision (d) of this article shall apply to such nominations.

Sec. 7, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 18, 1923, P. L. 67. (This section was previously amended by Sec. 3, Act of July 9, 1919, P. L. 832).

An affidavit as to the truth of the facts alleged in a withdrawal is not sufficient, such paper must be acknowledged as required by the act. In re Thirty-fourth Ward Democratic Nomination Papers, 26 C.C. 593 (1912).

We have added to this section the office of United States Senator as it undoubtedly belongs here. When this section was amended by the said Act of 1919, the draftsman followed the language found in Sec. 5 of the Act of 1893 which of course failed to provide for the office of United States Senator as, at the time said act was passed, the office of United States Senator was not filled by the voters of the Commonwealth.

(d) Substituted Nominations

Section 1020. Filling of Vacancies on Ticket After Primaries. Vacancies happening or existing after date of the primary may be filled in accordance with the party rules, as is now or may hereafter be provided for by law.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

No substituted nomination can be made by nomination papers under this section where there was no nomination made at the primary. "Vacancies happening or existing after date of the primary" are construed to mean vacancies caused by death or withdrawal of any candidate nominated at the primary election. Meyers Nomination, 27 Dauph. 302 (1924).

Section 1021. Time of Filing Nomination Papers to Fill Vacancies Caused by Withdrawal. Certificates of nomination and nomination papers to fill vacancies caused by the withdrawal of candidates nominated at primary elections, or by nomination papers, but not vacancies caused by death of candidates nor in special elections, shall be filed as follows: Those to be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, shall be filed at least thirty-five days before the day of election, and those to be filed with county commissioners at least twenty days before the day of election.

Sec. 1, Act of May 20, 1921, P. L. 958.

Section 1022. Procedure For Filing Nomination Papers to Fill Vacancies Caused by Death or Withdrawal. In case of the death or withdrawal of any candidate nominated as provided in this act, the political party or the citizens who nominated such candidate by nomination papers, may nominate a substitute in his place by filing in the proper office at any time before the day of election, in case of the death of a candidate, or within the time specified in the preceding section in the case of the withdrawal of a candidate, a nomination certificate or nomination paper which, in the case of a nomination by nomination papers shall conform to all the requirements of this act in regard to original nomination papers. If the said citizens shall have authorized any committee, or if any executive committee of any political party be authorized by the rules of said party, to make nominations in the event of the death or withdrawal of candidates, the said committee shall have power to file the requisite nomination certificate or nomination paper, which shall recite the facts of the appointment and powers of the said committee, (naming all its members), of the death or withdrawal of the candidate, and of the action of the committee thereon, and the truth of these facts shall be verified by the affidavit, annexed to the certificate or paper, of two members of the committee, and also of at least two of the officers of the political party or two of the citizens who made affidavit to the original paper. In case of a substituted nomination paper not filed by a committee, but signed by citizens, it shall only be necessary that two-thirds of the signers of the said paper shall have been signers of the original paper.

A redraft of Sec. 11, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, made for the purpose of clarity and to conform to the existing law.

The provisions of this section which allowed substituted nomination papers to be filed at any time before election day, were repealed as to cases where candidates formally withdrew after their nomination, by Sec. 1, Act of May 20, 1921, P. L. 958 (Sec. 1021). Snyder v. Lewis, 33 Dauph. 95 (1929).

Section 1023. Filling Vacancies in Office of Presidential Electors. Vacancies happening or existing after the date of nomination of Presidential electors shall be filled by the nominee for the office of President or Vice-President making the original nominations. Nominations made to fill vacancies shall be certified to the Secretary of the Commonwealth in the manner herein provided for in the case of original nominations.

Part of Sec. 18, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 1024. Objections to Substituted Nominations. Time For Making. All substituted nomination certificates or papers may be objected to as provided in this article with regard to nomination papers and if a substituted certificate or paper be filed after the last day for filing the original certificate or paper, objections must be made within four days after the filing, and no objections as to form and conformity to law shall be received after the time set for printing the ballots.

Part of Sec. 12, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 1025. Name of Substituted Candidate to be Placed on Ballot. As soon as any substituted candidate shall have been duly nominated his name shall be substituted by the proper officers in the place of that of the candidate who has died or withdrawn so far as time may allow, and in case a substituted nomination is filed with or transmitted to the county commissioners after the ballots have been printed, the said commissioners shall prepare and distribute with the ballots suitable slips of paper bearing the substituted name, together with the title of the office, and having adhesive paste upon the reverse side, which shall be offered to each voter with the regular ballot and may be affixed thereto.

Part of Sec. 12, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

(e) Public Records

Section 1030. Nomination Certificates and Papers Open to Public Inspection. Preserved Two Years. All certificates of nomination and nomination papers when filed shall be open under proper regulations to public inspection and shall be preserved not less than two years in the offices where they have been filed.

Sec. 8, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

ARTICLE XI

PREPARATION FOR GENERAL AND MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

Section 1100. Certification of Lists of Taxpayers in Boroughs and Townships. Twenty days before each election the tax collector of townships and boroughs shall send a sheet to the office of the county commissioners containing the number of each tax receipt issued, date of payment, name of taxpayer, amount of tax and district in which taxpayer is assessed for the period since the last report.

The commissioners are directed to have such reports of taxpayers bound and kept for public inspection.

Secs. 2 and 3, Act of June 25, 1895, P. L. 296.

Section 1101. Preparation of Voting List in Boroughs and Townships. The county commissioners, upon receipt of the original registry list of the boroughs and townships from the assessors and registry assessors, shall proceed to make out a complete list in alphabetical order of all persons so returned as taxables in each election district, and furnish the same together with the necessary election blanks to the officers of the election in such election district on or before seven o'clock in the morning of the election.

Part of Sec. 3, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of May 16, 1895, P. L. 75.

The election officers may correct slight errors in the names on the assessment list upon proof of such errors. Brant's Election 13 York 145, (1899).

Section 1102. Certification of Nominees by Secretary of Commonwealth to Sheriff and County Commissioners. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall, at least fourteen days previous to the day of any election of United States or State officers, or for the adoption of amendments to the Constitution of this Commonwealth, transmit to the county commissioners and the sheriff of each county in which such election is to be held, duplicate official lists stating the names and residences of, and parties or policies represented by, all candidates whose nomination certificates or papers have been filed with him for such election, and have not been found and declared to be invalid, and to be voted for at each voting place in each county, respectively, substantially in the form of the ballots to be used therein; and also duplicate copies of the text of all proposed constitutional amendments to be voted upon at such election.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 29, 1903, P. L. 338. (This section was previously amended by Sec. 5, Act of July 9, 1897, P. L. 223).

The Act of April 29, 1903, P. L. 338, amending the Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, does not violate any constitutional provision relating to amendments of acts, and is valid. McLaughlin v. Summit Hill Borough, 224, Pa. 425, (1909).

Section 1103. Certification of Nominees by County Commissioners to Sheriff. The county commissioners of each county shall send to the sheriff of their county, at least ten days prior to the day of any general or municipal election, an official list, containing the names and party or political appellations of all candidates whose nomination certificates or papers have been filed with the said commissioners, for such election, and to be voted for at each voting place in the county, substantially in the form of the ballots to be used therein.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 29, 1903, P. L. 338.

Section 1104. Sheriff's Proclamation. The sheriff of every county, at least ten days before each general election, and before the election of county officers or judges at municipal elections and in cities coextensive with counties before all municipal elections, shall give notice of the same by advertisements in at least three and not more than four newspapers, if there be so many published in the county, two of said newspapers representing so far as practicable the political party which at the preceding November election cast the largest number of votes, and the other one of said newspapers representing so far as practicable the political party which at the preceding November election cast the next largest number of votes, and in addition thereto the sheriff of every county shall, at least ten days before each general election and before each such municipal election to be held in cities of the first, second and third classes, give notice of the same by proclamation posted up in the most conspicuous places in every election district in said cities; and in every such advertisement or proclamation he shall:

I. Enumerate the officers to be elected at general elections and the county officers and judges to be elected at municipal elections, and give a list of all the nominations made, as provided in this act, and to be voted for in such county, including all city officers in cities coextensive with counties, and the full text of all constitutional amendments submitted to a vote of the people; but the proclamation posted in each election distict need not contain the names of any candidates but those to be voted for in such district.

For presidential elections the names of presidential electors shall not be printed in the sheriffs' proclamation but in lieu thereof the names of the candidates of their respective parties for President and Vice-President of the United States shall be printed together in pairs under the title "Presidential Electors."

II. Designate the place at which the election is to be held.

III. Give notice that every person, excepting justices of the peace, military officers and borough officers, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive, or Judiciary Department of this State, or of the United States, or of any city, or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is, by law, incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for, except that of an election officer.

Sec. 10, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 26, 1895, P. L. 392, with certain provisions from other acts inserted as follows: In paragraph 3 of sheriff's proclamation, military officers and borough officers are included among the exceptions, along with the justices of the peace, because of the provisions of Sec. 4, Act of Apr. 16, 1840, P. L. 410.

The maximum number of newspapers (four) in which the proclamation may be advertised, is taken from Sec. 1, Act of June 23, 1885, P. L. 144, which is still in force. See York Gazette Co. v. York County, 25 Pa. Super. Ct. 517, (1904).

According to our interpretation, the sheriff's proclamation is made before the election of judges and county officers at municipal elections, as well as for general elections, and we have made the wording of this section definite as to this point.

We have added the provision relating to the printing of the names of candidates for President and Vice-President, of the United States in lieu of the names of Presidential electors because under the act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 628, they are so printed on the ballots. See Sec. 113 (h).

In 6 Super. Ct. 600, it was held that "general election" did not mean "municipal or Spring election." This decision was followed by Judge Schafer, Allegheny County, in 20 D. R., 989, but since the Superior Court decision by constitutional amendment the county officers and judges are elected at the municipal elections, and such elections are held in November every odd-numbered year; therefore as Judge Elkins says, in Com. v. City of S. Bethlehem, 248 Pa. 581: "We see no reason why municipal elections thus held should not be deemed general elections within the spirit and purpose of the Constitution as amended, and the statutory provisions relating thereto." This clearly repeals the rule established in the preceding cases. There is no authority for including city Officers under the provisions of this section, but we have done so as to Philadelphia, as that is the practice in such city.

The provision of Sec. 2, Act of June 13, 1840, P. L. 683, which permits a judge, inspector or clerk of election to be elected to any township office, and to hold such office, is inconsistent with and repealed by Sec. 15, Art. VIII of the Constitution. Com. v. McCormick, 18 Dist. 641; Com. v. Edwards, 24 Dist. 729, (1914).

Section 1105. When Coroner Is To Perform Sheriff's Duties. In all cases where a sheriff is directed to perform any duty by the provisions of this act and there is any vacancy in said office, the duty directed to be performed by the sheriff shall be done and performed by the coroner of the proper county who shall be entitled to the same fees and subject to like penalties.

Sec. 96, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1106. Cities, Third Class, Mayor's Proclamation. In In cities of the third class the council shall cause the mayor to issue his proclamation to the qualified electors of the city, at least ten days before the municipal election, stating therein the officers to be voted for at such election.

Part of Sec. 8, Art. VII, Act of June 27, 1913, P. L. 568. This act applied only to third class cities.

Recommended: That it herein be extended to all cities, except those coextensive with counties, as there was a gap which failed to provide for proclamations of city officers in such cities.

According to our interpretation of the various acts of assembly relating to posting and advertising of election notices, there is need of additional legislation on the subject. It seems that the sheriff issues and advertises his proclamation, giving notice of general elections, and of the election of county officers and judges at municipal elections. Such proclamation is posted in each election district in cities of all three classes. This does not seem to give notice of the election of city officers or ward officers, but only as to officers to be voted for in the county. (See Sec. 1104).

The above act does not say the mayor's proclamation shall be advertised or posted. (See Sec. 1106).

In all wards the constable or constables post notices of the election of ward and election officers. (See Sec. 1107).

In townships the constables post notices of the election of township and election officers. (See Sec. 1108).

In boroughs the high constable posts notices of the election of borough officers (not ward or election officers). (See Sec. 1109).

Section 1107. Notice of Election of Ward Officers. The constable or constables of each ward, at least ten days before the day of election of ward officers and election officers, shall give public notice, by six or more printed or written advertisements, affixed at as many of the most public places therein, of the time and place of holding such election.

In case of the neglect, refusal, death or absence from the county of the constable or constables of any ward, the assessors of the ward shall perform the duties hereinbefore required to be done by such constable or constables, under the like penalty. But the said assessors shall not be required to give more than five days' notice of the time and place for holding such election.

Drafted from Secs. 1, 2 and 3, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

According to our interpretation, the above sections provide for the posting of notices of the elections at which the inspectors are to be voted for and therefore covers the election of all the ward and election officers of each ward. We have eliminated township elections from this section, as they are covered by the following section, taken from a later act.

Section 1108. Election Notice in Townships. The constable or constables of every township within this Commonwealth shall give public notice of the election of township and election officers by ten or more printed or written advertisements affixed at as many of the most public places therein, at least ten days before the election, and in every such advertisement they shall enumerate the candidates, designate the place of holding the election, and give such other information pertinent to such election as sheriffs are directed to do in paragraphs I and II of the sheriff's proclamation, published before elections. In case of the neglect, refusal, death or absence of the constable or constables, the duties herein enjoined on them shall be performed by the supervisors or assessor of the proper township, but said supervisors or assesor of the proper townhip shall not be required to give more than five days' notice.

Drafted from Sec. 2, Act of June 13, 1840, P. L. 683.

Section 1109. Election Notice of Borough Officers. The high constable shall give ten days' notice of the election of the borough officers by posting six advertisements in the most public places within the same.

Sec. 3, Art. III, Chap. VII, Act of May 14, 1915, P. L. 312.

Section 1110. Compensation of Officers for Advertising Elections. Constables, supervisors or assessors, as the case may be, of any ward, township, incorporated district or borough, shall be allowed and paid out of the county treasury two dollars for each polling place for advertising ward, township, district and borough elections, but not more than fifteen dollars ($15.00) for this purpose for any one election, and six cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in the performance of said duties.

Part of Sec. 11, Act of June 13, 1840, P. L. 683, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 23, 1923, P. L. 340.
The last sentence of said section providing compensation for delivering certificates of election, has been eliminated as it is supplied by the Act of May 23, 1919, P. L. 274, which includes the compensation for this service in the per diem compensation.

Section 1111. Printing and Keeping Record of Ballots. The county commissioners of each county shall cause all the ballots, to be used therein at general and municipal elections, to be printed. The commissioners shall acsertain the office to be filled and shall be responsible for the accurate printing of the ballots in accordance with this article, and for the safekeeping of the same while in their possession, or that of their subordinates or agents. A record of the number of ballots printed and furnished to each voting place shall be kept and preserved by the county commissioners of the several counties.

Sec. 13, and part of Sec. 15, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.
The county commissioners alone have the right to determine the wording or marks to go on the ballots. Luzerne County Election Returns, 301 Pa. 247.

Section 1112. Style and Binding of Official Ballot. All the official ballots used at the same voting place at any general or municipal election shall be alike, and shall be at least six inches long and four inches wide. They shall be printed with the same kind or kinds of type, (which shall not be smaller than the size shown as "brevier" or "eight point body") upon white paper without any impression or mark to distinguish one from another, except the numbers hereinafter provided, and of sufficient thickness to prevent the printed matter from showing through.

All official ballots shall be bound together in books, in convenient numbers, in such manner that each ballot may be detached and removed separately. Each ballot shall be attached to a stub or counter-foil, and the stubs or counterfoils in each book shall be numbered successively.

At the upper right hand corner of the back of each offical ballot prepared for use at any such election, a diagonal perforated line shall be printed, and upon the corner of the ballot included within such line, which shall not include any other printing, shall be printed the same number as appears on the stub or counterfoil to which the ballot is attached.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, and part of Secs. 1 and 2, Act of June 27, 1931, P. L. 627.

Section 1113. Official Ballots, Contents and Arrangement.

(a) Printed Instructions on Ballots. At the head of every official ballot shall be printed the following instructions:

To vote a straight party ticket, mark a cross (X) in the square opposite the name of the party of your choice in the first column. A cross-mark in the square opposite the name of any candidate indicates a vote for that candidate.

On the back of each ballot, or on the right hand side of the back, if the ballot is printed in two columns, there shall be printed, as a caption, "official ballot for," followed by the designation of the voting place for which the ballot is prepared the date of the election and a facsimile of the signatures of the county commissioners of the respective counties who have caused the ballots to be printed.

The ballots shall be so printed as to give to each voter a clear opportunity to designate his choice of candidates by a cross-mark (X) in a square of sufficient size, at the right of the name of each candidate, and inside the line enclosing the column, and, in like manner, answers to questions submitted, by similar marks, in squares at the right of the word "yes" and "no," and on the ballot may be printed instructions how to mark and such words as will aid the voter to do this, as "mark one," "mark two," and the like.

(b) Voting For Presidential Electors. When Presidential electors are to be voted for, their names shall not be printed upon the ballot, but, in lieu thereof, the names of the candidates of their respective parties for President and Vice-President of the United States shall be printed, together in pairs upon the ballot under the title "Presidential Electors," and the names of the candidates of the various parties shall be arranged thereunder in order of the vote obtained in the State, at the last Presidential election, by the parties nominating, beginning with the party which obtained the highest vote.

In the case of political parties not represented on the ballot in the last Presidential election, the order of arrangement shall be alphabetical.

At the right of the names of the candidates for President and Vice-President of each party, shall be printed their party name or political appellation, and at the right of such party name or appellation there shall be a square of sufficient size for the convenient insertion of a cross-mark (X). Every mark within such square shall be counted as a vote for each candidate for Presidential elector of such party.

(c) Candidates For Other Offices. The names of candidates for all other offices, except President and Vice-President, shall, in all cases, be arranged under the title of the office for which they are candidates, and be printed in the order of the votes obtained for the head of the respective tickets of the parties or bodies nominating at the last Presidential election, beginning with the party obtaining the highest vote. But in the case of parties not represented on the ballot at the last Presidential election, then the name of the nominees of such parties shall be arranged alphabetically, according to the party name or political appellation. At the right of the name of each nominee or candidate shall be printed the name or appellation of the political party representing or nominating him, and at the right of such party name or poltiical appellation there shall be a square of sufficient size for the convenient insertion of a cross-mark.

(d) Blank Spaces for Inserting Names or Candidates. There shall be left, at the end of the groups of candidates under the heading "Presidential Electors," as many blank spaces as there are Presidential electors to be elected, in which spaces the voter may insert the names of any individual candidates for Presidential electors for whom he desires to vote. There shall also be left at the end of the list of candidates for each other different office, (or under the title of the office itself for which an election is to be held in case there be no candidates legally nominated therefor), as many blank spaces as there are persons to be voted for, for such office, in which space the voter may insert the name of any person whose name is not printed on the ballot as a candidate for such office, and such insertion shall count as a vote, without the cross-mark.

(e) Candidates Receiving More Than One Nomination. Whenever any candidate shall receive more than one nomination for the same office, his name shall be printed once and the names of each political party so nominating him shall be printed to the right of the name of such candidate, arranged in the same order as candidates' names are grouped, that is to say, in the order of the votes obtained by such party at the last preceding Presidential election, beginning with the party obtaining the highest vote. If such candidate shall be nominated by any political party not represented on the ballot in the last Presidential election, the name of such parties shall follow the other names, and be arranged alphabetically, accord to the party name or appellation. At the right of every party name, or political appellation, shall be a square of sufficient size for the convenient insertion of a cross-mark.

(f) Voting Straight Party Ballot. In order that each voter may have the opportunity of designating his choice for all the candidates, as nominated by one political party, there shall be printed on the extreme left of the ballot, and separated from the rest of the ballot by a space of at least one-half inch, a list of the names of all the political parties or groups of nominees, represented on such ballot and presenting candidates to be voted for at such election. Such names shall be arranged in the order of the votes obtained, at the last Presidential election, by the candidate at the head of the respective tickets of the parties or bodies nominating, beginning with the party that received the highest vote cast. Following the names of such political parties, shall be the names of the parties or principles not represented on the ballot at the last Presidential election, arranged alphabetically, according to the party name or political appellation. A square, of sufficient size for the convenient insertion of a cross-mark, shall be placed at the right of each party name or appellation. Every mark within such square shall be equivalent to a mark against every name designated by that political appellation, or party name, including candidates nominated by more than one party, or group of citizens, except as otherwise provided in section one thousand two hundred and twenty-five of this act.

(g) Voting on Constitutional Amendments and Other Questions. Whenever the approval of a constitutional amendment, or other question, is submitted to the vote of the electors, such other question shall be printed upon the ballot in brief form, to be determined by the Secretary of the Commonwealth in the case of questions to be voted on by the electors of more than one county, and by the county commissioners in other cases. Such proposed amendments to the Constitution shall be printed in full upon the ballots, and together with such other questions shall be followed by the words "yes" and "no" in such a manner as to give each voter a clear opportunity to express his approval or disapproval of said amendment or question by a cross-mark (X) in a square of sufficient size at the right of the word "yes" or "no." If such constitutional amendment or other question be submitted at an election of public officers, it shall be printed upon a separate ballot: Provided, however, That if such constitutional amendment or other question is to be voted upon in any county, city, borough, or township which has adopted voting machines for use at public elections therein, such constitutional amendment or other question shall be voted on therein upon such voting machines, in accordance with the provisions of the laws relating thereto.

Drafted from Sec. 14, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 628; part of Sec. 15, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419; Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 26, 1929, P. L. 836; and part of Sec. 1, Act of July 7, 1913, P. L. 693, as amended by the Act of Apr. 27, 1925, P. L. 311.

That part of the said Act of 1929, P. L. 836, which provides that constitutional amendments shall be printed in brief form upon the ballots, has been eliminated in this section as it is obviously an error.

Where a man's name appears more than once upon an official ballot as the candidate of different parties, it must be presumed they are different persons and the votes for each can not be cumulated. Carother's Election Contest, 25 Dist. 1151, (1915).

The provisions found in the above section relating to the marking of the ballots for a straight party vote, do not violate Sec. 5, Art. I, of the Constitution. Oughton v. Black, 212 Pa. 1, (1905).

A single stroke in the square after the name of a candidate is not a proper marking of the ballot, a cross mark is required. East Donegal Twp. Contested Election, 21 Dist. 1091, (1912).

If an office is left off the ballot, it can not be voted for by means of stickers or writing the title of the office on the ballot. Lawlors Contested Election, 180 Pa. 566, (1879); Forney's Election, 19 C. C. 250, (1897).

Section 1114. Mistakes Appearing On Ballot. When it is shown by affidavit that mistake or omission has occurred in the publication of names or description of candidates, or in the printing of the official ballots, the court of common pleas of the district or county, or any judge thereof, may upon the application of any qualified elector of the district or county, require the county commissioners to correct the mistake or omission, or to show cause why they should not do so.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

When a ballot is not lacking in any matter essential to a free expression in statutory form of the will of the voter, in the absence of fraud, the remedy for any defect in the ballot is by application to the court of common pleas to require the county commissioners to correct the mistake. Knight v. Coudersport Borough 246 Pa. 284. (1914).

This section does not cover a case where the county commissioners wilfully and intentionally refuse to print on the ballot the name of a candidate who claims to be entitled to have his name printed thereon; in such case the remedy is by mandamus. Sinclair's Nomination, 22 Dist. 1016, (1912).

Section 1115. Number of Official Ballots. The county commissioners of each county shall provide for, and furnish to each election district in which an election is to be held, one set of official ballots of not less than fifty, for every fifty and fraction of fifty voters therein, as contained upon the registration list or registration books.

Part of Sec. 16, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 24, 1921, P. L. 1079. (For remainder of said section, see Secs. 1116 to 1119 inclusive).

Section 1116. Cards of Instruction. The county commissioners shall also prepare full instructions for the guidance of voters as to obtaining ballots, as to the manner of marking them, and the method of gaining assistance, and as to obtaining new ballots in place of those accidentally spoiled; and they shall respectively cause the same, together with sections two thousand one hundred six, two thousand one hundred seven, two thousand one hundred eleven, two thousand one hundred twelve, two thousand one hundred twenty-three, two thousand one hundred twenty-seven, two thousand one hundred twenty-eight, two thousand one hundred twenty-nine, two thousand one hundred thirty, two thousand one hundred thirty--three, and two thousand one hundred fifty-four of this act, to be printed, in sufficient numbers, in large clear type on separate cards, to be called cards of instruction, which they shall furnish to each voting place.

Section 1117. Specimen Ballots. The county commissioners shall also cause to be printed, on tinted paper and without the facsimile endorsements, a sufficient number of copies of the form of the ballot provided for each voting place at each election therein, which shall be called specimen ballots, and which they shall furnish to each voting place.

Part of Sec. 16, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 1118. Additional Official and Specimen Ballots. The county commissioners shall also, in addition to the number of ballots required to be printed for general distribution, have printed five hundred official and one hundred specimen ballots for every five thousand voters within the county, which ballots shall be kept at the office of the commissioners for the use of any district or districts, the ballots for which may be lost or destroyed.

Part of Sec. 16, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 1119. Ballot and Voting Check Lists. The county commissioners shall deliver to each election district in cities of the first, second, and third classes, where personal registration is required, at every election therein, the registers of voters known as the voting check list and ballot check list.

In boroughs, towns, and townships, they shall provide for each election district, at every election therein, two copies of assessor's lists of voters, and shall deliver the same as such lists are now delivered, one copy, to be called the "ballot check list," for the inspector in charge of the ballots, and the other copy, to be called the "voting check list," to be used in marking the names of those who have voted.

Part of Sec. 16, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 1120. Ballots Et Cetera Sent to Election Judges. The ballots, together with the specimen ballots and cards of instruction printed by the county commissioners as herein provided, shall be packed by them in separate sealed packages with marks on the outside clearly designating the election districts for which they are intended and the number of ballots of each kind enclosed.

They shall then be sent by the county commissioners of the respective counties to the judges of election at the several voting places so as to be received by them on the Saturday or Monday before the day of election.

The respective judges of election shall, on delivery to them of such packages, return receipts therefor to the commissioners who shall keep a record of the time when and the manner in which the several packages were sent, and shall preserve for the period of one year the receipts of the said judges of election.

The commissioners of any county may, if they prefer, instead of sending the packages to the judges or any number of them in the manner aforesaid, notify the judges of the election districts for which the said commissioners are required to provide ballots, to come to the said commissioners' office, on the day before the election, at a time specified, and it shall be the duty of each of the said judges to come to the said office at that time and there on presentation of his certificate of election as judge to receive and receipt for one package of ballots, specimen ballots and cards of instruction, for use in his election district. He shall keep the said packages sealed and shall be responsible for the safekeeping thereof until the ballots are used at the election. In case a judge of the elections is prevented by illness from performing the duties aforesaid, he shall deputize one of the inspectors to act in his place.

Sec. 17, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 1121. How Ballots Not Delivered, Lost or Stolen, Shall Be Replaced. In case the ballots to be furnished to any voting place, in accordance with the provisions of this article, shall fail for any reason to be duly delivered, or in case after delivery they shall be destroyed or stolen, it shall be the duty of the judge of election of such voting place to cause other ballots to be prepared substantially in the form of the ballots so wanting, and upon receipt of such other ballots from him, accompanied by a statement under oath that the same have been so prepared and furnished by him, and that the original ballots have so failed to be received or have been so destroyed or stolen, the election officers shall cause the ballots so substituted to be used in lieu of the ballots wanting as above.

It shall be the duty of the county commissioners of each county to mail complete specimens of the ballots and other necessary papers, by registered letter, to the judge of elections of each election district, at least four days before the election, to enable him to comply with the directions of this section.

Sec. 18, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 1122. Commissioners to Deliver to Judge or Inspectors Ballot-Boxes and Supplies. The commissioners of every county within this Commonwealth shall, on or before seven o'clock in the morning of the day of every general or municipal election, cause to be delivered to the judge or one of the inspectors of every election district within their respective counties, a sufficient number of ballot-boxes to contain the ballots, (unless the same has already been provided), blank forms of election oaths, tally-paper, returns and certificates of election, made out in a proper manner, and headed as the nature of the election may require, and all other necessary election supplies.

Drafted from part of Sec. 7, Act of June 13, 1840, P. L. 683. Part of said Sec. 7 is supplied by Sec. 1119, i. e. delivery of list of voters to election officers in boroughs, towns and townships.

Section 1123. Secretary of Commonwealth to Furnish Necessary Forms to County Commissioners. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall prepare forms for all the blanks made necessary or advisable by this article, and furnish copies of the same to the county commissioners of each county, who shall procure further copies of the same at the cost of the county, and furnish them to the election officers or other persons by whom they are to be used, in such quantities as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this article.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.
This provisions supplies a similar provision found in Sec. 22, Act of June 30, 1874, P. L. 31.

ARTICLE XII

CONDUCT OF GENERAL AND MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

Section 1200. General Elections. Enumeration of Officers Chosen At Such Elections. The general election shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each even-numbered year, and at such elections the following officers shall be chosen United States Senators, Representatives in Congress of the United States, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of Internal Affairs, Auditor General, State Treasurer, and members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth.

Drafted from Art. VIII, Sec. 2, Art. II, Secs. 2 and 3, Art IV, Secs. 2, 3, 4 and 21, and Art. XII, Sec. 1 of the Constitution.
Sec. 23, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519 fixed the time for electing Representatives to Congress as the second Tuesday in October of 1840, and every second year thereafter. As this was the date of the general elections at that time, the constitutional change of the time of the general election changes the time fixed for said elections, although nothing is said in the Constitution concerning the election of Representatives to Congress.

We can find no authority fixing the time for electing U. S. Senators excepting Sec. 1, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 995, which says they shall be nominated and elected in the year next preceding the expiration of the terms of office of the Senator whose successor is to be nominated and elected.

Section 1201. Municipal Elections. Enumeration of Officers Chosen At Such Elections. The municipal election shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each odd-numbered year, and at such elections the following officers shall be chosen: All judges of courts of record elected in any county or judicial district, all county, city, borough, town, township, school district, poor district, ward, and election officers.

Drafted from Art. VIII, Sec. 3 and Art XII, Sec. 1 of the Constitution. See also Sec. 15, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31 (election officers); Sec. 1, Act of June 19, 1911, P. L. 1052 (poor district officers); Secs. 203, 204 and 205, Act of May 18, 1911, P. L. 309 (school directors).

Section 1202. Election of Presidential Electors. At every presidential election there shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth persons to be known as electors of a president and vice-president of the United States equal in number to the senators and representatives to which this State may be entitled in the Congress of the United States.

Drafted from Secs. 26 and 28, Act of Feb. 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1203. Election of Supreme and Superior Court Judges. All judges of the Supreme Court and Superior Court shall be elected at general or municipal elections which shall be held and conducted in the same manner and subject to the same laws in all respects as govern the election of other State officers elected by the voters of the State at large.

Part of Secs. 1 and 2, Act of May 10, 1921, P. L. 423. The provisions relating to nomination of judges have been omitted and placed under the article on Primary Elections.

Section 1204. Voting On Proposed Constitutional Amendments. Unless the General Assembly shall prescribe otherwise with respect to any particular proposed amendment or amendments, the manner and time of submitting to the qualified electors of the State any proposed amendment or amendments to the Constitution for the purpose of ascertaining whether the same shall be approved by a majority of those voting thereon, the said amendment or amendments heretofore, or which may hereafter be proposed, and which have not been submitted to the qualified electors of the State, shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State for the purpose aforesaid at the first municipal or general election at which such amendment or amendments may be legally submitted to the electors, and which election shall occur at least three months after the date upon which such proposed amendment or amendments shall have been agreed to for the second time by a majority of the members elected to each house of the General Assembly, as provided in article eighteen, section one of the Constitution. Said election shall be opened, held and closed, upon said election day in the manner and within the hours at and within which the said election is directed to be opened, held and closed, and in accordance with the provisions of the election laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the amendments thereof, and supplements thereto.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of July 7, 1913, P. L. 693, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 27, 1925, P. L. 311. (For remainder of this section, see Sec. 1113.)
An amendment to the Constitution is valid when approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, although the date of submitting it to the electors was a mistake. Armstrong v. King, 281 Pa. 207 (1924); Hollinger v. Retirement Board, 27 Dauph. 294 (1924).

Section 1205. Elections Conducted by Judges, Inspectors and Clerks. All general and municipal elections shall be held and conducted by the judges and inspectors of election elected, and by clerks appointed in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Drafted from Sec. 14, Act of Feb. 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1206. Meeting of Election Officers On Day of Election. The judges, inspectors and clerks of election shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district to which they respectively belong, before seven o'clock in the morning of the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each and every year.

Drafted from Sec. 15, Act of Feb. 2, 1839, P. L. 519. The Constitution, as amended, has fixed the above day for holding elections and the Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31 has fixed the time for opening the polls. (See Sec. 1207). The appointment of a clerk by the inspectors is omitted here and placed in the preceding article.

Section 1207. Time For Opening and Closing Polls. At all general and municipal elections, the polls shall be opened at seven o'clock ante meridian, and closed at seven o'clock post meridian.

Sec. 5, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31.

Section 1208. Election Officers to Open Ballot Boxes and Burn Contents On Morning of Election. Whenever the election officers of any election district shall get the election boxes of such district to hold any election which by law they are or shall be required to hold, they shall keep the same securely in their possession without opening until the morning of such election, when they shall open the said boxes and burn and totally destroy all the ballots and other papers which they shall find therein, before proceeding to hold such election.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238.

We have omitted the part requiring election officers to take an oath not to disclose how any person voted. This was necessary under the old law when the ballots and the stubs were numbered and the election officers could tell how any person voted, but under present laws said officers have no way of knowing how any one votes.

Section 1209. Duties of Judge at Opening of Polls. Cards of Instruction and Specimen Ballots. At the opening of the polls in each voting place, the seals of the packages furnished by the county commissioners shall be publicly broken and the said package shall be opened by the judge of elections. The cards of instruction shall be immediately posted at or in each voting shelf or compartment provided in accordance with this act for the marking of the ballots, and not less than three such cards and not less than five specimen ballots shall be immediately posted in or about the voting room outside the guard-rail; and such cards and specimen ballots shall be given to any voter at his request.

Sec. 20, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 1210. Duties of Inspector At Opening of Polls. At the opening of the polls it shall be the duty of the judges of election for their respective districts, to designate one of the inspectors, whose duty it shall be to have in custody the [registry list of voters,] ballot check list and to make the entries therein required by law, and one of the inspectors whose duty it shall be to have in custody the voting check list and to make the entries therein required by law.

Sec. 8, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. The last sentence relative to numbering the ballots has been omitted as obsolete. We have also changed this section so as to provide for one inspector taking charge of the voting check list as required by the Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, Sec. 16.

Section 1211. Use of Registers in Cities at Elections. The two registers for each election division in cities shall be used at elections by the election officers in the place of the ballot check list and the voting check list. One of said registers shall be marked "ballot check list," and the other "voting check list."

Drafted from the registration acts for the three classes of cities, viz: Sec. 49, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857; Sec. 17, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977; and Sec. 13, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63.

A similar provision will be found in the article on Primaries.

Section 1212. Assessors In Boroughs, Towns and Townships To Be Present At Polling Places During Elections. The assessor or registry assessor making the registry assessments in boroughs, towns and townships, shall attend at the place of holding every general, municipal or special election, during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judge, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, or such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters, as the said inspectors or judge, or either of them, shall from time to time require.

Sec. 59, Act of Feb. 2, 1839, P. L. 519. The last few lines relating to compensation and the duties of assessors where a township is divided, has been omitted as supplied under the proper heading herein. We have limited this section to boroughs, towns and townships because the registration acts for the several classes of cities, have limited its operation to such districts.

This section of the act of 1839 is repealed as to Bradford, Wyoming, Tioga, Susquehanna, Wayne, Montgomery and Clinton Counties, by the Act of Apr. 9, 1844, P. L. 220, Sec. 1.

Section 1213. Constables At Polls At General Elections. Peace Officers To Clear Polls In Case of Obstruction. Penalties. The constable of each ward, district or township, or his deputy, shall be present at the polling place in such ward, district or township, at each general or municipal election, for the purpose of preserving the peace.

Any mayor, sheriff, deputy sheriff, alderman, justice of the peace, constable or deputy constable, if called upon at a general election by any election officer or by three qualified electors of an election district, shall clear an avenue to the voting place, when obstructed in such a way as to prevent voters from approaching such voting place.

Any officer neglecting or refusing to comply with such request, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred and not more than one thousand dollars.

Drafted from Sec. 111, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1214. Peace Officers To Report To Court Disturbances At Elections. It shall be the duty of every peace officer, as aforesaid, who shall be present at any such disturbance at an election as is described in the preceding section, to report the same to the next court of quarter sessions, and also the names of the witnesses who can prove the same. Such court shall cause indictments to be preferred before the grand jury against the persons so offending.

Sec. 112, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1215. Courts To Examine Constables As To Disturbances At Elections. The several courts of quarter Sessions of this Commonwealth may, at the next term of said court after any election shall have been held under this act, cause the respective constables in said county to be examined on oath, as to whether any breaches of the peace took place at the election within their respective townships, wards or districts, and the said constables shall respectively make return thereof as part of their official return at said court.

Sec. 114, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1216. No Troops To Be Present At Place of Election. No body of troops in the army of the United States, or of this Commonwealth, shall be present, either armed or unarmed, at any place of election within this Commonwealth, during the time of election. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent any officer or soldier from exercising the right of suffrage in the election district to which he may belong, if otherwise qualified according to law.

Sec. 95, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1217. Persons Permitted Within Guard-rail. Supplies For Marking Ballot. No persons other than the election officers and voters admitted as hereinafter provided shall be permitted within the guard-rail of the election room, except by authority of the election officers for the purpose of keeping order and enforcing the law. Each voting shelf or compartment shall be kept provided with proper supplies and conveniences for marking the ballots.

Part of Sec. 19, Act of June 10, 1893, 419. The remainder of this section will be found under Art. III of this compilation.

Section 1218. Right To Vote In Cities When Registers Challenges. Any person whose name is on the register of any election division in any city shall be entitled to vote at any general or municipal election unless it be shown to the satisfaction of the election officers that he has become disqualified since registration.

Any person, although registered on the register of any election division in a city, may be challenged, at any election as to his identity and residence, and, if challenged, he shall sign his name in the register marked ballot check list; or in the place in one of the registers provided for that purpose, if able to do so, and produce such other evidence as is or may be required by law to satisfy the election officers of his identity and residence.

A consolidation of provisions found in the registration acts for the several classes of cities, to wit: Part of Sec. 49, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857; part of Sec. 17, Act of July 24, 1913,

P. L. 977; and part of Sec. 13, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as amended by Sec. 6, Act of July 6, 1917, P. L. 738.

In cities challenges for other cause are disposed of at the time of registration. See notes under Sec. 715.

Section 1219. Challenges In Boroughs, Towns and Townships. Any qualified citizen of any election district in boroughs, towns and townships, may challenge the vote of any person attempting to vote in such district. In such case the same proof of the right of suffrage as is required by law shall be publicly made and acted upon by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected according to the evidence.

A redraft of part of Sec. 11, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. The said section originally was general in its application, but subsequent legislation has limited it to boroughs, towns and townships.

If the voter whose name is registered in the list of voters is challenged, the affidavit required by this section need not be subscribed but may be oral. Fairchance Borough's Contested Election, 22 C. C. 451, 8 Dist. 595 (1899).

An elector desiring to vote on age must make affidavit if he is challenged, or if his name is not on the list. Brant's Election, 13 York 145 (1899).

Section 1220. Persons Not on Registry List Voting in Boroughs, Towns and Townships. Voting on Age. On the day of election in boroughs, towns and townships, any person whose name shall not appear on the registry list of voters, and who claims the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claims to be a voter, for the period of at least two months immediately preceding said election, which witness shall be sworn or affirmed and subscribed to a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter. The person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit, stating to the best of his knowledge and belief when and where he was born; that he has been a citizen of the United States for one month and of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; that he has resided in the Commonwealth one year, or, if formerly a qualified elector or a native born citizen thereof, and has removed therefrom and returned, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election; that he has resided in the district in which he claims to be a voter for the period of at least two months immediately preceding said election; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has, if twenty-two years of age or upwards, paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election. The said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affiant was assessed, and when and where and to whom paid; and the tax receipt therefor shall be produced for examination, unless the affiant shall state in his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any; and if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where and by what court he was naturalized, and shall also produce his certificate of naturalization for examination.

If the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit that he is a native-born citizen of the United States, or, if born elsewhere, shall state the fact in his affidavit, and shall produce evidence that he has been naturalized or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his parents' naturalization, and shall further state in his affidavit that he is, at the time of making the affidavit, of the age of twenty-one and under twenty-two years; that he has been a citizen of the United States one month and has resided in the State one year; or if a native-born citizen of the State and removed therefrom and returned, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election, and in the election district two months immediately preceding such election, he shall be entitled to vote, although he shall not have paid taxes.

The said affidavits of all persons making such claims and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence shall be preserved by the election board, and at the close of the election they shall be inclosed with the list of voters, tally-list and other papers required by law to be filed by the return judge with the prothonotary, and shall remain on file therewith, in the prothonotary's office, subject to examination as other election papers are.

If the election officers shall find that the applicant possesses all the legal qualifications of a voter he shall be permitted to vote, and his name shall be added to the [list of taxables] ballot check list and to the voting check list by the election officers, the word "tax," being added where the claimant claims to vote on tax, and the word "age" where he claims to vote on age; the same words being added by the clerks in each case, respectively, on the lists of persons voting at such election.

Part of Sec. 10, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 6, 1899, P. L. 254. The several registration acts have repealed this section as to cities.

This section provided for the adding of the name and the word "tax" or "age" to the "list of taxables." We have changed that to the ballot check list and voting check list as they are the lists used at the polls under the provisions of the Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, Sec. 16.

The parents' certificate of naturalization must be produced, it cannot be proven by the oath of the elector. Price v. Barber, 13 L. I. 140.

Section 1221. Naturalized Citizens to Produce Certificates Before Voting in Boroughs, Towns and Townships. In boroughs, towns and townships, every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election, before voting, except where he has been for five years consecutively a voter in the district in which he offers his vote; and on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such certificate the word "voted," with the day, month and year.

Part of Sec. 11, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. Since the passage of the various registration acts for cities, the above section applies only to boroughs, towns and townships.

Section 1222. Certificate of Naturalization and Tax Receipt Conclusive Evidence. In all elections in boroughs, towns and townships, hereafter the certificate of naturalization, if genuine, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts mentioned therein; and where the person offering to vote claims the right on the payment of tax, the receipt for such tax, if signed by the proper officer, shall be the evidence thereof; if such person does not produce such receipt, then the payment of the tax may be proved by the oath of such person, or other evidence, stating when, where and to whom such tax was paid.

Sec. 3, Act of Feb. 13, 1874, P. L. 44.

This act now applies only to boroughs, towns and townships on account of the various registration acts for cities.

A tax receipt is prima facie evidence of the payment of the tax, but it is no more. The fact therein averred may be contradicted and overborne by competent evidence. If challenged as to whether or not he paid the tax with his own money, the elector must satisfy the election officers as to that point. Flick v. Woodruff, 21 Dist. 137 (1912).

The Constitution makes no requirement that the tax be assessed against the elector by name. Where real estate is asssesed in a firm name and the property is actually owned by the two members of the firm as tenants in common, if the tax has been paid the said members of the firm have paid sufficient tax to qualify them to vote. Com. v. Shrontz, 213 Pa. 327.

Section 1223. Judge to Decide on Qualification of Voter, Upon Disagreement of Inspectors. The judges of election shall decide on the qualifications of any person claiming the right to vote at any election, whenever the inspectors thereof shall disagree upon the right of such person to vote, but not otherwise, and the inspectors thereof shall upon such decision receive or reject the vote of such person, as the case may be.

Sec. 6, Act of Feb. 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1224. Receiving the Ballot at Polls. Who Admitted Within Guard-Rail. Any person desiring to vote shall give his name and residence to one of the election officers in charge of the ballots, who shall thereupon announce the same in a loud and distinct tone of voice, and if such name is found upon the ballot check list by the inspector [or clerk] in charge thereof, he shall likewise repeat the said name, and the voter shall be allowed to enter the space enclosed by the guard-rail, unless his right to vote be challenged. No person whose name is not on the said list, or whose right to vote shall be challenged by a qualified citizen, shall be admitted within said guard-rail until he has established his right to vote in the manner now provided by law.

As soon as a voter is admitted within the rail, the election officer having charge of the ballots, shall detach a ballot from the stub and give it to the said voter, but shall first fold it so that the words printed on the back and outside shall be the only wording visible, and no ballot shall be voted unless folded in the same manner.

Not more than one ballot shall be given to a voter except as hereinafter provided. As soon as a voter receives a ballot, the letter "B" and the number of the ballot handed to him shall be marked against his name on the margin of the ballot check list, and his name, together with the number of the ballot, shall be entered in separate lists by the two clerks.

In addition to the election officers and overseers authorized by law, not more than four voters, in excess of the number of voting compartments provided, shall be allowed within the guard-rail at one time.

Sec. 21, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, slightly reworded, and the provisions of Sec. 3, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 627 inserted. The provision requiring two separate lists of voters to be made by the clerks is taken from Sec. 70, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, which seems to be still in force. See Com. v. Coryell, 9 Dist. 632 (1900), in which it was held that the Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419 did not repeal the provisions of the Acts of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519 and Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31 requiring lists of those voting to be made up and one of them to be returned by the judge to the prothontary by noon of the second day after election.

Section 1225. Manner of Voting. On receipt of his ballot, the voter shall forthwith, and without leaving the space enclosed by the guard-rail, retire to one of the voting shelves or compartments, and draw a curtain, or shut the screen or door, and shall then prepare his ballot as follows:

If he desires to vote for every candidate of a political party, he may make a cross-mark in the appropriate square, opposite the name of the party of his choice, in the straight party column on the left of the ballot, and every such cross-mark shall be equivalent to a vote for every candidate for the party so marked. But the voter may make a cross-mark in the appropriate square, opposite the name of the party of his choice in the straight party column on the left of the ballot, and may also make a cross-mark in the square to the right of any individual candidate whom he favors. In such case his vote shall be counted for all the candidates of the party in whose straight party column on the left of the ballot be placed such cross-mark, except for those officers for which he has indicated his choice by marking in the squares to the right of individual candidates, and his vote shall be counted for such individual candidates which he has thus particularly marked, notwithstanding the fact that he made a mark in the straight party column on the left of the ballot. In any case where more than one candidate is to be elected to any office, the voter shall, if he desires to divide his vote among candidates of different parties, make a cross (x) mark in the appropriate square to the right of each candidate for whom he desires to vote, not exceeding the total number to be elected for such office, and no vote shall be counted for any candidate in such group not individually marked, notwithstanding the mark in the party square.

If he desires to vote for an entire group of Presidential electors, he may place a cross-mark in the appropriate square, at the right of the name of the candidates for President and Vice-President of the party of his choice. If he desires to divide his vote among candidates of different parties for Presidential electors, or to vote for candidates not nominated by any party, he may insert their names in the blank spaces hereinbefore provided for that purpose. A mark in the straight party column opposite the name of the party of his choice, shall also be counted as a mark for each Presidential elector nominated by such party.

Or he may vote for the candidate of his choice for each office to be filled, according to the number of persons to be voted for by him for each office, by making a cross (x) mark in the square opposite the name of the candidate, or he may insert in the blank space provided therefor, any name not already on the ballot, and such insertion shall count as a vote without the cross-mark.

In case of a question submitted to the vote of the people, he may mark in the appropriate margin or space a cross (x) mark, opposite the answer which he desires to give.

In all cases where, by existing law, a voter is entitled to cast more than one vote for a single candidate, he shall place in the appropriate square, instead of a cross (x), a number, which shall indicate the number of votes to be counted for the candidate whose name is so marked.

Before leaving the voting shelf or compartment, the voter shall fold his ballot without displaying the markings thereon in such a way as to prevent anyone from being able to see how his ballot has been marked, and keeping it so folded, he shall then exhibit the same to the judge or one of the inspectors of election, whose duty it shall be to ascertain by an inspection of the number whether the ballot exhibited to him is the same ballot which the elector received before entering the voting compartment. If it is the same ballot, he shall authorize the elector to tear off the ballot the corner containing its number, and the elector shall, after tearing off said corner, immediately deposit the ballot in the ballot box, and shall quit the enclosed space immediately thereafter. As soon as a voter has cast his vote, the letter "V" shall be marked against his name on the voting check list by the officer having charge thereof.

Sec. 22, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as last amended by Sec. 2, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 628 and Sec. 4, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 627, together with a few lines from Sec. 23, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 16, 1903, P. L. 213, and from Sec. 70, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

The name of a candidate may be inserted in the space provided therefor by means of a printed adhesive slip, it need not be writing. DeWalt v. Bartley, 146 Pa. 529.

When a voter writes the name of a candidate in the space provided therefor, and unnecessarily places a cross mark after the name, it will not invalidate the ballot. Foreman's Contested Election, 47 Pitts. 318 (1900).

Both the title of the office and the name of the candidate may not be written in. Lawlor's Contested Election, 180 Pa. 566 (1897).

A voter may mark one candidate in each party when there are two or more candidates to be elected. Election of Assessors in Gearhart Twp., 192 Pa. 446.

The name of a candidate if inserted on the ballot must be in the space provided for that purpose. Kerrin v. Bullock, 25 C. C. 62.

If the voter makes a cross in the party square, and a cross opposite the name of one or more of several party candidates for an office, no votes are to be counted for such office except for such individual candidates whose names were particularly marked. Gegg's Election, 281 Pa. 155 (1924).

Where a ballot for one of the offices is marked in the squares of two parties to the right of the name of the same person, the vote must be given to such candidate. Gegg's Election, supra.

When ballots are marked with marks other than a cross, or when marked with a cross in places other than the spaces provided therefor, they can not be counted. Redman's Appeal, 173 Pa. 59; McCowen's Appeal, 165 Pa. 233; Flynn's Contested Election, 181 Pa. 457; East Coventry Election, 3 Dist. 377; Hughes Election, 3 Lack 313; Louck's Appeal 3 Dist. 127; Hemmfeld's Election Case, 14 C. C. 577; Middendorf's Case, 4 Dist. 78; Contested Election for Mayor of York, 13 C. C. 205, 3 Dist. 127, 6 York 179.

Section 1226. Ballots Not to Be Removed From Voting Place. Spoiled Ballots. No person other than the election officers shall take or remove any ballot from the voting place. If any voter inadvertently spoils a ballot, he may obtain another upon returning the spoiled one. The ballots thus returned shall be immediately canceled, and at the close of the polls shall be secured in an envelope sealed, and sent to the proper office, as required by law in the case of the ballots cast.

Sec. 25, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 1227. Votes of Persons Betting on Election to Be Rejected. The judge and inspectors of the election shall reject the votes of all persons, who they, or any of them, shall know, or who shall be proven before them, to have made, or who are in any manner interested in, any bet or wager on the result of said election, and on the request of any qualified elector, said inspectors and judge shall receive proof to show the person, so offering to vote, has or has not made any such bet or wager, or is or is not interested therein.

Sec. 117, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1228. Extra Lists of Voters Not to Be Made in Voting Room. No list or memorandum of the names of voters shall be made within the voting room, by any person or officer, except for the poll books, and challenge lists of watchers, and such other lists as are authorized by this act.

Part of Sec. 24, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419. Part of this section relating to the numbers on the ballots, has been omitted as obsolete, the remaining part will be found in Sec. 1231.

Section 1229. Regulations in Force at the Polls. Until the polls are closed, no person shall be allowed in the room outside of the said enclosed space, except the watchers, voters, not exceeding ten at any one time, who are awaiting their turn to prepare their ballots, and peace officers when necessary for the preservation of the peace.

No voter shall be allowed to occupy a voting shelf or compartment already occupied by another, except when giving assistance as allowed by law, nor to remain within said compartment more than three minutes when all of such compartments are in use and other voters are waiting to occupy the same. No voter, not an election officer, shall be allowed to re-enter the enclosed space after he has once left it, except to give assistance as hereinfore provided.

No person when within the voting room shall electioneer or solicit votes for any party or candidate, nor shall any written or printed matter be posted up within the said room except as required by law.

When the hour for closing the polls shall arrive, all persons within the enclosed space, who have received ballots but have not yet deposited them, shall be required to mark and deposit their ballots forthwith, but no other person shall be allowed to vote.

It shall be the duty of the judge of election to secure the observance of the provisions of this section, to keep order in the room in which the voting is held, and to see that no more persons are admitted within the enclosed space than are allowed by this act.

Part of Sec. 23, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 16, 1903, P. L. 213.

Section 1230. Checking and Return of Registers. After the polls are closed in cities, the names of all electors in each register, checked as having voted, shall be immediately counted and the results compared and announced, and the cause of any differences ascertained, if possible, before the ballot box is opened.

The two registers shall be immediately sealed in an envelope and shall be returned, (a) in cities of the first class to the custody of the registration commission by the majority inspector, before four post meridian on the second day following each election, and (b) in cities of the second class, to the custody of the registration commission when the ballot box and other election returns are delivered to the proper offices, and (c) in cities of the third class to the custody of the county commissioners when the ballot box and other election returns are delivered to the proper officers.

A similar section will be found in the article under Primaries. These provisions have accordingly been eliminated from the article on Registration.

Section 1231. Unused Ballots, Stubs, Ballot Check List and Lists of Voters to Be Sealed Before Ballot Boxes Opened. Disposition Of. After the closing of the polls and before the ballot boxes are opened, all the lists of voters shall be placed in separate sealed covers properly marked, and the stubs of all the ballots used, together with all unused ballots, one list of voters, and in boroughs, towns and townships the ballot check list, shall also be enclosed in a sealed package properly designating the voting place. Such package shall be placed in the ballot box and sent to the proper office as hereinafter by this act required, and neither the said package nor the said lists of voters shall thereafter be opened except by the return judges, or in the case of a contest, or upon the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 1232. Counting the Votes. After the polls are closed, the election officers and overseers only shall remain within the guard-rail, and the election officers shall there at once proceed to count the votes. Such counting shall not be adjourned or postponed until it shall have been fully completed. A record shall first be made of the number on the stub of the last ballot cast. The officers in charge of the voting check list shall, in the presence of the other officers and watchers, count in a distinct and audible voice the names checked on the said list, and announce the whole number thereof; and the list of voters, the stubs of the ballots used, and all unused ballots, shall then be sealed up as hereinbefore required.

The ballot box shall then be opened up by the inspectors, the ballots taken therefrom, and audibly counted, one by one, by them. When the count is completed, the whole number of ballots cast shall be announced, and the counting of the number of votes received by each person voted for shall then proceed. The judge, in the presence of the inspectors, shall read aloud the name or names marked or inserted upon each ballot, together with the party name, or political appellation, under which each vote was cast, and the answers marked thereon to the questions submitted, if any; and the clerks shall each carefully enter each vote as read, and keep account of the same in tally-papers prepared for the purpose. It shall be unlawful for either judge or inspector, while counting the ballots or votes thereon, to have in his hand any pen, pencil or stamp for marking ballots.

All ballots, after being removed from the box, shall be kept within the unobstructed view of those present in the voting room, so that they may be able to see all the marks on each ballot, but out of their reach, until they are returned to the ballot box as required by law.

Part of Sec. 28, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 5, Act of Apr. 29, 1903, P. L. 338. The provisions of the above section relating to returns have been omitted from this section and will be found under a separate section on Returns.

Section 1233. What Ballots Shall Be Counted. Defective Ballots. If a voter has marked his ballot otherwise than is directed by this act, so that for any reason it is impossible to determine the voter's choice for any office to be filled, his ballot shall not be counted for such office; but the ballot shall be counted for all other offices for which the names of candidates have been properly marked.

No ballot without the official endorsement shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be allowed to be deposited in the ballot box, and none but ballots provided in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be counted. Any ballot deposited in a ballot box without having the upper right hand corner thereof torn off as provided in this act shall be void, and such ballots as well as ballots not marked, or improperly or defectively marked, shall be endorsed as defective, but shall be preserved with the other ballots. If any ballot appears to have been obtained otherwise than as provided in this act, the judge of elections shall transmit such ballot to the district attorney, without delay, together with whatever information he may have tending to the detection of the person who deposited the same.

Sec. 27, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 4, Act of Apr. 29, 1903, P. L. 338, and Sec. 5, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 627.

Section 1234. Duties of Peace Officers While Votes Are Being Counted. The police officers, constables and deputy constables, now required by law to be present at the polls, shall remain in the voting room, but outside of the guard-rail, while prservation of the peace, or persons acting by their authority, shall enter into the space within the guard-rail, or converse with any election officer in any way, after the polls are closed and until the counting of the votes has been completed.

Part of Sec. 28, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 5, Act of Apr. 29, 1903, P. L. 338.

Section 1235. Returns Made by Election Officers. Judge of Election to Deliver Returns to Prothonotary. Exceptions. As soon as the count is completed, the officers of election shall make a full return of the same in triplicate, with an open return sheet in addition, in all of which the votes cast for each candidate, by each political party or body of which such candidate is a nominee, and the total of all votes received by each candidate, shall be given after his or her name, first in words and again in figures, and shall be signed by all of said officers, and certified by overseers, if any, or if not so certified, the overseers and any officer refusing to sign or certify, or either of them, shall write upon each of the returns his or their reasons for not signing or certifying them.

The vote as soon as counted, shall also be publicly and fully declared from the window or door to the citizens present, and a brief statement showing the votes received by each candidate shall be made and signed by the election officers as soon as the vote is counted, and the same shall be immediately posted upon the door of the election house for information of the public.

Each of the triplicate returns shall be enclosed in envelopes and sealed in presence of the officers, and one such envelope together with one list of voters, one tally paper, one oath of officers, the affidavits of voters and their witnesses, the record of assisted voters, and inboroughs, towns and townships the voting check list sealed in an envelope, shall be sealed in another envelope, addressed to the proper office, and be given to the judge, and to the judge shall also be given the open return sheet. Another of said envelopes containing a triplicate return shall be given to the minority inspector, and the third triplicate return shall be placed in the ballot box.

Except as hereinafter provided for returns of boroughs, town and township elections, all judges living within twelve miles of the prothonotary's office, or within twenty-four miles, if their residence be in a town, village, or city, upon the line of a railroad leading to the county seat, shall, before two o'clock post meridian of the day after the election, and all other judges shall, before twelve o'clock meridian of the second day after election, deliver said return, together with the open return sheet, to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the county. The said returns [sheet] shall be filed, and the day and hour of filing marked thereon, and shall be preserved by the prothonotary for public inspection, and at twelve o'clock on the second day following the election shall be delivered by him to the said court of common pleas.

Drafted from part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238, and part of Sec. 28, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 5, Act of Apr. 29, 1903, P. L. 338.

The matter relating to the entry on the return sheets of votes cast for each candidate by each political party, is the part taken from the said Sec. 5, Act of Apr. 29, 1903, P. L. 338. The return of the certificates of voters and the witnesses, is taken from Sec. 10, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, and of assisted voters fro mthe Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 363. The voting check list is included in the return under this section, because we find it to be so included in actual practice, although we can find no law which disposes of said list.

Section 1236. Returns of Election of Borough, Town and Township Officers. Nothing in this act shall require the returns of election of borough, town or township officers to be made to the court, as in the case of other returns, but all such returns shall be enclosed in a sealed cover, directed to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the proper county, and shall by some one of the election officers, or by one of the return judges in boroughs, towns and townships divided into separate election districts, be delivered into his office within three days after such election and filed therein.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238.

A good deal of confusion exists with respect to the return of elections for borough and township officers. Sec. 13 of the Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, provided that returns of the election of borough and township officers should not be made to the court, but be delivered to the prothonotary within three days of the election. By an Act of Feb. 13, 1874, P. L. 44, an attempt was made to amend this portion of Sec. 13 of the Act of Jan. 30, 1874, but the amendment is not in the form required by the Constitution, since it does not reenact the amended portion at length. This defect is noted by the Supreme Court in Dunmore Borough Election, 299 Pa. 517, and the constitutionality of the amendment of Feb. 13, 1874, questioned. The court, however, evades the constitutionality and holds that returns are to be made to the prothonotary, since later amendments to Sec. 13 of the Act of Jan. 30, 1874 work an implied repeal of the amendment of Feb. 13, 1874. The reasoning of the court on this point does not appear to be sound, since the rule of construction is that a later amendment does not repeal a former overlooked amendment, unless the last amendment actually has new matter which works such repeal: See Com. v. Pottsville, 246 Pa. 468; Mercersburg College v. Borough, 53 Pa. Super Ct. 388. However, the same result as to the ineffectiveness of the amendment of Feb. 13, 1874 follows if its unconstitutionality is admitted. On this point see Barrett's Appeal, 116 Pa. 486. While the amendment of Feb. 13, 1874 has been held constitutional in Com. v. Keefe, 15 Dist. 407 (1905) and not repealed by subsequent legislation, in Computation of Votes, 15 Dist, 245 (1905), Forkston Twp. Election, 12 Dist. 348 (1903), these are lower court opinions prior to the Dunmore Election Case supra, and we believe this last case comes to the correct conclusion, although for an incorrect reason.

It also appears from election blanks of publishing houses that the practice is to make these returns to the prothonotary.

The words township and borough officers for the purposes of this section have been construed to include school directors and judges and inspectors of election. Lehigh Co. v. Yingling, 6 C. C. 594 (1883).

Section 1237. Disposition of Ballot Boxes and Contents After Election. As soon as the election shall be finished, the ballots, list of taxables if any, one of the list of voters, one of the tally papers, one of the certificates of the oath or affirmation taken and subscribed by the judges, inspectors, and clerks, one triple return, all stubs, unused, spoiled, and defective ballots, and in boroughs, towns and townships the ballot check list, shall all be collected and deposited in one or more of the ballot boxes, which shall then be closely bound round with tape and sealed by the judge and inspectors, whose signatures shall be affixed thereto.

Such ballot box or boxes, together with the remaining ballot boxes shall forthwith be delivered by the judge and minority inspector, to the proper person and placed as follows:

(a) When the authorities of any city shall have provided a place for the safe keeping of ballot boxes, they shall be delivered at such place to the mayor of said city.

(b) When the authorities of any county, township, or borough, shall have provided a place for the safe keeping of ballot boxes, they shall be delivered at such place, to such person or persons as the court of common pleas of the proper county may designate.

The mayor, person or persons to whom the ballot boxes are delivered as aforesaid, shall deposit and keep the same in the place provided for them to answer the call of any court or tribunal authorized to try the merits of such election.

(c) If any city, county, township or borough shall have failed to provide a place for the safe keeping of ballot boxes, or if the court of common pleas shall have failed to designate any person or persons to receive the same in any place other than a city, the said ballot boxes shall be delivered to the nearest justice of the peace who shall hold the same subject to the call of any persons or tribunal authorized to try the merits of such election.

Such justice of the peace shall receive the sum of three dollars per year for one ballot box and an additional dollar per year for each additional ballot box placed in his custody. Such money shall be paid by the county treasurer upon an order drawn by the county commissioners.

Drafted from parts of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238, and Sec. 74, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 7, 1923, P. L. 147 and Secs. 24, 25 and 27, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

ARTICLE XIII

GENERAL AND MUNICIPAL ELECTION RETURNS. CERTIFICATIONS

(a) Return Boards. Election Officers.

Section 1300. Filing of Returns. Presentation to Court. The returns of general and municipal elections as made by the election officers to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the county, shall be filed, and the day and hour of filing shall be marked thereon and shall be preserved by the prothonotary for public inspection. At twelve o'clock on the second day following any such election, the prothonotary of the court of common pleas shall present all of said returns excepting the returns of the election of borough, town and township officers, to the said court.

Said returns shall be presented to such one or more judge or judges of the court of common pleas of the county as the judges of said court or a majority of them may designate to perform the duty of receiving, computing and certifying said returns, and one judge of said court may sit alone to compute and certify said returns regardless of the number of judges of said court: Provided, however, That in the event of any dispute or controversy arising in any county where there are two or more judges, not less than two judges shall act, compute and certify said returns. Such judge or judges designated to perform such duties shall, for the purposes of this article, be called a return board.

Drafted from part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238, and Sec. 1, Act of May 9, 1929, P. L. 1691. We have changed the words "two or more" in the second paragraph, to "one or more," on account of the provisions of the said Act of 1929, P. L. 1691. In the proviso found in the last paragraph, requiring two judges to sit when there is any dispute, we have limited that to counties having two or more judges. For purposes of clarity, we have called the judge or judges designated to perform the duties of computing the returns the "return board."

Section 1301. Return Boards. Substituted Members. Delegation of Authority. If any of the said judges shall himself be a candidate for any office at any election, he shall not sit with the court, or act in counting the returns of such eleciton, and in such case the other judges or one of them, if any, shall act; and if in any county there shall be no judge qualified to act as a return board under the provisions of this article, present and able to act, then, and in every such case, the register of wills, the sheriff, and the county commissioners of the proper county, shall be and constitute the return board, who, or a majority of whom, shall have and exercise all the powers and perform all the duties vested in, or required to be performed by the court of common pleas of such county, or a judge or judges thereof acting as a return board, by and under the provisions of this article; but none of the said officers shall act as a member of such board when himself a candidate for any office at the election, the returns of which the said board is required to count. If, in any such case, a majority of such officers are candidates for office at such election, then the officer or officers, members of said board, who are not candidates shall have and exercise the powers and perform the duties herein delegated to the said board.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238. We have changed the provision requiring at least two judges to sit, because of the preceding section.

Section 1302. Service on Board by Associate Judges. In counties where there is no resident president judge, or where the resident president judge is himself a candidate for any office at any such election, the associate judge or judges shall perform the duties imposed by this article upon the court of common pleas which shall convene for said purposes.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238.

Section 1303. Computation of Returns. Certificates of Election. The returns presented by the prothonotary shall be opened by said board and computed by such of its officers and such sworn assistants as the court shall appoint, in the presence of the members of said board, and the returns certified and certificates of election issued under the seal of the court as is now required to be done by return judges; and the vote as so computed and certified shall be made a matter of record in said court. The sessions of the said board shall be open to the public.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238. We have substituted the term "board" for "judge, or judges, and court" in this section.

Section 1304. Signing of Returns. Defective Returns. Number to be Made. The clerks or assistants shall thereupon in presence of the board, make out returns in the manner hereinafter directed, which shall be signed by all the members of the board present and attested by said clerks; and in casting up the votes which shall appear to have been given, as shown by the certificates and returns, the said return board shall not omit or reject any part thereof, except where in the opinion of said judges, such certificate is so defective as to prevent the same from being understood and computed in adding together the number of votes; in which case, the said clerks or assistants shall make out a true and exact copy of said paper or certificate, to be signed by the members of the board and attested by said clerks or assistants, and attached to, and transmitted with said return (where the same is directed to be transmitted) to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and the original paper shall be deposited in the prothonotary's office and by said officer copied and transmitted with the return of said election to the secretary as aforesaid.

I. Duplicate returns of all the votes given for every person and persons, who shall have been voted for, for any office.

II. Triplicate returns of all the votes given for any person voted for in the county, as electors of President and Vice-President of the United States.

Drafted from Sec. 79, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1305. Correction of Fraud or Mistake. In case the returns of any election district shall be missing when the returns are presented, or in case of complaint of a qualified elector, under oath, charging palpable fraud or mistake, and particularly specifying the alleged fraud or mistake, or where fraud or mistake is apparent on the return, the board shall examine the return and if, in the judgment of the board, it shall be necessary to a just return said board shall issue summary process against the election officers and overseers, if any, of the election district complained of, to bring them forthwith before the board with all election papers in their possession; and if palpable mistake or fraud shall be discovered, it shall, upon such hearing as may be deemed necessary to enlighten the board, be corrected by the board, and so certified.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238. We have substituted the term "board" for "court."

Where the computing board consists of two judges, one of them alone may not follow this section to correct the returns, they must both agree. First Congressional District Election, 295 Pa. 1, (1928).

The common pleas judges when acting as a computation board, are for the most part exercising ministerial and not judicial functions, and their powers must be strictly limited to those granted by the act of assembly; in the correction of errors it is limited to cases where the returns are missing or palpable fraud or mistake is specified by the complaint of a qualified elector under oath, or is apparent on the face of the return. First Congressional District Election 295 Pa. 1; Thompson v. Ewing 1 Brewester 67, 79, 82, 85; Plains Twp. Election Returns, 280 Pa. 520; Parsons Borough Election Returns, 281 Pa. 205; In re 25th Division 47th Ward, 18 Dist. 210; Cutshall's Petition 29 Dist. 528.

The tally sheets are as much a part of the general returns required by law to be deposited with the prothonotary, and by him presented to the court for purposes of computation as any of the certified returns by the election officers, and where it is free from erasures and properly kept but the footing is incorrect and that error is carried into the certificate, it is not "necessary to a just return" to bring in the election officers. Thirty-second Congressional Dist. Election Returns, 256 Pa. 342.

Where candidates for different offices received approximately fifty votes each, and two candidates for other offices on the same ticket received only four and three votes respectively, this was held to be an apparent mistake or palpable fraud which the court had authority to correct under the above section. In re 40th Division 22nd Ward, 18 Dist. 211.

Where ballots obviously and unquestionably legal and valid are thrown out, this is nothing more or less than false counting or palpable fraud, and can be corrected by the return judges under the above section. 15th Division 22nd Ward, 18 Dist. 193.

Where an election was held for Senator of the 46th Dist. and the returns included votes cast by inhabitants of territory that was not a part of that district, the court had jurisdiction under the above section to correct such fraud or mistake. 46th State Senatorial Dist. Election 3 D. & C. 27.

As to the question whether or not this section is unconstitutional in so far as it applies to the correction of returns in congressional elections, see Twentieth Congressional District Election, 281 Pa. 561.

Section 1306. Nature of Inquiry Into Fraud of Mistake. All allegations of palpable fraud or mistake shall be decided by the said board within three days after the day the returns are brought into court for computation, and the said inqury shall be directed only to palpable fraud or mistake, and shall not be deemed a judicial adjudication to conclude any contest now or hereafter to be provided by law.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238.

We have substituted the term "board" for court.

The provisions of the above section which requires "all allegations of palpable fraud or mistake shall be decided by the court within three days after the day the returns are brought into court for computation," are directory and not mandatory. In re 4th Division 26th Ward, etc., 26 Dist. 1081.

Section 1307. Disposition of Returns. When the returns shall be completed, the return board shall forthwith lodge one of each of such returns in the office of the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the county; and in the case of an election of electors for President and Vic-President of the United States, one other of the returns in the same office; and the other duplicate shall be transmitted as follows, namely:

I. In case of a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Auditor General, State Treasurer, and Secretary of Internal Affairs, the remaining duplicate shall be inclosed in an envelope, directed to the President of the Senate, and indorsed according to fact, which having been sealed shall be inclosed in another envelope, sealed and directed to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and the same shall forthwith be placed in the nearest post office.

II. In case of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, United States Senators, members of the House of Representatives of the United States, judges of the Supreme and Superior Court, judges of judicial districts composed of one county, and of county officers to be commissioned by the Governor, the remaining duplicate shall be inclosed in an envelope, sealed and directed to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and in like manner placed in the nearest post office.

III. In case of the election of a Senator or Senators in districts composed of one county or part of a county, the same shall be inclosed in an envelope, sealed and directed "To the Senate of Pennsylvania"; and in case of the election of a member or members of the House of Representatives of this Commonwealth, the same shall in like manner be inclosed in an envelope, sealed and directed "To the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania"; and each of said returns shall be inclosed in an envelope and directed to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and in like manner placed in the nearest post office.

Drafted from Sec. 80, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519. Paragraph 4 of said section is omitted as it was repealed by the Act of June 13, 1840, P. L. 683. This section providing for the transmission of the returns after the election of certain officers did not include all, but since it seems to be the practice as to all, we here made it complete by adding the following: Lieutenant Governor, Auditor General, State Treasurer, and Secretary of Internal Affairs, United States Senators, and certain judges. We have also limited this section to the returns made after the election of State Senators, to Senators in districts composed of one county or part of a county; the reason therefor will be found in the following section.

Section 1308. Returns in Judicial Congressional and Senatorial Districts. In the case of the election of judges, representatives in Congress of the United States, and State Senators in judicial, congressional and senatorial districts composed of two or more counties, or of one or more counties and a part or parts of one or more counties, or a single county to which one or more counties are attached, returns at elections shall be computed and certificates thereof be made as now provided by the laws of the Commonwealth apportioning the State into judicial, congressional and senatorial districts.

Drafted as a reference to returns provided for in the general apportionment acts, and in the Act of May 10, 1921, P. L. 423, changing the system for the election of judges from the nonpartisan to the party system. This supplies part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238.

Section 1309. Certificates of Election Issued to Town, Township or Borough Officers, Inspectors and Judges of Election. As soon as the election shall be finished, the inspectors and judge shall make out a certificate of election for each person chosen as an inspector, judge of election or town, township or borough officer, which certificate shall be delivered to the person so chosen, or left at his usual place of abode by the constable of the proper ward, township, district, or borough, within five days after such election.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of June 13, 1840, P. L. 683. The remainder of this section has been supplied by the Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31 and its amendments, and has been omitted from this compilation.

The certificate of election from the election officers is the prima facie evidence of the title to a township or borough office, and can be set aside only by contest. Com. v. Baxter, 35 Pa. 263.

Section 1310. Borough Ward and Township Return Boards. Certificates. Returns. The judges, inspectors and clerks of each election district of any borough, town, or township which shall have been divided by the court into separate election districts, shall make out a complete return of all the votes given at any election of borough, town, ward or township officers, designating the number of votes each person received; and the judge and insectors shall appoint one of their number for return judge to meet the other return judge or judges of the said borough, town, ward or township in said county, at the oldest election place, on the third day after any such election, and then add together the number of votes given for each person voted for, other than justices of the peace and alderman, make out the returns as the nature of the election may require, issue certificates of election for such officers as may be elected and cause the same to be delivered to such persons, complying in all respects with the provisions of this act and after the performance of said duties, appoint one of their number by consent or lot, to deliver the full returns to the prothonotary of said county, in the manner provided for making township returns.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 2, 1860, P. L. 609. Justices of the peace and aldermen are excepted from this section, as Sec. 2, Act of June 21, 1839, P. L. 376 supplies the provisions hereof as to them. The provision relating to the certificates of election has been added for the purpose of clarity. See Sec. 1309.

We have substituted "prothonotary" for "court of quarter sessions" in the above section, following the decision of the Supreme Court in Dunmore Borough Election 299 Pa. 517. See notes to Sec. 1236.

The election officers of the different election precincts of a township ought to follow the Act of Apr. 2, 1860, P. L. 609, and appoint one of their number to carry the returns of the township election on the third day after the election to the oldest polling place in the district, and there make out certificates of the persons elected to township offices. Forkston Twp. Election, 12 Dist. 348, (1903).

Section 1311. Election Returns and Certificates in School Districts Comprising Territory From Two or More Municipalities. The judge, inspectors, and clerks of each election district in any school district in this Commonwealth which comprises the territory of or territory from two or more municipalities shall make out a complete return of all the votes given at any election for officers in the school districts, or for the submission of any question to the electors of such district, designating the number of votes cast for each person and for and against each question so submitted to the electors; and the judge and inspectors shall appoint one of their number for return judge, to meet the other return judge or judges of the said school district, on the second day after any such election, at the oldest election place within the district, or at such place within the district as shall have been appointed by the Court of common pleas, and there add together the number of votes cast for each person voted for, and for and against any question submitted to the electors, and make out the returns as the nature of the election may require, complying in all respects with the provisions of existing election laws; and after the performance of said duties, said return judges shall appoint one of their number, by consent or lot, to delvier the full returns of the vote for officers to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas and of the vote on questions submitted to the electors of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the proper county, within two days thereafter, in the manner now provided by law for making township or borough returns; they shall ascertain and declare the result of such election; they shall, within five days after making up such returns, issue certificates to persons elected to fill such offices.

Part of Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, as last amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 238.

Section 1312. Return Boards to Issue Certificates of Election to Candidates Elected to Congress and General Assembly. It shall also be the duty of the judge or judges, acting as a return board, to transmit to each of the persons elected entirely within the county, to serve in congress, or in the senate, or in the house of representatives of this Commonwealth, a certificate of his election, within five days after the day of making up such return.

Sec. 83, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

(b) Duties of Prothonotary

Section 1315. Prothonotary to Transmit Copy of Returns to Secretary of the Commonwealth. The prothonotary of every county to whome the return of any election shall be delivered by the return board as aforesaid, where said board is required to send a copy of said return to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, shall make out a copy of such return certified under his hand and official seal, and forthwith transmit such copy, under a sealed cover, to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, by placing the same in the nearest post office. He shall also record all the election returns delivered to him in a book to be procured for that purpose.

Sec. 84, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519. We have substituted "return board" for "judges."

The provisions in the above section which required the prothonotary to lay the returns of the election of county commissioners, county auditors, and township officers, before the court of quarter sessions, was repealed by implication by Sec. 13, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, and is therefore omitted from this compilation. Archbald Borough Election 5 C. C. 381, (1887).

Section 1316. Certified Copies of Election Papers to Be Furnished Applicants. It shall also be the duty of every prothonotary to give a certified copy of the list of voters and other papers deposited in his office by the judges of an election, to any person applying for the same, on payment of the usual fees, as in other cases.

Sec. 85, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

(c) Duties of Secretary of Commonwealth and Governor

Section 1320. Secretary of Commonwealth to Notify Prothonotary to Transmit Delayed Returns. If the returns of any elections, which by this act are directed to be transmitted to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, shall not be received within fifteen days after the same are required to be deposited in the post office, the said Secretary shall forthwith notify the prothonotary of the proper county to transmit without delay a certified copy of such returns.

Sec. 86, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1321. Certain Returns to Be Laid Before Governor. The Secretary of the Commonwealth, on the receipt of the returns of the election of any township or county officer who is by law to be commissioned by the Governor, shall forthwith lay the same before him.

Part of Sec. 87, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519. (For remainder of section, see Sec. 1322).

Section 1322. Returns of Elections of Members to Be Laid Before Senate and House of Representatives. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall, between the hours of twelve o'clock noon and one o'clock post meridian, of the first Tuesday in January of each odd numbered year, take into the hall of the Senate and the House of Representaitves, the several returns of the elections of members of the respective houses.

Drafted from Sec. 88 and part of Sec. 87, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.
The original section provided for the returns of the election of Senators to be laid before the Speaker of the Senate.

Section 1323. Tabulation of Returns, Certificates of Eelection Commissions and Proclamations For Persons Elected in the Senate at Large and Members of Congress.

(a) The Secretary of the Commonwealth at the first meeting of the General Assembly following the election of a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of Internal Affairs, Auditor General, or State Treasurer, shall deliver to the President of the Senate, the returns of elections for all such offices, who shall open and publish them in the presence of the Members of both houses of the General Assembly.

The persons receiving the highest number of votes for the respective offices shall be declared elected thereto, and certificates of such elections chall be made and filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall immediately lay before the Governor such certificates of election, whereupon the Governor shall issue a proclamation of the election of such persons and issue a commission to each person so elected.

(b) The returns of election of a United States Senator or a Representative-at-Large to the House of Representatives of the United States shall be made to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, who shall immediately tabulate and compute the same, and upon the conclusion of said count, certify the result thereof to the Governor, who shall immediately issue a certificate or certificates of election, under the seal of the Commonwealth, duly signed by himself and attested by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and deliver the same to the candidate receiving the highest number of votes for the respective offices. He shall also transmit the returns of said election to the President of the United States Senate, in the case of the election of a United States Senator or the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States in the case of a Representative-at-Large.

(c) The returns of election of a Judge of the Supreme or Superior Courts of this Commonwealth shall be made to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, who shall immediately tabulate and compute the same, and upon the conclusion of said count, certify the result thereof to the Governor who shall immediately declare by proclamation the name of the person so elected, and shall issue a commission to such person.

(d) The Governor, on the receipt of the returns of the election of members of the House of Representatives of the United States, other than Representatives-at-Large, from the Secretary of the Commonwealth, shall declare by proclamation the names of the persons so returned as elected in the respective congressional districts; and he shall also transmit the returns so made to the House of Repersentatives of the United States.

Drafted from the various sections and parts of sections relating to this subject, with the idea of making it a complete system for the returns of the election of State officers, legislators, judges, and Members of Congress.
Paragraph (a) is taken from the provisions of the Constitution (Art IV, Sec. 2, and Sec. 90, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519) which provide for the returns of the election of Governor. The other officers are included in this section on the strength of the provision in the various acts which provide that the election of the respective officers shall be regulated by the election laws in force for the choice of Governor, to wit: Lieutenant Governor, Act of 1874, P. L. 48, Sec. 2; State Treasurer, Act of 1873, P. L. 78, Secs. 2 and 4; Auditor General, Act of 1850, P. L. 434, Secs. 2 and 3; Secretary of Internal Affairs, Act of 1874, P. L. 135, Secs. 1 and 2.
The Act of May 9, 1879, P. L. 51, which provided for the return of the election of State Treasurer and Auditor General, when such election happened in a year not followed by a meeting of the Legislature, is, of course, obsolete.
Paragraph (b) is drafted from Sec. 2, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 995. We have included Representatives-at-Large in order to make the system complete.
Paragraph (c) is taken from Sec. 1, Act of June 24, 1895, P. L. 212, and Sec. 9, Act of Apr. 15, 1851, P. L. 648.
The said Act of Apr. 15, 1851, P. L. 648 required the Secretary of the Commonwealth to cause the returns of the election of judges of the Supreme Court to be opened in the presence of the Governor. We have omitted that, and provided for such returns to be made the same as for Superior Court judges. We understand that is the practice actually followed.
Paragraph (d) is Sec. 25, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1324. Certain Delayed Returns to Be Void Except in Cases of Contest. Whenever the returns of an election for governor shall not be received from any county by the Secretary of the Commonwealth before the election of Governor shall be published, every such return so delayed shall be considered as void, unless the election be contested, in which case such returns shall be allowed to be of the same validity and liable to the same exceptions as other returns received in due time.

Sec. 91, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1325. Proclamation of Names of Persons Elected as Presidential Electors. Notices of Election. The Secretary of the Commonwealth on receiving the returns of the election of Presidential electors shall lay them before the Governor; who shall enumerate and ascertain the number of votes given for each person so voted for, and shall thereupon declare, by proclamation, the names of the persons duly elected; and shall cause a notification of his election to be delivered to each person so chosen, on or before the last Wednesday in the month of November next after such election.

Sec. 29, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

ARTICLE XIV

PROCEDURE FOR THE OPENING OF BALLOT BOXES

Section 1400. Opening Ballot Boxes by Court Upon Petition Alleging Fraud. The court of common pleas, or a judge thereof, of the county in which any election district, precinct, or division is located, shall open the ballot box of such election district, precinct, or division used at any general, municipal, special, or primary election held therein, and cause the entire vote thereof to be correctly counted, by persons designated by such court or judge, if three qualified electors of the ward of a city or borough containing such election district, precinct, or division or if the election district, percinct or division is not contained in a ward, three qualified electors of such election district, precinct, or division, or of a contiguous or division or if the election district, precinct or division file, as hereinafter provided, a petition and affidavit alleging that, upon information which they consider reliable, they believe that fraud, although not manifest on the general return of votes made therefrom, was committed in the computation of the votes cast in such election district, precinct, or division, or in the marking of the ballots or otherwise in connection with such ballots. It shall not be necessary for the petitioners to specify in their petition the particular act of fraud they believe to have been committed, nor to offer evidence to substantiate the allegations of their petition.

Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 360.
This act was passed for the purpose of securing an accurate count, and a true return of the ballots actually cast. It was not intended to, and did not disturb the then existing practice regarding contested elections. Armstrongs Appeal, 293 Pa. 1.
This act is highly remedial statute and should be literally construed. Wright v. Barber, 270 Pa. 186, and it necessarily includes all ballot boxes used at all elections and for all offices including those of townships and boroughs. Dunmore Borough Election, 299 Pa. 517, (1930).
This act created an additional and independent remedy. Luzerne County Election Returns, 301 Pa., 247, (1930).
A proceeding based on this act is confined to a recounting, and in addition, the proper correction of errors in calculation apparent on the face of the returns. (Same).
If the contents of the ballot box are in such condition or such irregularities appear, as to render impossible a correct count, due to fraud, then the returns of the election officers must be accepted, and the parties relegated to election contest proceedings. (Same).
Elections for approval of municipal loans may not be contested under this section. Election Contest Petition, 41 Lanc. 593, (1929).
This section is mandatory upon the court if a proper petition is presented in compliance with the act. In re Laremer Election Dist. Ballot Box 15 West. 182 (1927), but it does not authorize the court to determine the qualifications of those who voted, or to exclude a poll because of defects in the election machinery. Such matters can be considered only in a contest of the election. (Same).
In computing the votes cast at an election, the Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 360, does not give the court acting as a computation board the right to exclude the entire vote cast at any polling place. Smith's Petition, 292 Pa. 140.

Complaints that ballots should not have been received at all, belong to a contest of the election. (Same).
Complaints that particular ballots received should not have been counted or were incorrectly totaled, are proper matters for consideration by the board. (Same).

Section 1401. Filing of Petition. Deposit of Cash or Bond. Every petition for the opening of a ballot box under the provisions of this article shall be filed in the office of the prothonotary of the proper county, accompanied by cash in the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00), or by a bond signed by the petitioners as principals and by a corporate surety, to be approved by the court, in the amount of two hundred dollars ($200.00), conditioned upon the payment to the county treasurer of the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) in the event that, upon the opening of the ballot box it shall not appear that fraud or substantial error was committed in the computation of the vote cast on the ballots contained therein, or fraud in the marking of the ballots contained therein, or otherwise in connection with such ballots.

Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 360.
Although recount shows no fraud or error, the petitioners are not liable for more costs than the $50 deposited. Forest City Borough Election, 11 D. & C., 381, (1928).

Section 1402. Return of Cash or Bond When Fraud or Error is Found. If, upon opening any such ballot box, it shall appear that fraud or substantial error was committed in the computation of the vote cast on the ballots contained therein, or fraud in the marking of the ballots contained therein, or otherwise in connection with such ballots, it shall be the duty of the court to certify to the prothonotary such fact; and thereupon the prothonotary shall, if the petitioners shall have deposited with him cash in the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00), return to them the said sum of fifty dollars ($50.00); and, if the petitioners shall have filed with the prothonotary a bond in lieu of cash, the prothonotary shall forthwith mark said bond cancelled.

Sec. 3, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 360.
The mere failure of the election board to return the names of each candidate, together with the number of votes cast for each, may constitute "substantial error" within the meaning of this section. In re Laremer Election Dist. Ballot Box 15 West. 182. (1927).
Difference in number of votes cast and number returned by election board may amount to "substantial error." In re Opening Ballot Box 23 Sch. 384, 385, 386, 387, 388.

Section 1403. Forfeiture of Fifty Dollars When no Fraud or Error Found. Collection on Bond. If, upon opening any ballot box under the provisions of this article, it shall not appear that fraud or substantial error was committed in the computation of the vote cast on the ballots contained therein or fraud in the marking of the ballots contained therein, or otherwise in connection with such ballots, the person upon whose petition such ballot box shall have been opened shall forfeit to the county the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00). If said petitioners shall have deposited the said sum in cash with the prothonotary at the time of filing their petition, the prothonotary shall promptly, upon the certification of the court that fraud or substantial error was not discovered, pay said sum deposited with him to the county treasurer; and, if the petitioners shall have filed with their petition a bond in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00), it shall be the duty of the county treasurer forthwith to collect from the surety on bond the sum of fifty dollars, ($50.00) and the cost of suit, and, for this purpose, he is hereby authorized to institute any necessary legal proceedings.

Sec. 4, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 360.

Section 1404. Time of Opening. Ballot boxes may be opened, under the provisions of this article, at any time within four months after the date of the general, municipal special, or primary election at which the ballots therein shall have been cast.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 360.

Section 1405. Correction of Returns When Fraud or Error Found Before Computation Completed. If any ballot box shall have been so opened before the completion of the computation and canvassing of all of the returns for the county, and the court shall discover therein any fraud or substantial error, it shall correct, compute, and certify to the return judges, or the return board, for the said county, the votes of the election district, regardless of any fraudulent or erroneous entries made by the election officers thereof; and it shall be the duty of the return judges or return board to enter in the returns the figures so certified, and to correct accordingly any entries previously made in the papers being prepared by the said return judges or return board.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 360.
The result of a recount under the control of the common pleas will, on appeal, prevail over the returns of the election board where the court below finds that the ballots recounted were the same ballots, and in the same condition as when the election board finished with them. Dunmore Borough Election, 299 Pa. 517, (1930).

Section 1406. Decision of Court Not Fnal. Effect on Official Returns. No order or decision of said court hereunder shall be deemed a final adjudication regarding the results of any election or primary so as to preclude any contest thereof; and no such order or decision shall affect the official return of said election district, unless the ballot boxes shall have been opened before the completion of the computation and canvassing of all the returns for the county as herein provided, or unless a contest shall have been instituted in the manner now or hereafter provided by law.

When proceedings under this act were instituted for a recount of votes cast for borough councilman after the returns for the county had been made, it was held that the purpose of the act is to ascertain whether or not there is foundation for a criminal charge against persons having charge of the elections, and the computation made by the court under said act can not be taken as final adjudication of the results of the election and substituted for the returns made by the election board. Com. v. Bobby 11 D. & C., 350, (1928).

Section 1407. Box and Contents Available As Evidence. If, upon the opening of any ballot box under the provisions of this article, it shall be found that fraud was committed in the computation of the votes cast on the ballots contained therein, or in the marking of the ballots contained therein, or otherwise in connection with such ballots, the court shall make such order as shall be appropriate to enable the ballot box and the contents thereof to be available as evidence in any prosecution which may be begun against any person or persons alleged to be guilty of such fraud.

Sec. 6, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L 360

ARTICLE XV

MEETING OF THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE

Section 1500. Time and Place of Meeting of Presidential Electors. The presidential electors chosen shall assemble at the seat of government of this Commonwealth, at twelve o'clock of the day which is or may be directed by the Congress of the United States, and shall then and there perform the duties enjoined upon them by the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Sec. 30, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1501. Filling of Vacancies Existing Among Presidential Electors. If any such presidential elector shall die, or from any cause fail to attend at the seat of government at the time appointed by law, the electors present shall proceed to choose viva voce a person to fill the vacancy occasioned thereby, and immediately after such choice the name of the person so chosen shall be transmitted by the presiding officer of the college to the Governor, who shall forthwith cause notice in writing to be given to such person of his election; and the person so elected (and not the person in whose place he shall have been chosen) shall be an elector and shall, with the other electors, perform the duties enjoined on them.

Sec. 31, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1502. Compensation of Presidential Electors. Expenses of Electoral College. Every presidential elector aforesaid shall receive from the State Treasury the sum of three dollars for every day spent in traveling to, remaining at, and returning from the place of meeting aforesaid, and shall be entitled to mileage at the rate of three cents per mile to and from their homes, to be computed by the ordinary mail route between their homes and the place of meeting aforesaid. And the contingent expenses of the electoral college, not exceeding one hundred dollars in amount, shall likewise be paid by the State Treasurer, in both cases upon warrants drawn by the presiding officer of the college.

Sec. 32, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 24, 1893, P. L. 129.

ARTICLE XVI

SPECIAL ELECTIONS AND ELECTIONS TO FILL VACANCIES IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

(a) Vacancies in the General Assembly

Section 1600. Writ of Election to Fill Vacancy. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in either House of the General Assembly, the presiding officer thereof shall issue a writ of election to fill such vacancy for the remainder of the term.

Drafted from Sec. 2, Art. II of the Constitution.

Section 1601. Issuance of Writs. Every writ which shall be issued by the presiding officer of either House of the Legislature, to supply a vacancy in such House, shall be directed to the sheriff or sheriffs of the proper county or counties, as the case may be, and shall particularly express the day on which the election shall be held to supply such vacancy.

Part of Sec. 35, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1602. Vacancies in Senate During Recess. If such writ shall be issued by the presiding officer of the Senate during the recess of the Legislature, he shall, except as hereinafter provided, direct the election to be held at the time appointed for holding general or municipal elections.

Part of Sec. 35, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.
(Note. Where in this article a reference was made to the general election, we have added "or municipal" in order to cover the yearly Fall elections as originally intendend.)

Section 1603. Vacancies During Session. If such vacancy shall occur during the session of the Legislature, the presiding officer issuing the writ shall appoint a time as early as may be convenient, not exceeding thirty days thereafter, for holding such election. But if the return of such election cannot be made before the time appointed for the adjournment of the Legislature, such writ shall not be issued, or, if issued, shall, in the case of a vacancy in the House of Representatives, be countermanded, and in the case of a vacancy in the Senate, shall, by another writ issued as aforesaid, be extended until the next general or municipal election.

Part of Sec. 36, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1604. Vacancies Occurring Before Special Session. If a vacancy shall have occurred, or may hereafter occur, in either House of the Legislature of this Commonwealth, during the recess of the Legislature, and the members thereof may have been or may be required, either by their own adjournment, by the Governor, or otherwise, to meet at some time previous to the next general or municipal election, the presiding officer shall issue the writ and appoint a time as early as may be convenient, not exceeding thirty days thereafter, for holding said election to fill said vacancy.

Drafted from part of Sec. 36, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, and Sec. 1, Act of Jan. 16, 1855, P. L. 1.

Section 1605. Sheriff to Give Notice of Special Election in Event of Special Session. If, after a writ shall have been issued, directing the election to fill such vacancy to take place on the day of the general election or municipal election, or if a previous writ has been countermanded as aforesaid, and the Governor shall issue his proclamation for convening the Legislature, then the sheriff to whom such writ shall be directed, shall give notice as is hereinafter provided, of an election to be held within thirty days after the date of such proclamation.

Sec. 37, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1606. Notice and Time of Holding Special Election. Every writ for holding a special election as aforesaid shall be delivered to the sheriff, to whom the same shall be directed at least fifteen days before the day appointed for such elections, who shall forthwith give due and public notice thereof throughout the county, at least ten days before such election, and shall send a copy thereof to at least one of the inspectors of each election district therein.

Sec. 38, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1607. Delivery of Returns of Special Election. In all cases of election to fill vacancies in either branch of the Legislature, the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall, on receiving the returns of such election, deliver the same without delay to the presiding officer of the House in which such vacancy occurred, and if said House is not in session when said return is received, then the same shall be delivered so soon as said House convenes.

Sec. 89, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

(b) Vacancies in the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States

Section 1615. How Filled. Whenever vacancies occur in the representation of the people of this Commonwealth in the Senate or the House of Represntatives of the United States, the Governor shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

Drafted from Sec. 3, Art I and Art. XVII of the Constitution of the United States.

Section 1616. Election to Fill Vacancy in United States Senate. Whenever a vacancy shall happen in the representation of this Commonwealth in the Senate of the United States, the said vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by the vote of the electors at a special election held at the time of the next general election whose antecedent primary occurs at least sixty days after the happening of such vacancy; and it shall be the duty of the Governor to issue writs of election accordingly. Candidates to fill vacancies in the office of United States Senator shall be nominated at said antecedent primary, and elected at said special election, in the same manner as is provided for the nomination and election of candidates for the full term.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent temporary appointments by the Governor to the office of Representative in the Senate of the United States as provided by the act approved the twenty-fourth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred and ninety-five), entitled "An act to provide for the nomination and election of candidates for the office of United States Senator, and the filling of vacancies in said office," until an election is held as hereinbefore provided.

The part of this section relating to temporary appointments by the Governor has been omitted as not pertinent to elections.

Section 1617. Vacancies in the House. Writ to Sheriff. Every writ which shall be issued by the Governor of this Commonwealth to supply a vacancy in the representation of the people of this Commonwealth in the House of Representatives of the United States, shall be directed to the sheriff of the county or counties composing the congressional district, and shall particularly express the day on which the election shall be held to supply such vacancy.

Sec. 39, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1618. Time of Holding Election. If such vacancy shall happen during the session of Congress, or, if Congress shall be required to meet at some time previous to the next general or municipal election, the Governor shall appoint a time as early as may be convenient for holding such election; otherwise, he shall direct the election to be held at the time appointd for holding the general or municipal elections.

Sec. 40, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1619. Notice of Holding Elections. Every writ for holding a special election for member of the House of Representatives of the United States shall be delivered to the sheriff, to whom the same may be directed at least fifteen days before the day appointed for such election, who shall forthwith give due and public notice thereof throughout the county at least ten days before such election, and shall send a copy thereof to at least one of the inspectors of each election district therein.

Sec. 41, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 1620. Delivery and Announcement of Returns. When the returns of any special election for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States shal be received by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Governor shall declare by proclamation the name of the person elected, and he shall also, as soon as conveniently may be, thereafter transmit the returns so made to the House of Representatives of the United States.

Sec. 42, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

(c) General Provisions

Section 1625. Conduct of Special Elections. Special elections shall be regulated and conducted in like manner as general elections, and by the same officers, who shall perform the same duties and be subject to the same penalties as are provided for general elections.

Part of Sec. 23, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31.

Section 1626. Who May Vote in Cities at Special Elections. Challenges. Any person whose name is on the register of any election division of any city shall be entitled to vote at any special election unless it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the election officers that he has become disqualified since registration.

If a special election shall intervene between the day of a voter's registration and the next general or municipal election, the presence of the name of an elector on the register of any election division of a city shall not be conclusive of his qualifications, but if challenged as to identity and residence, he shall sign his name on the "ballot check list" or in the space provided in the register for such purposes, and produce such other evidence as is or may be required by law to satisfy the election officers of his identity and residence.

Drafted to take care of certain provisions found in the several personal registration acts, viz: part of Sec. 49, Act of July 10, 1919, P. L. 857; part of Sec. 17, Act of July 24, 1913, P. L. 977; and part of Sec. 13, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 63, as amended by the Act of July 6, 1917, P. L. 738.

ARTICLE XVII

VOTING BY SOLDIERS

(a) In Actual Military Service

Section 1700. Qualified Electors in Military Service. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the president of the United States or by the authority of this Commonwealth, and as such, absent from their place of residence on the days appointed by law for holding the general or municipal elections within this State, or on the day for holding special elections to fill vacancies, such electors shall be entitled, at such times, to exercise the right of suffrage, except at elections held in cities of the first class for the purpose of electing members of council, ward and division officers, as fully as if they were present at their usual places of election in the manner hereinafter prescribed, and whether, at the time of voting, such electors shall be within the limits of this State or not; and the right of voting shall not be affected in any manner by reason of the failure of any voter to have been registered in his place of residence.

Secs. 1 and 41, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990. We made this section apply to municipal, as well as general, elections on the authority of Attorney General's Opinion of Sept. 26, 1917, page 185, and Lansford Borough Election, 27 Dist. 611 (1918). The last part of the original section relating to the effect of other counties paying bounties to such persons, has been omitted as obsolete, and the provision added that failure to be registered shall not affect such persons right to vote.

Soldiers at home on furlough must vote at their home voting place. Voting Soldiers (Op. Dept. Atty. Gen.) 21 C.C. 456, 7 Dist. 667 (1898); and if they have been mustered out, no matter where they may be, they vote only as private citizens and have no rights under this act. (Same)

Section 1701. Polls to Be Open in Each Military Unit. Detached Voters. A poll shall be opened in each military or naval unit, composed in whole or in part of Pennsylvania soldiers, at the quarters of the captain or other officer thereof, and all electors belonging to such unit who shall be within one mile of such quarters, on the day of election, and not prevented by orders of their commanders, or proximity of the enemy, from returning to their unit quarters, shall vote at such poll and at no other place; officers, other than those of a unit, and other voters detached and absent from their units, or in any military or naval hopital, or in any vessel or navy yard, may vote at such other polls as may be most convenient for them; and when there shall be ten or more voters at any place, who shall be unable to attend any unit poll, or their proper place of election as aforesaid, the electors present may open a poll, at such place as they may select, and certify in the poll-book, which shall be a record of the proceedings at said election, substantially in manner and form as hereinafter directed.

Sec. 2, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990. The word "unit" has been substituted for "company".

Section 1702. Time of Opening and Closing Polls. The polls shall be opened as early as practicable on said day and remain open at least three hours, and if necessary in the opinion of the judges of the election, in order to receive the votes of all the electors, they may keep the polls open until seven o'clock in the afternoon of said day; proclamation thereof shall be made at or before the opening of the polls and one hour before closing them.

Sec. 3, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1703. Election Officers. Before opening the poll on the day of election, the electors present at each of the places aforesaid shall elect viva voce three persons, present at the time, and having the qualifications of electors, for the judges of said election, and the judges so elected shall then appoint two of the persons present, who shall be qualified to act as clerks of said election; and the judges shall prepare boxes or other suitable receptacles for the ballots.

Sec. 4, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1704. Oaths of Election Officers. Before any votes shall be receveid, said judges and clerks shall each take an oath or affirmation that he will perform the duties of judge or clerk (as the case may be) of said election, according to law, and to the best of his abilities, and that he will studiously endeavor to prevent fraud, deceit or abuse in conducting the same, which oath or affirmation any of the said judges or clerks so elected or appointed may administer to each other; and the same shall be in writing, or partly written and partly printed, and signed by said judges and clerks, and certified to by the party administering the same, and attached to or entered upon the poll-book, and there signed and certified as aforesaid.

Sec. 5, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1705. Manner of Election. Challenges. All elections shall be by ballot and, the judges of elections may, and upon challenge of any voter shall, examine under oath or affirmation the applicant to vote (which oath or affirmation any of said judges may administer), in respect to his right to vote, and his qualifications to vote in the particular ward, precinct, city, borough, town, township or county of this State, in which he claims residence; and before receiving any vote, the judges or a majority of them, shall be satisfied that such applicant is a qualified voter of such place.

Sec. 6, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990. "Town" has been added.

Section 1706. Poll-Books. Separate poll-books shall be kept, and separate returns made, for the voters of each city or county; the poll-books shall name the unit and organization and the place, post or hospital, in which said election is held; the county and township, city, borough, town, ward, precinct or election district of each voter shall be indorsed opposite his name on the poll-books; each clerk shall keep one of said poll-books, so that there may be a double list of voters.

Sec. 7, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990. The words "unit and organization" have been substituted for "company and regiment" and "town" has been added.

Section 1707. Ballots. Each ballot shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed thereon, the names of all the officers which may properly be voted for at said election, for which the said elector desires to vote.

Sec. 8, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Ballots cast by soldiers in camp under this act need not be in the form prescribed by the Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 426, and its amendments, but may be skeleton forms resembling the official ballots in general features without any names of candidates. Lansford Borough Election, 27 Dist. 611 (1918).

Section 1708. Casting of Ballot. That the judges, to whom any ballot shall be delivered, shall, upon the receipt thereof, pronounce with an audible voice, the name of the elector, and if no objection is made to him, and the judges are satisfied that said elector is a citizen of the United States, and legally entitled, according to the constituion and laws of his State, to vote a said election, shall immediately put said ballot in the box or other receptacle therefor, without inspecting the names of persons voted for; and the clerks shall enter the name of the elector on the poll-book of his county, ward, precinct, city, borough, town or township, and county of his residence, substantially, in pursuance of the form hereinafter given.

Sec. 9, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1709. Counting of Votes. At the close of the polls, the number of votes shall be counted and set down at the foot of the list of voters, and certified and signed by the judges, and attested by the clerks.

Sec. 10, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1710. Manner of Counting Ballots. After the pollbooks are signed, the ballot-box shall be opened and the ballots therein contained shall be taken out, one at a time, by one of the judges, who shall read distinctly while the ballot remains in his hand, the name or names therein contained for the several officers voted for, and then deliver it to the second judge, who shall examine the same and pass it to the third judge, who shall string the vote for each county upon a separate thread, and carefully preserve the same; the same method shall be pursued as to each ballot taken out, until all the votes are counted.

Sec. 11, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1711. Rejection of Ballots. Whenever two or more ballots shall be found deceitfully folded or rolled together, neither of such ballots shall be counted; and if a ballot shall contain more than the proper number of names for the same office, it shall be considered fradulent as to all the names designated for that office, but no further.

Sec. 12, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1712. Tally-Lists. As a check in counting, each clerk shall keep a tally-list for each county from which votes shall have been received, which tally-list shall constitute a part of the poll-book.

Sec. 13, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1713. Enumeration of Votes. After the examination of the ballots shall be completed, the number of votes for each person in the county poll-books, as aforesaid, shall be enumerated under the inspection of the judges, and set down as hereinafter provided in the form of the poll-book.

Sec. 14, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1714. Form of Poll-Book. The following shall be substantially the form of the poll-books, to be kept by the judges and clerks of the election, filling in the blanks carefully:

J K,
L M, Clerks.

Sec. 16, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1716. Disposition of Poll-Books. After canvassing the votes in manner aforesaid, the judges shall put in an envelope, one of the pollbooks with its tally-list and return of each city or county, together with the ballots, and transmit the same, properly sealed up and directed, through the nearest post-office, or by express, as soon as possible thereafter, to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the city or county in which such electors would have voted if not in the military service aforesaid (being the city or county for which the poll-book was kept); and the other poll-book of said city or county, enclosed in an envelope and sealed as aforesaid, and properly directed, shall be delivered to one of the commisisoners hereinafter provided for, if such commissioner calls for the same in ten days, and if not so called for, the same shall be transmitted by mail or by express, so soon as possible thereafter, to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, who shall carefully preserve the same, and on demand of the proper prothonotary, deliver to said prothonotary, under his hand and official seal, a certified copy of the return of votes, so transmitted to and received by him, for said city or county of which the demandant is prothonotary.

Sec. 17, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1717. Duties of Prothonotary. The prothonotary of the county to whom such returns shall be made shall deliver to the proper return judges, a copy, certified under his hand and seal, of the return of votes so transmitted to him by the judges of the election as aforesaid, or as officially certified by the Secretary of the Commonwealth as aforesaid, to said prothonotary.

Sec. 18, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1718. Meeting of Return Judges. The return judges of the several counties shall adjourn to meet at the places now directed by law on the third Friday after any general or municipal election for the purpose of counting the soldiers' vote, and when two or more counties are connected in the election, the meeting of the judges from each county shall be postponed in such case to the Friday following.

Sec. 19, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1719. Duties of Return Judges. Fraud. The return judges, so met, shall include in their enumeration the votes so returned, and thereupon shall proceed in all respects in the like manner as is provided by law in cases where all the votes shall have been given at the usual place of election. The several courts of this Commonwealth shall have the same power and authority to investigate and determine all question of fraud or illegality in relation to the voting of the soldiers, as are now vested in said courts with regard to questions of fraud and illegality arising from the voting of persons not in military service, under the present laws relating thereto.

Sec. 20, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

When the returns delivered to the return judges are regular on their face, they cannot go behind the returns and reject some of the votes. Com. v. Tree, 4 Phila. 362, 18 L. I. 372 (1861).

Section 1720. Returns of Presidential Electors. In elections for electors of president and vice-president of the United States, the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall lay before the Governor all returns received by him for any election as aforesaid, who shall compare the same with the county returns, and add thereto all such returns as shall appear on such comparison, not to be contained in said county returns, in every case where said military returns for such counties shall have been received by said secretary, at a period too late for transmitting them to the proper prothonotary, in time for the action of the judges of the said counties.

Sec. 21, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1721. Contested Elections. All said elections shall be subject to contest in the same manner as is now provided by law; and in all cases of contested elections, all legal returns which shall have been bona fide forwarded by said judges, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, shall be counted and estimated, although the same may not have arrived or been received by the proper officers, to be counted and estimated in the manner hereinbefore directed, before issuing the certificates of election to the persons appearing to have a majority of the votes then received, and the said returns shall be subject to all such objections, as other returns are liable to when received in due time.

Sec. 22, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1722. Duties of Secretary of the Commonwealth. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall cause to be printed a sufficient number of copies of this article, with such extracts from the general election law, as shall be deemed important to accompany the same, and blank forms of poll-books, with tally-lists and returns, as prescribed in this article, which, with the necessary postage stamps, to defray expenses and postage on returns, shall in sufficient time before any such election, be forwarded by said secretary, at the expense of the Commonwealth, by commissioners or otherwise, as shall be deemed most certain to insure delivery thereof to the captain or commanding officer of each unit, or in case of detached voters, to the officer having charge of the post or hospital, who shall retain the same until the day of election, and then deliver the same to the judges elected as provided in this article. No election shall be invalidated by reason of the neglect or failure of the said secretary to cause the delivery of said poll-books to the proper persons as aforesaid.

Sec. 23, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1723. Appointment of Commissioners. Oath. For the purpose of more effectually carrying out the provisions of this article, the Governor may appoint and commission, under the great seal of the Commonwealth, such number of commissioners, having the qualifications of an elector in this State, as he shall deem necessary, not exceeding one to each regiment or equivalent organization of Pennsylvania soldiers in the service of this State, or of the United States, and shall apportion the work among the commissioners, and supply such vacancies as may occur in their number. Such commissioners, before they act, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation and cause the same to be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, to the following (effect): "I, ... appointed commissioner, under the act which regulates elections by persons in actual military service, do solemnly swear (or affirm), that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and impartially, fully, and without reference to political preferences or results, perform, to the best of my knowledge and ability, the duties imposed on me by the said act; and that I will studiously endeavor to prevent fraud, deceit and abuse, not only in the elections to be held under the same, but in the returns thereof." If any commissionr appointed by or under this article shall knowingly violate his duty, or knowingly omit or fail to do his duty under this article, or violate any part of his oath or affirmation, he shall be liable to indictment for perjury, in the proper county, and upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment in the penitentiary, at labor, not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 24, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1724. Duties of Commisisoners. Such commissioners shall deliver, as far as practicable, at least four of the copies of this article, and other extract of laws, published as hereinbefore directed, and at least two blank forms of poll-books, tally-lists and returns entrusted to them, to the commanding officers of every unit, or part thereof, of Pennsylvania soldiers in the actual military or naval service of the United States; or of this state and make suitable arrangements and provision for the opening of polls under this article. The said commissioners, as soon as practicable after the day of election, shall call upon the judges of the election and procure one poll-book containing the returns of the election, and safely preserve the name, not only from loss, but from alteration, and deliver the same, without delay, to the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Sec. 25, Act of Aug. 25, 1854, P. L. 990.

Section 1725. Compensation of Commissioners. Said commissioners shall receive, in full compensation for their services under this article, ten cents per mile in going to and returning from their respective organizations, estimating the distance of travel by the usually traveled route; and the accounts therefor shall be audited and paid out of the State Treasury in the same manner as other claims are now audited and paid. All commanding and other officers are requested to aid the commissioners herein appointed, and to give them all proper facilities to enable them to carry out the design and intention of this article.

Sec. 26, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1726. Informalities Not to Invalidate Elections. No mere informality in the manner of carrying out or executing any of the provisions of this article, shall invalidate any election held under the same, or authorize the returns thereof to be rejected or set aside; nor shall any failure on the part of the commissioners to reach or visit any unit or organization or the failure of any unit or part thereof to vote, invalidate any election which may be held under this article.

Sec. 27, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1727. Powers of Election Officers. The several officers authorized to conduct such election, shall have the like powers, and they, as well as other persons who may attend, vote, or offer to vote at such election, shall be subject to the like penalties and restrictions as are declared or provided in the case of elections by the citizens at their usual places of election; and all of the provisions of the general election laws of this State, so far as applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this article, nor supplied thereby, shall apply to all elections held under this article.

Sec. 28, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1728. No Compensation For Election Officers. No compensation shall be allowed to any judge or clerk under this article.

Sec. 29, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1729. Duties of Sheriffs. When the sheriff of any county shall issue his proclamation for a general, municipal or special election to fill vacancies, under the laws of this State, he shall transmit immediately, copies thereof, to the field officers and senior captains in the service aforesaid, from the said city or county.

Sec. 30, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1730. Rights of Detached Voters. When any of the electors mentioned in the first section of this article, less than ten in number, shall be members of companies of another State or territory, or for any sufficient and legal cause shall be separated from their proper unit, or shall be in any hospital, navy yard, vessel, or on recruiting, provost or other duty, whether within or without this State, under such circumstances as shall render it probable that he or they will be unable to rejoin their proper unit or to be present at his proper place of election on or before the day of election therein mentioned, said elector or electors shall have a right to vote in the following manner.

Sec. 32, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1731. Voting by Detached Electors. The voter aforesaid may, before the day of election, deposit his ballot or ballots properly folded as required by the general election laws of this State, or otherwise as the voter may choose, in a sealed envelope, together with a written or printed or partly written and partly printed statement, containing the name of the voter, the county, township, borough or ward of which he is a resident, and a written or printed authority to some qualified voter in the election district of which said voter is a resident, to cast the ballots contained in said envelope, for him, on the day of said election. Said statement and authority shall be signed by the said voter, and attested by the commanding or some commissioned officer of the unit of which he is a member, in the case of a private, and of some commissioned officer of the organization, in case of an officer, if any of such officer are conveniently accessible, and if otherwise, then by some other witness; and there shall also accompany said ballots, an affidavit of said voter, taken before someone of the officers aforesaid, and in the absence of such officers, before some other person duly authorized to administer oaths, by any law of this State, that he is a qualified voter in the election district in which he proposes to vote, that he is in the actual military service of the United States, or of this State, describing the organization to which he belongs, that he has not sent his ballots to any other person or persons than the one in such authority mentioned, that he will not offer to vote at any poll which may be opened on said election day, at any place whatsoever, and that he is not a deserter, and has not been dishonorably dismissed from the service, and that he is now stationed at ....., in the State of ..... Said sealed envelope containing the ballots, statements, authority and affidavit as aforesaid, shall be sent to the proper person, by mail or otherwise, having written or printed on the outside, across the sealed part thereof, the words "Soldier's ballot for ..... township, (city, borough or ward), in the County of .....".

Sec. 33, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1732. Delivery and Counting of Votes of Detached Electors. The elector to whom such ballot shall be sent, shall, on the day of election, and whilst the polls of the proper district are open, deliver the envelope so received, unopened, to the proper election officer, who shall open the same in the presence of the election board, and deposit the ballots therein contained, together with the envelope and accompanying papers, as other ballots are deposited, and said board shall count and canvass the same in the same manner as other votes cast at said election; and the person delivering the same may, on demand of any elector, be compelled to testify on oath, that the envelope so delivered by him, is in the same state as when received by him, and that the same has not been opened, nor the contents thereof changed or altered in any way, by him or any other person.

Sec. 34, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1733. Challenges. The right of any person thus offering to vote at any such election may be challenged for the same causes, except those relating to registration, that it could be challenged if he were personally present, and for no other reason or cause.

Sec. 35, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1734. Penalty for Refusal to Receive Ballots of Detached Electors. Any officer of any general, municipal or special election in this state, who shall refuse to receive any such envelope, and deposit such baloits, or to count and canvass the same, and any elector who shall receive such envelope and neglect or refuse to present the same to the officers of the election district indorsed on the said envelope, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding one year, and by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or either or both, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 36, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1735. Penalty for False Swearing. Any person who wilfully and corruptly make and subscribe any false affidavit, or make any false oath touching any matter or thing provided in this article, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment, not exceeding five years, and by fine, not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by either or both, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 37, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1736. Blanks to Be Furnished. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall prepare the necessary blank forms to carry out the provisions of this article, and furnish the same for the use of the persons so engaged in the military service aforesaid.

Sec. 38, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1737. Witnesses to Statements and Affidavits. In case any qualified elector in military service aforesaid, may be in any hospital, military or naval, or in any vessel or navy yard, the statements and affidavits in this article mentioned, may be witnessed by, and made before any officer of the vessel, navy yard, or other place in which said voter is, for the time being, engaged.

Sec. 39, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

Section 1738. Duties of Assessors, Tax Collectors and County Commissioners. Every assessor within this Commonwealth, annually, shall assess and return in the manner now required by law, a county tax of ten cents upon each and every non-commissioned officer and private, and the usual taxes upon every commissioned officer, known by them to be in the military service of the United States, or of this State; and when any omission shall occur, the omitted names shall be added by such assessors to the assessments and lists of voters, on the application of any citizen of the election district or precinct wherein such soldier might or would have a right to vote if not in such service as aforesaid; and such non-commissioned officers and privates shall be exempt from all other personal taxes during their continuance in such service; and said assessors shall in each and every case of such assessed soldiers or officers, without fee or reward therefor, give a certificate of such regular or additional assessment, to any citizen of the election district or precinct, who may at any time demand the same; and upon the presentation thereof to the tax collector of said district, or the treasurer of the said county, it shall be the duty of such officer to receive said assessed tax of, and from any person offering to pay the same, for the soldier or officer therein named, and to indorse upon such certificate a receipt therefor; and said collector or county treasurer shall receive said assessed tax, from any person who may offer to pay the same for any of said officers or soldiers, without requiring a certificate of assessment, when the name of such person shall have been duly entered uopn the assessment books and tax duplicates, and give a receipt therefor to such person, specially stating therein, the name of the soldier or officer whose tax is thus paid, the year for which it was assessed, and date of the payment thereof; which said certificate and receipt, or receipt only, shall be prima facie evidence to any election board provided for by this article, before which the same may be offered, of the due assessment of said tax against, and the payment thereof, by the soldier or officer therein named, offering the same as aforesaid; but said election board shall not be thereby precluded from requiring other proof of the right to vote, as specified by this article or the general election laws of this Commonwealth. And if any of said assessors, collectors or treasurers, shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this section, or to perform any of the duties therein enjoined upon them, or either of them, he or they so offending, shall be considered and adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than twenty, nor more than two hundred dollars: Provided, That the additional assessment required to be made by the above section, in cities of the first class, shall be made on application of any citizen of the election district or precinct thereof, upon oath or affirmation of such citizen, to be administered by the assessor, that such absent soldier is a citizen of the election district or precinct wherein such assessment is required by such citizen to be made.

Sec. 40, Act of Aug. 25, 1864, P. L. 990.

(b) Returning Soldiers

Section 1745. Voting by Returned Soldiers, Sailors and Marines. Any soldier sailor, or marine, in service or who has served in the Army or Navy of the United States and who has returned to his home, shall be entitled to vote in his respective election district as a soldier, sailor, or marine, notwithstanding that such soldier, sailor, or marine, has not been assessed, and has not paid the usual taxes, or is not personally registered in the district in which he resides: Provided, That such election at which he offers to vote, shall occur at such time as has prevented such soldier, sailor or marine from being assessed and from having paid his usual taxes, and, where the same is necessary, from having been personally registered after his return to his home, as is required in the case of an elector by the Constitution.

Sec. 1, Act of July 15, 1919, P. L. 966.

Section 1746. Evidence of Right. Special Tax. No person shall be allowed to vote under the provisions of this subdivision unless he produces evidence, satisfactory to the election officers, that he is entitled to vote as a soldier, sailor or marine under the provisions of this subdivision, and unless he shall produce to the election officers a receipt from the proper tax collector, setting forth that such person has paid a county tax of ten cents. The several tax collectors are hereby authorized to receive such tax of ten cents and issue a receipt therefor. All such taxes shall be paid to the county treasurer as provided by law in the case of other taxes.

Sec. 2, Act of July 15, 1919, P. L. 966.

Section 1747. Penalty. Any person who shall vote under the provisions of this subdivision, without being entitled so to do, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and in default of the payment of such fine and costs, shall be imprisoned for a term not exceeding ninety days.

Sec. 3, Act of July 15, 1919, P. L. 966.

Section 1748. Application. This subdivision shall apply to all soldiers, sailors and marines in service in the Army or Navy of the United States, as well as those who have been discharged therefrom, and who have been prevented from being assessed, from having paid the usual taxes, and from being personally registered. It is the intention of this subdivision that all such persons are within the meaning of the Constitution relative to voting by soldiers.

Sec. 4, Act of July 15, 1919, P. L. 966.

ARTICLE XVIII

ELECTION CONTESTS

(a) Classes of Election Contests

Section 1800. The several classes of general, municipal and primary elections which may be contested in this Commonwealth are hereby distinguished and designated as follows, to wit:

I. The Governor and Lieutenant-Governor of the Commonwealth.

II. Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States and all officers of this Commonwealth, including judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts, (except Governor and Lieutenant-Governor), who now are or hereafter shall be required to be nominated or elected by the qualified voters of the State at large.

III. The judges of the several courts of record, to be learned in the law, other than judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts.

IV. Members of the General Assembly.

V. All other officers whether nominated or elected by the qualified voters of counties, cities, townships, towns, boroughs, wards, school districts, poor districts or any other division of the State.

Sec. 1, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208. For the purpose of clarity, we have added the Members of the General Assembly to this classification as such contests are provided for in the same act.

This article has been extended to primary elections as Sec. 15, Act of 1913, P. L. 719, provides that contests of primaries shall be originated and conducted as in cases of elections.

The provision of Sec. 15, Act of 1913, P. L. 719, as amended, which says "contests of primaries shall originate and be conducted as in cases of elections" is sufficient to bring the laws regulating election contests into the primary system, in so far as such laws are adaptable. McCormick's Contested Election, 281 Pa. 281.

This act does not apply to an election on the question of increasing municipal indebtedness. Fowler v. Gable, 3 Dist. 23 (1893).

This act applies to contested elections of school directors where the title to the office comes in question, while Sec. 223, Act of May 18, 1911, P. L. 309 (School Code) applies where the validity of entire election is questioned. Election of School Directors in Norwegian Twp., 21 Dist. 450; Reed v. McArthur, 3 Dist. 682, 15 C. C. 136 (1894); Armstrong's Appeal, 293 Pa. 1 (1928).

This act supersedes all prior legislation on the subject of contested elections. Braum's Contested Election, 22 Pitts. 291 (1875); Wolverton's Election Case, 1 Walk. 48 (1883); Gressang's Contested Election, 5 C. C. 251 (1888).

(b) Contested Election of the First Class

Section 1805. Committee of General Assembly to Try. Contested elections of Governor and Lieutenant-Governor (first class) shall be tried and determined by a committee to be selected from both houses of the General Assembly and formed and regulated in the following manner.

Drafted from Secs. 2 and 20, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1806. Contest Petitions. When and to Whom Presented. Upon the petition in writing of at least one hundred qualified electors of the Commonwealth accompanied by the affidavit, taken and subscribed by at least twenty of the petitioners before some person having authority to administer oaths, that the facts set forth are true to the best of their knowledge and belief, and a certificate from the prothonotary of the county or counties where the petitioners reside, setting forth that they are all qualified electors, being presented to the President of the Senate within ten days from the organization of the Legislature next succeeding the election complained of, he shall immediately give information thereof to both houses. Such petition after being read in each house, shall be laid on the table without any question taken thereon, until the two houses shall proceed thereon in manner following:

Sec. 21, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1807. Personnel of Contest Committee. Senate Members. The Senate and House of Representatives shall, on a day and hour to be agreed on between them, which day shall be within five days of the reception of the petition as aforesaid, convene in the hall of the House of Representatives, where the petition shall be read by the Clerk of the Senate; the names of the members of each house shall then be called over by the respective clerks, and a quorum of each house being present, a joint committee shall be formed as follows:

(a) The names of all Senators present, except the President pro tempore, shall be written on distinct pieces of paper as nearly alike as may be, each of which shall be rolled up and put into a box by the Clerk of the House of Representatives, and placed on the Speaker's table.

(b) The Clerk of the Senate having shaken and intermixed the said papers, shall draw them out one by one, and put them alternately into three boxes, also placed on the Speaker's table.

(c) When the whole number shall be thus distributed, the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall shake and intermix the papers in each box, and shall draw alternately from each box the papers so rolled up, until twelve papers have been so drawn, and shall deliver them singly as drawn to the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(d) The Speaker of the House of Representatives shall open the said papers singly and read aloud the names on each, and then deliver the papers singly to the President of the Senate, who shall place them openly on the table.

(e) A member of each house, to be designated by the respective presiding officers, shall take down in writing the names so called, and shall each of them repeat aloud the name so written.

Sec. 22, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1808. Personnel of Contest Committee. House Members. The like proceedings shall then be had for drawing twenty-five members of the House of Representatives for the purpose; but

(a) The duties in the preceding section enjoined upon the Clerk of the House of Representatives, shall be performed by th clerk of the Senate.

(b) The duties therein enjoined upon the Clerk of the Senate, shall be performed by the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

(c) The duties therein enjoined upon the Speaker of the House of Representatives, shall be performed by the President of the Senate.

(d) The duties therein enjoined upon the President of the Senate, shall be performed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, whose name shall not be placed in the box.

Sec. 23, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1809. Challenges. If any objection be made by either of the parties to any member so drawn by lot, such members shall be discharged, and another name be drawn to supply the place, and so on until the whole number of twelve Senators and twenty-five members of the House of Representatives shall be completed; and in all cases, the members drawn in place of those objected to, shall be in like manner liable to be set aside, and others shall be drawn in their places; but if so many be set aside by reason of objections, as aforesaid, that there shall not remain more than the number aforesaid, then no further objection shall be admitted.

Sec. 24, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1810. Selection of Committee. When the number aforesaid shall be completed, the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall draw out, one by one, the names of the remaining members of the Senate, and deliver them singly to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall unfold and read them aloud; and the Clerk of the Senate shall in like manner draw out the names of the remaining members of the House of Representatives, and deliver them singly to the President of the Senate, who shall unfold them and read them aloud; and if any unfairness or mistakes shall then be discovered therein, the whole proceedings shall be set aside, and the same shall be renewed in manner and form hereinbefore directed; but after the committee is sworn, no objection for such cause shall be received.

Sec. 25, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1811. Final Selection of Committee. When the proceedings aforesaid shall be concluded, a list of the twelve members of the Senate and a separate list of the twenty-five members of the House of Representatives so drawn shall be given to each of the parties, who shall immediately withdraw to some adjoining room, with a clerk or member appointed by the joint vote of members present, where they shall proceed to strike off alternately the names upon such list, until the number shall be reduced to four members of the Senate and nine of the House of Representatives, which shall constitute a select committee.

Sec. 26, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1812. Members to Remain Until Final Selection. On the parties withdrawing to form such select committee, the members of both houses shall continue convened and the members whose names shall have been drawn out of the boxes shall not depart the conference room without leave, until the time and place for the meeting of the select committee shall be fixed as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 27, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1813. Final Qualification of Committee. Within one hour from the time of withdrawing as aforesaid, the parties shall deliver to the President of the Senate the names of the said four members of the Senate and nine of the House of Representatives remaining on the list, who shall then respectively take an oath or affirmation, to be administered by the President of the Senate, to try the matter of the petition and to give a true judgment thereon according to the evidence, unless the committee shall be dissolved.

Sec. 28, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1814. Time and Place of Meeting. The time and place for the meeting of the select committee so appointed shall then be directed by the joint vote of the members of both houses, which time shall be within forty-eight hours of the appointment.

Sec. 29, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1815. Absence From Committee. If any person appointed a member of such select committee shall, at the time of such appointment, swear or affirm that he cannot without great inconvenience serve on such committee, he shall be excused, and in such case another shall be substituted. But if any member of such committee shall neglect to attend upon the committee, his name shall be reported in writing to the house of which he shall be a member, and unless satisfactory reasons be given for his non-attendance, he shall be reprimanded by the presiding officer of the house of which he is a member.

Sec. 30, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1816. Meetings of Committee Quorums. Adjournment. The select committee shall sit from day to day, Sundays excepted, at such hours as shall not interfere with their attendance in the Legislature, but unless nine of their number be present, the committee, after waiting one hour, shall adjourn to the next day, and if the number of the commitee shall unavoidably be reduced to less than nine members, and shall so continue for the space of three days, Sundays excepted, the committee shall be dissolved, and there shall be another chosen in manner aforesaid. When the two houses shall stand adjourned for more than three days, the committee may adjourn to the same time.

Sec. 32, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1817. Presiding Officer of Committee. Immediately after the appointment of the select committee aforesaid, the President of the Senate shall notify the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court thereof, and shall immediately, attend the meetings of the committee as the presiding officer thereof. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall decide questions regarding the admissibility of evidence, and he shall, upon request of the committee, pronounce his opinion upon other questions of law involved in the contest, but he shall not have a vote on the final determination of the case.

Sec. 31, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1818. Powers of Committee. The select committee shall have power to subpoena persons and require the production of papers and records and to compel the attendance of and examine all witnesses who may come before them, upon oath or affirmation, which the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or clerk of the committee may administer in their presence, and to decide not only on the validity of such contested election, but also which of the candidates had the greatest number of legal votes.

Sec. 33, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1819. Proceeding Before Committee. Unqualified Voters Testimony. Immunity. When it is proven to the satisfaction of said committee that any persons, not a legally qualified voter, voted at any such contested election it shall be lawful for said committee to compel said voter to disclose, under oath, for which of the respective candidates he voted; but when the committee examines the witness on oath as to the person or persons for whom he voted, and said witness on such examination discloses the names of the persons for whom he voted at such election, he shall not afterwards be prosecuted for having illegally voted at such election.

Sec. 34, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1820. Conduct of Committee. The doors of the room in which the select committee shall meet shall remain open during the examination of witnesses, but may be shut at any other time. All determinations required to be made by such committee shall be by a majority of the whole number appointed. As soon as the committee shall have agreed upon the same, two reports thereof shall be made in writing, one of which shall be delivered to the President of the Senate, and the other to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, which reports shall be entered on the Journals of the respective houses and shall be final and conclusive.

Sec. 35, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1821. Report of Committee To Be Final. If the committee, or a majority thereof as aforesaid, shall report that either of the candidates had the greatest number of legal votes, and ought to receive the nomination, or to be admitted to the office, as the case may be, such candidate shall thereupon be entitled to such office, or nomination.

Sec. 36, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1822. New Election if Invalid. Notice. If the committee, or a majority thereof, shall report that such election or return is invalid, a new election shall take place on the day of the general election ensuing, agreeably to the Constitution, of which the presiding officer of each house shall immediately give notice by their joint writ directed to the sheriffs of the respective counties; and the sheriffs of the respective counties shall give due notice thereof according to law.

Sec. 37, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

The desirability of this section is doubtful. If the election for either the office of Governor or Lieutenant Governor is declared invalid, and the other one takes his office as usual, then under this section a new election is held at the general election two years later to fill such office. Henceforth, the term of office of Governor and Lieutenant Governor would no longer correspond as there is no authority in the Constitution to elect either such officers for other than a four year term. Every two years thereafter a Governor would be elected and the following two years a Lieutenant Governor. The possibility of any such election being declared invalid a very remote, but if it did so happen, it seems that under Sec. 17, Art. IV of the Constitution, the Governor or Lieutenant Governor then in office would hold over and "exercise the duties of their respective offices until their successors shall be duly qualified." In such case, if the above section is repealed, such holding over would be for a full term of four years, instead of two years under said section, but the terms of the said officers would not be disturbed, and would thereafter correspond as they rightfully should.

Section 1823. Pay of Witnesses. Every witness sent for and attending the trial of any contested election of the first class shall be allowed six cents for every mile of the distance necessarily travelled by him in coming to and returning from the place of trial, and shall also be allowed the sum of one dollar and thirty-three cents for every day he may be detained at the place of such trial, which mileage and expense, as well as the expense of summoning such witnesses, shall be taxed by the select committee and certified by their chairman to the speaker of the House of Representatives or the President of the Senate, or both, as the case may require. The amount thereof after having been first approved by the house or houses to which such certificate may be made, shall be paid by the treasurer of the county or counties in which the facts complained of took place, if such facts be substantiated, or by the treasurer of the county or counties in which the petitioners shall reside, if the statements in the petition shall not be substantiated, on orders drawn by the speaker of the House of Representatives or the President of the Senate, or both, as the case may require.

Sec. 152, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

(c) Contested Election of the Second Class.

Section 1825. Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County With Two Nearest President Judges to Have Jurisdiction. Cases of the second class shall be tried and determined by the court of common pleas of Dauphin County upon petition of at least one hundred electors as hereinafter provided For the purpose of hearing and determining the complaint in the petition in such cases, the court of common pleas of Dauphin County shall notify to sit with it on the hearing of such complaint, two president judges, learned in the law, residing nearest to the court house of the said judicial district, and the judges so notified shall appear and sit as part of the said court on the hearing, trial and determination of such petition.

Sec. 3, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1826. Entry and Effect of Decision. After the hearing of the said case, the said judges shall, without unnecessary delay, decide which of the candidates voted for received the greatest number of legal votes, and is entitled to the nomination or office; which decision shall be entered of record to the case in the said court, and a certified copy thereof shall, within five days from the rendering thereof, be delivered to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, whereupon the person who by the decision of the court shall appear to have received the largest number of votes, shall be entitled to the nomination or to the office and be commissioned accordingly.

Sec. 4, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

(d) Contested Elections of the Third Class

Section 1830. Common Pleas Court of County of Residence of Candidate Returned as Elected, to Have Jurisdiction. Contested elections of president or additional law judges of any of the judicial districts of this Commonwealth shall be tried and determined before the court of common pleas of the county where the person returned as elected shall reside, in manner following.

Sec. 5, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1831. Procedure to Contest. Petition. Personnel of Court. Upon the petition in writing of at least fifty qualified electors of the district for which the person whose election is contested was returned as nominated or elected, being presented in due form to the Attorney General of the Commonwealth, complaining of an undue election or false return of any president or additional law judge of any judicial district of the Commonwealth, the Attorney General shall immediately notify the Governor thereof, who shall without delay, direct the three president judges residing nearest to the court house of the county composing the district, or if more than one county composes the judicial district, then those nearest the court house of the most populous county of the district, to convene without delay the court of common pleas of such county, and proceed to hear and determine the complaint of the said petition.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208. (See Sec. 1833 for remainder of Sec. 6). We have omitted the part relating to the affidavits, and included the same under the general provisions, Sec. 1857.

Under this section the Attorney General has discretion to determine whether such a petition presented to him makes out a prima facie case, and whether it was presented in good faith. Com. v. Alter, 25 Dauph. 161 (1922).

Section 1832. Jurisdiction Where There Is More Than One Court of Common Pleas in the District. In any contested election of any president or additional law judge in any judicial district, where there is more than one court of common pleas, the court of the next highest number to the court for which the person whose election is contested is returned as elected, if there be one higher, and if not the one next lower, shall perform all the duties required of the three president judges as prescribed in this subdivision.

Sec. 7, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1833. Certification and Effect of Decision. After such hearing the said judges shall with no unnecessary delay decide which of the candidates voted for received the greatest number of legal votes, and is entitled to the nomination or office, which decision shall be entered of record to the case in said court and a certified copy thereof shall within five days from the rendering of such decision, be transmitted to the Secretary of the Commonwealth; whereupon the person who by the said decision shall appear to have received the largest number of votes shall be entitled to the nomination, or to the office, and commissioned accordingly.

The remainder of Sec. 6, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208. We have omitted the proviso relating to the time for presenting the petition as this is supplied under the general principles of Sec. 1856.

(e) Contested Elections of the Fourth Class

Section 1835. Jurisdiction to Try. Contested elections of Senators and Members of the House of Representatives (fourth class) shall be tried and determined by the court of common pleas of the county where the person returned as such shall reside, in the manner following.

Sec. 11, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.
The procedure outlined in this subdivision (e) is adaptable to the primary election system as provided by the Act of 1913, P. L. 719. McCormick's Contested Election, 281 Pa. 281.

Section 1836. Method of Contest. Petition. Notice. Upon petition in writing of at least twenty qualified electors of the Senatorial district in case of a Senator and of the Legislative district in case of a member of the House of Representatives, complaining of an undue election or false return of any Senator or Representative, the court if in session or the president judge thereof if in vacation shall immediately appoint a suitable time for the hearing in open court of such complaint; and if the court is not in session, the president judge to whom such complaint is made, shall direct the court to convene for that purpose, notice of which shall be given to the person returned at least ten days before such hearing.

Part of Sec. 12, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208. We have omitted the part relating to the affidavits, and the time of presenting the petition as the general provisions under Sec. 1856 cover these points.

Section 1837. Complaints and Candidate Returned Shall be Parties. On the trial of contested elections of Senators and Members of the House of Representatives the petitioners complaining of the election, and the person returned as nominated or elected, shall be the parties thereto.

Part of Sec. 12, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1838. Powers and Duties of the Court. The court of common pleas to which petition shall be presented as aforesaid, contesting the right of a Senator or Member of the House of Representatives to the nomination or to the seat for which he may have been returned as elected, shall have authority to subpoena and to compel the attendance of any officer of the election complained of, and of any person capable of testifying concerning the same; and also to compel the production of all books, papers, tally-lists, ballots, ballot-boxes, and all other documents which may be required at such hearing, in like manner and to the same extent as in other cases litigated before such court; to appoint commissioners to take testimony and to proceed without delay, postponing for the purpose if necessary all other business, to the hearing and determination of such contest.

Sec. 13, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1839. Decision of Court. After the hearing as aforesaid, the court, shall, without unnecessary delay, decide which of the candidates voted for received the greatest number of legal votes and is entitled to the certificate of election.

Sec. 14, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1840. Return of Result to Proper House. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall, on the day of the meeting of the next General Assembly, or if in session then immediately upon its reception, deliver to the presiding officer of the proper house the certified copy of the decision of the court aforesaid.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1841. Appeal to Proper House. Requirements of. Any claimant to a seat in either branch of the Legislature, or to the nomination thereto, who shall feel aggrieved by the decision of the court in his case, may present his petition to the proper house within ten days after the meeting of the Legislature, or within ten days after the decision shall have been made in his case if the Legislature shall then be in session, setting forth his claim; which petition shall have appended thereto the affidavit of the petitioner, setting forth that he verily believes that he was duly nominated, or elected to the seat, and that the statements set forth in his petition are just and true to the best of his knowledge and belief. Said petition shall also be signed by at least twenty qualified electors of the proper district, at least five of whom shall make affidavit that the facts set forth in said petition are true to the best of their knowledge and belief.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1842. Action of Appeal Petition. Such petition when presented shall be referred to a standing committee on election, which committee shall proceed to hear the claims of the contestant and respondent, and report the facts and a resolution expressing the decision of the committee for the consideration of the house, and the vote of the proper house on the claims of the contestant and respondent shall be final.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1843. Vote on Petition. No resolution deciding such question shall be adopted unless it shall receive the votes of a majority of all the members elected to the house considering the same.

Part of Sec. 15, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

(f) Contested Elections of the Fifth Class

Section 1850. Who Has Jurisdiction. Cases of the fifth class shall be tried and determined upon petition of twenty-five electors, by the court of quarter sessions of the county in which such contested election was held.

Sec. 16, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208. We have taken the number of petitioners from Sec. 18 of the same act and included it in this section.

(g) General Provisions Relating to Contested Elections

Section 1855. Commission by Governor. Whenever it shall appear by the returns of election laid before the Governor by the Secretary of the Commonwealth as now required by law, that any person has been duly elected to the office of prothonotary, clerk of the courts, recorder of deeds, register of wills, judge, or any other officer receiving a commission from the Governor, in any of the several counties of this Commonwealth, the Governor shall issue a commission to such person, notwithstanding that the election of such person to any or either of said offices may be contested in the manner now provided by law.

Whenever it shall appear by the decision of the proper tribunal having jurisdiction of said contested election that the person to whom said commission shall have issued has not been legally elected to the office for which he has been commissioned then a commission shall issue to the person who shall appear legally elected to said office; the issuing of which commission shall nullify and make void the commission already issued, and all power and authority under said commission first issued shall thereupon cease and determine.

Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 26, 1889, P. L. 60.

Section 1856. Petition. Time of Filing. The commencement of proceedings in the case of contest of the second, third, fourth, and fifth classes shall be by petition which shall be made and filed as herein required within thirty days after the day of election. The petition shall concisely set forth the cause of complaint, showing wherein it is claimed the election is undue or illegal, and after filing, shall not be amended unless such amendment shall be allowed by the proper court or judge after notice to the other party and hearing, and if allowed, a reasonable time shall be given to answer.

Part of Sec. 18, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.
A petition under this section may be presented to an associate law judge at chambers. Wolverton's Election case, I Walker's Reports 48 (1883).
A petition must set forth specially the frauds and illegal votes and show that these frauds and illegal votes elected the party returned, and defeated the contestant. It must give the names of the alleged illegal voters and the grounds of illegality. Contested Election of Jenkinson, 7 Dist. 598; McClune's Election Case, 29 Dist. 718 (1919).

Section 1857. Petitioners and Affidavits. Requirements of. In each of the aforesaid second, third, fourth and fifth classes, the petitioners shall be qualified electors who voted at the election so contested. In cases of the third class each petition shall be verified by the affidavits of at least ten of the petitioners; in the second, fourth and fifth classes, by the affidavits of at least five of the petitioners. Such affidavits to be taken and subscribed before some person authorized by law to administer oaths, setting forth that they verily believe the facts stated therein are true, that according to the best of their knowledge and belief, the election was undue or illegal and the return thereof not correct, and that the petition to contest the same is made in good faith.

Drafted from part of Sec. 18, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 1874, P. L. 208, but the number of petitioners in the various classes has been omitted and placed in the respective sections under each separate class. The requirement of ten affidavits in class 3 has been taken from Sec. 6, Act of May 17, 1874, P. L. 208. (Sec. 1831 of this compilation).

A complaint of an undue election or a false return must be stated with clearness and precision and the petitioners held to the exercise of due diligence to ascertain and specify the facts which if sustained by proof, would require the court to set aside the result of the election. Warren Borough Election, 274 Pa. 352 (1922).

Section 1858. Presentation of Petition. The petition shall be presented to the court or law judge having jurisdiction, except where otherwise provided in this article, and if it shall be adjudged sufficient, it shall be filed of record in the proper court, and thereupon a time shall be fixed for hearing.

Part of Sec. 18, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1859. Notice of Hearing. Notice of the filing of the petition, with a copy thereof, shall be served upon the person whose right of office shall be contested, together with a rule to answer at the time fixed for hearing, which notice, copy and rule shall be served such length of time before the day fixed for hearing as the said court or judge shall require, not exceeding forty days in cases of the second and third classes, and in all other cases not exceeding thirty days.

Part of Sec. 18, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1860. Disqualification of Judge. No judge shall sit on the trial of a case in which he shall be a party.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1861. Substitute Judges. In any case where by reason of incompetency or any disability to act, there shall be no law judge of the district in which any contest shall arise, present and able as well as qualified to act, the judge learned in the law, residing nearest the court house of the county in which by the provisions of this article the trial in any such case is required to be had, except in cases otherwise provided in this article, shall preside on the contest, and shall have and exercise all the powers and authority and discharge all the duties granted to or imposed upon the regular judges of the said courts in cases wherein they are qualified and required to act by the provisions of this article.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208. The provision of this section which says "where . . . there shall be no law judge of the district in which any contest shall arise . . ." refers to the judicial district, not senatorial district. Cumberland v. Trickett, 107 Pa. 118 (1884).

Section 1862. Certain Associate Judges Not Essential. Any law judge who is hereby authorized to preside in any such case, and any president or other judge, learned in the law, of the proper court, shall have full power to hold any of the said courts by this article required to try any contested election case, without the assistance of the associate justices, not learned in the law, or either of them, of such courts.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1863. Powers of Court. All of the said courts and judges hereby required to try any contested election case shall have plenary power to make, issue and enforce all necessary orders, rules, process and decrees, for a full and proper understanding and final determination and enforcement of the decision of every such case, according to the course of practice in similar cases under the laws of this Commonwealth, or which may be necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of this article.

Part of Sec. 17, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1864. Power of Court. Witnesses. Records. The proper court or judge shall have power to compel the attendance of any election officer or other person as a witness, and may also compel the production of all books, papers, tally-lists, returns of election, other documentary or record evidence at discretion for use on the trial, and may issue subpoenas and attachments for these purposes as in other proceedings in the courts of this Commonwealth, and all such books, papers, documents, ballots, boxes and records, shall be returned to the proper custody.

Part of Sec. 8, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

For mere irregularities in conducting an election it is not to be held void even though the election officers may be subject to punishment for misconduct. Ellwood City Borough's Contested Election, 221 Pa. 251. Nor is the mere casting of fraudulent votes sufficient to throw out the return from an election district. Melvin's Case, 68 Pa. 333. But where the whole election is illegally and fraudulently conducted the returns may be thrown out. West Mahanoy Twp. Contested Election, 258 Pa. 176 (1917).

The entire return has been thrown out in the following cases: Where the election was held at other than the legal polling place. Yorkin's Election, 2 C. C. 550 (1886); Smith v. Higby, 12 C. C. 423; 2 Dist. 311 (1892); where the polls were not opened or closed at the proper time. Locust Ward Election 3 Clark 11, (1845); Penn District Election, 2 Parsons 526 (1847); Mark v. Park, 7 Lanc. Bar 53; where election officers erroneously disfranchised many legal voters and deterred other from offering to vote. Scranton Borough Election, 1 Luz. L. Obs., 12 (1860).

Section 1865. Conduct of Hearings. Certified Records. Examiners. Certified copies of all election papers, assessments, registers of votes, and records, duly authenticated by the person having custody thereof, shall be competent evidence and prima facie proof of their contents; but the party against whom the same shall be produced shall have the right to compel the attendance of the person who certified them for cross-examination. Examiners to take and report evidence may be appointed, and reasonable notice of the time and place of taking the same shall be prescribed by the court or judge and served upon the opposite party.

Part of Sec 8, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208. The examiners authorized by this section should assist the court by such schedules and classification of votes as will enable the court to decide the case correctly, but their conclusions are not binding on the court. Lerch's Contested Election, 22 Dist. 980 (1913).

Whether the ballot boxes will be opened is within the discretion of the court. Election Contest for Burgess of Borough of Ellwood City, 286 Pa. 257; Haverford Twp. Elections, 282 Pa. 504. But they should not be opened until it is proven that they contain illegal votes or evidences of miscounted results which, if corrected, would reverse the return. Northampton County Contested Election, 6 Dist. 150 (1897). See also Glazier v. Merringer, 12 Lanc. Bar 61 (1880); Ex parte Griffith's 1 Kulp 157 (1880); McCarty's Election, 2 C. C. 561 (1886); Twentieth Ward Election, 13 C. C. 609, 2 Dist. 635 (1893); Louck's Case, 10 Lanc. 228, (1893).

Section 1866. Affidavits Which May Be Corrected in Contest. In any election contest it shall be lawful to correct any mistakes or supply any deficiencies in an affidavit made as required by law by an unregistered voter who was thereby permitted to vote at the election under contest, so as to show that the said person was in fact a qualified voter; but this shall not apply to non-registered voters who make no affidavit or one who makes no attempt to comply with the law.

Drafted from the proviso of Sec. 1, Act of May 6, 1899, P. L. 254, amending Sec. 10, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31.

Section 1867. Stenographers. Record, Printing of. The proper court or judge shall have power to appoint reporters if necessary, to take the testimony, and may order printing of such matters as may be necessary during the trial. All bills for such reports and printing, certified to be reasonable and correct by the court or judge, shall be a part of the costs and collectible as other costs in the case. All printing required, in cases of the second and third classes, shall be done by the State Printer at contract prices; and in all other cases the prices to be paid for such reporting and printing shall be fixed in the order providing therefor, and no more than the amount thus fixed shall be paid in any case.

Sec. 10, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1868. Witnesses. Duty to Testify. In trials of contested elections, and in all proceedings for the investigation of elections, no person shall be permitted to withold his testimony upon the ground that he may criminate himself, or subject himself to public infamy, but such testimony shall not afterwards be used against him in any judicial proceedings, except for perjury in giving such testimony.

Sec. 19, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208.

Section 1869. Witnesses and Officers. Fees of. Witnesses and officers shall be paid the same fees as are now or hereafter shall be fixed by law for similar services in the county in which the trial shall be held, but witnesses whose votes are shown to be illegal shall receive no witness fees or mileage.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 28, 1899, P. L. 118.

Section 1870. Costs in Contested Elections of Judges, County, Borough, Township, Municipal and School Officers. Whenever in contested elections of president or additional law judges, and of county, borough, township or municipal officers, or school directors or school controllers, the contestant or contestants establish his or their right to the nomination or office, the costs shall be paid by the proper district, county, borough, township, municipality or school district or the court or judge shall apportion all the costs among the proper districts, counties, cities, townships, boroughs, wards, school districts, or municipalities, of the whole district in which contest is had, in such way as said court or judge shall think just; and shall compel by order, the payment of such amounts so apportioned to each, by the properly constituted authorities of each of the proper districts, counties, cities, townships, boroughs, wards, school districts, or municipalities, as the payment of debts by the same can now be enforced.

In contested elections of president or additional law judges, and of county, borough, township, municipal officers, or school directors, if the contestant or contestants in any of the above cases, fail to establish his or their right to the nomination or office to which he or they claim to have been elected, the petitioners and each and every one of them shall be jointly and severally liable for all the costs, and the same may be collected as debts of like amount are by law collectible or payment thereof may be enforced by attachment.

Drafted from Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1876, P. L. 148, and part of Sec. 9, Act of May 29, 1874, P. L. 208, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 28, 1899, P. L. 118. This section is particularly an attempt to clarify the above two sections. It seems the above Act of May 8, 1876, P. L. 148, in authorizing the court to "apportion all the costs among the proper districts, counties, cities, etc., of the whole district in which contest is had in such way as said court or judge shall think just . . . was intended simply to enable the court to apportion the costs for which a district should become liable under existing laws, among the counties, and perhaps other municipalities constituting the district, as for instance a judicial or senatorial district. See Thirty-eighth Ward Election, 35 Super. Ct. 256.

The above Act of Apr. 28, 1899, P. L. 118, amending Sec. 9, Act of May 29, 1874, P. L. 208, was held to be constitutional. In re Patton, 228 Pa. 446 (1910).

Section 1871. Bond by Petitioners. Whenever a petition to contest an election of president or additional law judges, or of county, borough, township, municipal officers, school directors or school controllers shall be presented to the court, it shall be the duty of said petitioners within ten days thereafter, to file a bond singed by at least five of the said petitioners in such sum as the said court, or any judge thereof during vacation, shall designate, with sureties to be approved by the said court or judge, conditional for the payment of all costs which may accrue in said contested election proceeding in case the said petitioners by decree of said court shall be adjudged liable to pay said costs, and if the said bonds shall not be filed as herein provided the said petition to contest the election shall be dismissed.

A paper purporting to be a bond, but not sealed does not comply with this section, and the court has no jurisdiction to allow an amended bond after the expiration of the ten days. Moritz's Contested Election, 256 Pa. 537 (1917).

Section 1872. Costs in Contested Elections of Presidential Electors, State Officers, Senators and Representatives. In contested elections of electors of President and Vice-President, and State officers whose jurisdiction extends over the State, and Senators and Members of the House of Representatives, if the court of judges shall decide that the complaint is without probable cause, the petitioners and every one of them shall be jointly and severally liable for all the costs, and the same may be collected as debts of like amount are by law collectible, or payment thereof may be enforced by attachment.

In any of the above contested elections, if the court or judge shall fail to decide that the complaint is without probable cause, the Commonwealth shall be liable for all costs. The said court shall certify to the Auditor General a copy of such costs which shall be adjusted and settled in the usual manner and paid out of moneys appropriated for that purpose.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of May 19, 1874, P. L. 208, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 28, 1899, P. L. 118.

Section 1873. Time Allowed For Taking Testimony. Hereafter in all contested elections except of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, electors of President and Vice-President of the Unitd States, and all other officers of this Commonwealth who now are or hereafter shall be required to be elected by the qualified voters of the State at large, the time to be consumed in taking testimony in court before an examiner or examiners appointed for that purpose shall not exceed ninety days in any one case, no matter whether such testimony be taken in court or before an examiner or examiners, or partly in court or before an examiner or examiners, or partly in court and partly before an examiner or examiners.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 28, 1899, P. L. 103.

Section 1874. Time Allowed Each Party For Testimony. Said testimony shall be taken in the following order, to wit: A period of time not exceeding forty days shall be allowed the contestant for this purpose, a succeeding period of time not exceeding forty days shall be allowed for said purpose to the person returned as elected, and the contestant may take testimony in rebuttal during ten days immediately succeeding the time allowed the person returned as elected for taking testimony.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 28, 1899, P. L. 103.

Section 1875. Liability For Costs Incurred in Taking Testimony After Time Limit. For any testimony taken after the limit of time herein fixed, no contest court shall have the power to charge any costs to any district, county, city, township, borough, ward, school district, or municipality, nor shall they be under any liability for the payment of the same, but the said court may order the contestant, petitioners, or person returned elected, to pay the costs as in its discretion it is deemed just and proper.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 28, 1899, P. L. 103.

Section 1876. Time For Payment. End of Liability. No costs shall be paid out of the treasury of any district, county city, township, borough, ward, school district, or municipality, in any such contest until the same has been finally determined; and no costs accruing or chargeable in any case after the limit of time herein fixed, shall be paid by the proper district, county, city, township, borough, ward, school district, or municipality, nor shall they be under any liability for the payment of the same.

Part of Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 28, 1899, P. L. 103.

Section 1877. Elections Declared Invalid. Filling of Vacancies. Whenever in any contested election the tribunal trying the case shall decide that the ballots used in one or more election districts, where, by reason of the omission, addition, mis-placing, mis-spelling, or mis-statement of one or more titles of office, or names of candidates, or parties or politices represented by them, so defective as to the office in contest as to be calculated to mislead the voters in regard to any of the candidates nominated for said office, and that the defective condition of the said ballots may have affected the result of the entire election for said office, the said tribunal shall declare the election to be invalid as regards the said office, and shall report their decision, in cases where vacancies in such offices are filled by appointment, to the proper officer or officers who are by law authorized to fill vacancies occurring in such office, who upon receipt of such notice shall without delay proceed to appoint a suitable person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created, and the person or persons so appointed shall continue in office until the next election succeeding his appointment at which such office is by law required to be filled. All other vacancies so created shall be filled in such manner as now or hereafter may be provided by law.

Sec. 29, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 14, 1897, P. L. 23. For the purpose of clarity we have inserted the words "in cases where vacancies in such offices are filled by appointment," and "all other vacancies so created, shall be filled in such manner as now or hereafter may be provided by law."

Section 1878. Appeal in Judicial Contests When Constitutional Questions Involved. When the election of a judge of the Supreme or Superior Court or a judge of any subordinate court of record, required to be learned in the law, shall be contested, if the trial and determination of such election contest shall involve the true construction of any provision of the Constitution, or if the decision shall depend on any question arising upon the Constitution, an appeal shall lie from the decision of the court or judges empowered to try such contested election to the Supreme Court.

Sec. 1, Act of June 12, 1878, P. L. 204.

Section 1879. Specific Findings by Trial Court. It is hereby made the duty of the judges in the court of common pleas trying an election contest to, first, find separately and explicitly the facts deemed by them material to the decision, and also such other facts as any party to the contest may request them in writing to ascertain; and second, to answer such points of law as may be submitted to them.

Sec. 3, Act of June 12, 1878, P. L. 204. This section has been made general to all election contests tried in the court of common pleas, by substituting the words "an election contest" for "such election contest."

Section 1880. When and By Whom Appeal Taken. Filing. Time and Place of Hearing. Such appeal may be taken by any person whose right to the office was tried and determined or by any person aggrieved by the decision, within thirty days after the decision of the judges shall have been entered of record to the case in the court of common pleas. The appeal shall be filed in the prothonotary's office of the proper district, but may be heard by the said Supreme Court in any district; and it shall be the duty of said court to hear and decide the same without delay.

Sec. 2, Act of June 12, 1878, P. L. 204.

Section 1881. Decision of Supreme Court to Be Certified to Secretary of Commonwealth. The said Supreme Court having decided the constitutional question involved in such election contest, shall thereupon proceed to decide and declare which of the candidates voted for received the greatest number of legal votes and is entitled to the office, and shall cause their decision to be certified to the Secretary of the Commonwealth; whereupon, the person who, by the decision of the said Supreme Court, shall appear to have received the largest number of legal votes, shall be entitled to the office and be commissioned accordingly.

Sec. 4, Act of June 12, 1878, P. L. 204.

ARTICLE XIX

ELECTION EXPENDITURES BY AND IN BEHALF OF CANDIDATES FOR NOMINATION AND ELECTION

Section 1900. Definitions. The term "candidate for nomination," as used in this article shall include all persons whose names are presented for nomination to public office at any primary, meeting, caucus or convention, whether or not such persons are actually nominated thereat.

The term "candidate for election," as used in this article, shall include all persons whose names are printed as candidates on the official ballots or on any official sticker used at any election; and also all persons voted for, for any public office, who shall receive at least ten per centum of the highest vote received by the successful candidate for such office, but whose names were not printed on the official ballots.

The term "candidate," as used in this article, shall, unless especially restricted therein, include both candidates for nomination and candidates for election.

The term "public office," as used in this article, shall include every public office to which persons can be elected by vote of the people, under the laws of this Commonwealth.

The term "political committee," as used in this article shall include every two or more persons who shall be elected, appointed or chosen, or who shall have associated themselves or cooperated for the purpose, wholly or in part, of raising, collecting or disbursing money, or of controlling or directing the raising, collection or disbursement of money, for election expenses.

The term "election expenses," as used in this article shall include all expenditures of money or other valuable things in furtherance of the nomination of any person or persons as candidates for public office, or in furtherance of the election of any person or persons to public office, or to defeat the nomination or election to public office of any person or persons.

Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78.
The Act of April 18, 1874, P. L. 64, relating to the above subject matter, is not carried here. The portion of Sec. 1 thereof defining permissible expenditures is adequately covered by the Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78, so also Sec. 2, the penal clause. The provision under Sec. 1, which permits candidates to make approved expenditures through others than himself which is not included in the Act of 1906, but which is held not to be repealed in 39 Super. Ct. 292, is carried under the proper heading. The provisions under Sec. 1, requiring all election officers to take the oath prescribed by Sec. 1, Art. VII, of the Constitution is not carried for the following reasons:
(1) It is vain as to all but municipal officers since the others are covered by the Constitution itself.
(2) It is generally not observed in municipalities, the various officers taking the oaths as prescribed by the several statutes dealing with municipalities.
(3) The constitutionality of this portion of the said act is questionable. The oaths prescribed contains other subject matter than that referring to expenses of candidates and the title of the act gives no intimation of this subject matter. This question was not raised in Likin's Petition 37 Pa. Super. Ct. 625, where the title was held sufficient.
This act does not violate Sec. 25, Art. III of the Constitution, relating to the Governor's proclamation calling the special session, nor does it violate Sec. 3, Art. III, as being insufficient in the title. Likin's Petition (No. 1) 37 Pa. Super. Ct. 625, (1908), affirmed in 223 Pa. 456. It was also declared constitutional in Bechtel's Election Expenses 39 Pa. Super. Ct. 292, (1908).

Section 1901. Treasurer of Political Committee Required. Every political committee shall appoint and constantly maintain a treasurer to receive, keep and disburse all sums of money which may be collected or received by such committee, or by any of its members, for election expenses. Unless such treasurer is first appointed and thereafter maintained it shall be unlawful for a political committee or any of its members to collect, receive or disburse money for any such purpose.

Section 1902. Disbursements by Treasurer. All money collected or received by any political committee or by any of its members for election expenses shall be paid over and made to pass through the hands of the treasurer of such committee, and shall be disbursed by him. It shall be unlawful for any political committee or any of its members to disburse any money for election expenses unless such money shall have passed through the hands of the treasurer.

Section 1903. Disbursements by Unauthorized Persons Prohibited. No person who is not a candidate or the representative of a candidate or the treasurer of a political committee shall pay, give or lend, or agree to pay, give or lend, any money or other valuable thing, whether contributed by himself or by any other person, for any election expenses whatever, except to a candidate or to a political committee.

The words "or representative of a candidate" are taken from the Act of Apr. 18, 1874, P. L. 64, held to be in force by 39 Super. Ct. 292. Suggest this phrase be eliminated.
A candidate may entrust money to another person, and authorize him to act as his agent in the expenditure of money for proper purposes in the election campaign. Bechtel's Election Expenses 39 Pa. Super. Ct. 292.

Section 1904. Corporations Forbidden to Contribute Money for Election Purposes. No officer of any corporation, whether incorporated under the laws of this or any other State or any foreign country, except corporations formed for political purposes, shall pay, give or lend, or authorize to be paid, given or lent, any money or other valuable thing belonging to such corporation, to any candidate or to any political committee, or to any other person whatsoever for the payment of any election expenses whatever.

Section 1905. Permissible Expenditures. No candidate himself, or by his representative, and no treasurer of any political committee shall pay, give or lend, or agree to pay, give or lend, either directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing for any nomination or election expenses whatever, except for the following purposes:

First, For printing and traveling expenses and personal expenses incident thereto, stationery, advertising, postage, expressage, freight, telegraph, telephone, and public messenger services.

Second For the rental of radio facilities.

Third, For political meetings, demonstrations and conventions, and for the pay and transportation of speakers.

Fourth, For the rent, maintenance and furnishing of offices.

Fifth, For the payment of clerks, typewriters, stenographers, janitors, and messengers, actually employed.

Sixth, For the employment of watchers at primaries and elections, to the number allowed by law; but no candidate or treasurer of any political committee shall pay any watcher, in any election district in a city, compensation in excess of ten dollars ($10.00) per diem, or to any watcher, in any other election district, compensation in excess of five dollars ($5.00) per diem.

Seventh, For the transportation of voters to and from the polls.

Eighth, For legal expenses, bona fide incurred, in connection with any nomination or election.

Sec. 4, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 367.

Though one may deputize another in writing to pay his poll tax, he must furnish the money to such deputy. Fleck v. Woodruff 21 Dist. 137, (1912).

The whole subject of treating by a candidate is a matter of conduct and good faith. Umbles Primary Election Expenses 57 Pitts. 313, 317, (1909), in re Candidate Price's Expense Acct. 33 C. C. 244, 16 Dist. 326, (1907).

Section 1906. Accounts in Excess of Fifty Dollars Must be Filed. Every candidate for nomination at any primary election, caucus or convention, whether nominated thereat or not, shall, within fifteen days after the same was held, if the amount received or expended shall exceed the sum of fifty dollars, and every candidate for election and every treasurer of a political committee or person acting as such treasurer, shall, within thirty days after every election at which such candidate was voted for or with which such political committee was concerned, if the amount received or expended shall exceed the sum of fifty dollars, file with the officers hereinafter specified a full, true and detailed account, subscribed, and sworn or affirmed to, by him before an officer authorized to administer oaths, setting forth each and every sum of money contributed, received or disbursed by him for election expenses, the date of each contribution, receipt and disbursement, the name of the person from whom received or to whom paid, and the object or purpose for which the same was disbursed.

Such account shall also set forth the unpaid debts and obligations of any such candidate or committee for election expenses, with the nature and amount of each and to whom owing. In the case of candidates for election who have previously filed accounts as candidates for nomination, the accounts shall only include contributions, receipts and disbursements subsequent to the date of such prior accounts.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 18, 1919, P. L. 68, (For remainder, see Sec. 1910).

This section does not recognize committees or treasurers of committees in primary elections; money furnished to such by a candidate are moneys disbursed by such candidate and must be included in his account. Umble's Primary Election Expenses 57 Pitts. 313, (1909). Primary Election Accounts 35 C. C. 34, (1908).

Section 1907. Vouchers Accompanying Accounts. Anonymous Contribution unlawful. Every such account shall be accompanied by vouchers for all sums expended exceeding ten dollars in amount. It shall be unlawful for any candidate, or treasurer of a political committee, or person acting as such treasurer, to disburse any money received from any anonymous source.

Section 1908. Accounts. Where Filed. Every such account concerning expenses incurred by, or in regard to, candidates for offices to be voted for by the electors of the State at large, shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and every such account, concerning expenses incurred by or in regard to candidates for other offices, shall be filed with the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the several counties where such candidates may respectively reside.

If any account concerns expenses in regard to candidates who do not all reside in the same county, such accounts shall be filed in each county in which any such candidate (not being a candidate for an office to be voted for by the electors of the State at large), resides.

The last paragraph of the above section applies only to accounts of treasurers of committees, not to accounts of candidates. Potter's Expenses Account, 1 D. & C. 54, (1921).

Section 1909. Effective of Non-Filing of Account. It shall be unlawful to administer the oath of office to any person elected to any public office until he has filed an account as required by this article, and no such person shall enter upon the duties of his office until he has filed such account, nor shall he receive any salary for any period prior to the filing of the same.

Sec. 7, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78.

Section 1910. Campaign Fund Less Than Fifty Dollars. If the aggregate receipts or disbursements of a candidate or political committee in connection with any nomination or election shall not exceed fifty dollars, the treasurer of the committee or candidate shall within thirty days after the election, certify that fact under oath to the officer with whom the statement is filed as hereinafter provided.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 18, 1919, P. L. 68.

Section 1911. Accounts Open to Public Preservation, Of. All such accounts and affidavits shall be open to public inspection in the offices where they are filed and shall be carefully preserved there for a period of two years.

Sec. 8, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78.

Section 1912. No Affilavit Required when no Fund Exists. If a candidate or political committee does not receive any contributions or make any disbursements, the candidates or the treasurer of the political committee shall not be required to file any account or to make any affidavit.

Part of Sec. 5, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 18, 1919, P. L. 68.

Section 1913. Audit of Accounts. Within twenty days after the last day for filing of any account required by this article, any five electors of the State, or of the political division thereof concerning which any such account has been filed, may present a petition to the court of quarter sessions of the county in which the office where such account has been filed is located, praying for an audit of such account. The court shall thereupon direct the officer or officers with whom such account has been filed to certify the same to the court for audit, and may, in its discretion, require security to be entered for costs. The court may in its discretion appoint an auditor to audit said ammount; but the fees of such auditor shall not exceed the sum of ten dollars a day for each day actually engaged.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78.

Such petition may be filed with the clerk of the court and presented to a judge in chambers. Jermyn's Election Expenses 57 Pa. Super. Ct. 109, (1919) contra Sunshine's Account 21 Dist. 294, (1911); Houck's Account 48 C. C. 550, (1920).

The title of the act is sufficient to make the provisions relating to the audit of the accounts valid. Liebel's Election 33 C. C. 355.

Section 1914. Procedure on Audit. The court or auditor shall fix a date as early as may be convenient for the audit; at which time the person by whom such account has been filed shall be required to be present in person, to vouch his account, and answer on oath or affirmation all such relevant questions concerning the same as may be put to him by the petitioners or their counsel. The auditor shall issue subpoenas to all parties whom the petitioner or the accountant may require to give evidence concerning such account, and he shall determine, subject to exception, all questions as to the admissibility of evidence, and shall file a copy of the evidence with his report. If upon the audit the court shall decide that the account was false in any substantial manner, or that any illegal election expenses were incurred, the costs of said audit shall be paid by the accountant but otherwise by the petitioners.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78.

Section 1915. Procedure if Audit Developes Illegal Expenditures. Disqualification. The decision of the court upon the audit shall be subject to appeal, but if the court shall decide that any candidate who has been elected has incurred any illegal election expenses, or has consented to the incurring of any illegal election expenses by any person or committee, the court shall certify its decision to the Attorney General, who shall thereupon cause a writ of quo warranto to be issued. If upon proceedings under such writ of quo warranto is shall be decided that the candidate in question has incurred any illegal election expenses or has consented to the incurring of illegal election expenses by any person or committee his election shall be declared void and his office vacant.

Part of Sec. 10, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78.

Section 1916. Notice of Disqualification. In the case of candidates elected to the office of Senator or Representative in the General Assembly, the decision of the court shall be certified to the President of the Senate or to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may be. In the case of any candidate elected to the office of Senator of the United States or member of the House of Representatives of the United States, the decision of the court shall be certified to the Governor of this Commonwealth, who shall transmit the same to the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the said House of Representatives as the case may be.

Part of Sec. 10, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78.
We have made this section apply to United States Senators.

Section 1917. Notice of Illegal Expenditures to District Attorney. If the court shall decide, upon the audit, that any person whether a candidate or not has incurred illegal election expenses, or has otherwise violated any of the provisions of this article, it shall certify its decision to the district attorney of the county in which such person may reside. It shall thereupon be the duty of such district attorney to institute criminal proceedings against such person.

Sec. 11, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78.

Section 1918. No Immunity from Testifying. No person shall be excused from answyering any question in any proceedings under this article on the ground that such answer would tend to incriminate him; but no such answer shall be used as evidence against such person in any criminal action or prosecution whatever, except in an action for perjury in giving such testimony.

Sec. 12, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78.

Section 1919. Blank Reports Furnished by Secretary of Commonwealth. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall at the expense of the Commonwealth, furnish to the county commissioners blanks in the form approved by the Secretary and Attorney General, suitable for the statements hereinbefore required.

Sec. 13, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78.

Section 1920. Blanks to be Furnished to Candidates. Upon the filing of a nomination for a State or National election, the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall transmit to the candidate or candidates put in nomination, and to the treasurer of the political committee, the blanks above described. To any person required to file a statement, such blank shall be furnished upon application therefor.

On the receipt of the list of candidates for public offices before a primary or upon the filing of a nomination, before a municipal election, the county commissioners shall transmit to the candidate or candidates put in nomination, or at said primaries, and to the treasurers of political committees, the blanks above described.

Section 1921. Penalties. Any Secretary of the Commonwealth or clerk of the quarter sessions who shall permit any expense account, filed with him under the provisions of this act, to be destroyed or removed from his office within two years after the same has been filed, except when directed to certify the same to court as provided by this act, any person who shall destroy any such expense account or remove the same from the office in which the same has been filed within two years after the filing thereof, or any person who shall incur any illegal election expenses, or otherwise violate any of the provisions of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars or more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than one month or more than two years, either or both at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 14, Act of Mar. 5, 1906, P. L. 78, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 626.

ARTICLE XX

ELECTION EXPENSES PAYABLE BY COUNTIES

Section 2000. Expenses Payable. All ballots and election supplies other than such blanks, forms and petitions, as are required to be prepared by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, shall be printed, furnished and distributed at the expense of the county. All ballot boxes and the expense of storing the same shall be paid by the county. All expenses for light, rent, fuel, and all other expenses of whatsoever kind and character, including the pay of election officers and clerks, shall be paid by the county. The pay of election officers shall be in full for all services except compensation and mileage heretofore allowed to judges for making returns, shall be in lieu of all kinds of refreshments which it may have been customary to provide, and no such expense for refreshment shall be paid or allowed by the county commissioners. The payments for light, rental, fuel and the storage of ballot boxes shall be fixed and established at least once every three years by resolution duly entered on the minutes of the county commissioners, and said expenses shall be paid according to the provisions of said resolution and not otherwise.

All such payments shall be made by the county treasurer on warrant of the county commissioners.

Drafted partly from Sec. 92, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 540, and partly from Sec. 1, Act of May 8, 1876, P. L. 136.

ARTICLE XXI

PENAL PROVISIONS

Section 2100. Election Defined. Unless otherwise specifically provided the word "election" as used in this article shall be construed to mean any general, special, municipal or primary election.

Sec. 2100 is a new section inserted for the purpose of clarity. Under this heading will be found the penal provisions readily separated from the other provisions of the act. The ones not readily separated from the provisions of the material matter to which it relates, will be found placed to the best advantage within the respective articles.

The Act of June 29, 1881, P. L. 128, relating to fraud in primary elections, is according to our belief, supplied and repealed by implication by the primary act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. It has therefore been omitted from this bill.

The Act of June 8, 1881, P. L. 70, as to bribery at primary elections, was saved by the Act of July 12, 1913, P. L .719, except as modified by the terms of said act. The provisions thereof have been incorporated in this bill.

Section 2101. Fraudulent Assessment. Altering, Defacing, or Removing List. Any assessor who knowingly assesses any person as a voter who is not qualified, or wilfully refuses to assess any one who is qualified, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years or both, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved.

Any person who fraudulently alters, adds to, defaces or destroys any list of voters made out as directed by this act, or tears down or removes the same from the place where it has been fixed, with fraudulent or mischievous intent, or for any improper purpose, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years or both.

Part of Sec. 19, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31.

Section 2102. County Commissioners Omitting Names From Voting List. The commissioners of any county who wilfully fail to insert in the list of taxables of boroughs, towns and townships, delivered by them to the inspectors, the name of any person duly assessed and returned to them by the assessor, shall on conviction thereof be fined and severally pay any sum not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Sec. 98, Act of July 21, 1839, P. L. 519. We have added the words "boroughs, towns and townships" as this system was supplied as to cities by the registration acts.

Section 2103. County Commissioners Adding Names to Voting List. The commissioners of any county who add or knowingly permit to be added the name of any person to the list of taxable inhabitants in boroughs, towns and townships, furnished them by the assessor, and return such name to the inspectors of election, shall on conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty or more than two hundred dollars each.

Sec. 107, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 2104. Fraudulently Securing Name to be Placed on List. Any person who upon any false representation, or by the production of any forged, false or spurious naturalization certificate, or upon any such certificate not duly issued according to the act of Congress, causes his name to be placed, or attempts to have his name placed upon any assessment list for election purposes, or upon any list of qualified electors authorized or required to be made by this act, and any person who aids or abets any other person in such false representa- upon conviction thereof be sentenced to imprisonment for not exceeding one year.

Part of Sec. 38, Act of Apr. 17, 1869, P. L. 49. The clause relating to voting has been omitted from this section as supplied by the Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, see Sec. 2140. This section has a minimum limit of imprisonment of twelve months, but no maximum. We have changed the penalty from a minimum to a maximum, in accordance with modern penalty clauses. This was probably the intent of the original act.

Section 2105. Fraudulently Inserting, Altering or Destroying Entries in Any Document, list or Record Pertaining to Elections. Defacing, Removing or Refusing to Deliver the Same. Any election officer or clerk of election or clerk of the county commissioners or other person, who knowingly inserts or knowingly permits to be inserted any fictitious name, false figure or other fraudulent entry, on or in any assessor's list, register, list of voters, affidavit, tally paper, return sheet, statement, certificate or oath, voucher, vallot, or other record or document, authorized or required to be made, used, signed, returned or preserved for any public purpose in connection with any election, or who materially alters or intentionally defaces or destroys any entry which has been lawfully made therein, except by public order of the county commissioners, prothonotary, or of the court of common pleas, or who takes or removes any such book, list, affidavit, return, ballot, or other document or record, from the custody of any person having lawful charge thereof, in order to prevent the same from being used or inspected or copied as required or permitted by law or who neglects or refuses to deliver the same into the custody of the officials who are or hereafter may be required by law to use or keep the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years, or both.

Drafted from Sec. 15, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of May 25, 1921, P. L. 1125, and Sec. 106, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519. The penalties in the above sections were not exactly the same. The Act of July 12, 1913 applies to primary elections and carries a maximum penalty of $1,000 and 3 years imprisonment; and the Sec. 106 of the Act of 1839 applies to the other elections, and provides "not less than 12 months nor more than 3 years, and a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000." The penalty under the primary act has been inserted.

Section 2106. Forging, Counterfeiting, Destroying, Defacing and Delaying Delivery of Ballots. Any person who forges, or falsely makes the official endorsement on any ballot, or makes or has in his possession any counterfeit of an official ballot, or wilfully destroys or defaces any ballot, or wilfully delays the delivery of any ballots, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Part of Sec. 32, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, and a few words from Sec. 35, of said act.

Section 2107. Fraud In Connection With Nomination Papers and Nomination Petitions. Any person who falsely makes or wilfully defaces or destroys any certificate of nomination, or nomination paper, or any part thereof, or any letter of withdrawal, knowing the same or any part thereof to be falsely made, or suppresses any certificate of nomination, or nomination paper, or any part thereof, which has been duly filed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Any person who knowingly and wilfully signs any nomination petition without being qualified with respect to age, sex, residence, and citizenship, to be an elector of the State, or of the political district or division, as the case may be, named on the sheet which he signs; or who places opposite a signature on a nomination petition a date other than the actual date such signature was affixed thereto; or who places opposite a signature on the nomination petition a false statement of the signer's place of residence; or who signs more nomination petitions than permitted by the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

Any person who knowingly makes a false statement in any affidavit required to be appended to or to accompany a nomination petition, or who fraudulently signs any name not his own to any nomination petition, or who fraudulently alters any nomination petition without the consent of the signers, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred ($500.00) dollars or to undergo imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Part of Sec. 32, Act of July 10, 1893, P. L. 419, and part of Sec. 23, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. The part of Sec. 32, Act of 1893 omitted from this section, will be found under Sec. 2106.

Section 2108. Payment of Poll Tax for Other Persons. Any person or persons who pays or causes to be paid any occupation or poll tax assessed against any other elector, except where paid by a husband or wife for his or her spouse, or by a parent for his or her child, unless pursuant to the written and signed order of such elector authorizing such payment to be made, which written and signed order must be presented at least thirty days prior to the date of holding the election at which such elector desires to vote, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding six months.

Drafted from Secs. 1 and 4, Act of July 15, 1897, P. L. 276, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of June 23, 1931, P. L. 903.

Section 2109. Issuing Tax Receipt Without Written Order. Any officer, clerk or other person authorized to collect taxes and receipt therefor, who receives payment of or receipts for any occupation or poll tax assessed for State or county purposes, from any person other than the elector against whom such tax shall have been assessed, except where paid by a husband or wife for his or her spouse, or by a parent for his or her child, or where paid pursuant to the written and signed order of the taxable authorizing such payment to be made, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or undergo an imprisonment not exceeding six months.

Drafted from Secs. 2 and 4, Act of July 15, 1897, P. L. 276, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of June 23, 1931, P. L. 903.

Section 2110. Issuing of, and Voting or Registering On Forged, Fraudulent or Unlawful Tax Receipt. Any person who knowingly publishes or utters, or who attempts to register for, or vote at any election upon a forged, false or fraudulent tax receipt, or who votes or attempts to vote on any tax receipt unlawfully obtained shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two years.

Drafted from Secs. 3 and 4, Act of July 15, 1897, P. L. 276, and part of Sec. 125, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519. The penalties were different in the original sections. The penalty under the Act of 1839 for uttering a forged receipt was not less than $50 or more than $500, and imprisonment of not less than 6 months and not more than 2 years. The penalty for voting on a tax receipt unlawfully obtained under the Act of 1897 is not less than 20 days or more than six months and a fine not exceeding $200.

Section 2111. Destroying, Defacing or Removing Lists of Candidates, Cards of Instruction, Specimen Ballots, Supplies, Et Cetera. Hindering Voters. Any person who, prior to an election, wilfully defaces or destroys any list of candidates posted in accordance with the provisions of this act, or who, during an election, wilfully defaces, tears down, removes or destroys any card of instruction or specimen ballot printed or posted for the instruction of voters, or wilfully removes or destroys any of the supplies or conveniences furnished to enable a voter to prepare his ballot, or who wilfully hinders the voting of others, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to undergo imprisonment for not more than three months, or both.

Sec. 31, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 2112. Improper Preparation or Delivery of Ballots by Printer. Any printer employed by the commissioners of any county to print any official ballots, or any person engaged in printing the same, who appropriates to himself or gives or delivers or knowingly permits to be taken, any of said ballots by any other person than such commissioners or their duly authorized agent, or who wilfully prints or causes to be printed any official ballot in any other form than that prescribed by such commissioners, or with any other names thereon, or with the names spelled otherwise than as directed by them, or the names or printing thereon arranged in any other way than that authorized and directed by this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment for not more than five years, or both.

Sec. 34, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 2113. Election Officers Refusing to Act. Becoming Intoxicated. Any person elected or appointed to serve as a judge, inspector or clerk of elections, who neglects or refuses to take upon himself the duties of such office, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars ($50), or having entered upon the same, afterwards neglects or refuses to perform the duties thereof according to law, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars ($100).

Any assessor or election officer who becomes intoxicated during any of the time in which he is engaged in the performance of his duties shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars, or imprisonment for thirty days, or both.

Sec. 1, Act of May 19, 1887, P. L. 126, and Sec. 100, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519. This section, in effect, supplies Sec. 99, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, which has been omitted from this compilation; said section provided a $20 fine for failure to attend on the day of election at the proper time.

Section 2114. Election Officers Failing to Comply With Law As to Taking and Giving Oath of Office. Any judge or minority inspector who refuses or fails to swear the officers of election in the manner required by this act any any officer of election who acts without being first duly sworn, or who signs the form of oath without being duly sworn, and any judge or minority inspector who certifies that any officer was sworn when he was not, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction the officer or officers so offending shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both in the discretion of the court.

Part of Sec. 9, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, which supplies Sec. 101, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 2115. Furnishing Electors With Fraudulent Ballots. Any person who furnishes or supplies to any elector of this Commonwealth at any of the polls or voting places, any ballot falsely representing it to contain names not thereon, with the intent and purpose of defrauding said voter out of his express choice, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall pay a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not to exceed one year, or both.

Sec. 1, Act of June 13, 1883, P. L. 92.

Section 2116. Election Officers at Primaries Rejecting Votes of Qualified and Receiving Votes of Unqualified Electors. Stuffing Ballot Boxes and Other Fraud. Any election officer who permits a person to vote at any primary, with the knowledge that such person is not so entitled to vote, or refuses to permit any lawfully entitled elector to vote at such primary, with the knowledge that such person is entitled to vote, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred ($500.00) dollars, or to undergo imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years, or both.

Any election officer or clerk who is guilty of any wilful fraud in the conduct of his duties at a primary for which a penalty is not otherwise specifically provided, or who deposits fraudulent ballots in the ballot box, or who certifies as correct a return of ballots in the ballot box which he knows to have been fraudulently deposited therein, or who conspires with others to commit any of the offenses herein mentioned, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00), or to undergo imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years, or both.

Any election officer who refuses to permit a person to receive the party ballot for which he asks, after having executed the affidavit provided by law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both.

Part of Sec. 23, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. The clauses relating to false returns, and writing false names in list of voters, have been omitted as repetition of the wilful fraud clause.

Recommended That this section be combined with Secs. 2117 and 2119 and made general to all elections. The penalties differ greatly for the same offenses at the primary and the other elections and there seems to be no good reason for such difference.

Section 2117. Election Officers at General Special or Municipal Elections. Rejecting Votes of Qualified or Receiving Votes of Unqualified Electors. Any inspector or judge of an election who at any general, special or municipal election knowingly rejects the vote of any qualified citizen, or knowingly receives the vote of any person not qualified, or conceals from his fellow officers any fact through the knowledge of which such vote should by law be received or rejected, shall on conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars.

Sec. 103, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 2118. Election Officers Permitting Persons to Vote Without Requiring Proof of Qualification. Any election officer who refuses or neglects to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by law, from any person offering to vote, whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and admits such person to vote without requiring such proof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, be sentenced for every such offense, to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not more than one year, or both.

Sec. 12, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. This seems to supply Sec. 104, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 2119. Election Officers Permitting Persons to Deposit Ballots Without Tearing Off Number. Any judge or inspector of election who permits any elector at any election to deposit in the ballot box a ballot without first having torn off the right-hand corner thereof, as provided in this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of ten dollars ($10) for each ballot so permitted to be deposited.

Sec. 6, Act of June 22, 1931, P. L. 627.

Section 2120. Wilful Fraud by Election Officer at General, Special or Municipal Elections. Any inspector, judge or clerk of election, who, at any general, special or municipal election, is guilty of any wilful fraud in the discharge of his duties, for which a penalty is not otherwise specifically provided, shall upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to undergo an imprisonment for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months, and be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars.

Drafted from part of Sec. 102, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519. This applies to elections other than primaries as the primary act provides a penalty for such cases.

Section 2121. Disqualification of Election Officers Convicted of Fraud. Any election officer or clerk convicted of any wilful fraud under the provisions of this act, shall, for seven years thereafter, be disabled from holding any office of honor, trust or profit in this Commonwealth, and shall moreover be disabled for the term aforesaid from giving his vote at any election within this Commonwealth.

The remaining part of Sec. 102, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519. This disqualification for voting has been extended to all elections. The original section disqualified only as to general and special elections.

Section 2122. Opening or Prying Into Ballots. Any judge of an election, inspector, clerk or other person, who before the closing of the polls, unfolds, opens or prys into any ballot, with a design to discover the name of any candidate voted for therein, shall on conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, and to be imprisoned for not less than one nor more than three months.

Drafted from Sec. 105, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 2123. Public Officer Failing to Perform Duties or Violating Provisions of Act. Any public officer, election officer or clerk of election upon whom a duty is imposed by this act, who negligently or wilfully fails to perform such duty, or who negligently or wilfully performs it in such a way as to hinder the objects of this act, or who negligently or wilfully violates any of the provisions thereof, shall, except as may be otherwise provided for in this act, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Drafted from Sec. 33, Act of July 10, 1893, P. L. 419, and part of Sec. 19, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. These sections originally applied to the two said acts, but as used here, these provisions will apply to all the duties provided by this act. The extension of this section to primaries was accomplished by the last paragraph of Sec. 23, July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. This section supplies Secs. 97 and 126, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, and Sec. 15, Act of June 13, 1840, P. L. 688, although the penalties in said sections were slightly different.

Section 2124. Fraudulent Voting at General, Special or Municipal Elections. Any person who at any general, municipal or special election, votes at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently votes more than once on the same day, or fraudulently folds and deposits in the ballot box more than one ballot with intent to illegally vote, or votes out of his proper district, or who being unqualified fraudulently votes at any such election, and any person who advises and procures another so to do, shall on conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and to be imprisoned for a term not exceeding five years.

Drafted from Sec. 120, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, and Sec. 1, Act of July 12, 1897, P. L. 257, and Sec. 119, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, as amended by Sec. 1, Act of July 14, 1897, P. L. 261.

Recommended That this section be combined with Sec. 2124 so the penalties be the same for all elections.

Section 2125. Fraudulent Voting at Primary Elections. Any person who votes or attempts to vote at a primary, knowing that he does not possess the qualifications of a voter at such primary, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or both.

Part of Sec. 23, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. The clause relating to the possession of official ballots outside the poling place, has been omitted here as the penalty is the same for all elections, see Sec. 2131. This section supplies Sec. 4, Act of June 8, 1881, P. L. 70.

Section 2126. False Swearing. Any person who wilfully and corruptly makes or procures any person to make falsely any oath or affirmation, required or authorized by this act, shall, except as herein otherwise provided, upon conviction thereof, suffer such penalties and disabilities as are incurred on conviction of wilful and corrupt perjury or subordination of perjury.

Sec. 124, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, extended to include all elections.

Section 2127. Showing or Soliciting Another to Show Contents of Ballot. Voting Unofficial Ballot. Interference With Voter. Any voter at any election, who allows his ballot to be seen by any person, with the apparent intention of letting it be known how he is about to vote; or casts or attempts to cast any other than the official ballot which has been given him by the proper election officer; and any person who interferes with any voter when inside said enclosed space or when marking his ballot, or who endeavors to induce any voter before depositing his ballot to show how he marks or has marked his ballot, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Section 2128. Unlawfully Giving or Receiving Assistance. Deceiving or Attempting to Influence Assisted Voter. Disclosing Contents of Such Ballot. Any person at any election, who, without having made the statement required by section two hundred and fifty of this act, permits another to accompany him into the voting compartment or to mark his ballot for him; or who marks his ballot while another is unlawfully present in the voting compartment with him; or who states falsely that he cannot read the names on the ballot or that, by reason of physical disability, he cannot see or mark the ballot or enter the voting compartment without assistance; or who states as his reason for requiring assistance, a disability from which he does not suffer; or who goes into the voting compartment with another while voting or is present therein while another is voting, or marks the ballot of another, having knowledge that such voter had failed to make the required statement relative thereto, or that such statement having been made, was false, and except in strict accordance with the provisions of this act, or any helper who attempts to influence the vote of the voter whom he is assisting, or who marks a ballot in any other way than that requested by the voter whom he is assisting, or who discloses to anyone the contents of any ballot which has been marked with his help, except when required to do so in any legal proceedings; shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Part of Sec. 30, of July 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 363. The clause relating to a person giving assistance to another, having knowledge of the failure of such voter to make the proper statement, has been taken from Sec. 23, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719, a part of which has been omitted from this compilation as supplied by above act.

Section 2129. Election Officers Permitting Unlawful Assistance. Any election officer who permits a voter at any election to be accompanied by another into the voting compartment when he has not made, under oath or affirmation, the statement required by section two hundred and fifty of this act, or when he knows that the statement which the voter has made is false; or who permits any person to accompany a voter into the voting compartment, except as provided by this act; shall, for each such violation, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to undergo imprisonment for not less than one month, nor more than one year, and, in addition thereto, at the discretion of the court, to pay a fine which shall not exceed one thousand dollars.

Part of Sec. 30, Act of July 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 363.

Section 2130. Judge of Election, Failing to Keep and Return Proper Records of Assisted Voters. Any judge of election who fails to record, as required by section two hundred and fifty of this act, the name of each voter who receives assistance or who is accompanied by another into the voting compartment, or inserts in the record of assisted voters the name of any voter who does not receive assistance or is not accompanied by another into the voting compartment, or fails to record the reason stated by any assisted voter for requiring assistance, or records in respect of any assisted voter a reason other than that stated by the voter, or fails to record the name of each person rendering assistance to a voter as prescribed by this act, or knowingly records, as the name of such helper, a name which is not the name of such helper, or fails or neglects to return the record of assisted voters to the prothonotary or the county commissioners, as required by this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to undergo imprisonment for not less than two months, nor more than two years, and in addition thereto, at the discretion of the court, to pay a fine which shall not exceed one thousand dollars.

Part of Sec. 30, Act of July 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as amended by Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 363.

Section 2131. Election Officers in Boroughs, Towns and Townships Failing to Endorse Naturalization Certificates After Holder Voted Thereon. Any election officer who at any election in boroughs, towns and townships, neglects or refuses to make the endorsement required by this act upon a naturalization certificate after the holder thereof has been entitled to vote upon showing the same, or who unlawfully permits a second vote on the same day by virtue of the same certificate, properly endorsed as to the first vote, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

Part of Sec. 11, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. The penalty placed on the person voting the second time on same certificate has been omitted as supplied by later acts, both when the same person votes more than once, and where a person votes on a certificate not issued to him.

Section 2132. Attempting to Vote by Persons Not Citizens. Any person not a citizen of this Commonwealth who votes or attempts to vote at any election, or any person who through solicitation, invitation or devise persuades or prevails on such a person to vote at an election, or who by any means aids, encourages or abets such attempt, shall be guilty of felony and on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and undergo an imprisonment of not less than two nor more than five years.

Drafted from Secs. 6 and 7, Act of Apr. 6, 1870, P. L. 53. The original sections were effective as to special, general and presidential elections; they have been extended to all elections.

Section 2133. Possession of Official Ballot by Persons Not Entitled Thereto. Any person other than an officer charged by law with the care of ballots or a person entrusted by any such officer with the care of the same, for a purpose required by law, who has in his possession outside the voting room any official ballot shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to undergo an imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Sec. 35, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419.

Section 2134. Obstructing and Intimidating Election Officers and Overseers. Blocking Up Entrance and Raising Disturbances. Intimidating and Assaulting Voters. Any person who prevents or attempts to prevent any officers or overseers of an election from holding such election, or uses or threatens any violence or intimidation to any such officer or overseer or interrupts or improperly interfers with him in the execution of his duty, or blocks up or attempts to block up the entrance or avenue to any enclosed space where the election is held or riotously disturbs the peace at any election or uses or practices any intimidation, threats, force or violence with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector or to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, or unlawfully strikes, wounds, or commits any assault and battery upon the person of any elector at or near the election poll during the holding of any election, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and be imprisoned for a term not less than one nor more than twelve months.

Part of Sec. 110, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, and Sec. 9, Act of Apr. 6, 1870, P. L. 53. The part providing a greater penalty for non-residents of the election district, has been omitted as supplied by a later Act, see Sec. 2135.

This section also supplies the penal provisions relating to overseers of elections, as found in Secs. 4 and 19, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31, and Sec. 22, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. The penalties provided in the said sections were slightly different before we combined them.

Recommended That the penalty in this section be made the same as in cases of non-residents or at least make fine or imprisonment discretionary with court.

Section 2135. Intimidating Officers and Voters. Blocking Up Entrance and Raising Disturbance by Persons Not of the District. Any person who, on the day of any election, visits a polling-place in any election district at which he is not entitled to vote, and blocks up or attempts to block up the entrance or avenue to any enclosed space where the same is held, or riotously disturbs the peace at any election, or uses any intimidation or violence for the purpose of preventing any officer of election from performing the duties required of him by law, or for the purpose of preventing any qualified voter of such district exercising his right to vote or from exercising his right to challenge any person offering to vote, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both.

Sec. 19, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. The clause relating to blocking the entrance and riotously disturbing the peace, has been taken from Sec. 110, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519; under the Act of 1839, the penalty was different. (See note to Sec. 2134).

Section 2136. Penalty for Interfering With or Intimidating Watchers. Any election officer or officers officiating at any election refusing to permit a watcher appointed under the provisions of this act to be present at such election or any person who by violence or intimidation shall threaten or drive away any watcher so appointed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year or both in the discretion of the court.

Drafted from Sec. 22, and part of Sec. 21, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719.

Section 2137. Attempting to Influence Voters at Elections by Persons Not Qualified. Any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth (except the sons of qualified citizens), who appears at any place of election for the purpose of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, shall, for every such offense, on conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars and be imprisoned for a term not exceeding three months.

Sec. 121, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519. Suggest this prison term be made discretionary.

Section 2138. Presence of Police Officer at Polling-Place During Primary. It is unlawful for any police officer in commission, whether in uniform or in citizen's clothes, to be within one hundred feet of a polling-place during the conduct of a primary, unless in the exercise of his privilege of voting, or for the purpose of serving warrants, or in case of disturbance of the peace. Any police officer violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred ($500.00) dollars, or to undergo imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

Part of Sec. 23, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. Suggest this be made general to all elections.

Section 2139. Constables Neglecting to Report to Court Disturbances at Elections. If it is made to appear to any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth that any riot or disturbance occurred at the time and place of holding any election, and the constables who are enjoined by law to attend at such elections have not given information thereof according to the provisions of this act, the said court shall cause the officer or officers so neglecting the duty aforesaid to be proceeded against by indictment for misdemeanor in office, and on conviction thereof the said officer shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Sec. 113, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 2140. Justice of the Peace Refusing to Receive or Failing to Safely Keep Ballot-Box. Any justice of the peace who refuses to receive any ballot-box delivered to him in accordance with the provisions of this act, or having received the same neglects the safe-keeping thereof, shall, on conviction of any such refusal or neglect, be fined in any sum not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

Sec. 127, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 2141. Fraudulent Issue of Naturalization Certificates. Perjury in Securing Same. Registering or Voting on Such Certificate. Any prothonotary, clerk or the deputy of either, or any other person who affixes the seal of any court to any naturalization paper or permits the same to be affixed, or gives out or causes or permits such naturalization paper to be given out in blank, whereby it may be fraudulently used, or furnishes a naturalization certificate to any person who shall not have been duly examined and sworn in open court in the presence of some of the judges thereof according to the act of Congress, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or undergo imprisonment for a term of not more than three years or both.

Any person who on oath or affirmation in or before any court or officer authorized to administer oaths, in order to procure a certificate of naturalization for himself or any person, wilfully deposes, declares or affirms any matter to be fact knowing the same to be false, or in like manner denys any matter to be a fact knowing the same to be the truth, shall be guilty of perjury. Any certificate of naturalization issued in pursuance of any such false deposition, declaration or affirmation, is null and void. The court having issued such certificate shall upon proof being made before it that it was fraudulently obtained, take immediate measures for recalling the same for cancellation.

Any person who registers or attempts to register, or votes or attempts to vote on any naturalization certificate, knowing that it was fraudulently issued or procured, or on any certificate of naturalization not issued to him, or who in any way aids in, connives at, or has any agency whatever in the issue, circulation or use of any fraudulent naturalization certificate, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or undergo imprisonment for a term of not more than three years, or both.

A redraft of Secs. 20 and 21, Act of Jan. 30, 1874, P. L. 31. The aforesaid sections were jumbled and contained much repetition and some contradictions as to the penalty. We have endeavored to clarify the same. The penalty for voting on false naturalization papers has been extended to registering. This section supplies Sec. 125, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, as to naturalization certificates.

Section 2142. Payment of Costs of Naturalization by Candidates, Political Committees and Organizations, or Members Thereof. Disposition of Fines. It is unlawful for any officer or member of any political committee or organization of any political party, or any candidate for office nominated by any political party, or by nomination papers, or any person in behalf of said committee, organization or candidate, to pay or furnish the money to pay, or in any way become responsible for the payment of the fees and expenses directly or indirectly incurred by an alien in attending upon any court for the purpose of and in obtaining his naturalization papers.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof in any summary proceeding before any magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace, who are hereby authorized to try such offenders in a summary way, be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs, which when collected shall be paid into the county treasury of the county wherein the offense was committed.

Any person sentenced to pay a fine under the provisions of this section who refuses or fails to forthwith pay said fines and costs to the magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace before whom he is convicted, or give satisfactory security to be approved by said magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace, to pay the same within ten days, shall be committed to the county jail, there to be held one day for every five dollars of the fine and costs which he has been sentenced to pay. Such imprisonment shall not prevent the collection of said fine or fines and costs by legal process.

Drafted from Secs. 1, 2 and 3, Act of May 10, 1893, P. L. 36.

Section 2143. Corrupt Solicitation of Election Officers and Other Public Officers by Bribery or Intimidation. Any person who, directly or indirectly, by offer or promise of money, office, appointment, employment, testimonial, or other thing of value, or by threats, or intimidation, endeavors to influence any member of the general assembly, state, county, election, municipal, or other public officer, in the discharge, performance or non-performance of any act, duty or obligation imposed thereon or provided by the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of the offence of corrupt solicitation, and liable to indictment for a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and to undergo imprisonment not exceeding two years.

Sec. 1, Act of Apr. 29, 1874, P. L. 115, in so far as it relates to the duties, etc., of said officers provided by this act.

Section 2144. Attempting to Bribe or Intimate County or Executive Committee, or Member of Return Board For Primary Election; Acceptance and Solicitation of Bribe by Same. Any person elected, chosen or acting as a member of the county or executive committee of any party, or as a judge of a return board to count up and cast the vote polled at a primary election, or any person appointed a clerk of such return board, who directly or indirectly accepts, receives, or solicits money, office, appointment, employment, testimonial, reward or other thing of value, or the promise of all or either of them, to influence his vote or action in the discharge, performance or non-performance of any act, duty or obligation pertaining to such office, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one hundred dollars and be imprisoned for a time not exceeding three months.

Any person or persons who directly or indirectly by offer or promise of money, office, appointment, employment, testimonial, reward or other thing of value, or who by threats or intimidation, endeavors to influence a member of a county or executive committee of any party, or a judge or clerk of any return board in the discharge, performance or non-performance of any act, duty or obligation pertaining to such office, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of two hundred dollars and to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding six months.

Part of Sec. 6, Act of June 8, 1881, P. L. 70.

Section 2145. Bribery or Intimidation of an Elector. Any person who directly or indirectly gives or promises or offers to give, any gift or reward in money, goods or other valuable thing, to any person with intent to induce him to vote or refrain from voting for any particular candidate or candidates at any election, or directly or indirectly procures for, or offers or promises to procure for such person any such gift or reward with the intent aforesaid, or with the intent to influence or intimidate such person to give his vote or refrain from giving his vote for any particular candidate or candidates at any election, gives to, or obtains for, or assists in obtaining for, or offers or promises to give to or obtain for, or assist in obtaining for such person any office, place, appointment or employment, public or private, or threatens such person with dismissal or discharge from any office, place, appointment or employment, public or private, then held by him, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or to undergo imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years or both.

Part of Sec. 23, Act of July 12, 1913, P. L. 719. We have made this section general to all elections, so that it supplies Sec. 51, Act of Mar. 31, 1860, P. L. 382, which did apply to all elections but primaries, and was identical to the above section, except the penalty carried a maximum imprisonment of two years instead of three. The above section also supplies Sec. 1, Act of June 8, 1881, P. L. 70, in so far as it applies to elections.

Section 2146. Solicitation or Acceptance of Bribe by Electors. Any elector qualified to vote at any election who directly or indirectly (a) accepts or receives from any person any gift or reward in money, goods or other valuable thing, or any office of employment, under an agreement or promise express or implied, that such elector shall give or withhold his vote for the nomination or election of any particular person at such election, or (b) accepts or receives the promise of any person that he shall thereafter receive any gift or reward in money, goods, position or other valuable thing if he will vote for the nomination or election of any particular person, or (c) offers to give his vote to any particular person in consideration that for such vote he is to receive any gift or reward in money, goods or other valuable thing, or any office or employment, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall pay a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars and undergo a period of imprisonment not exceeding six months.

Drafted from Secs. 2 and 3, Act of Jan. 8, 1881, P. L. 70, which applied to primary elections and nominating conventions, and from Sec. 50, Act of Mar. 31, 1860, P. L. 382, which applied to all other elections. We have combined the provisions of the said three sections, made the same apply to all elections, and made the penalty the same for all. Secs. 2 and 3, Act of 1881 carried a maximum penalty of $300 and three months imprisonment. Sec. 50, Act of 1860, carried a maximum penalty of $100 and six months imprisonment. In this redrafted section, we provide a maximum of $300 fine and six months imprisonment.

Section 2147. Giving or Receiving Bribes For Votes on Public Questions. Any person who gives, or promises or offers to give, an elector any money, reward or other valuable consideration for his vote at any election held for the purpose of voting on an amendment to the Constitution or any other public purpose, or for withholding the same, or who gives or promises to give such consideration to any other person or party for such elector's vote, or for the withholding thereof, and any elector who receives or agrees to receive for himself or for another, any money, reward or other valuable consideration for his vote at such election, or for withholding the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars and undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year.

Sec. 1, Act of May 9, 1889, P. L. 162.

Section 2148. Contributions Demanded From Public Employes by Political Committees. It is unlawful for any political committee or member thereof directly or indirectly to demand of any public officer, subordinate or employe holding any office or position of honor, trust or profit in this Commonwealth, or otherwise engaged or employed in the service of this State, or from any officer, subordinate or employe in any way engaged or employed in the service of any city or county of this State, any assessment or percentage of any money, property or their equivalent in anything of value, with the understanding either expressed or implied that the same may or shall be used for any political purpose whatsoever.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars.

Secs. 1 and 2, Act of June 13, 1883, P. L. 86.

Section 2149. Assessment of Public Employes For Political Purposes by Heads of Departments. It is unlawful for any officer of this Commonwealth, or of any county thereof, or for any mayor or head of department or other officer of any city of this Commonwealth, to make or cause or knowingly permit to be made any assessment upon the pay, wages or salary of any officer or employe appointed by or holding office or employment under him, for any political or party purpose whatsoever, or to make or cause or knowingly permit to be made any demand for the payment or gift of any money or other valuable thing to any political committee, organization or person, for use in any manner for any political or party purpose.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or to undergo imprisonment for not more than one year or both.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent any officer or other employe appointed as aforesaid from making a voluntary contribution to any political committee or organization for legitimate, political and campaign purposes.

Secs. 1 and 2, Act of July 15, 1897, P. L. 275.

Section 2150. Printing, Posting or Distributing Any Libelous Circular With Intent to Defeat Any Candidate. Any person who writes, prints, posts or distributes, or causes to be written, printed, posted or distributed, a circular or poster, cartoon or other written or printed paper which is designated or tends to injure or defeat any candidate for nomination or election to public office, by reflecting upon his personal character or political action, unless the same shall be published in a newspaper avowedly responsible therefor, or unless there appears upon such circular, poster or paper in a conspicuous place either the names of the chairman and secretary, or at least the names of two officers of the political or oher organization issuing the same, or the name of some duly registered elector with description of his election district, as responsible therefor, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, and if the statements are untrue the person so offending shall also be deemed guilty of libel, and may be prosecuted in the civil or criminal courts or both thereof.

Sec. 1, Act of June 26, 1895, P. L. 389.

Section 2151. Betting on Elections. Certain Officers to Prosecute. Grand Jury to Make Presentment. Wagering or betting on the event of an election is hereby prohibited, and all contracts or promises founded thereon are entirely null and void. Any person who makes any bet or wager upon the result of any election within this Commonwealth, or who offers to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, challenges or invites any person or persons to make such bet or wager, shall, upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

Any judge, sheriff, mayor, alderman, justice of the peace or constable, knowing of any person having offended against the provisions of this section, shall commence proceedings against the person so offending. The grand juries of the respective counties shall make a presentment of all such offences coming within their knowledge.

Secs. 115 and 116, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519, and Sec. 1, Act of Mar. 24, 1817, P. L. 204. Sec. 2 of said Act of 1817 was repealed by the said sections of the Act of 1839, P. L. 519. (See 110 Pa. 463; and 112 Pa. 607).

Section 2152. Directors of the Poor to Sue For Amount of Wagers. The several constituted authorities having care and charge of the poor in the respective counties, districts and townships of this Commonwealth, knowing or being informed under oath of any person or persons having made any bet or wager of any land, goods, money or thing of value, on the result of any election within this Commonwealth, or deposited the same in the hands of any person within their respective counties, districts or townships, shall bring suit in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the use of the poor of such county, district or township, against such depositee or stakeholder, where said bet is deposited in the hands of a third person, or against the party winning said bet when the same is not deposited, for the recovery of the amount so bet; and if on the trial it shall be made appear that said lands, goods, money or thing of value, was bet on the result of any election within this Comomnwealth, said guardians, directors or overseers of the poor, shall be entitled to recover the amount or value thereof, for the use of the poor, from said stakeholder, or person winning said bet where there is no stakeholder: Provided, Said suit is brought within two years from the time of making said bet. And the stakeholder is hereby prohibited, during said time, to pay over the amount so bet to either of the parties, and shall be liable for the same, whether such bet is paid over or delivered to the parties or either of them, or not, and the party winning shall in like manner be liable to the payment of the whole amount so bet, where the same is received by him; and said bet or the value thereof may be recovered as debts of like amount are by law recoverable. Any of the said guardians, directors or overseers of the poor, who neglects or refuses to bring such suit, shall be guilty of a misdemeaner in office and on conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than the amount so bet, nor more than double the amount.

Sec. 118, Act of July 2, 1839, P. L. 519.

Section 2153. Constables to Return to Court Names of Persons Selling or Furnishing Liquor on Election Day. The constables of the several towns, townships, wards and boroughs of this Comomnwealth, shall make return to the next court of quarter sessions of the proper county of the name or names of any person or persons keeping a public house or drinking place wherein any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or any other intoxicating beverages are sold, furnished or given away on any election day. Any constable wilfully violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars and imprisonment for not more than one hundred days.

Drafted from Secs. 2 and 3, Act of Mar. 13, 1872, P. L. 24.

Section 2154. Violations of Act Not Specifically Provided For. Any person, other than a public officer, election officer or clerk of election, who violates any of the provisions of this act for which a penalty is not herein specifically provided, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and for each such offense shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars or to imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

Taken from part of Sec. 30, Act of June 10, 1893, P. L. 419, as last amended by Sec. 2, Act of Apr. 23, 1927, P. L. 363. The section has been extended to all elections. The same provision has been made as to public officers and election officers.

Section 2155. How Fines and Forfeitures May Be Recovered; Limitation of Suits. Every specific fine or forfeiture, imposed by this act, may be recovered by action of debt in the name of the Commonwealth, as debts of like amount are by law recoverable, or by indictment in the court of quarter sessions of the proper county, and where the fine and forfeiture is not specific, the proceeding shall be by indictment in the quarter sessions of the proper county. All such suits and prosecutions shall be instituted within one year next after the cause thereof shall accrue, unless otherwise herein provided.

Sec. 128, Act of July 2, 1839. P. L. 519, extended to all elections.

PROPOSED NONPROFIT CORPORATION LAW

To the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

By the 1931 General Appropriation Act the Legislature made an appropriation to this department for the payment of compensation and expenses incident to the preparation for presentation to the General Assembly at its 1933 session, a revision of the corporation laws.

There has been no such revision since the adoption of the Corporation Act of 1874 and there is no field of our statutory law which is more in need of revision than this subject.

The nature of the organization of corporation has, to a considerable degree, become a matter of competition between the states. We are losing many corporations which ought to be formed under the laws of this State. The primary reason is that our corporation laws are not up to date and contain many restrictions which have been eliminated by practically all other states.

In revising this subject we have prepared two acts. The one herewith submitted is entitled, "Nonprofit Corporation Law." If enacted, it will supersede the existing statutes providing for the organization and regulation of what are known as corporations of the first class.

So that the members of the General Assembly may understand the effect of the revision herewith submitted, every section of the proposed act has been annotated; and out of the funds appropriated to the Department of Property and Supplies and allocated to this department, we have caused one thousand copies of the annotated edition of this bill to be printed for the use of the members of the General Assembly and other persons interested in the subject.

The present draft and the annotations thereto were prepared by Special Deputy Attorney General E. Russell Shockley of this department.

Respectfully submitted,
Wm. A. Schnader,
Attorney General.

AN ACT

Relating to nonprofit corporations; defining and providing for the organization, merger, consolidation, division and dissolution of such corporations; conferring certain rights, powers, duties and immunities upon them and their officers and members; prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers; providing for the inclusion of certain existing corporations of the first class within the provisions of this act; prescribing the terms and conditions upon which foreign nonprofit corporations may be admitted or may continue to do business within the Commonwealth; conferring powers and imposing duties on the courts of common pleas, prothonotaries of such courts, recorders of deeds and certain State departments, commissions and officers; authorizing certain local public officers and State departments to collect fees for services required to be rendered by this act; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to corporations.

ARTICLE I.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Section 1. Short Title.—Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That this act shall be known and may be cited as the "Nonprofit Corporation Law."

Section 2. Definitions.—The following words or phrases, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section:

"Articles" includes both the original articles of incorporation and any and all amendments thereto.

"Business," in the case of a domestic nonprofit corporation, includes any or all of the activities for which it has been organized, and, in the case of a foreign nonprofit corporation, any or all of the activities in which its certificate of authority authorizes it to engage within this Commonwealth.

"Court" means the court of common pleas of the county where the registered office of the corporation is or is to be located.

"Directors" includes persons designated in the articles as such, and persons designated, elected or appointed, by any other name or title, to act as directors, and their successors. The terms, when used in relation to any power or duty requiring collective action, shall be construed to mean "Board of Directors."

"Domestic Nonprofit Corporation" means a corporation formed under this act, or acorporation heretofore organized or created in this Commonwealth which becomes subject to this act.

"Foreign Nonprofit Corporation" means a corporation not for pecuniary profit formed under any laws other than those of this Commonwealth.

"Incorporator" is one of the signers of the original articles of incorporation.

"Member" includes each person signing the articles of incorporation, and each person admitted to membership in the corporation. The term "member" shall be construed to be synonymous with "shareholder," if the corporation issues capital stock.

"Nonprofit Corporation" means a corporation organized for a purpose or purposes not involving pecuniary profit, incidental or otherwise, to its members.[1]

"Registered Office" means, in the case of a domestic nonprofit corporation, that office in this Commonwealth at which its books and records are kept, and the address of which is filed in the office of the recorder of deeds as required by this act, and, in the case of a foreign nonprofit corporation authorized to do business within this Commonwealth, that office in this Commonwealth the address of which is filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, as required by this act.

"Trust Instrument" includes any lawful deed of gift, grant, last will and testament, or other document, by which the donor, grantor, or testator shall give, grant, devise, or bequeath any real or personal property, or the income therefrom, in trust, for any charitable, religious, benevolent, educational, scientific or literary purpose, or public benefaction, of whatever name or nature.

Section headings shall not be taken to govern or limit the scope of the sections of this act.

The singular shall include the plural, and the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter.

Comments:

1. Under the Act of 1874, corporations not for profit were designated as corporations of the first class. This designation was adopted in the Corporation Act of 1874 to distinguish the corporations formed by the courts from those formed by the Governor. Such designation is not necessary in a code pertaining to nonprofit corprations only, and the term "nonprofit corporation" is more descriptive of this type of corporation, to say the least. California and Michigan, in their 1931 codes, use the same description for this class of corporations.

Section 3. Applicability and Acceptance of Act.—A. Every corporation of the first class, heretofore organized and incorporated under the Corporation Act of 1874, its amendments and supplements, and every corporation heretofore created by any special act or formed under any general act, which has accepted in any manner whatsoever the Constitution of Pennsylvania and which, if not existing, would be required to incorporate under this act, shall hereafter be subject to the provisions of this act without formal reorganization hereunder, and shall be deemed to exist under this act. The provisions of this act shall govern all such corporations heretomore incorporated in this Commonwealth.[1]

B. Any corporation incorporated prior to 1874 by any general or special act, which has not accepted the Constitution of Pennsylvania in any manner whatsoever, and which, if not existing, would be required to incorporate under this act, shall be deemed to exist under and shall be governed by the provisions of this act, upon filing with the Department of State a certificate accepting the provisions of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and of this act.[2] The certificate shall be executed under the seal of the corporation, shall be signed by two duly authorized officers of the corporation, and shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation,

(2) The Act of Assembly by or under which it was created,

(3) A statement that the corporation accepts the Constitution of Pennsylvania and the provisions of this act, and

(4) A statement that the acceptance of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and of the provisions of this act was duly authorized by a meeting of the members called for that purpose.

C. Every foreign nonprofit corporation heretofore admitted to do business in this Commonwealth, which, if now seeking admission, would be required to comply with the provisions of this act, shall, within ninety days after the effective date of this act, secure a certificate of authority from the Department of State and shall thereafter be subject to the provisions of this act.[3]

D. This act shall not be construed as attempting to deprive any existing corporation of any corporate power, right, privilege or franchise which such corporation now enjoys, except that such corporation shall not hereafter operate in any manner resulting in pecuniary profit or gain to its members.

Comments:

1. The repeal of a general corporation law cannot be construed, in the absence of express provisions, as intended to repeal the charters of corporations formed under it, especially where the manifest purpose of the repealing act is to substitute a new law, extending the provisions of the old, and perfecting its details, but not changing its general policy. Under such circumstances the corporations continue to exist and to be governed by the provisions of the act under which they were organized, except so far as the Legislature had power to alter such act in its application to corporations under the various constitutional provisions. 1 Thompson on Corporations, Section 371, Page 468.

In view of the foregoing, the proposed act subjects to its provisions existing corporations whose charters may be altered or amended by the Legislature.

2. This provision permits any existing corporation whose charter may not be altered, revoked or annulled by the General Assembly to accept the provisions of the proposed act by filing a certificate of acceptance with the Department of State.

3. See Article VIII of this draft.

Section 4. Scope of Act.—This act does not relate to, does not affect, and does not apply to:

(1) Associations operating on a cooperative plan, whether for profit or not for profit.[1]

(2) Beneficial, benevolent, fraternal and fraternal benefit societies, having a lodge system and a representative form of government, or transacting any type of insurance whatsoever.[2]

(3) Any corporation whatsoever organized for any purpose or purposes involving pecuniary profit to its members or stockholders.[3]

Comments:

1. The Act of June 12, 1919, P. L. 466, as amended, 14 PS Sec. 41-63, authorizes the formation of cooperative agricultural associations not having capital stock and not conducted for profit. Several other acts provide for the formation of cooperative associations for profit, and, of course, are not within the purview of this draft. The Act of 1919 contains all the statutory law relating to cooperative agricultural associations not having capital stock and not conducted for profit. As there is no confusion, uncertainty or inconsistency in the law relating to these associations, and as these associations have many features uncommon to corporations in general, the law pertaining to these associations has not been included in this draft. Discussion is invited on the question (1) whether it is desirable to include in the proposed act the law relating to cooperative agricultural associations, and (2) whether it is desirable to include in the proposed act general provisions permitting the formation of all kinds of cooperative associations not having capital stock and not conducted for profit.

2. Formerly, beneficial associations were incorporated as first-class corporations, under Paragraph IX of Section 2 of the Corporation Act of 1874, which provided that corporations of the first class could be formed for: "The maintenance of a society for beneficial or protective purposes to its members from funds collected therein."

In 1893, the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County, in the case of Commonwealth v. The Order of Vesta, 2 D. R. 254, held that there could be incorporated under this paragraph only local beneficial societies and societies with a membership composed of citizens of the particular localities or members of given congregations or societies, as the court of common pleas, under the Act of 1874, had no authority to confer upon a corporation the power to extend its operations by means of agents of so-called subordinate lodges, throughout or beyond the State. The Act of April 6, 1893, P. L. 10, in turn, authorized the courts to incorporate associations organized upon the fraternal plan, with superior and inferior bodies. The Act of May 20, 1921, P. L. 916, repealed the Act of 1893, and repealed the aforementioned paragraph of the Act of 1874, in so far as it pertained to the incorporation of societies for the transaction of any class of insurance. The Act of 1921 permits the formation of corporations without capital stock which have a lodge system with ritualistic form of work and a representative form of government, and which make provision for payment of benefits. Such corporations are resignated as fraternal benefit societies. The Act of 1921, however, exempts such corporations which do not provide for a benefit of more than $300.00 to any person in any one year.

Therefore, under the present status of our law, a beneficial society formed under the Act of 1874, does not have the power to have a lodge system with a ritualtistic form of work and a representative form of government, and may not engage in any type of insurance. Such societies may, however, pay sick or burial benefits to their members not exceeding $300.00

This draft does not inclue: (1) corporations subject to the Act of 1921; and (2) corporations specifically exempted from the Act of 1921. It is planned to bring such corporations within the supervision of the Insurance Department.

3. Such corporations will be included in the proposed Business Corporation Law.

Section 5. Saving Clause.—A. This act shall not impair or affect any act done, offense committed, or right accruing, accrued, or acquired, or liability, penalty, judgment or punishment incurred prior to the time this act takes effect, but the same may be enjoyed, asserted, enforced, prosecuted, or inflicted as fully and to the same extent as if this act had not been passed.

B. The provisions of all acts or parts of acts which are repealed by this act, or are reenacted in this act, shall be considered as remaining continuously in force, so that all rights enjoyed and liabilities incurred under such provisions before the effective date of this act shall be enjoyed or may be enforced as if this act had not been passed.

C. The provisions of this act, as far as they are the same as those of existing laws, shall be construed as a continuation of such laws and not as new enactments. The repeal of any acts by this act shall not affect the corporate existence of any corporation heretofore created. Any person holding office under any act repealed by this act shall continue to hold such office until the expiration of the term thereof, subject to the conditions to such office prior to the passage of this act.

Section 6. Charters May Be Perpetual or Limited; Power to Revoke Reserved.—Non profit corporations may be formed under this act for a definite or a perpetual term,[1] but the General Assembly may alter, revoke or annul the charter of any corporation formed under this act, as provided by Article XVI, Section 10 of the Constitution.[2]

Pennsylvania Constitution, Article XVI, Section 10.

Comments:

1. Section 4 of the Act of 1874 provides: "The charters for incorporations named in this act may be made perpetual, or may be limited in time by their own provisions." This draft restates this part of the Act of 1874. Under the Act of 1874, and under this draft, it is necessary to specify in the articles of incorporations the term for which the corporation is to be formed, whether or not the term is a definite or a perpetual one. In this particular, it should be noted that Section 12 of the Michigan General Corporation Act provides: "Corporations organized without capital stock for religious, benevolent, social or fraternal purposes, may incorporate without fixing any definite term in their articles, and the terms of such corporations shall be deemed to be perpetual, subject to the right of the legislature to alter, repeal or amend this section in accordance with the constitution." Discussion is invited whether language similar to that contained in the Michigan act would be more suitable for nonprofit corporations.

2. Article XVI, Section 10 of the Pennsylvania Constitution provides: "The General Assembly shall have the power to alter, revoke or annul any charter of incorporation now existing and revokable at the adoption of this Constitution, or any that may hereafter be created, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of this Commonwealth, in such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporators."

Section 7. Fees.—Any prothonotary or recorder of deeds, and any State department, board, commission, or officer, shall be entitled to receive for services performed as required by this act such fees as are lawfully charged for similar services.

Comments:

Fee bills and other Acts of Assembly prescribe the charges to be made by prothonotaries of the courts of common pleas and the recorders of deeds for documents filed or recorded with them. The same is true of the Department of State. This draft does not reiterate such charges but leaves the existing fee bills intact.

Section 8. Equity Jurisdiction of Courts of Common Pleas Not Limited.—This act shall not be deemed to curtail in any manner whatsoever the equity jurisdiction of the courts of this Commonwealth.

Comments:

The Act of June 16, 1836, P. L. 784, Section 13, 17 PS Sec. 281, provides:

"The several courts of common pleas shall have the jurisdiction and powers of a court of chancery, so far as relates to:

"V. The supervision and control of all corporations other than those of a municipal character * * *."

While the equity powers conferred by the Act of 1836 are circumscribed within certain limits as to individuals, they are general and unlimited over corporations. In the exercise of their equity jurisdiction over corporations, such courts possess all the powers and jurisdiction of a court of chancery by bill, injunction or otherwise, as the equity of the case may require. Sandford v. Railroad Company, 24 Pa. 378 (1855); Titusville Oil Exchange's Dissolution, 2 Pa. Super. 508 (1896); Sarver and Others' Appeal, 81* Pa. 183 (1874); Central Printing and Publishing House v. Gross, 38 Pa. C. C. 21 (1910); McDougall et al., Appellants, v. Huntingdon and Broad Top R. and C. Company, 294 Pa. 108 (1928); Schwab, Appellant, v. Miller et ux., 302 Pa. 507 (1931); First Regular Baptist Church v. Allison, 304 Pa. 1 (1931).

Also, the courts have held that the Act of April 9, 1856, P. L. 293, 15 PS Sec. 501, which is restated in Article IX of this draft and which provides the procedure for the voluntary dissolution of corporations, must be understood as referring to the equity jurisdiction given to the courts of common pleas by the Act of June 16, 1836, P. L. 784. Titusville Oil Exchange's Dissolution, 2 Pa. Super. 508 (1896); Commonwealth v. Exchange Operators, Inc., 32 Dau. 59 (1928).

In view of the foregoing, it is deemed advisable to include the proposed section in this draft.

Section 9. Severable Clause.—The provisions of this act are severable, and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional, the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein.

Section 10. Construction of References.—Whenever in this act reference is made to any act by title or otherwise, such reference shall be construed to apply to and include any codification wherein the provisions of the act referred to are substantially re-enacted.

Section 11. Effect of Filing or Recording Papers Required to be Filed.—The filing or recording of the articles or amendments thereto, or of any other papers, pursuant to the provisions of this act, is required for the purpose of affording all persons the opportunity of acquiring knowledge of the contents thereof, but no person dealing with the corporation shall be charged with constructive notice of the contents of any such articles or papers by reason of such filing or recording.

Comments:

This section supplements Section 301 as an attempt to improve the state of law with regard to ultra vires transactions. These sections, dealing with the doctrine of constructive notice and the doctrine of limited capacity, would remove two of the causes of greatest confusion in ultra vires cases—the chief obstacles to uniform decisions. These obstacles spring from an interpretation of legislative intention, and can be removed only by legislation.

ARTICLE II

Formation of Nonprofit Corporations

Section 201. Purpose of Incorporation and Qualification of Incorporators.—Five or more natural persons[1] of full age[2] and of either sex, married or single,[3] at least three of whom are residents of the Commonwealth and citizens of the United States, its territories or possessions,[4] may form a domestic nonprofit corporation under the provisions of this act for any purpose or purposes which are lawful and not injurious to the community.[5]

California Nonprofit Corporation Act, Section 593.
Pennsylvania Corporation Act of 1874, Section 1, 15 PS Sec. 1.

Comments:

1. Under the provision of the Corporation Act of 1874 that "five or more persons" may form a corporation, the term "person" has been construed to mean only a natural person. Board of Real Estate Brokers, 21 D. R. 59 (1911); In re The Decorative Trades Association of Philadelphia, 18 D. R. 180 (1909). This qualification is contained in the Uniform Business Corporation Act. A note to the Uniform Business Corporation Act points out that the statutes of Alaska, Louisiana, New Jersey, New Mexico, and New York, require incorporators to be natural persons, and that the thirteen states requiring incorporators to be of full age or adults impliedly exclude a corporation as an incorporator.

2. Under our case law, incorporators must be of full age. Lady Foresters of America, 18 D. R. 780 (1909). This qualification is also contained in the Uniform Business Corporation Act.

3. Formerly a married woman could not be an incorporator—Potter Gas Company, 15 Pa. C. C. 347 (1883)—but the right of a married woman to act as an incorporator is now expressly given by the Act of April 18, 1919, P. L. 67. See also Act of April 9, 1879, P. L. 16.

4. It has been held that a majority, at least, of the subscribers to a proposed corporation of the first class should be citizens of the United States. Chinese Club, 1 D. R. 84 (1891); Charter of the Saint Ladislaus Roman Catholic Sick and Beneficial Association of Johnstown, 19 Pa. C. C. 25 (1897); In re Regina Elina, 14 D. R. 476 (1905). However, in Mount Sharon Cemetery Company, 3 D. & C. 179 (1922), it was held unnecessary to state that the petitioners were citizens of the United States.

5. This section changes existing law, as set forth in the Corporation Act of 1874. Under that act corporations of the first class may be formed for any one of fifteen specified purposes. Accordingly, that act hampered the creation of useful corporations of the first class, because the purpose could not be brought within the enumerations of the act. Also, the courts ruled that the purpose must be a single one. In re Master Builder's Exchange of Norristown, 12 D. R. 670 (1903).

The only limitations that this draft places upon domestic nonprofit corporations are that such corporations shall be formed for a purpose or purposes which are lawful and not injurious to the community, and that they shall not involve pecuniary gain or profit to their members. Singleness of purpose is not required. It is submitted that the proposed section is more in conformity with present and future needs.

This section will also change existing law, in that charters of exhibition companies (15 PS Secs. 1221-1225) and corporations for the preservation of game and fish (15 PS Secs. 1261-1263), which are now chartered by the Governor, will be chartered by the courts. For the purpose of uniformity, if nothing else, all corporations not for profit should be chartered by the courts.

Section 202. The Corporate Name.—A. The corporate name may be in any language, but must be expressed in English letters or characters.[1] The corporate name shall not imply that the corporation is and administrative agency of the Commonwealth or is subject to the supervision of the Department of Banking or of the Insurance Department, and shall not contain the word or phrase "bank," "banking," "banker," "savings," "trust," "deposit," "insurance," "mutual," "assurance," "indemnity," "building and loan," "surety," "security," "guaranty," "guarantee," "co-operative," "State" or "Commonwealth."[2]

B. The corporate name shall not be the same as or deceptively similar to the name of any other domestic corporation whatsoever, or of any foreign corporation authorized to do business in this Commonwealth, or of any unincorporated body whatsoever registered with the Department of State, under this or any other Act of Assembly,[3] or the name of any administrative department, board, commission or agency of the Commonwealth.[4]

C. Nothing in this act shall abrogate or limit the law as to unfair competition or unfair practices, nor derogate from the common law, the principles of equity, or the statutes of this Commonwealth with respect to the right to acquire and protect trade names.[5]

D. The assumption of a name in violation of this section shall not vitiate or otherwise affect the corporate existence, but the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County may, upon the application of the Attorney General, acting on his own motion or at the instance of any administrative department, board, or commission of the Commonwealth, and the court of common pleas of any county may, upon the application of any person, unincorporated association, or corporation adversely affected, enjoin the corporation from using or continuing to use a name assumed in violation of this section.[6]

Reference:

Uniform Business Corporation Act, Section 4 (VI).

Comments:

1. In Deutsch-Amerikanischer Volksfest-Verein, 200 Pa. 143 (1901), it was held that the corporate name may be expressed in a foreign language. Since the articles are required to be in the English language, the proposed section requires the foreign name to be expressed in English characters or letters, and, in this respect, follows the Uniform Business Corporation Act.

2. This provision is new to Pennsylvania law. The purpose of this provision is to supplement Section 4 of this act and prevent the use by corporations organized under this act of names suitable only for corporations which must be organized under other statutes. The Uniform Business Corporation Act contains a similar provision. Many states have provisions similar to that contained in this paragraph.

3. The Act of May 16, 1923, P. L. 246, requires corporations and unincorporated associations, societies, fraternal orders, etc., to register their names with the Secretary of the Commonwealth. It is proposed to repeal this act in so far as it applies to corporations, and to include its provisions in the proposed act. The appropriate provisions will be found in Paragraph B, supra, and Section 204, post. The proposed Business Corporation Law contains a similar requirement for corporations for profit.

4. The Act of May 18, 1917, P. L. 257, forbids any corporation not for profit to assume a name similar to the name of any administrative department, board, commission or agency of the Commonwealth.

5. This provision is taken from the Uniform Business Corporation Act. As pointed out in a note to that act, this provision seems desirable to prevent the provisions of the proposed section from being construed as excluding rights and limitations under existing law.

6. This provision is taken from the Uniform Business Corporation Act, Section 4 (VIII). A note to that act states that "the object of this paragraph is to prevent the unlawful assumption of a corporate name from being considered as a defect in incorporation. The remedy is to enjoin a validly incorporated company from the use of an improper name. The statutes of Massachusetts and Vermont have similar provisions as to the use of the injunction."

Section 203. Articles of Incorporation.—Articles shall be signed in duplicate originals[1] by each of the incorporators, and acknowledged by at least three of them before any officer within this Commonwealth authorized to take acknowledgments,[2] and shall set forth, in the English language:

(1) The name of the proposed corporation.

(2) A precise and accurate statement of the purpose or purposes for which it is to be formed, and that it is a corporation which does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit, incidental or otherwise, to its members.[3]

(3) The location and post office address of its registered office in this Commonwealth.[4]

(4) The term for which it is to exist.[5]

(5) The name and post office address of each incorporator.

(6) The names and addresses of three or more persons who are to act as directors until the election of their successors, and who may be given such titles as may be deemed appropriate, but who shall be subject to all of the provisions of this act relating to directors. The number of persons so named shall constitute the number of directors of the corporation until changed by a by-law adopted pursuant to authority contained in the articles.

(7) A statement of the means to be adopted for the accomplishment of the corporate purpose or purposes.[6]

(8) The terms of the general scheme of financing such corporation, including the amount of capital stock, if any, and the number and par value or shares into which it is divided.[7]

(9) The amount of assets, classified as to real and personal property, which the corporation will have to start its corporate functions. If the corporation is authorized to issue capital stock, the amount of the capital stock which has been paid in cash to the treasurer of the intended corporation, and the name and residence of the treasurer.[8]

(10) The body which is to adopt the by-laws, and the manner in which they are to be adopted.[9]

(11) Any lawful provision desired for the regulation of the affairs of the corporation, including restrictions upon the power to amend all or any part of the articles.

The authorized number and qualifications of its members, the different classes of membership, if any, the property, voting and other rights and privileges of each class of membership, and the liability of each or all classes to dues or assessments, and the method of collection thereof, may be set forth either in the articles or in the by-laws.[10]

California Nonprofit Corporation Act, Section 595.

Pennsylvania Corporation Act of 1874, Section 3, as amended by the Act of April 22, 1927, P. L. 353, 15 PS Sec. 21.

Comments:

1. In Mount Sharon Cemetery Company, 16 Del. 182 (1922); 3 D. & C. 179 (1922), the court held that in applications for charters for corporations of the first class there should be filed, to remain upon the record, a signed copy of the petition and articles of incorporation and of the decree, so that the records of the court will be complete in themselves. In Perry Council v. Robinson, 1 D. & C. 242 (1921), it was held that the Act of 1874 does not make the charter a part of the record of the court, and, therefore, it should be returned to the corporation after it has been approved by the court and recorded by the recorder of deeds.

This draft requires the incorporators to prepare the articles in duplicate originals in order to provide one set of articles for the court record and the other set for the corporation.

2. Formerly a certificate of incorporation was required to be acknowledged before the recorder of deeds of the proper county, but by the Act of April 7, 1925, P. L. 183, such certificates or any amendments thereof may also be acknowledged and sworn to before a notary public, or a justice of the peace of the Commonwealth. The proposed section contemplates recorders of deeds, justices of the peace and notaries public, by authorizing the articles to be acknowledged before any officer within the Commonwealth authorized to take acknowledgments.

3. Since Section 201 provides that a nonprofit corporation may be formed for any purpose or purposes which are lawful and not injurious to the community, instead of enumerating the specific purposes for which such corporations may be formed, it becomes very important that the articles set forth very clearly the purpose or purposes for which the corporation is formed.

4. In Hempstead, et al. v. Meadville Theological School, et al., 284 Pa. 147 (1925), it was held that the word "business," as used in the provision of the Act of 1874 requiring applications for charters for corporations to state "The place or places where its business is to be transacted," means the place or places where the corporate functions are to be performed (corporate elections, meetings, etc.), and has no relation to the place or places where the employes of the corporation perform the work assigned to them. This draft makes no change in this particular. See definition of "Registered Office."

5. See Section 6 and Note No. 1 thereunder.

6. The courts have held that the means to be adopted for the accomplishment of the corporate purpose should be set forth, to enable the courts to pass intelligently upon the question whether the purpose is lawful and not injurious to the community. The German General Beneficial Association of Philadelphia, 30 Pa. 155 (1858); Young Men's Republican Club, 12 D. R. 584 (1903); Casoli Mutual Relief Society of Philadelphia, 19 D. R. 543 (1910). The Corporation Act of 1874 is silent on this point. This draft embodies the judicial requirement.

7. It is submitted that it is necessary for the courts to be fully acquainted with the terms of the general scheme of financing a proposed corporation in order to pass intelligently upon the petition. In In Re Real Estate Board of Brokers, 3 Berks 374 (1911), the court refused to grant a charter where the certificate failed to indicate any manner in which the funds presumptively needed for a corporate function sought to be acquired were to be raised.

The provision relating to capital stock is a reenactment of existing law. See 15 PS Sec. 21.

8. While Section 3 of the Corporation Act of 1874 requires ten per cent. of the capital stock to be paid in the case of corporations of the second class, there is no statutory provision requiring corporations of the first class to have any money paid into the treasury at the time of their incorporation. The courts, however, have held that there should be a reasonable payment into the treasury. See Hall Association of Washington Camp, 10 D. R. 621 (1901). This draft does not require a specified amount to be paid into the treasury, but it does by implication, require some amount.

9. In Italian Mutual Beneficial Associations, 4 D. R. 357 (1895), it was held that the charter should show how and by what body by-laws are to be instituted. This provision appears to be proper in the articles, inasmuch as the articles constitute the organic law of the corporation.

10. Some of our courts take the position that such provisions should be included in the articles, while others hold that such provisions are for the by-laws. See Savidge on Pa. Corps., Volume 1, Section 49, Page 66. This draft makes this matter flexible, in order to permit certain types of corporations to include such provisions in their articles, and vice versa.

In General. This section requires information to be set forth in the articles which is deemed necessary in the case of a corporation not for profit. It is submitted that the articles should contain only organic provisions. Administrative provisions should be covered by the by-laws, which may be changed without resort to the court. In the past, it has been the practice to include many administrative features in the articles. To facilitate a change of such features without resort to the court, the Act of April 26, 1921, P. L. 293 (No. 151), was passed to permit corporations of the first class to alter or change administrative provisions in their charters by a by-law. This practice does not appear to be desirable, in that it permits a corporation to make changes in its organic law without the consent of the court which approved the organic law. The Act of 1921 was not included in this draft in order (1) to create an incentive for the elimination of administrative details from the articles; and (2) to prohibit a change being made in the articles without the consent of the court.

This section does not require the articles to state the maximum yearly income which a nonprofit corporation may derive from sources other than real estate. The Act of February 20, 1854, P. L. 90, 15 PS Sec. 22, provides, among other things, that: "It shall be the duty of the court in granting a charter of incorporation for any purpose, to limit the yearly income of such corporation, other than from real estate, to such sum as in the opinion of the court will not be injurious or prejudicial to the community."

In Middletown Country Club, 30 Pa. C. C. 174 (1904), it was decided that the better practice is to set forth in the articles of incorporation the limit of such income, instead of having the court fix the limit in the decree of approval, as this practice affords an opportunity for exception and hearing, if desired.

The Act of 1854 has been superseded to a large extent by recent legislation. Under existing law, any literary, scientific, educational, religious, charitable, benevolent, or beneficial corporation has the right to hold real and personal estate having an aggregate income of $350,000 a year (Act of March 13, 1929, P. L. 21), and may obtain permission from the court of common pleas to hold real and personal estate having a clear annual income in excess of $350,000 (Act of April 18, 1929, P. L. 539). All other corporations not for profit are authorized to hold real estate having a clear yearly income value of $50,000 (Corporation Act of 1874, Section 2; Act of May 15, 1913, P. L. 214), and the income that such corporations may receive from sources other than real estate is fixed by the court (Act of 1854 supra). This draft places no limitation upon the income which nonprofit corporations may receive from real estate or from other sources (see Sections 302 (4) and 306).

Section 204. Registration of Corporate Name.—The incorporators shall make application to the Department of State for the registration of the proposed corporate name. The application shall set forth the name which the incorporators desire to use and the address of the proposed registered office of the corporation.[1] If the proposed name is not the same as or does not appear to be deceptively similar to any name theretofore registered with the Department of State, under this or any other Act of Assembly, the department shall issue to the incorporators a certificate that the proposed name has been duly registered and that such name does not conflict with any registered name. If the proposed name appears to be deceptively similar to any registered name or names, the department shall issue to the incorporators a certificate that the proposed name appears to be deceptively similar to such registered name or names, which shall be set forth in full in the certificate.[2] If the proposed name is the same as a registered name, the department shall refuse to register such name and shall forthwith notify the incorporators of this fact.[3] Upon application of any party interested, either for or against the granting of the proposed charter, the department shall include in any certificate issued by it under this section any information desired as to the names registered with the department. The Department of State shall keep a properly indexed record of the registrations and cancellations of registrations provided for in this act.

Comments:

1. The Act of 1923 requires the registration of names of corporations of the first class, unincorporated associations, societies, orders, etc. The proposed section incorporates the provisions of the Act of 1923 pertaining to corporations of the first class. It is proposed to repeal the Act of 1923, in so far as it pertains to corporations.

The Act of 1923 provides that "Each applicant for registration shall state, under oath, the name and address of the registrant, and the name, title, or designation to be registered, the length of time, if any, during which the said name, title, or designation has been used by such applicant or applicants." The italicized portion applies only to corporations existing prior to the adoption of the Act of 1923, and is omitted from this draft. Also, this draft, unlike the Act of 1923, does not require the application for registration to be under oath, as there does not seem to be any necessity for the oath.

2. The Act of 1923 provides in this respect that such a certificate shall state "that the name of the proposed corporation does appear to conflict with any such name, * * * in which * * * case the certificate shall state the name or names * * *." Section 207 of this draft directs the court to determine whether or not such a conflict exists.

3. This portion of the section is merely a restatement of existing practice. If the application for the registration of a name sets forth a name the same as a registered name, the Department of State notifies the applicants by letter of this fact. If the applicants do not desire to submit another name, the Department of State returns the registration fee.

Section 205. Articles and Certificate to be Filed with the Prothonotary.—A copy of the articles, together with the certificate from the Department of State relating to the registration of the proposed corporate name, shall be filed by the incorporators in the office of the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the county wherein the registered office of the proposed corporation is to be located. The articles and the certificate shall remain on file in the office of the prothonotary at least three days prior to the day the application for a charter will be made to the court, as hereinafter provided, and shall be open to the inspection of the public during the business hours of such office.

Comments:

There is no requirement in the Corporation Act of 1874 that a proposed charter of a corporation of the first class be filed in the prothonotary's office, but in actual practice it is customary to do so, in order to afford the public a full opportunity for examination before action is taken by the court. The courts have ruled that if the charter is not filed in the prothonotary's office, the public should be given an opportunity to examine the charter before action is taken by the court. St. John's Beneficial Union, 20 D. R. 503 (1911); In re Regina Elina, 14 D. R. 476 (1905). Also, the Corporation Act of 1874 does not require the proposed charter to be open to the inspection of the public, but the provision requiring advertisement shows that such was the intention of the Legislature. In re Charter of the Church of The Holy Communion, 14 Phila. 121 (1880).

This section requires only one set of the articles to be filed with the prothonotary. Section 207, however, requires both sets of the articles to be presented to the court.

Section 206. Advertisement.—The incorporators shall advertise their intention to apply for a charter one time in two newspapers published in the English language,[1] one of which shall be a newspaper of general circulation, and the other the legal newspaper, if any, designated by the rules of court for the publication of legal notices; otherwise, in two newspapers of general circulation printed in the county in which the initial registered office of the corporation is to be located.[2] Where there is but one newspaper of general circulation published in any county, advertisement in such newspaper shall be sufficient. Advertisements shall appear at least three days prior to the day fixed for the presentation of the application to the court, and shall set forth, briefly:

(1) The name of the proposed corporation.

(2) A statement that the application is made under the provisions of this act.

(3) The character and purpose or purposes of the proposed corporation.

(4) A statement that the articles have been filed in the office of the prothonotary, and the time when the application will be made to the court.[3]

Comments:

1. The requirement that the newspapers must be published in the English language is not contained in the Corporation Act of 1874. In Chartiers Ferry Company, 2 Chester 91 (1875), it was ruled by the Department of Justice that advertisement in a newspaper printed in the German language was unauthorized and invalid. Also, in Charter Notices, 17 Pa. C. C. 169, 4 Dist. 771 (1895), it was ruled by the Department of Justice that an act requiring all legal notices in cities of the first and second class to be inserted in a daily newspaper published in the German language did not apply to charter advertisements. See also In re The Church Club of Philadelphia, 37 W. N. C. 47 (1895). The proposed section makes it clear that the advertisement of an intention to apply for a charter must appear in newspapers published in the English language.

2. The Corporation Act of 1874 provides that the advertisement shall be made in papers "printed in the proper county." To say the least, this expression is indefinite. In Chartiers Ferry Company (Attorney General's Opinion), 2 Chester 91 (1875), it was ruled that the term "proper county" referred to the county or counties in which the corporation was expressly authorized to exercise its powers and privileges. The proposed section requires the advertisement to be made in the county in which the initial registered office of the corporation is to be located.

3. The Corporation Act of 1874 provides that the advertisement "shall set forth briefly, the character and object of the proposed corporation to be formed, and the intention to make application therefor." This portion of the draft is a restatement of the above provision of the Corporation Act of 1874.

Section 207. Court to Decree or Refuse Incorporation.—On the day specified in the advertisement,[1] the incorporators shall make an application for a charter to the court, and shall present to the court duplicate originals of the articles, proof of the advertisement required by the preceding section, and the certificate of the Department of State pertaining to the registration of the corporate name. The court shall consider the application. It may hear evidence on behalf of the applicants and against the application, if any there be, or it may refer the application to a master to make report as to the propriety of granting the application. In such case, upon the filing of the master's report, the court shall grant the applicants and protestants a hearing, if either of them files exceptions.[2] If the certificate from the Department of State sets forth that the name of the proposed corporation appears to be deceptively similar to any designated registered name, the court shall determine whether or not the use of the proposed name is likely to result in or cause confusion or injury to the owner of the registered name, or to the public in general.[3] If the court shall find the articles to be in proper form and within the provisions of this act, the purpose or purposes given in the articles to be lawful and not injurious to the community, and the name of the proposed corporation not to be so deceptively similar to any registered name as to result in confusion or injury, as aforesaid, the court shall so certify on each set of the articles and shall order and decree thereon that the articles are approved and that, upon the recording of the articles and the order, the corporation shall come into existence for the purpose or purposes and upon the terms stated therein; otherwise, the court shall refuse the application for a charter.

Comments:

1. In In re Mt. Penn Fire Company, 14 D. R. 873 (1905), it was held that failure to present the application on the day specified in the advertisement raised no bar to granting the charter on presentation thereafter, where the delay was not so great as to suggest bad faith or raise an implication of abandonment or likely to have permitted circumstances to intervene rendering incorporation objectionable. It is submitted that the application should be made on the day specified in the advertisement, otherwise the purpose of the advertisement is defeated, in that protestants may lose their day in court.

2. The Act of 1874 makes no provision for protestants to the application to be heard by the court or for the appointment of a master. It is submitted that the act should cover fully the procedure to be followed in incorporation proceedings. Therefore, this portion of the draft states briefly the procedure followed in actual practice.

3. This provision is taken from the Act of May 16, 1923, P. L. 246, 15 PS Sec. 444, relating to the registration of corporate names, except that the proposed language is more specific as to the duty of the court.

In General: The proposed section is practically a reenactment of existing law.

Section 208. Recording of Articles a Condition Precedent to Corporate Existence.—After the court shall have endorsed the articles, as required by the preceding section, the prothonotary shall retain one copy of the original articles as part of the court record[1] and shall transmit the other copy to the office of the recorder of deeds of the county, where they shall be recorded.[2] Upon the recording of the articles, the corporate existence shall begin, and thenceforth the incorporators, their associates and successors, shall be a corporation.[3] The articles, upon being recorded, shall constitute the charter of the corporation, and shall be returned to the incorporators.[4] Certified copies of the articles so recorded shall be competent evidence for all purposes in the courts of this Commonwealth. No corporation formed under this act shall incur any debts or begin the transaction of any business, except such as is incidental to its organization or to the obtaining of subscriptions to membership, until its articles have been recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds.[5] If the corporation has transacted any business in violation of this section, the officers who participated therein and the directors, except those who dissented therefrom and caused their dissent to be filed at the time in the proposed registered office of the corporation, or who, being absent, so filed their dissent upon learning of the action, shall be severally liable for the debts or liabilities of the corporation arising therefrom.[6]
